

Alexandria Gazette 8 Dec 1817

LAND FOR SALE – A Tract of Land, containing 400 acres; the Farm on which I live, in the county of Prince William, known by the name of WALNUT FARM, adjoining the Thoroughfare Mills. One fourth of the land is heavily timbered, the residue is in clover and meadow, the buildings are good, a very fine apple orchard, a good garden with every kind of shrub and fruit. It is useless to give a further description of this land, as no one will purchase without viewing it.

W. J. Washington
November 26, 1817

Alexandria Gazette 21 Dec 1866

By virtue of a Deed of Trust from Oliver P. Chappel and wife, dated on the 16th day of October, 1865, and duly recorded in the Clerk's Office of the County Court of Prince William County, Va., the undersigned as trustees, in said deed named, will sell at public auction at Brentsville, Prince William County, Va., in front of the Court House on Monday, the 7th day of January, 1867, (that being the first day of the county court of said county) at 12 o'clock M., all that tract of land, situated about two miles east of Brentsville, which was conveyed to the said Oliver P. Chappel by Richard Windsor and wife; the same being a portion of the property known as "WALNUT HILL," and containing THREE HUNDRED ACRES of land, and a good orchard. The land is said to be well timbered. Terms Cash, Westel Willoughby, Albert Stuart, Trustees