

Source - "Prince William: A Past to Preserve" by the Prince William County Historical Commission

Historic Name: A. L. Harris House

Date or Period: Late ca. 1890

Original Use: Residence

Vicinity: Occoquan

This two-story, three-bay, I-plan, frame house has an asphalt-shingled, gabled roof pierced by two brick, interior, stove-flue chimneys, one at either end. The exterior is clad with weatherboard siding, and there are two additions to the rear of the original structure. On the south end is a one-story, hip-roofed, enclosed porch. This house has been owned by the Harris family for many years.