BRADLEY MEETING HOUSE

Source: "A Past to Preserve" by Prince William County Historical Commission
Historic Name: Old Bradley Meeting Hall
Original Use: Church
Vicinity: Brentsville

  Resting on a red, sandstone foundation, this small, one-story, frame-built church is covered with weatherboards. Stylistic features include plain box trim, gabled returns, a box cornice, and double cornerboards. In 1899 Thomas and Martha Jones donated this parcel of land to the trustees of the Church of the Brethren, also known as the German Baptist Brethren Church. Bradley Meeting Hall was completed in 1901, and meetings were held there for many years. Even after the property was sold in 1946, it has continued to be used for religious purposes.
