

Prince William County Virginia

Bond Book 1732 - 1847

Copyright 2007
Ronald Ray Turner
6352 Avington Place
Gainesville, VA 20155

Printed in the United States of America

March 21st 1732 (D-B1-7)

Know all men by these presents that I Francis Awbrey of the Parish of Truro in the County of Prince William Gent. held and firmly bound unto John Tayloe of the Parish of Lunenburg in the County of Richmond Esq. in the sum of five hundred pounds of lawful money of Great Britain to be paid to the said John Tayloe or his certain attorney executors and administrators. To which payment well and truly to be made I bind my self my heirs executors and administrators firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal and dated the twenty-first day of March in the Sixth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord King George the Second &c. A.D. 1732.

The condition of this obligation is such that if the above bound Francis Awbrey his heirs executors and administrators do and shall for his and their parts and behalves from time to time and at all times hereafter well and truly observe perform fulfill and keep all and singular the covenants grants articles conditions and agreements which on his and their parts are or ought to be observed performed fulfilled and kept, mentioned, comprised and contained in a certain indenture of release bearing even date with these presents and made or meant to be made between the said Francis Awbrey of the one part and the said John Tayloe of the other part purporting to be a conveyance from the said Francis Awbrey to the said John Tayloe of two certain tracts of land containing four thousand seven hundred acres in all things according to the true intent and meaning of the said indenture and also that cause his the said Francis Awbrey's wife in a legal manner to release her right of dower in the aforesaid two tracts of land. Then this obligation to be void, otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue.

Francis Awbrey SEAL

Sealed and delivered in the presence of us

M. Battaley, John Diskin, John Honeye

At a court held for Prince William County the twenty-first day of March 1732. Francis Awbrey acknowledged this bond to John Tayloe Esq. which his motion was admitted to record.

Teste - Catesby Cocke

April 5th 1733 (D-B1-00)

Know all men by these presents that I John Gosling of the Parish of Hamilton in the County of Prince William planter am held and firmly bound unto John Tayloe of the Parish of Lunenburg in the County of Richmond Esq. in forty pounds sterling money of Great Britain to be paid to the said John Tayloe or his certain attorney executors and administrators. To which payment well and truly to be made I bind my self my heirs executors and administrators firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal and dated the fifth day of April in the Sixth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord King George the Second &c. A.D. 1733.

The condition of this obligation is such that if the above bound John Gosling his heirs executors and administrators do and shall for his and their parts and behalf's from time to time and at all times hereafter well and truly observe perform fulfill and keep all and singular the covenants grants articles conditions and agreements which on his and their parts are or ought to be observed performed fulfilled and kept, mentioned, comprised and contained in a certain indenture of release bearing even date with these presents and made or meant to be made between the said John Gosling of the one part and the said John Tayloe of the other part purporting to be a conveyance from the said John Gosling to the said John Tayloe of a piece or parcel of land within the description of a certain bounds in the said release mentioned estimated at two hundred acres more or less in all things according to the true intent and meaning of the said indenture. Then this obligation to be void, otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue.

John Gosling SEAL

Sealed and delivered in the presence of us

T. Osborn

Wm. Brochenbrough

At a court held for Prince William County the eighteenth day of April 1733. John Gosling acknowledged this bond to John Tayloe Esq. which his motion was admitted to record.

Teste Catesby Cocke c.c.

April 19th 1733 (D-B1-00)

Know all men by these presents that I John Brett of Prince William County and Truro Parish and Colony of Virginia am firmly bound and stand trusty indebted to Thomas Halley of the same place in the full and just sum of thirty pounds sterling money of Great Britain to be paid to the said Thomas Halley, his heirs executors administrators or assigns to which payment well and truly to be made I bind my self my heirs executors and administrators in the whole and for the whole firmly by these presence as witness my hand and seal this thirteenth day of April 1733.

The condition of this obligation is such that if the above bound John Brett his heirs executors and administrators doth let the said Thomas Halley his heirs executors administrators or assigns have full peaceable and quiet possession of a certain mill sold by the said Brett to the said Halley situate lying and being on the north side of homes his Run and further hereafter if any council learned in the law hereafter finds any defects in a deed bearing date equal with these presents delivered by the said John Brett to the said Thomas Halley him the said Brett and his heirs executors administrators always to be ready to strengthen and confirm the same then this obligation to be void and of no effects otherwise to stand and Signed, Sealed and delivered in the presence of us.

James Turley

David Davies

At a court held for Prince William County the eighteenth day of April 1733. John Gosling acknowledged this bond to John Tayloe Esq. which his motion was admitted to record.

Teste Catesby Cocke

May 16th 1733 (D-B1-40)

Know all men by these presents that we Thomas Harrison Jun., Thomas Harrison, and John Farrow all of the County of Prince William Gent. are held and firmly bound unto our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Second by the Grace of God of Great Brittain France and Ireland, King Defender of the Faith &c. in the sum of One Thousand Pounds Sterling Money of Great Brittain. To be paid to our said Lord the King his heirs and successors to the which pay--- well and truly to be made we bind our selves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators for the whole and in the whole jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated the sixteenth day of May in the year of our Lord God One thousand seven hundred and thirty three.

The Condition of the above Obligation is such that whereas the above bound Thomas Harrison Jun. hath this day produced in the County Court of Prince William a commission from the Honorable William Gooch Esq. his Majesties suit Governour and Commander in Chief of this Colony and Dominion of Virginia bearing date the nineteenth day of April last past. Constituting and appointing the said Thomas Harrison jun. Sheriff of the said County of Prince William. Now the said Thomas Harrison Jun. do and shall in all matters and things whatsoever relating to his said office of Sheriff well and truly behave himself and do and shall truly and faithfully perform the said office in all things. Then the above obligation to be void otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue. Sealed and delivered in the presence of Catesby Cocke

Thomas Harrison SEAL
John Farrow SEAL

July 17th 1733 (D-B1-68)

Know all men by these presents that I John Dawkins of the County of Prince William planter am held and firmly bound unto Richard Blackburn of the same county Carpenter in the sum of five hundred pounds sterling to be paid to the said Richard Blackburn of his certain attorney executors administrators or assigns to which payment well and truly I bind my self my heirs executors administrators for the whole and in the whole firmly and by these presents. Sealed with my seal this seventeenth day of July one thousand seven hundred and thirty three.

The Condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound John Dawkins do well and truly observe perform fulfill accomplish a---- all and singular the covenants grants articles clauses conditions aments whatsoever each on his part or behalf are or ought to be observed formed fulfilled and kept mentioned and comprised in a certain deed ____ bearing equal date with these presents made between the said _____. Then the above obligation to be void otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue. Sealed and delivered in the presence of Thomas Porter, Nathaniel Hedgeman and John Diskin

John Dawkins planter acknowledged this bond for performance of covenants to Richard Blackburn carpenter which on his motion is admitted to record.

Test. Catesby Cocke C.C.

September 19th 1733 (D-B1-132)

Know all men by these presents that I Thomas Owsley of the County of Stafford am held and firmly bound unto James Whaley of the County of Westmoreland in the full and just sum of one hundred pounds sterling to be paid to the said James Whaley his lawful attorney, his executors, administrators or assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made I bind my self my heirs executors administrators jointly & severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal this 22nd day of April one thousand seven hundred and Twenty Eight

The Condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Thomas Owsley, his heirs &c. I shall at any time hereafter or make do perform & execute or cause to be made done performed & executed sufficient deed or deeds of the conveying and sure making a certain parcel or tract of land situate lying and being in the County of Stafford aforesaid & on a run commonly called & known by the name of Accotick Run together with a mill thereon erected ___ ___ of land is to contain two hundred acres, fifty acres whereof is to __ on the South Side of the said Run aforesaid & well & truly acknowledged or cause to be acknowledged the deed aforesaid in the court of the county of Stafford aforesaid unto him the said James Whaley his heirs &c. that then the above obligation to be void & of none effect otherwise to stand and remain in full force and virtue.

T. Owsley SEAL

Signed, Sealed and Delivered in the presence of Denis McCarty & Edward Barry

Memo: That if the land within mentioned doth not include the mill. That then the within mentioned Thomas Owsley is to allow the within named Thomas Whaley his heirs &c. one acre of land together with the within mentioned. At a court held for Prince William County the 19th day of September 1733. This bond from Thomas Owsley to James Whaley was proved by the oaths of the witness thereto and on the motion of T—Thuman atty for the said Whaley is admitted to record.

Teste – Catesby Cocke C.C.

April 15th 1732 (D-B1-144)

Know all men by these presents that we Thomas Baxter and Elizabeth his wife of Westmoreland County are held and firmly bound unto Jos. Waugh and William or the heirs of said Millan his wife of Stafford County in full and just sum of two hundred and fifty pounds current money of Virginia to the which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves our heirs and either of our heirs executors administrators and assigns firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated this fifteenth day of April 1732.

The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas the above named Joseph Waugh and Millan his wife have executed leases to you said James Baxter & Elizabeth his wife for a certain tract of land situate lying and being in the County of Prince William on Occoquan River which the said James Baxter & Elizabeth his wife doth oblige themselves not to dispose of the said lease to any person or persons whatever nor to lett to any tenants on the said premises unless it be a--- man who shall not make use of any part of the said land or timber in witness whereof the parties to these presents have hereunto set there hands and seals in presence of

John Waugh
Henry Orear
John Underwood
John (his mark) Bourne

James Baxter (SEAL)
Elizabeth Baxter (SEAL)

In a Court held for Prince William County the seventeenth day of October 1733 James Baxter and Elizabeth his wife acknowledged this bond for Joseph Waugh and Millan his wife which on their motion is admitted to record.

Teste – Catesby Cocke

October 16th 1733 (D-B1-148)

Know all men by these presents that I John Diskin of the Parish of Hamilton in the County of Prince William planter, bound to Richard Blackburn of the Parish and County aforesaid carpenter in the full and just sum of two hundred pounds current money of Virginia to be paid to the said Richard Blackburn or his certain attorney, executors or administrators to which payment well and truly to be made I bind myself my heirs executors & administrators firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal and dated the sixteenth day of October in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred & Thirty Three.

The Condition of this obligation is such whereas the above bound John Diskin hath granted bargained sold & conveyed unto the aforesaid Richard Blackburn that tract or parcel of land & plantation whereon the said John Diskin now lives situate lying and being in Hamilton Parish in the County of Prince William and upon Neapsco Creek containing by estimation two hundred & one acres be the same more or less by deed of lease and release the lease bearing date the fifteenth day of this instant and the releases of equal date with these presents. Now if any person whatsoever shall at any time hereafter recover all or any part of the said land granted and sold as aforesaid of and from the said Richard Blackburn by means of the said John Diskin not having a good and sufficient title thereto. Then if the said John Diskin not having a good and sufficient title thereto then if the said John Diskin his heirs executors or administrators shall satisfy and pay unto the Richard Blackburn his heirs, executors administrators or assigns the full value of such land so taken away together with the improvements and buildings thereon as the same shall be valued by two honest and knowing men indifferently chosen one by each party and shall also from time to time and at all times for ever hereafter well and truly observe perform and fulfill and keep all singular the covenants grants articles provides conditions and arguments which on his and their parts and behalf are or ought to be observed performed fulfilled and kept mentioned comprised and contained in the lease and release aforementioned and made or mentioned to be made between the said John Diskin of the one part and the said Richard Blackburn of the other part for the conveying the said two hundred and one acres of land according to the true intent and meaning of the said Indenture also if Elizabeth Diskin shall not claim any right of Dower or Thirds of in and to the said land or any part thereof then this obligation to be void otherwise to be and remain in full force power and virtue.

John Diskin (SEAL)

Signed Sealed and Delivered in the presence of us:

Scarlet Hancock
John Dawkin
John Chilton

At a Court held for Prince William County the Seventeenth Day of October 1733. John Diskin planter, Acknowledged this bond to Richard Blackburn carpenter which on his motion is admitted to record.

Teste – Catesby Cocke

October 16th 1733 (D-B1)

Know all men by these presents that I James Morris of the Parish of Ware in the County of Gloucester am held & firmly bound unto John Gregg and Richard Blackburn both of the Parish of Hamilton in the County of Prince William in the full and just sum of sixty pounds current money of Virginia to be paid to the said John Gregg & Richard Blackburn or their certain attorney, executors or administrators to which payment well and truly to be made I bind myself my heirs executors & administrators firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal and dated the seventeenth day of October in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred & Thirty Three.

The Condition of this obligation is such whereas the above bound James Morris hath granted bargained sold & conveyed unto the aforesaid John Gregg and Richard Blackburn a tract or parcel of land situate lying and being in Hamilton Parish in the County of Prince William and on Quantico Run and adjoining to the land of the Reverend Emanuel (Tones?) clerk formerly patented by John Beck & Richard & Hart of and containing twelve hundred and eighty acres be the same more or less by deed of lease and release the lease bearing date the sixteenth of this instant and release of equal value with these presents now if Elizabeth Morris the wife of the said James Morris do execute a sufficient power of attorney before three or more credible witnesses to same person in the County of Prince William who shall appear in her stead before the county court aforesaid the Justices then setting and then and there relinquish her right of Dower or Thirds of in and to the said lands then the above obligation to be void and of none effect else to remain in full force power and virtue.

James Morris (SEAL)

Signed Sealed and Delivered in the presence of us:

James Baxter
John Grant
John Waugh

At a Court held for Prince William County the Seventeenth Day of October 1733. James Morris of the County of Glochester in the Colony of Virginia acknowledged this bond to John Gregg & Richard Blackburn of which on his motion is admitted to record.

Teste – Catesby Cocke

October 11th 1733 (D-B1)

Know all men by these presents that I Daniel Chambers of Charles County in Maryland, Planter am held and firmly bound unto John Dagg of Stafford County Ships Carpenter in the full and just sum of one hundred pounds Sterling to be well and truly paid unto the said John Dagg or his certain attorney his executors administrators or assigns to the which payment well and truly to be made I bind and oblige my self my heirs executors and administrators and every of them firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal and dated the Eleventh Day of October Anno Dom: 1733.

The Condition of the above Obligation is that if the above bound Daniel Chambers his heirs executors administrators and every of them shall and will for his and their parts and all things well and truly observe perform fulfill accomplish and keep all and singular the covenants grants articles conditions and agreements whatsoever which on his and their parts are or ought to be well and truly performed fulfilled and kept and mentioned in certain deeds of lease and release the said lease beareth date the day before the date hereof and the release beareth the same date with these presents made or expressed to be made between the above bound Daniel Chambers of the one part and the above named John Dagg of the other part and that in and by all things according to the contents purpose true intent and meaning of the same deed without any deceit, then this obligation to be void otherwise to stand in full force.

Daniel Chambers SEAL

Sealed and delivered in the presence of us

T. Mercer
John Grant
M. Battaley
Cavan Dulany

At a court contained and held for Prince William County the twenty-third day of November 1733. This bond from Daniel Chambers of Charles County in Maryland to John Dagg of Stafford County Shipwright was proved by the oath of John Mercer, Cavan Dulaney and Mosley Battaley, witnesses thereto and admitted to record.

Teste Catesby Cocke c.c.

October 15th 1733 (D-B1-176)

Know all men by these presents that I James McDonnell of Hamilton Parish of County of Prince William am held and firmly bound unto Mark Hardin of the Parish and County aforesaid the just and full sum of one hundred pounds of current money of Great Brittain To which payment well and truly to be made I bind my self my heirs executors and administrators firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal and dated the fifteenth day of October 1733.

The Condition of this obligation is such that if the above bounden James McDonnell duly observed performs fulfills accomplishes & keeps all and singular the articles clauses conditions and agreements which and ought to be observed performed fulfilled and accomplished and kept, comprised and mentioned in one pair of Indentures bearing equal date with these presents and made between the above bounded of the one part and the above mentioned of the other part according to the purport true intent and meaning of the said Indentures & Martha wife of the above bounden do relinquish her right of Dower off in and to the said bargained lands to be and remain of full force power and virtue in law.

James McDonnell SEAL

Sealed and delivered in the presence of us

Charles Morgan
Thomas (his mark) Welsh

At a court continued and held for Prince William County the twenty-third day of November 1733. James McDonnell of the Parrish of Hamilton and Prince William County acknowledged this bond to Mark Hardin of the Parish and County aforesaid which his motion was admitted to record.

Teste Catesby Cocke c.c.

March 17th 1733 (D-B1-203-204)

Know all men by these presents that I Thomas Poindexter of Hanover County, House Carpenter do truly and justly stand indebted and am by these presents formerly bounded and obliged unto Lawrence McNemarr of Westmoreland County in the full and just sum of fifteen thousand six hundred and forty pounds of lawful tobacco to be paid to said Lawrence McNemarr, attorneys heirs executors administrators or assigns to the payment of which well and truly to be made I bind my self my heirs executors administrators and every of them firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal and dated the seventeenth day of March in the year of our Lord God one thousand and seven hundred thirty and three.

The Condition of this obligation is such that if the above bound Thomas Poindexter his heirs executors administrators and every of them do well and truly observe perform fulfill accomplish and keep all and singular the covenants grants articles clauses conditions and agreements whatsoever which on his and their parts and behalfs are or ought to be observed performed fulfilled and kept mentioned and comprised on one Indenture of Bargain and sale bearing even date with these presents made between the above bounden Thomas Poindexter of the one part and the above named Lawrence McNemarr of the other part according to the tenor true meaning form and effect of the same Indenture that then the above obligation to be void and of no effect otherwise to stand and remain in full force power strength and virtue.

Thomas Poindexter SEAL

Sealed and delivered in the presence of us

Edward Barry

Jos Reid

John (his mark) Martyn

At a court continued and held for Prince William County the 20th day of March 1733. Thomas Poindexter in open court personally acknowledged this bond to Lawrence McNemarr which on his motion is admitted to record.

Teste Catesby Cocke c.c.

March 20th 1733(D-B1-207)

Know all men by these presents that I Timothy Dorgan of the Parish of Hamilton in the County of Prince William Planter am held and firmly unto Lawrence Debutts clerk in one hundred pounds sterling to be paid by the said Lawrence or his certain attorney executors or administrators to which payment well and truly to be made I bind my heirs executors & administrators firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal dated the twentieth day of March 1733.

The Condition of this Obligation such that whereas the above bound Timothy Dorgan by Indentures of Lease & Release the lease bearing date the day before and the release the same day with these presents hath granted and conveyed unto the above named Lawrence DeButts a certain tract or parcel of land containing ninety two acres situate lying and being in the Parish and County aforesaid. Now if the above bound timothy Dorgan his heirs executors and administrators do and shall well and truly observe perform faithful and keep all and singular the covenants grants articles & agreements which on his part and behalf are and ought to be observed performed fulfilled and kept mentioned and comprised in the aforesaid Indenture of Release according to the true intent and meaning of that Indenture and likewise if the said Timothy Dorgan & his heirs shall and will repay to the said Lawrence DeButts his heirs executors or administrators the sum of fifteen hundred pounds of tobacco whenever the said tract or parcel of land should be included in any survey hereafter to be made by the proprietors of Brent Town Patent then this obligation to be void otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue.

Timothy Dorgan (SEAL)

Sealed & Delivered in presence of:

John Graham

Stephen Delisle

August Smith

June 19th 1733(D-B1-260)

Know all men by these presents that I Leonard Barker of the Parish of Hamilton in the County of Prince William Gentleman am held and firmly unto Lawrence Debutts clerk in one hundred pounds sterling to be paid by the said Lawrence or his certain attorney executors or administrators to which payment well and truly to be made I bind my heirs executors & administrators firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal dated the 19th day of June 1734.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that whereas the above bound Leonard Barker by Indentures of Lease & Release the said bearing date the day before and the release the same day with these presents hath granted and conveyed unto the above named Lawrence DeButts a certain tract or parcel of land containing three hundred and ninety nine acres situate lying and being in the Parish and County aforesaid. Now if the above bound timothy Leonard Barker his heirs executors and administrators do and shall well and truly observe perform faithful and keep all and singular the covenants grants articles & agreements which on his part and behalf are and ought to be observed performed fulfilled and kept mentioned and comprised in the aforesaid Indenture of Release according to the true intent and meaning of that Indenture and likewise if the said Leonard Barker & his heirs shall and will warrant and forever defend the aforesaid tract or parcel of land conveyed to the said Lawrence DeButts as aforesaid against him the said Leonard and his heirs and all other persons whatsoever then this Obligation to be void otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue.

Leo Barker (SEAL)

Sealed & Delivered in presence of:

R. S-----
William Harrison
John Gregg

At a Court held for Prince William County the nineteenth day of June 1734 Leonard Barker Gentleman acknowledged this bond for performance of covenants to Lawrence DeButts clerk which on his motion is admitted to record.

Teste – John Gregg, Deputy C.C.

June 19th 1733(D-B1-287)

Know all men by these presents that I Thomas Simpson of the County of Prince William Carpenter am held and firmly unto Catesby Cocke of the said County gentleman in the sum of one hundred and sixty pounds current money of Virginia to be paid by the said Catesby Cocke or his certain attorney executors or administrators to which payment well and truly to be made I bind my self my heirs executors & administrators firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal dated the 28th day of May Anno Domini 1734.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Thomas Simpson his heirs executors and administrators do, and shall from time to time and at all times hereafter well and truly observe perform fullfil & keep all and singular the covenants grants, articles, conditions and agreements which on his and their parts and behalf are or ought to be observed performed fulfilled and kept particularly mentioned or expressed in a certain Indenture of Release bearing even date with these presents and made or mentioned to be made between the above bound Thomas Simpson of the one part and the above named Catesby Cocke of the other part in all things according to the true intent and meaning of the said Indenture. Then this Obligation to be void else to remain in full force and virtue.

Thomas Simpson (SEAL)

Sealed & Delivered in presence of:

Thos Robinson
William (his mark) Gossum
Henry (his mark) Jefferson
Mary Jett

At a Court held for Prince William County the seventeenth day of July 1734 Thomas Simpson Carpenter acknowledged this bond for performance of covenants to Catesby Cocke gentleman which on his motion is admitted to record.

Teste – John Gregg, Deputy C.C

February 19th 1734 (C-18)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Jane Simpson, John Ferguson and Job Carter are held and firmly bound unto Robert Jones the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two hundred pounds to be paid to the said Robert Jones his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this nineteenth day of February 1734.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Jane Simpson executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Simpson deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Jane Simpson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Jane Simpson or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

Jane (X) Simpson SEAL
John Ferguson SEAL
Job Carter SEAL

February 20th 1734 (C-20)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Thomas Bosman and Jeremiah Bronaugh are held and firmly bound unto Robert Jones the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Robert Jones his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twentieth day of February 1734.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Thomas Bosman executor of the Last Will and Testament of Martha Lillard deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Thomas Bosman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Thomas Bosman or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

Thomas Bosman SEAL
Jeremiah Bronaugh SEAL

February 20th 1734 (C-22)

Know all Men by these Presents that we John Madden, John Hart and Ralph Hughes are held and firmly bound unto Robert Jones the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Robert Jones his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twentieth day of February 1734.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound John Madden administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Neal Foster deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said John Madden or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said John Madden or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said John Madden being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

John Madden SEAL
John Hart SEAL
Ralph (X) Hughes SEAL

February 19th 1734 (C-25)

Know all Men by these Presents that we John Hamper, Harmon Fishback, Brian Connely, George Gent and Joseph Marten are held and firmly bound unto Francis Awbrey the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two hundred pounds to be paid to the said Francis Awbrey his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this nineteenth day of March 1734.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound John Hamper and Harmon Fishback executors of the Last Will and Testament of John Fishback deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Hamper & Harmon Fishback or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said John Hamper and Harmon Fishback or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of their Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue. Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Catesby Cocke and Thomas Robinson

John Hamper SEAL
Harmon Fishback SEAL
Bryant (X) Conelly SEAL
George Gent SEAL
Joseph Martin SEAL

At a Court held for Prince William County the nineteenth day of March 1734. John Hamper, Harmon Fishback, Bryant Conelly, George Gent and Joseph Martin in open court severally acknowledged this bond which is admitted to record.

Teste Catesby Cocke cc

March 19th 1734 (C-26)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Ann Russel, Valentine Barton & Isaac Ferguson are held and firmly bound unto Francis Awbrey the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Francis Aubrey his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this nineteenth day of March 1734.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Ann Russel administrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of William Bean deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Ann Russel or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Ann Russel or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Ann Russel being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

Ann Russel SEAL
Valentine Barton SEAL
Isaac Ferguson SEAL

February 20th 1734 (C-22)

Know all Men by these Presents that we John Ashford, Thomas Smith and Edward Emms are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of three hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twentieth day of March 1734.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound John Ashford with the will annexed of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Michael Ashford deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said John Ashford or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said John Ashford or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said John Ashford being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Catsbey Cocke & Thomas Robinson

John Ashford SEAL
Thomas Smith SEAL
Edward (X) Emms SEAL

November 20th 1734 (C-13)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Margaret Russell, Morris Veal and John Johnson are held and firmly bound unto Thomas Harrison the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said Thomas Harrison his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twentieth day of November 1734.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Margaret Russell administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Nathaniel Russell deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Margaret Russell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Margaret Russell or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Margaret Russell being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

Margaret (X) Russell SEAL
Morris (X) Veal SEAL
John (X) Johnson SEAL

May 1st 1735 (C)

Know all Men by these Presents that we George Underwood, Francis Searson and Thomas Ashby are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Thomas Harrison his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twentieth day of November 1734.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound George Underwood administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Underwood deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said George Underwood or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said George Underwood or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said George Underwood being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

George (X) Underwood SEAL
Francis Searson SEAL
Thomas (X) Ashby SEAL

March 20th 1734 (C-32)

Know all Men by these Presents that we John Ashford, Thomas Smith and Edward Emms are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of three hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twentieth day of March 1734.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound John Ashford executor of the Last Will and Testament of Ann Ashford deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Ashford or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said John Ashford or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

John Ashford SEAL
Thomas Smith SEAL
Edward (X) Emms SEAL

May 21st 1735 (C-35)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Jane Gibson, Leonard Barker and Valentine Barton are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of forty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 21st day of May 1735.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Jane Gibson, executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Jacob Gibson deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Jane Gibson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Jane Gibson or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Catesby Cocke

Jane (X) Gibson SEAL
Leo Barker SEAL
Val Barton SEAL

May 21st 1735 (C-39)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Hardin, John Hardin, Robert Jones & Thomas Conway are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of three hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this seventeenth day of June 1735.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Mary Hardin and John Hardin executors of the Last Will and Testament of Mark Hardin deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary Hardin and John Hardin or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Mary Hardin and John Hardin or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

Mary (X) Hardin SEAL
John Hardin SEAL
Robert Jones SEAL
Thomas Conway SEAL

May 1st 1735 (C-40)

Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we Ann Mason, John Merur, John Gregg, James Baker & Catesby Cocke are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of Five Thousand Pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this 1st day of May 1735.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Ann Mason and John Merur guardians of George, Mary and Thomson Masson his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said Ann Mason and John Merur as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Thomas Robinson.

Ann Mason SEAL
John Merur SEAL
John Gregg SEAL
James Baker SEAL
Catesby Cocke SEAL

May 1st 1735 (C-40)

Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we Ann Mason, John Merur, John Gregg, James Baxter and Catesby Cocke are held and firmly bound unto the worshipful Justices of Prince William County their heirs executors and administrators in the sum of five thousand pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty first day of May 1735.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Ann Mason and John Merur guardians of George, Mary and Thomson Mason their heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said Ann Masson and John Merur as soon as the said orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Thomas Robinson.

Ann Mason SEAL
John Merur SEAL
John Gregg SEAL
James Baxter SEAL

May 21st 1735 (C-41)

Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we William Shadburn & Richard Blackburn gent. are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of Twenty Pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty first day of May 1735.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound William Shadburn guardian of Mary & Jane Shadburn his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said William Shadburn as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Thomas Robinson.

William Shadburn SEAL
Richard Blackburn SEAL

May 1st 1735 (C-41B)

Administrator Bond

Know all Men by these Presents that we William Harle & Lewis Elzey are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of twenty pounds to be paid to the said

Thomas Harrison his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this first day of May 1735.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound William Harle administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Rhorry? deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said William Harle or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said George Underwood or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said William Harle being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

William Harle SEAL
Lewis Elzey SEAL

May 21st 1735 (C-44)

Know all Men by these Presents that we William Shadborn and Edward Feagan are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of twenty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty first day of May 1735.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound William Shadborn administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Shadborn deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said William Shadborn or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said William Shadborn or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said William Shadburn being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

William Shadburn SEAL
Edward Feagin SEAL

May 23rd 1735 (C-45)

Know all Men by these Presents that we John Ashford, Thomas Smith & Edward Emms are held and firmly bound unto Dennis McCarty gentleman the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of three hundred pounds to be paid to the said Dennis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty third day of May 1735.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound John Ashford administrator with the Last Will and Testament of Michael Ashford deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Ashford or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said John Ashford or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of James Baxter

John Ashford SEAL
Thomas (X) Smith SEAL
Edward Emms SEAL

June 11th 1735 (C-47)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Sparks and Thomas Smith are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this eleventh day of June 1735.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Mary Sparks executrix of the Last Will and Testament of William Sparks deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary Sparks or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Mary Sparks or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Catesby Cocke

Mary (X) Sparks SEAL
Thomas Smith SEAL

June 18th 1735 (C-52)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Jane Farrow, Thomas Harrison Jun. and Stephen Delisle are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this eighteenth day of June 1735.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Jane Farrow administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Farrow deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Jane Farrow or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Jane Farrow or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Jane Farrow being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

Jane Farrow SEAL
Thomas Harrison Jun SEAL
Stephen Delisle SEAL

June 18th 1735 (C-53)
Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we John Diskin & Thomas Osborn gentlemen, are held and firmly bound unto the worshipful Justices of Prince William County their heirs executors and administrators in the sum of two hundred pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this eighteenth day of June 1735.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound John Diskin guardian of Reubin Pagett their heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said John Diskin as soon as the said orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Thomas Robinson.

John Diskin SEAL
Thomas Osborn SEAL

September 17th 1735 (C-58)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Fiter, George Gent and John Holtzclaw are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this seventeenth day of September 1735.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Mary Fiter executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Milford Fiter deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary Fiter or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Mary Fiter or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

Mary (X) Fiter SEAL
George Gent SEAL
John Holtzclaw SEAL

June 11th 1735 (C-59)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Sarah Winsor and John Sturman are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this seventeenth day of June 1735.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Sarah Winsor executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Christopher Winsor deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Sarah Winsor or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Sarah Winsor or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

Sarah (X) Winsor SEAL
John Sturman SEAL

November 19th 1735 (C-63)

Know all Men by these Presents that we James Thatcher, Stephen Lewis & Cavan Dulany are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of twenty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this nineteenth day of November 1735.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound James Thatcher administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Thomas Albin deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said James Thatcher or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said James Thatcher or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said James Thatcher being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

| | |
|----------------|------|
| James Thatcher | SEAL |
| Stephen Lewis | SEAL |
| Cav Dulany | SEAL |

March 17th 1735 (C-67)

Know all Men by these Presents that we John Brown, Hugh West, Lewis Elzey & Thomas Smith are held and firmly bound unto Francis Awbrey the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Francis Awbrey his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this seventeenth day of March 1735.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound John Brown & Hugh West administrators of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Frost deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said John Brown and Hugh West or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said John Brown & Hugh West or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said John Brown and Hugh West being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of William Baxter.

| | |
|--------------|------|
| John Brown | SEAL |
| Hugh West | SEAL |
| Lewis Elzey | SEAL |
| Thomas Smith | SEAL |

March 20th 1735 (C-68)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Richard Rutter, John Gladden & Gerrard Trammell are held and firmly bound unto Francis Awbrey the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Francis Awbrey his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 20th day of May 1735.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Richard Rutter administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of George Goodin deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Richard Rutter or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Richard Rutter or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Richard Rutter being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

Richard Rutter SEAL
John Gladden SEAL
Gerard Trammell SEAL

March 17th 1735 (C-69)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Solomon Organ, Thomas Smith are held and firmly bound unto Francis Awbrey gent. the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Francis Awbrey his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 17th day of March 1735.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Solomon Organ administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Matthew Organ deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Solomon Organ or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Solomon Organ or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Solomon Organ being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of William Baker

Solomon Organ SEAL
Thomas Smith SEAL

March 17th 1735 (C-70)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Thomas Whitford, William Hall & John Gladin are held and firmly bound unto Francis Awbrey the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Francis Awbrey his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 17th day of March 1735.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Thomas Whitford administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of William Brooshaw deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Thomas Whitford or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Thomas Whitford or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Thomas Whitford being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

Thomas Whitford SEAL
William Hall SEAL
John Gladin SEAL

March 17th 1735 (C-71)

Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we James Baxter, Lewis Elzey & Valentine Peyton are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of fifty Pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this 1^{7th} day of March 1735.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound James Baxter guardian of Giles Tillet his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said James Baxter as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Thomas Robinson.

James Baxter SEAL
Lewis Elzey SEAL
Valentine Peyton SEAL

March 20th 1735 (C-71B)

Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we James Muse & John Gregg are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of one hundred and fifty Pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this 20th day of March 1735.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound James Muse guardian of Thomas Arrington his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said James Muse as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Thomas Robinson.

James Muse SEAL
John Gregg SEAL

April 21st 1736 (C-78)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Samuel King & William Bolling are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 21st day of April 1736.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Samuel King administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of William Addison deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Samuel King or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Samuel king or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Samuel King being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

Samuel King SEAL
William Bolling SEAL

April 22nd 1736 (C-80)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Richard Crupper, Leonard Barker and Benjamin Grayson are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 22nd day of April 1736.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Richard Crupper administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of William Maria Harthing deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Richard Crupper or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Richard Crupper or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Richard Crupper being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

Richard Crupper SEAL
Leonard Barker SEAL
Benjamin Grayson SEAL

May 19th 1736 (C-83)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Smith, Thomas Tackman & Geffrey Johnson are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifteen pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 19th day of May 1736.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Mary Smith administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of William Smith deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Mary Smith or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Mary Smith or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Mary Smith being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Catesby Cocke

Mary Smith SEAL

Thomas Tackman SEAL

Geffrey Johnson SEAL

June 16th 1736 (C-90)

Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we James Strother, Moseby Battaley & John Peyton are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of one thousand two hundred pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this 16th day of June 1736.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound James Strother guardian of Daniel (H—nch?) his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said James Strother as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Catesby Cocke & John Bowie

James Strother SEAL

Moseby (X) Battaley SEAL

John Peyton SEAL

June 16th 1736 (C-91)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Jane Allen & William Hackney are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of forty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 16th day of June 1736.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Jane Allen administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of George Allen deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Jane Allen or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Jane Allen or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Jane Allen being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Jane (X) Allen SEAL

William Hackney SEAL

August 18th 1736 (C-94)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Jane E. Wallis, Richard R. Crupper & George Byrn are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of twenty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 18th day of August 1736.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Jane E. Wallis administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Burr Wallis deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Jane E. Wallis or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Jane E. Wallis or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Jane E. Wallis being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Catesby Cocke

Jane E. Wallis SEAL

Richard R. Crupper SEAL

George Byrn SEAL

October 20th 1736 (C-97)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Aaron Drummond, Edward Broughton & William Whitesides are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 20th day of October 1736.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Aaron Drummond administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Robert Caborn deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Aaron Drummond or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Aaron Drummond or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Aaron Drummond being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Aaron Drummond SEAL

Edward Broughton SEAL

William Whitesides SEAL

March 28th 1737 (C-100)

Know all Men by these Presents that we William Bennot, John Durran & Samuel Conner are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 28th day of March 1737.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound William Bennot administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Elizabeth Brabin deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said William Bennot or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said William Bennot or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said William Bennot being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

| | |
|--------------------|------|
| William (X) Bennot | SEAL |
| John Durran | SEAL |
| Samuel Conner | SEAL |

March 28th 1776 (C-101)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Lewis Elzey & James Baxter are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of seventy pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 28th day of March 1737.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Lewis Elzey administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Richard Dallistoe deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Lewis Elzey or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Lewis Elzey or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Lewis Elzey being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|--------------|------|
| Lewis Elzey | SEAL |
| James Baxter | SEAL |

March 28th 1737 (C-103)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Leonard Barker, Valentine Barton & Thomas Smith are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of eight hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 28th day of March 1737.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Leonard Barker executor of the Last Will and Testament of John Walker deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Leonard Barker or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Leonard Barker or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

| | |
|------------------|------|
| Leonard Barker | SEAL |
| Valentine Barton | SEAL |
| Thomas Smith | SEAL |

March 28th 1737 (C-104)
Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we George Harrison & Hugh West are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of two hundred Pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this 28th day of March 1735.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound George Harrison guardian of Susannah Clark his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said George Harrison as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of

George Harrison SEAL
Hugh West SEAL

March 28th 1737 (C-105)
Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we Hugh West & George Harrison are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of one hundred Pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this 28th day of March 1737.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Hugh West guardian of Mary Harrison his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said Hugh West as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Thomas Robinson.

Hugh West SEAL
George Harrison SEAL

April 5th 1737 (C-114)

Know all Men by these Presents that we John Champ, John Diskin & John Kinchelo are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two thousand pounds current money to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 5th day of April 1737.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound John Champ administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Thomas Osborn gentleman deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said John Champ or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said John Champ or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said John Champ being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

John Champ SEAL
John Diskin SEAL
John Kinchelo SEAL

April 25th 1737 (C-116)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Hester Oriar, William Thorn, John Oriar, Thomas Harrison and John Suthard are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns.

To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-fifth day of April 1737.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Hester Oriar executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Daniel Oriar deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Hester Oriar or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Hester Oriar or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Hester (X) Oriar SEAL
William Thorn SEAL
John Oriar SEAL
Thomas Harrison SEAL
John Suthard SEAL

August 22nd 1737 (C-128)
Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we John Turley and Edward Barry are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of one thousand pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty-second day of August 1737.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound John Turley guardian of Samuel Tillet orphans of Giles Tillet deceased, his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said John Turley soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Thomas Robinson.

John Turley SEAL
Edward Barry SEAL

August 22nd 1737 (C-129)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Catesby Cocke & John Bowie are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of twenty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 22nd day of August 1737.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Catesby Cocke administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Benjamin Huton deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Catesby Cocke or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Catesby Cocke or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Catesby Cocke being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Diskin & Lewis Elzey

Catesby Cocke SEAL
John Bowie SEAL

August 22nd 1737 (C-130)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Ashmore, Joseph Guess & John Carr are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of three hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 22nd day of August 1737.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Mary Ashmore administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Ashmore deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Mary Ashmore or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Mary Ashmore or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Mary Ashmore being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Mary (X) Ashmore SEAL
Joseph (X) Guess SEAL
John (X) Carr SEAL

September 26th 1737 (C-135)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Geffery Johnson, Thomas Tackman & John Right are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds current money to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-sixth day of September 1737.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Geffery Johnson executor of the Last Will and Testament of James Henderson deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Geffery Johnson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Geffery Johnson or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

Geffery Johnson SEAL
Thomas Tackman SEAL
John Right SEAL

September 26th 1737 (C-136)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Catesby Cocke & John Colvill are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of twenty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 26th day of September 1737.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Catesby Cocke administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Tasph deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Catesby Cocke or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Catesby Cocke or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Catesby Cocke being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Catesby Cocke SEAL
John Colvill SEAL

February 7th 1737 (C-140)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Ann Mason & Jeremiah Bronaugh are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 7th day of February 1737.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Ann Mason administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Richard Deacon deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Ann Mason or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Ann Mason or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Ann Mason being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Ann Mason SEAL
Jera Bronaugh SEAL

February 27th 1737 (C-142)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Amos Janney & Lewis Elzey gent. are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds current money to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 27th day of February 1737.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Amos Janney administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Joseph Tindall deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Amos Janney or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Amos Janney or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Amos Janney being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Amos Janney SEAL
Lewis Elzey SEAL

March 27th 1738 (C-146)
Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we Ralph Hughs & Thomas Conway are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of one hundred Pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty seventh day of March 1738.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Ralph Hughs guardian of James Gardner his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said Ralph Hughs as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of John Bowie

Ralph Hughs SEAL
Thomas Conway SEAL

April 24th 1738 (C-149)

Know all Men by these Presents that we John Chapman Purnell, Thomas Chapman and Francis Lucas are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-fourth day of April 1738.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound John Chapman Purnell executor of the Last Will and Testament of Sarah Parker deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Chapman Purnell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said John Chapman Purnell or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

John Chapman Purnell SEAL
Francis Lucas SEAL
Thomas Chapman SEAL

June 26th 1738 (C-154)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Rachel Spiller, Francis Laun and Lewis Tackett are held and firmly bound unto John Colvill gent. the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds to be paid to the said John Colvill his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-sixth day of June 1738.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Rachel Spiller executrix of the Last Will and Testament of John Edge deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Rachel Spiller or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Rachel Spiller or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Rachel Spiller SEAL
Francis Laun SEAL
Lewis Tackett SEAL

June 26th 1738 (C-157)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Margaret Davis, John Purcell & Owen Land are held and firmly bound unto John Colvill the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of four hundred pounds to be paid to the said John Colvill his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 26th day of June 1738.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Margaret Davis administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Davis deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Margaret Davis or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Margaret Davis or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Margaret Davis being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Margaret (X) Davis SEAL
John Purcell SEAL
Owen Land SEAL

August 28th 1738 (C-158)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Sarah Lambert, William Champ & John Reeves are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 28th day of August 1738.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Sarah Lambert administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Sarah Lambert deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Sarah Lambert or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Sarah Lambert or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Sarah Lambert being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Sarah (X) Lambert SEAL
William Champ SEAL
John Reeves SEAL

September 26th 1738 (C-159)
Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we Richard Blackburn, Benjamin Grayson & John Gregg are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of twelve hundred Pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty sixth day of September 1785.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Richard Blackburn guardian of William Elliott his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said Richard Blackburn as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Thomas Robinson.

Richard Blackburn SEAL
Benjamin Grayson SEAL
John Gregg SEAL

November 27th 1738 (C-161)
Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we Mauritt Voals & Richard Blackburn are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of two hundred pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty first day of November 1738.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Mauritt Voals guardian of Thomas Arrington his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said Mauritt Voals as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Catesby Cocke.

Mauritt Voals SEAL
Richard Blackburn SEAL

February 26th 1738 (C-162)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Elizabeth Buchanan, George (Novil?) and Joseph Minter are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-sixth day of February 1738.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Elizabeth Buchanan, executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Joseph Buchanan deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Elizabeth Buchanan or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Elizabeth Buchanan or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Elizabeth (X) Buchanan SEAL
George (Novil?) SEAL
Joseph Minter SEAL

February 26th 1738 (C-163)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Anne Lucas, Richard Higgins & Francis Searson are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 26th day of February 1738.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Anne Lucas administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Francis Lucas deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Anne Lucas or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Anne Lucas or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Anne Lucas being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Anne (X) Lucas SEAL
 Richard Higgins SEAL
 Francis Searson SEAL

February 26th 1738 (C-164)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Margaret Anderson, Stephen Martin & Thomas Reno are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 26th day of February 1738.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Margaret Anderson administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Richard Anderson deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Margaret Anderson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Margaret Anderson or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Margaret Anderson being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Margaret (X) Anderson SEAL
 Stephen Martin SEAL
 Thomas Reno SEAL

March 28th 1737 (C-165)

Know all Men by these Presents that we James Harbort, George Pinnot & William Brewster are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 26th day of February 1738.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound James Harbort administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Queen deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said James Harbort or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said James Harbort or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said James Harbort being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

James Harbort SEAL
George Pinnot SEAL
William Brewster SEAL

March 26th 1739 (C-168)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Davis, Richard Higgins & Thomas Reno are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 26th day of March 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Mary Davis administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Richard Davis deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Mary Davis or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Mary Davis or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Mary Davis being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Mary (X) Davis SEAL
Richard (X) Higgins SEAL
Thomas Reno SEAL

February 26th 1738 (C-169)

Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we John Garner, Thomas Reno & Humphrey Pope gent. are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of two hundred pounds current money to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty sixth day of February 1738.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound John Garner guardian of Charles Garner his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said John Garner as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of John Bowie.

John Garner SEAL
Humphrey Pope SEAL
Thomas Reno SEAL

May 28th 1739 (C-174)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Elizabeth Neale Francis Awbrey & John Sturman are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of five hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 28th day of May 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Elizabeth Neale administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Neale deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Elizabeth Neale or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Elizabeth Neale or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Elizabeth Neale being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Elizabeth Neale SEAL
Francis Awbrey SEAL
John Sturman SEAL

May 28th 1739 (C-174)
Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we John Kinchelo, John Diskin and Valentine Peyton are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of three hundred pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty eighth day of May 1739.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound John Kinchelo guardian of Mary, Anne, and Margaret Osborn orphans of Thomas Osborn deceased, his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said John Kinchelo as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of John Bowie.

John Kinchelo SEAL
John Diskin SEAL
Valentine Peyton SEAL

June 25th 1739 (C-178)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Thomas Harrison Jun., Benjamin Bullet, James Keith & John McMillan are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-fifth day of June 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Thomas Harrison Jun. executor of the Last Will and Testament of Edward Suthard deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Thomas Harrison Jun. or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Thomas Harrison Jun. or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of Thomas Robinson

Thomas Harrison Jun. SEAL
Benjamin Bullet SEAL
James Keith SEAL
John McMillan SEAL

July 23rd 1739 (C-179)

Know all Men by these Presents that we John Brown & Richard Osborn are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 23rd day of July 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound John Brown administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of James Gil deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said John Brown or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said John Brown or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said John Brown being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Diskin & Lewis Elzey

John Brown SEAL
Richard Osborn SEAL

July 23rd 1739 (C-181)

Know all Men by these Presents that we John Going, William Scott & John Hollis are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 23rd day of July 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound John Going administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Catherine Padderson deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said John Going or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said John Going or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said John Going being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

John (X) Going SEAL
William (X) Scott SEAL
John (X) Hollis SEAL

August 27th 1739 (C-186)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Elizabeth Duncan, Daniel Ezannel & John Burk are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 27th day of August 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Elizabeth Duncan administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Duncan deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Elizabeth Duncan or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Elizabeth Duncan or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Elizabeth Duncan being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Elizabeth (X) Duncan SEAL
Daniel Ezannel SEAL
John Burk SEAL

August 27th 1739 (C-189)
Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we Elizabeth Broddwater, John Turley & Valentine Peyton are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of two hundred pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty - seventh day of August 1739.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Elizabeth Broddwater guardian of Charles Broadwater his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said Charles Broddwater as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Thomas Robinson.

Elizabeth Broddwater SEAL
John Turley SEAL
Valentine Peyton SEAL

November 27th 1739 (C-197)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Charles Griffith & Edward Vilet are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said Robert Jones his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-seventh day of November 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Charles Griffith executor of the Will annexed of Elinor Sanders deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Charles Griffith or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Charles Griffith or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Charles Griffith SEAL
Edward Vilet SEAL

February 25th 1739 (C-201)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Daniel McCarty, Denis McCarty and Lawrence Washington are held and firmly bound unto John Colvill gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 25th day of February 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Daniel McCarty administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of William Dunlop deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Daniel McCarty or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Daniel McCarty or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Daniel McCarty being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|---------------------|------|
| Daniel McCarty | SEAL |
| Denis McCarty | SEAL |
| Lawrence Washington | SEAL |

February 25th 1739 (C-202)

Know all Men by these Presents that we William Foster and John Diskin are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 25th day of February 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound William Foster administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Richard Miller deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said William Foster or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said William Foster or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said William Foster being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|----------------|------|
| William Foster | SEAL |
| John Diskin | SEAL |

February 25th 1739 (C-203)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Anne Barton, William Foster and Richard Jarvis are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 25th day of February 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Anne Barton administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Valentine Barton deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Anne Barton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Anne Barton or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Anne Barton being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Anne Barton SEAL
 William Foster SEAL
 Richard Jarvis SEAL

February 25th 1739 (C-206)

Know all Men by these Presents that we John McKenny, George Tayloe and Henry Tayloe are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 25th day of February 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound John McKenny administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Nicholas Richardson deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said John McKenny or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said John McKenny or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said John McKenny being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

John McKenny SEAL
 George Tayloe SEAL
 Henry Tayloe SEAL

February 25th 1739 (C-207)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Richard Osborn and Daniel French are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 25th day of February 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Richard Osborn administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of William Slewing(?) deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Richard Osborn or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Richard Osborn or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Richard Osborn being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Richard Osborn SEAL
Daniel French SEAL

March 24th 1739 (C-209)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Tayloe and John Wood are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 24th day of March 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Mary Tayloe administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Charles Tayloe deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Mary Tayloe or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Mary Tayloe or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Mary Tayloe being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Mary Tayloe SEAL
John Wood SEAL

March 24th 1739 (C-212)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Young, John Young constable & Jacob Smith are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-fourth day of March 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Mary Young executrix of the last will and testament of Edward Young deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary Young or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Mary Young or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Mary (X) Young SEAL
John Young SEAL
Jacob Smith SEAL

March 24th 1739 (C-214)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Anne Guess, Thomas Ford and Richard Drakeford are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of three hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 24th day of March 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Anne Guess administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Joseph Guess deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Anne Guess or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Anne Guess or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Anne Guess being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Anne Guess SEAL
Thomas Ford SEAL
Richard Drakeford SEAL

March 24th 1739 (C-215)

Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we Charles Baker, Charles Wright and Geoffery Johnson are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of two hundred pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty-fourth day of March 1739.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Charles Baker guardian of Thomas Bullock his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said Charles Baker as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Thomas Robinson.

Charles Baker SEAL
Charles (X) Wright SEAL
Geoffrey Johnson SEAL

March 24th 1739 (C-217)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Holmes, Christopher Holmes & John Whitledge are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-fourth day of March 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Mary Holmes executrix of the last will and testament of John Holmes deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary Holmes or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Mary Holmes or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|--------------------|------|
| Mary (X) Holmes | SEAL |
| Christopher Holmes | SEAL |
| John Whitledge | SEAL |

March 24th 1739 (C-225)

Know all Men by these Presents that we David Bothun and Joseph Reid are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of forty pounds current money to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-fourth day of March 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound David Bothun executor of the last will and testament of Elizabeth Shephard deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said David Bothun or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said David Bothun or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|--------------|------|
| David Bothun | SEAL |
| Joseph Reid | SEAL |

March 25th 1739 (C-227)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Sarah Koone & William Champney are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-fifth day of March 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Sarah Koone executrix of the last will and testament of Nicholas Koone deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Sarah Koone or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Sarah Koone or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|------------------|------|
| Sarah (X) Koone | SEAL |
| William Champney | SEAL |

May 28th 1739 (C-238)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Sarah Hews and John Melton are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 28th day of May 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Sarah Hews administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of William Hews deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Sarah Hews or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Sarah Hews or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Sarah Hews being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Sarah Hews SEAL
John Melton SEAL

May 26th 1739 (C-239)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Ester Stone, Edward Barry and William Kirkland are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 26th day of May 1739.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Ester Stone administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Francis Stone deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Ester Stone or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Ester Stone or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Ester Stone being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Ester Stone SEAL
Edward Barry SEAL
William Kirkland SEAL

May 26th 1739 (C-241)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Elizabeth Gaskins, Robert Hedges and Francis Searson are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 26th day of May 1740.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Elizabeth Gaskins administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Thomas Gaskins deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Elizabeth Gaskins or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Elizabeth Gaskins or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Elizabeth Gaskins being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|----------------------|------|
| Elizabeth(X) Gaskins | SEAL |
| Robert Hedges | SEAL |
| Francis Searson | SEAL |

July 28th 1740 (C-250)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Thomas Dodson, Amey Dodson, William Bland and Robert Taylor are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-eighth day of July 1740.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Thomas Dodson executor of the last will and testament of David Dodson deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Dodson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Thomas Dodson or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|---------------|------|
| Thomas Dodson | SEAL |
| Amey Dodson | SEAL |
| William Bland | SEAL |
| Robert Taylor | SEAL |

August 26th 1740 (C-257)

Know all Men by these Presents that we William Rookard, John Canterbury and John Carr are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-sixth day of August 1740.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound William Rookard executor de bonis non of the last will and testament of John Gosling deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Rookard or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said William Rookard or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| William Rookard | SEAL |
| John Canterbury | SEAL |
| John Carr | SEAL |

September 22nd 1740 (C-260)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Thomas Dunton, Benjamin Russel, and John Russel are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 22nd day of September 1740.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Thomas Dunton administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Dunton deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Thomas Dunton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Thomas Dunton or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Thomas Dunton being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Thomas Dunton SEAL
Benjamin Russel SEAL
John Russel SEAL

November 24th 1740 (C-263)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Thomas Dagg and Richard Higgins are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 24th day of November 1740.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Thomas Dagg administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of James Dagg deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Thomas Dagg or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Thomas Dagg or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Thomas Dagg being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Thomas Dagg SEAL
Richard (X)HigginsSEAL

November 24th 1740 (C-266)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Rene Napier and Samuel Earle are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of five hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-fourth day of November 1740.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Rene Napier executor with the will annexed of Thomas Hudnall deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Rene Napier or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Rene Napier or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Rene Napier SEAL

Samuel Earle SEAL

November 24th 1740 (C-267)

Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we John Frogg and Samuel Earle are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of two hundred pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty - fourth day of November 1740.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound John Frogg guardian of Thomas Bulloch his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said John Frogg as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Catesby Cocke.

John Frogg SEAL

Samuel Earle SEAL

November 25th 1740 (C-267B)

Know all Men by these Presents that we William Godfrey and Leonard Barker are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 25th day of November 1740.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound William Godfrey administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Abraham St. Clare deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said William Godfrey or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said William Godfrey into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said William Godfrey being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

William Godfrey SEAL

Leonard Barker SEAL

November 25th 1740 (C-269)

Know all Men by these Presents that we William Simpson and Richard Simpson are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 25th day of November 1740.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound William Simpson administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Thomas Simpson deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said William Simpson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said William Simpson or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said William Simpson being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

William(X) Simpson SEAL
Richard Simpson SEAL

March 28th 1740 (C-272)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Anne Hancock, John Gregg, Marmaduke Lawson, Benjamin Grayson, Richard Blackburn and Charles Ewell are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of five hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-eighth day of March 1740.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Anne Hancock, John Gregg and Marmaduke Lawson executors of the last will and testament of Thomas Hudnall deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Anne Hancock, John Gregg and Marmaduke Lawson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Anne Hancock, John Gregg and Marmaduke Lawson or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of their Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Anne Hancock SEAL
John Gregg SEAL
Marmaduke Lawson SEAL
Benjamin Grayson SEAL
Richard Blackburn SEAL
Charles Ewell SEAL

March 23rd 1740 (C-296)

Know all Men by these Presents that we William Underwood and William Hurst are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of twenty pounds to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 23rd day of March 1740.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound William Underwood administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Richard Price deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said William Underwood or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said William Underwood or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said William Underwood being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| William Underwood | SEAL |
| William (X) Hurst | SEAL |

May 25th 1741 (C-272)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Priscilla Dyal, Samuel Conner and James Koons are held and firmly bound unto Denis McCarty the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said Denis McCarty his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-fifth day of May 1741.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Priscilla Dyal executrix of the last will and testament of Edward Dyal deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Priscilla Dyal or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Priscilla Dyal or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|----------------|------|
| Priscilla Dyal | SEAL |
| Samuel Conner | SEAL |
| James Koons | SEAL |

May 25th 1741 (C-304)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Anne Drakeford, Gerard Trammel and Michael Reagan are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said William Fairfax his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-fifth day of May 1741.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Elizabeth Drakeford executrix of the last will and testament of Richard Drakeford deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Drakeford or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Elizabeth Drakeford or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Elizabeth Drakeford SEAL
Gerrard Trammel SEAL
Michael Reagan SEAL

(The above executrix is given as both Anne Drakeford and Elizabeth Drakeford)

May 25th 1741 (C-307)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Simes, Richard Jarvis and Thomas Arrington are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said William Fairfax his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-fifth day of May 1741.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Mary Simes executrix of the last will and testament of Richard Simes deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Simes or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Mary Simes or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Mary Simes SEAL
Richard Jarvis SEAL
Thomas Arrington SEAL

June 22nd 1741 (C-312)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Jane Easter and William Clifton are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds current money to be paid to the said William Fairfax his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-second day of June 1741.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Jane Easter executrix of the will annexed of Giles Easter deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Jane Easter or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Jane Easter or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Jane Easter SEAL

June 22nd 1741 (C-313)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Elizabeth Tomkins, John Sturman and William Glading are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds current money to be paid to the said William Fairfax his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-second day of June 1741.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Elizabeth Tomkins executrix of the last will and testament of John Tomkins deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Tomkins or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Elizabeth Tomkins or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Elizabeth Tomkins | SEAL |
| John Sturman | SEAL |
| William Glading | SEAL |

June 22nd 1741 (C-314)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Hannah Williams, Gerrard Trammel and John Murphy are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax Esq. the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of twenty pounds current money to be paid to the said William Fairfax Esq. his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-second day of June 1741.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Hannah Williams executrix of the last will and testament of William Williams deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Hannah Williams or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Hannah Williams or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| Hannah Williams | SEAL |
| Gerrard Trammel | SEAL |
| John Murphy | SEAL |

August 24th 1741 (C-322)

Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we Robert Boggess, and William Payne are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of one hundred pounds to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty - fourth day of August 1741.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Robert Boggess guardian of John Smith his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said Robert Boggess as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Catesby Cocke.

| | |
|----------------|------|
| Robert Boggess | SEAL |
| William Payne | SEAL |

February 22nd 1741 (C-329)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Thomas Withers Cofer, Francis Cofer, John Baxter and Richard Crupper are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax Esq. the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said William Fairfax Esq. his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-second day of February 1741.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Thomas Withers Cofer executor of the last will and testament of Mary Cofer deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Withers Coffers or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Thomas Withers Coffers or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|----------------------|------|
| Thomas Withers Cofer | SEAL |
| Francis Cofer | SEAL |
| John Baxter | SEAL |
| Richard (X)Crupper | SEAL |

February 22nd 1741 (C-331)

Know all Men by these Presents that we William Regan, Michael Regan and Thomas Beach are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax Esq. gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds sterling to be paid to the said William Fairfax Esq. his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-second day of February 1741.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound William Regan administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of William Regan deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said William Regan or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said William Regan or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said William Regan being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|---------------|------|
| William Regan | SEAL |
| Michael Regan | SEAL |
| Thomas Beach | SEAL |

February 22nd 1741 (C-332)

Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we William Godfrey and Edward Barry are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of one hundred pounds sterling to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty – second day of February 1741.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound William Godfrey guardian of Margaret Bothune his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said William Godfrey as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Catesby Cocke.

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| William Godfrey | SEAL |
| Edward Barry | SEAL |

February 22nd 1741 (C-333)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Catherine Dunaway, Samuel Conner and Eleanor More are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax Esq. gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said William Fairfax Esq. his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-second day of February 1741.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Catherine Dunaway administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of William Steward deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Catherine Dunaway or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Catherine Dunaway or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Catherine Dunaway being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Catherine Dunaway | SEAL |
| Samuel Conner | SEAL |
| Eleanor More | SEAL |

March 22nd 1741 (C-334)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Sarah Lain, James Lain and John Cannady are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax Esq. gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to the said William Fairfax Esq. his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 22nd day of March 1741

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Sarah Lain administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of William Lain deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Sarah Lain or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Sarah Lain or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Sarah Lain being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|--------------|------|
| Sarah Lain | SEAL |
| James Lain | SEAL |
| John Cannady | SEAL |

March 22nd 1741 (C-338)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Peter Rust and Nimrod Hot are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax Esq. gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two hundred pounds sterling to be paid to the said William Fairfax Esq. his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-second day of March 1741.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Peter Rust administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Lodowick Jackson deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Peter Rust or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Peter Rust or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Peter Rust being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Peter Rust SEAL
Nimrod Hot SEAL

March 22nd 1742 (C-339)
Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we John Gregg & John Diskin are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of two hundred pounds sterling to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty – second day of March 1742.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound John Gregg guardian of Lettice Linton his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said John Gregg as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Catesby Cocke.

John Gregg SEAL
John Diskin SEAL

March 22nd 1742 (C-340)
Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we John Frogg & William Blackwell are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of two hundred pounds sterling to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty – second day of March 1742.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound John Frogg guardian of Sarah Bullock his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said John Frogg as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Catesby Cocke.

John Frogg SEAL
William Blackwell SEAL

February 22nd 1741 (C-345)

Know all Men by these Presents that we John Awbrey, Thomas Awbrey, Richard Awbrey, Zephaniah Wade, John Sturman, Edward Ennis, John Mehen(?), John Evans and Francis Robertson are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax Esq. the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two thousand pounds sterling to be paid to the said William Fairfax Esq. his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-fourth day of March 1742.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound John Awbrey, Thomas Awbrey and Richard Awbrey executors of the last will and testament of Francis Awbrey deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said John, Thomas and Richard or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said John, Thomas and Richard or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of their Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

John Awbrey SEAL
 Thomas Awbrey SEAL
 Richard Awbrey SEAL
 Zephaniah Wade SEAL
 John Sturman SEAL
 Edward Ennis SEAL
 John (Mehen?) SEAL
 John Evans SEAL
 Francis Robertson SEAL

April 25th 1742 (C-353)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary McDowell, John Awbrey, William Holling and Francis Awbrey are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax Esq. the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of five hundred pounds sterling to be paid to the said William Fairfax Esq. his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-fifth day of April 1742.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Mary McDowell executrix of the will annexed of Thomas McDowell deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary McDowell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Mary McDowell or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Mary McDowell SEAL
 John Awbrey SEAL
 William Holling SEAL
 Francis Awbrey SEAL

June 29th 1742 (C-360)

Know all Men by these Presents that we John Diskin, James Tebbs, Timothy Thornton and Nimrod Hot are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax Esq. the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one thousand pounds sterling to be paid to the said William Fairfax Esq. his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-ninth day of June 1742.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound John Diskin executor of the last will and testament of Daniel Tebbs deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Diskin or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said John Diskin or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

John Diskin SEAL
James Tebbs SEAL
Timothy Thornton SEAL
Nimrod Hot SEAL

September 27th 1742 (C-366)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Sarah Ball, Ralph Hughes and Charles Morgan are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax Esq. gentleman, the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of five hundred pounds sterling to be paid to the said William Fairfax Esq. his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 27th day of September 1742

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Sarah Ball administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Edward Ball deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Sarah Ball or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Sarah Ball or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Sarah Ball being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Sarah Ball SEAL
Ralph Hughes SEAL
Charles Morgan SEAL

September 27th 1742 (C-377)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Anne Wright, Thomas Young and Daniel French are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax Esq. the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two hundred pounds sterling to be paid to the said William Fairfax Esq. his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-seventh day of September 1742.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Anne Wright executrix of the last will and testament of Francis Wright deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Anne Wright or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Anne Wright or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Anne (X)Wright SEAL
Thomas Young SEAL
Daniel French SEAL

October 25th 1742 (C-382)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Christopher Neale and Gerrard Alexander are held and firmly bound unto William Fairfax Esq. the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred pounds sterling to be paid to the said William Fairfax Esq. his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-fifth day of October 1742.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Christopher Neale executor of the last will and testament of Rhodam Neale deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Christopher Neale or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Christopher Neale or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Christopher Neale SEAL

Gerard Alexander SEAL

January 4th 1743 (C-385)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Timothy Reading, Jasper Billing and William Reading are held and firmly bound unto Richard Blackburn, John Grant, Samuel Earle and Howson Skinner gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of three hundred pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the fourth day of January 1743.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Timothy Reading administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Rector deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Timothy Reading or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Timothy Reading or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Timothy Reading being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Timothy Reading SEAL

Jasper Billing SEAL

William Reading SEAL

February 28th 1743 (C-389)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Rose Filkins widow of Joseph Davis and Mason Bennett are held and firmly bound unto the worshipful Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of one hundred pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the twenty-eighth day of February 1743.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Rose Filkins administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Henry Filkins deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Rose Filkins or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Rose Filkins or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Rose Filkins being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Rose Filkins SEAL
Mason Bennett SEAL

February 28th 1743 (C-391)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Wallis, Peter Cornwell & Charles Cornwell are held and firmly bound unto the worshipful Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of fifty pounds to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the twenty-eighth day of January 1743.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Mary Wallis administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Thomas Wallis deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Mary Wallis or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Mary Wallis or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Mary Wallis being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Mary (X) Wallis SEAL
Peter Cornwell SEAL
Charles Cornwell SEAL

May 23rd 1743 (C-423)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Jarvis Ah Doggarty, William French, Leonard Hornsby and John Reno are held and firmly bound to Robert Jones, John Wright, John Crump and Benjamin Bullett gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William County in the full and just sum of five hundred pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and each of us jointly and severally for the whole and in the whole our and each of our heirs executors and administrators to the said justices their heirs and successors firmly by these presents witness our hands and seals this twenty fifth day of April 1743.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Jarvis Ah Doggarty and William French administrators with the will annexed of James French deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Jarvis Ah Doggarty and William French or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Jarvis Ah Doggarty and William French or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of their Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Jarvis Ah Doggarty SEAL
William French SEAL
Leonard Hornsby SEAL
John Reno SEAL

July 25th 1743 (C-427)

Know all Men by these Presents that we John Duncan and John Frogg are held and firmly bound unto Robert Jones, Thomas Harrison, Joseph Blackwell and William Blackwell gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of one hundred pounds current money to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the twenty-fourth day of July 1743.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound John Duncan administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Daniel McKenney deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said John Duncan or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said John Duncan or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said John Duncan being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

John Duncan SEAL
John Frogg SEAL

February 28th 1742 (C-394)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Nathaniel Overall, John Dagg and Lewis Reno are held and firmly bound to the Worshipful Court of the County Court of Prince William County in the full and just sum of five hundred pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and each of us jointly and severally for the whole and in the whole our and each of our heirs executors and administrators to the said justices their heirs and successors firmly by these presents witness our hands and seals this twenty fifth day of April 1743.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Nathaniel Overall administrator with the will annexed of John Overall deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Nathaniel Overall or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Nathaniel Overall or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Nathaniel Overall SEAL
John Dagg SEAL
Lewis Reno SEAL

February 28th 1742 (C-395)

Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we William Thorn and Thomas Harrison the younger, are held and firmly bound unto the Worshipful Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of four hundred pounds current money to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this 28th day of February 1742.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound William Thorn guardian of Daniel Orair his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said William Frogg as soon as the said

Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Catesby Cocke.

William (X) Frogg SEAL
Thomas Harrison SEAL

March 28th 1743 (C-403)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Elizabeth Thornberry, Thomas Stone and David Darnall are held and firmly bound unto Robert Jones gentlemen justice of the County Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of fifty pounds current money to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the 28th day of March 1743.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Elizabeth Thornberry administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Richard Thornberry deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Elizabeth Thornberry or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Elizabeth Thornberry or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Elizabeth Thornberry being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Elizabeth Thornberry SEAL
Thomas Stone SEAL
David Darnall SEAL

September 27th 1742 (C-406)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Elizabeth Gregg widow of John Grant, Bertran Ewell, John Baxter and William Butler are bound to Robert Jones, Thomas Harrison Jun., Valentine Peyton and Samson Kenner gent. justices for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifteen hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said Justices. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-seventh day of September 1742.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Elizabeth Gregg executrix of the last will and testament of John Gregg gent. deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Gregg or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Elizabeth Gregg or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Elizabeth Gregg SEAL
John Grant SEAL
Bertran Ewell SEAL
John Baxter SEAL
William Butler SEAL

April 25th 1743 (C-408)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Benjamin Grayson, Lewis Elzey, Cuthbert Harrison gent. are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison Jun., Valentine Peyton, Samson Kenner and Bertran Ewell gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William County in the full and just sum of five hundred pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and each of us jointly and severally for the whole and in the whole our and each of our heirs executors and administrators to the said justices their heirs and successors firmly by these presents witness our hands and seals this twenty fifth day of April 1743.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Benjamin Grayson administrator of the last will and testament of Marmaduke Samson deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Benjamin Grayson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Benjamin Grayson or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Benjamin Grayson SEAL
Lewis Elzey SEAL
Cuthbert Harrison SEAL

May 23rd 1743 (C-411)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Samuel Earl & Samson Kener gentleman are held and firmly bound unto Robert Jones, John Wright, John Crump & Benjamin Bullett gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of one hundred and fifty pounds current money to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the 23rd day of May 1743.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Samuel Earl administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of David Williams deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Samuel Earl or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Samuel Earl or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Samuel Earl being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Samuel Earl SEAL
Samson Kener SEAL

October 4th 1743 (C-438)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Susanna Smith, Christopher Pritchett and Thomas Davies are held and firmly bound unto the worshipful gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of one hundred pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the 4th day of October 1743.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Susanna Smith administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Thomas Smith deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Susanna Smith or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Susanna Smith or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Susanna Smith being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|-----------------------|------|
| Susanna Smith | SEAL |
| Christopher Pritchett | SEAL |
| Thomas Davies | SEAL |

February 27th 1743 (C-438B)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Bridget Fegan, Henry Berry, James Cullins, Luke Cannon and John Sturman are held and firmly bound to Robert Jones, Valentine Peyton, John Crump and Benjamin Bullett, gentlemen justice of the County Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of one thousand pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the 27th day of February 1743.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Bridget Fegan administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Edward Fegan deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Bridget Fegan or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Bridget Fegan or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Bridget Fegan being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

| | |
|------------------|------|
| Bridget (X)Fegan | SEAL |
| Henry(X) Berry | SEAL |
| James(X) Cullins | SEAL |
| Luke Cannon | SEAL |
| John Sturman | SEAL |

February 27th 1743 (C-441)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Charles Morgan, Jasper Billings are held and firmly bound unto Robert Jones, John Diskin, Valentine Peyton and Jos. Blackwell, gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of one hundred pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the 27th day of February 1743.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Charles Morgan administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Rosser Spicer deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Charles Morgan or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Charles Morgan or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Charles Morgan being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Charles Morgan SEAL
Jasper Billings SEAL

February 27th 1742 (C-444)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Sibell Farrow widow of Thomas Harrison Jun. and John Graham are bound to Robert Jones, gent. justice for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of ___ to be paid to the said Justices. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-seventh day of February 1742.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Sibell Farrow executrix of the last will and testament of Abraham Farrow deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sibell Farrow or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Sibell Farrow or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Sibell Farrow SEAL
John Graham SEAL

February 27th 1743 (C-447)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Daniel Chambers, John Gent gentleman, and George Brett are held and firmly bound unto Robert Jones, Thomas Harrison Jun., Benjamin Grayson, and John Diskin gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of one hundred pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the 27th day of February 1743.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Daniel Chambers administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Orvin Grinnan deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Daniel Chambers or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Daniel Chambers or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Daniel Chambers being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Daniel Chambers SEAL
John Gent SEAL
George Brett SEAL

March 6th 1743 (C-449)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Frances Hackney and Daniel Marr are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison Jun., Joseph Hudnall, Richard Blackburn and John Wright, gentlemen justice of the County Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of two hundred pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the 6th day of March 1743.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Frances Hackney administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Hackney deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Frances Hackney or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Frances Hackney or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Frances Hackney being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Frances Hackney SEAL

William Hackney SEAL

Daniel Marr SEAL

March 26th 1744 (C-452)

Know all Men by these Presents that we James Turner, John Garner and Vincent Garner are held and firmly bound unto Benjamin Grayson, John Wright, Joseph Blackwell and John Frogg, gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of fifty pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the 26th day of March 1744.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound James Turner administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Chilton deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said James Turner or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said James Turner or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said James Turner being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

James Turner SEAL

John Garner SEAL

Vincent (X)Garner SEAL

March 6th 1744 (C-454)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Rachel Gibbins, George Harper and Samuel Jackson are held and firmly bound to Benjamin Grayson, John Wright, Joseph Blackwell and John Frogg, gentlemen justice of the County Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of fifty pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the 6th day of March 1744.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Rachel Gibbins administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Gibbins deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Rachel Gibbins or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Rachel Gibbins or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Rachel Gibbins being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Rachel (X) Gibbins SEAL
George Harper SEAL
Samuel Jackson SEAL

March 6th 1744 (C-457)
Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we Thomas Bullock and Daniel Carr are held and firmly bound to Benjamin Grayson, John Wright, Valentine Peyton and Joseph Blackwell, Gentlemen Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds current money to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this 6th day of March 1744.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Thomas Bullock guardian of Sarah Bullock his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said Thomas Bullock as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Catesby Cocke.

Thomas Bullock SEAL
Daniel Carr SEAL

March 6th 1744 (C-460)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Daniel Carr, John Wright and John Garner. are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison Jun., Benjamin Grayson, Valentine Peyton and Joseph Blackwell, gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William County in the full and just sum of one hundred pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and each of us jointly and severally for the whole and in the whole our and each of our heirs executors and administrators to the said justices their heirs and successors firmly by these presents witness our hands and seals this sixth day of March 1744.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Daniel Carr administrator of the last will and testament of Thomas Jordan deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Daniel Carr or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Daniel Carr or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Daniel Carr SEAL
John Wright SEAL
John Garner SEAL

April 3rd 1744 (C-472)

Know all Men by these Presents that we William Wroe, John Grant and Richard Foote are held and firmly bound to the Robert Jones gent. the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds to be paid to the said Robert Jones his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this third day of April 1744.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound William Wroe administrator of the last will and testament of William Bridges deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Wroe or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said William Wroe or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

William Wroe SEAL
John Grant SEAL
Richard Foote SEAL

April 23rd (C-475)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Ann Williams, John Ambrose and Augustine Finnings are held and firmly bound to the Robert Jones gent. the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds to be paid to the said Robert Jones his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-third day of April 1744.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Ann Williams administratrix of the last will and testament of Jonas Williams Jun. deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Ann Williams or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Ann Williams or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Ann (X) Williams SEAL
John Ambrose SEAL
Augustine Finnings SEAL

April 3rd 1744 (C-477)

Know all Men by these Presents that we John Ambrose and Samuel Earle are held and firmly bound to the Robert Jones gent. the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of fifty pounds to be paid to the said Robert Jones his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this third day of April 1744.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound John Ambrose administrator of the last will and testament of Thomas Deakers deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Ambrose or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said John Ambrose or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

John Ambrose SEAL
Samuel Earle SEAL

April 23rd 1744 (C-478)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Sarah Kendall, Morgan Darnal, and Thomas Kendall are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison Jun., Richard Blackburn, John Wright and William Blackwell, gentlemen justice of the County Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of one hundred pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the 23rd day of April 1744.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Sarah Kendall administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of William Kendall deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Sarah Kendall or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Sarah Kendall or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Sarah Kendall being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Sarah Kendall SEAL
Morgan Darnal SEAL
Thomas Kendall SEAL

May 8th 1744 (C-484)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Daniel Marr, John Bradford, Joseph Hudnall and William Blackwell are held and firmly bound to Robert Jones gent. the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of one hundred and four hundred pounds sterling to be paid to the said Robert Jones his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this eighth day of May 1744.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Daniel Marr and John Bradford administrators of the last will and testament of John Marr deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Daniel Marr and John Bradford or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Daniel Marr and John Bradford or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of their Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Daniel Marr SEAL
John Bradford SEAL
Joseph Hudnall SEAL
William Blackwell SEAL

May 20th 1744 (C-489)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Jane Lacon, Edward Gwatkin and John Tackett are held and firmly bound to the Robert Jones gent. the first Justice in the Commission of Peace for Prince William County for and in behalf and to the sole use and behoof of the Justices of the said County and their successors in the sum of five hundred and fifty pounds to be paid to the said Robert Jones his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 20th day of May 1744.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Jane Lacon administrator of the last will and testament of Francis Lacon deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Jane Lacon or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Jane Lacon or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Jane Lacon SEAL
Edward Gwatkin SEAL
John Tackett SEAL

May 20th 1744 (C-491)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Jane Gosling, John Cantaberry and Andrew Dalton are held and firmly bound to the Thomas Harrison, Richard Blackburn, William Blackwell, and William Butler Gentlemen Justices of Prince William County in the sum of five hundred and fifty pounds . To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this 20th day of May 1744.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Jane Gosling administrator of the last will and testament of Simon Gosling deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Jane Gosling or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Jane Gosling or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Jane(X) Gosling SEAL
John Canterbury SEAL
Andrew Dalton SEAL

June 25th 1744 (C-507)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Thomas Morris, Mary Greshon, William Hackney and James Fletcher are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison Jun., Richard Blackburn, John Wright and William Blackwell Gentlemen Justices in the sum of two hundred pounds sterling to be paid to the said Robert Jones his Executors Administrators and Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals dated this twenty-fifth day of June 1744.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Thomas Morris and Mary Greshon administrators of the last will and testament of James Greshon deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Thomas and Mary or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any time shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Thomas and Mary or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a just and true account of their Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court; and also shall well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Thomas Morris SEAL
Mary Greshon SEAL
William Hackney SEAL
James Fletcher SEAL

June 26th 1744 (C-508)
Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we Edward Feagan, Daniel Feagan, and Henry Feagan are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison Jun., Richard Blackburn, John Wright and Joseph Blackwell, Gentlemen Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of three hundred pounds current money to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this twenty-sixth day of June 1744.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Edward Feagan guardian of Francis Feagan his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said Edward Feagan as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Catesby Cocke.

Edward Feagan SEAL
Daniel Feagan SEAL
Henry Feagan SEAL

July 3rd 1744 (C-509)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Elizabeth Bailey, John Maddox and William Wyatt are held and firmly bound to Benjamin Grayson, John Wright, Valentine Peyton and Moses Linton, gentlemen justice of the County Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of ____ pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the 3rd day of July 1744.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Elizabeth Bailey administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John White deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Elizabeth Bailey or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Elizabeth Bailey or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Elizabeth Bailey being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Elizabeth Bailey SEAL
John Maddox SEAL
William Wyatt SEAL

July 20th 1744 (C-511)
Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we George Byrn and Cuthbert Garrison are held and firmly bound to Robert Jones, Richard Blackburn, Benjamin Grayson and John Wright, Gentlemen Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of two hundred pounds sterling to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this 20th day of July 1744.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound George Byrn guardian of William Brown, John Brown and George Brown his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said George Byrn as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Catesby Cocke.

George Byrn SEAL
Cuthbert Garrison SEAL

1744 (C-519)

Know all Men by these Presents that we William Blackwell, Howison Kenner, Moses Linton are held and firmly bound unto _____ gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of _____ pounds to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated 1744.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound William Blackwell and Howson Kenner administrator of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of John Turner deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said William & Howson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of his death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said William & Howson or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of his Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said William & Howson being thereunto required do render and deliver up his letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

William Blackwell SEAL
Howson Kenner SEAL
Moses Linton SEAL

August 7th 1744 (C-522)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Cundiff and Wayman Sinkler are held and firmly bound to Joseph Hudnall, Valentine Peyton, John Diskin and William Blackwell, gentlemen justice of the County Court of Prince William in the full and just sum of fifty pounds sterling to which payment well and truly to be made to the said justices their heirs and successors we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals dated the 7th day of August 1744.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the above bound Mary Cundiff administratrix of all the Goods, Chattels and Credits of Isaac Cundiff deceased do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Mary Cundiff or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased at the time of her death or which at any time shall come to the hands, possession of the said Mary Cundiff or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of her Actings and Doings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the said Justices by their order or Judgment shall direct pursuant to the laws in that case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear that any Last Will and Testament was made by the Deceased and the Executor or Executors therein named do Exhibit the same into Court making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly if the said Mary Cundiff being thereunto required do render and deliver up her letter of administration approbation of such Testament being first had and maid in the Court. Then this Obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of John Bowie

Mary (X) Cundiff SEAL
Wayman Sinkler SEAL

September 24th 1744 (C-525)

Guardian Bond

Know all men by these presents that we Cuthbert Harrison and Valentine Peyton are held and firmly bound to Joseph Hudnall, John Wright, Thomas Stribling and Anthony Seale, Gentlemen Justices of Prince William County their Heirs Executors and Administrators in the sum of five hundred pounds sterling to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents as witness our hands and seals this 24th day of September 1744.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Cuthbert Harrison guardian of Prudence Osborn his heirs executors and administrators do & shall well & truly pay or cause to be truly paid unto the said Orphans all such estate & estates that now is or hereafter shall come to the hands of the said Cuthbert Harrison as soon as the said Orphans shall attain so lawful age or when thereunto required by the Justice of the Peace of Prince William County Court & also to have & keep harmless the said Justices their heirs and successors from all trouble & damage that shall & may arise about the said estate then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of Catesby Cocke.

Cuthbert Harrison SEAL
Valentine Peyton SEAL

August 22nd 1753 (1-01)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Mary Settle, George Brown, and Martin Settle are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Benjamin Grayson, John Bell and John Crump, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty three and in the XXVII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Settle administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Strother Settle deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mary or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Mary being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Settle SEAL
George Brown SEAL
Martin Settle SEAL

Mary Settle, George Brown, and Martin Settle acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 22nd day of August 1753 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

October 22nd 1753 (1-02)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Harmon Batton, Catherine Batton, John Garner, and John Camper are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Richard Blackburn, Benjamin Grayson, and John Wright, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty three and in the XXVII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Harmon Batton & Catherine Batton administrators of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Jacob Smith deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Harmon and Catherine or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Harmon and Catherine or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of their Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said

Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Harmon and Catherine being thereunto required, do render and deliver up their Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Harmon Batton SEAL
Catherine Batton SEAL
John Garner SEAL
John Camper SEAL

Harmon Batton, Catherine Batton, John Garner and John Camper acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 22nd day of October 1753 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

November 26th 1753 (1-03)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Aron Drummond, James Head and Thomas Williams are held and firmly bound to Richard Blackburn, John Wright, Bertrand Ewell and Henry Peyton, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty three and in the XXVII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Aron Drummond administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Drummond deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Aron or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mary or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Aron being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Aron Drummond SEAL
James Head SEAL
Thomas Williams SEAL

Aron Drummond, James Head, and Thomas Williams acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 26th day of November 1753 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

March 25th 1754 (1-04)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We John Summers, Elizabeth Summers, John Metcalf and William Thorn are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Richard Blackburn, John Wright, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fifth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Summers and Elizabeth Summers administrators of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Farrow deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said John and Elizabeth or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John and Elizabeth or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true

Account of their Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John and Elizabeth being thereunto required, do render and deliver up their Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Summers SEAL
Elizabeth Summers SEAL
John Metcalf SEAL
William Thorn SEAL

John Summers, Elizabeth Summers, John Metcalf, and William Thorn acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 25th day of March 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

March 25th 1754 (1-05)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We William Goon, Henry Poulson, and Aron Champlin are held and firmly bound to Richard Blackburn, John Ball, Elias Edmund, and Howson Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fifth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Goon administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Champlin deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Goon or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Goon or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Goon being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Goon SEAL
Henry Poulson SEAL
Aron Champlin SEAL

William Goon, Henry Poulson, and Aron Champlin acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 25th day of March 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

June 24th 1754 (1-06)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We William Rookard and John Dickins are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Richard Blackburn, John Wright, and Henry Peyton, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fourth day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Rookard administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Ward deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Rookard or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Goon or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Rookard being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Rookard SEAL

John Dickins SEAL

William Rookard and John Dickins acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 25th day of March 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

June 24th 1754 (1-07)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We George Brett & Richard Keener are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Richard Blackburn, John Wright and Henry Peyton, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fourth day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound George Brett administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of James Farguson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said George or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Goon or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said George being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George Brett SEAL

Richard Keener SEAL

George Brett and Richard Keener acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 24th day of June 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

June 24th 1754 (1-08)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Mason Bennitt, John Chapman Purcell & John Farrow are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Richard Blackburn, John Wright, and Howson Hooe Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fourth day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mason Bennitt administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Bryan Chambling Jr. deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Mason Bennitt or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mason Bennitt or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Mason Bennitt being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mason Bennitt SEAL
 John Chapman Purcell SEAL
 John Farrow SEAL

Mason Bennitt, John Chapman Purcell and John Farrow acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 24th day of June 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

June 24th 1754 (1-09)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Ann Gallahue, Richard Keener, Nathaniel Overhall and George Calvert Jr. are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Richard Blackburn, John Wright, and Howson Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fourth day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Ann Gallahue administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Gallahue deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Ann Gallahue or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mary or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Ann Gallahue being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann Gallahue SEAL
 Richard Keener SEAL
 George Calvert Jr. SEAL

Ann Gallahue, Richard Keener and George Calvert Jr. acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 24th day of June 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

June 24th 1754 (1-10)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Margaret Marshall, Simon Luttrell, Isaac Farrow and William Rookard are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Richard Blackburn, John Wright and John Crumpe Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fourth day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Margaret Marshall administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Robert Marshall deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Margaret Marshall or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mary or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Margaret Marshall being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Margaret Marshall SEAL
Simon Luttrell SEAL
Isaac Farrow SEAL
William Rookard SEAL

Margaret Marshall, Simon Luttrell, Isaac Farrow and William Rookard acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 24th day of June 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

September 24th 1754 (1-11)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Robert Marshall, Thomas Marshall, John Peyton Jr., John Simmons, and Scarlet Madden are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison and John Wright, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fourth day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Robert Marshall and Thomas Marshall administrators of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Robert Marshall deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Robert Marshall and Thomas Marshall or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them in hand the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Robert Marshall and Thomas Marshall or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of their Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Robert Marshall and Thomas Marshall being thereunto required, do render and deliver up their Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert Marshall SEAL
Thomas Marshall SEAL
John Peyton SEAL
John Simons SEAL
Scarlet Madden SEAL

Robert Marshall, Thomas Marshall, John Peyton, John Simons, and Scarlet Madden acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 25th day of March 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

September 24th 1754 (1-12)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Simon Lutterill and William Ashmore are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Benjamin Grayson, John Wright and John Crump, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fourth day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Simon Luttrell administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Margaret Marshall deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Simon Luttrell or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Simon Luttrell or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Simon Luttrell being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Simon Luttrell SEAL

William Ashmore SEAL

Simon Luttrell and William Ashmore acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 25th day of March 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

November 26th 1754 (1-13)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Anne Watkins, John Adams, and William Watkins are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Benjamin Grayson, Henry Peyton and John Crump, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Anne Watson administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Henry Watson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Anne Watkins or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Anne Watkins or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Anne Watkins being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Anne Watkins SEAL
John Adams SEAL
William Watkins SEAL

Anne Watkins, John Adams, and William Watkins acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 26th day of November 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

April 28th 1755 (1-14)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Jemima Oakley, William Bridges and John Hopper are held and firmly bound to Benjamin Grayson, John Wright, John Bell and Howson Hoe Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty eighth day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty five and in the XXVIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Jemima Oakley administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Oakley deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Jemima Oakley or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Jemima Oakley or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Jemima Oakley being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jemima Oakley SEAL
Williams Bridges SEAL
John Hopper SEAL

Jemima Oakley, William Bridges, and John Hopper acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 28th day of April 1753 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

May 26th 1755 (1-15)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Francis Jackson and Benjamin Bridges are held and firmly bound to Richard Blackburn, John Ball, Elias Edmund, and Housa Roe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty five and in the XXVII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Francis Jackson administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Walter Seales deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Francis Jackson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Francis Jackson or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Francis Jackson being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Francis Jackson SEAL
Benjamin Bridges SEAL

Francis Jackson and Benjamin Bridges acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 25th day of March 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

May 26th 1755 (1-16)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Mary Scott, Richard Crupper and George Calvert Jun. are held and firmly bound to John Frogg, John Churchill, John Crump and John Baylis Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty five and in the XXIX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Scott administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Scott deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mary or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Mary being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Scott SEAL
Richard Crupper SEAL
George Calvert Jr. SEAL

Mary Scott, Richard Crupper and George Calvert Jun. acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 26th day of May 1755 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

August 26th 1755 (1-17)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Edward Hall, John Kelly and Henry Cooper are held and firmly bound to John Wright, John Frogg, Bertrand Ewell, and John Churchill, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty five and in the XXIX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Edward Hall administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Mary Hall deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Edward Hall or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Edward Hall or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Edward Hall being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Edward Hall SEAL
John Kelly SEAL
Henry Cooper SEAL

Edward Hall, John Kelly and Henry Cooper acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 26th day of August 1755 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

August 26th 1755 (1-18)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We John Baylis, and Henry Lee are held and firmly bound to John Wright, John Frogg, Bertrand Ewell and John Churchill, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty five and in the XXIX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Baylis administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Robert Crupper deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Baylis or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Baylis or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Baylis being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Baylis SEAL
Henry Lee SEAL

John Baylis and Henry Lee acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the twenty sixth day of August 1755 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

September 23rd 1755 (1-19)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We James Douglas, Allan MaCrae and John Graham are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, John Wright, Bertrand Ewell and John Crump, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred fifty pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty five and in the XXIX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James Douglas and Allen MaCrae administrators of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Wright deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said James Douglas and Allan MaCrae or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of their Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said James Douglas and John Graham or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of their Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said James Douglas and Allan McCrae being thereunto required, do render and deliver up their Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Douglas SEAL
Allan Macrae SEAL
John Crump SEAL

James Douglas, Allan Macrae and John Crump acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 23rd day of September 1755 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

March 22nd 1756 (1-20)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We William Russell, Parish Garner and John Conyers are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs and George Brett, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty six and in the XXIX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Russell administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Russell deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Russell or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Russell or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Russell being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Russell SEAL
Parish Garner SEAL
John Conyers SEAL

William Russell, Parish Garner and John Conyers acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 22nd day of March 1756 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

March 22nd 1756 (1-21)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Mathew Steele and Foushee Tebbs are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, and George Brett, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty six and in the XXIX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mathew Steele administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of James Towers deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Mathew Steele or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mathew Steele or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Mathew Steele being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mathew Steele SEAL
Foushee Tebbs SEAL

Mathew Steele and Foushee Tebbs acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 22nd day of March 1756 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

May 24th 1756 (1-22)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Mathew Steele, Allen MaCrae, John Baylis and Thomas Machen are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Blackwell, James Scott, William Eustace, William Grant and Howson Hoe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds sterling, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fourth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty six and in the XXIX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mathew Steele and Allan Macrae administrators of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Mitchell deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Administrators or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of their Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Administrators or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of their Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Administrators being thereunto required, do render and deliver up their Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mathew Steele SEAL
Allan Macrae SEAL
John Baylis SEAL
Thomas Machen SEAL

Mathew Steele, Allan Macrae, John Baylis, and Thomas Machen acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 24th day of May 1756 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

May 24th 1756 (1-23)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Bertrand Ewell, Lynaugh Helm, William Ashmore, Darby Gallahue and John Peyton are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Wm. Blackwell, James Scott, Howson Hooe and George Brett, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fourth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty six and in the XXIX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Bertrand Ewell administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Humphrey Pope deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Bertrand Ewell or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Bertrand Ewell or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Bertrand Ewell being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Bertrand Ewell SEAL
Lynaugh Helm SEAL
William Ashmore SEAL
Darby Gallahue SEAL
John Peyton SEAL

Bertrand Ewell, Lynaugh Helm, William Ashmore, Darby Gallahue, John Peyton acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 24th day of May 1756 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

May 25th 1756 (1-24)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We William Carr and George Brett are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, William Blackwell and John Boyle, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of four hundred pounds sterling, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fifth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty six and in the XXIX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Carr administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Carr deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Carr or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Carr or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Carr being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Carr SEAL
George Brett SEAL

William Carr and George Brett acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 22nd day of March 1756 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

June 28th 1756 (1-25)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Sarah Belfare and Henry Churchill are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, William Blackwell and Howson Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of four hundred pounds sterling, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty eighth day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty six and in the XXIX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Belfare administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of James Belfare deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Belfare or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Sarah Belfare or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Sarah Belfare being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Belfare SEAL
Henry Churchill SEAL

Sarah Belfare and Henry Churchill acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 28th day of June 1756 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

August 23rd 1756 (1-26)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Solomon Jones, Charles Chinn, James Young, and Henry Lee are held and firmly bound to William Blackwell, James Scott and William Eustace, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty six and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Solomon Jones administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Jones deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Solomon Jones or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Solomon Jones or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Solomon Jones being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Solomon Jones SEAL
Charles Chinn SEAL
James Young SEAL
Henry Lee SEAL

Solomon Jones, Charles Chinn, James Young, Henry Lee acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 23rd day of August 1756 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

October 25th 1756 (1-27)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Vylett Dallas, John Sias and Thomas Davis are held and firmly bound to James Scott, William Blackwell and William Grant, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fifth day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty six and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Vylett Dallas administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Dallas deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Vylett Dallas or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Vylett Dallas or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Vylett Dallas being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Vylett Dallas SEAL
John Sias SEAL
Thomas Davis SEAL

Vylett Dallas, John Sias and Thomas Davis acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 25th day of October 1756 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

November 22nd 1756 (1-28)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Ledia Stamps, Joseph Duncan and John Duncan are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, John Baylis, and Howsen Hooe Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty six and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Ledia Stamps, Joseph Duncan and John Duncan administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Stamps deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Ledia Stamps or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Ledia Stamps or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Ledia Stamps being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ledia Stamps SEAL
Joseph Duncan SEAL
John Duncan SEAL

Ledia Stamps, Joseph Duncan and John Duncan acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 22nd day of November 1756 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

November 22nd 1756 (1-29)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We William Carr and William Ellzey are held and firmly bound to John Wright, Henry Lee, James Scott, John Bailis Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty six and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Carr administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Green deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Carr or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Carr or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Carr being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Carr SEAL
William Ellzey SEAL

William Carr and William Ellzey acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the twenty second day of November 1756 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

February 28th 1757 (1-30)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We William Spiller, William Tackett and George Dodson are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, John Baylis, Bertrand Ewell and Foushee Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds current money of Virginia. To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty eighth day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty seven and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Spiller administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Spiller deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Spiller or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Spiller or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Spiller being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Spiller SEAL
William Tackett SEAL
George Dodson SEAL

February 28th 1757 (1-31)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Sarah Hamrick, Richard Melton and Thomas Stone are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, Bertrand Ewell and Allan Macrae, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money of Virginia. To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty eighth day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty seven and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Hamrick administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Hamrick deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Sarah or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Sarah being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Hamrick SEAL
Richard Melton SEAL
Thomas Stone SEAL

February 28th 1757 (1-32)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Allan McCrae, William Ellzey, and Bertrand Ewell are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds current money of Virginia. To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty eighth day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty seven and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Allan McCrae administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of David McCaul deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Macrae or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Macrae or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Macrae being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Allan Macrae SEAL
William Ellzey SEAL
Bertram Ewell SEAL

March 28th 1757 (1-33)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Sarah Fearnly, William Miller and Joseph Blackwell are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, John Baylis, and Howsen Hooe Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty eighth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty seven and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Fearnly administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of James Fearnly deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Ledia Stamps or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Sarah Fearnly or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Sarah Fearnly being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Fearnly SEAL
William Miller SEAL
Joseph Blackwell SEAL

March 28th 1757 (1-34)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Absolom Rainey, Francis Burgess and Joseph Kelly are held and firmly bound to Right Honorable Lord Fairfax, Henry Lee, James Scott and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty eighth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty seven and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Absolom Rainey administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Doolittle deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Absolom Rainey or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Absolom Rainey or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Absolom Rainey being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Absolom Rainey SEAL
Francis Burgess SEAL
Joseph Kelly SEAL

May 23rd 1757 (1-35)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Hamrick, Samuel Stone and John Smith are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, John Baylis, William Eustace and William Grant, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty seven and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Hamrick administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Robert Hamrick deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Elizabeth or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Elizabeth or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Elizabeth being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Hamrick SEAL
Samuel Stone SEAL
John Smith SEAL

May 23rd 1757 (1-36)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Mathew Steele and Thomas Machen are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, John Baylis and William Eustace, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty seven and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mathew Steele administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of James Curtis deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Administrator or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Administrator or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Administrator being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mathew Steele SEAL
Thomas Machen SEAL

May 24th 1757 (1-37)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Thomas Marshall and Richard Crupper are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Bertrand Ewell, John Crump and William Eustace, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fourth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty seven and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Marshall administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Richard Marshall deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Marshall or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Thomas Marshall or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Thomas Marshall being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Marshall SEAL
Richard Crupper SEAL

November 29th 1757 (1-38)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We William Ellzey, and John Frogg are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, Howson Hooe and John Baylis, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty ninth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty seven and in the XXXI Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Ellzey administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of George Smith deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Ellsey or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Ellsey or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Ellsey being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Ellsey SEAL
John Frogg SEAL

March 27th 1758 (1-39)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Anderson, Thomas Bland and Richard Rixey are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, John Frogg, and Howsen Hooe Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eight and in the XXXI Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Anderson administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Anderson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Anderson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Elizabeth Anderson or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Elizabeth Anderson being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Anderson SEAL
Thomas Bland SEAL
Richard Rixey SEAL

March 27th 1758 (1-40)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We William Dawkins, John Tyler, and Robert Sinkler (Sinclair) are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, John Baylis, and Howson Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of three hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eighth and in the XXXI Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Dawkins administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Francis Owen deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Dawkins or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Dawkins or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Dawkins being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Dawkins SEAL
John Tyler SEAL
Robert Sinclair SEAL

March 27th 1758 (1-41)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Jean Wilson, Thomas James and Thomas Green are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, John Baylis, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of three hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eight and in the XXXI Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Jean Wilson administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Wilson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Jean Wilson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Jean Wilson or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Jean Wilson being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jean Wilson SEAL
Thomas James SEAL
Thomas Green SEAL

March 27th 1758 (1-42)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Dianah Metcalf, William Hagard and Samuel Whitson are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, William Tebbs and Howsen Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eight and in the XXXI Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Dianah Metcalf administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Metcalf deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Dianah or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Dianah or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Dianah being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Dianah Metcalf SEAL
William Hagard SEAL
Samuel Whitson SEAL

March 27th 1758 (1-43)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We William Ashmore, Francis Purnell, Thomas Harrison and John Baylis are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, John Baylis, and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eighth and in the XXXI Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Ashmore and Francis Purnell administrators of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Chapman Purnell deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said William and Francis or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of their Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William and Francis or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William and Francis being thereunto required, do render and deliver up their Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Ashmore SEAL
Francis Purnell SEAL
Thomas Harrison SEAL
John Baylis SEAL

May 22nd 1758 (1-44)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Crupper, Howson Kenner and James Seaton are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, John Crump and The Honbl. Lord Fairfax, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eight and in the XXXI Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Crupper administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Gilbert Crupper deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Crupper or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Elizabeth Crupper or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Elizabeth Crupper being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Crupper SEAL
Howson Kenner SEAL
James Seaton SEAL

August 28th 1758 (1-45)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We George Harper and Thomas Mason are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, John Baylis, and Foushee Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty eighth day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eighth and in the XXXI Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound George Harper administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Francis Searson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said George Harper or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said George Harper or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said George Harper being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George Harper SEAL
Thomas Mason SEAL

October 23rd 1758 (1-46)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Aaron Shamlin, Charles Hardin and John Lynn are held and firmly bound to Thomas Lord Fairfax, Howsen Hooe, John Bailis and Allan McCrae Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eighth and in the XXXII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Aaron Shamlin administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Bryant Hamlin deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Aaron Shamlin or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Aaron Shamlin or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Aaron Shamlin being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Aaron Shamlin SEAL
Charles Hardin SEAL
John Lynn SEAL

November 27th 1758 (1-47)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Margaret Dodson, Lazerous Dodson and Mackegie Pool are held and firmly bound to James Scott, John Baylis, Howson Hooe and Allan Macrae Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eight and in the XXXII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Margaret Dodson administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of George Dodson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Margaret Dodson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Margaret Dodson or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Margaret Dodson being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Margaret Dodson SEAL
Lazerous Dodson SEAL
Mackegie Pool SEAL

November 27th 1758 (1-48)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We William Bennitt, Isaac Davis, William Colelough are held and firmly bound to James Scott, Baylis, Allan Macrae and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eighth and in the XXXII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Bennitt administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of George Junkison deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Bennitt or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Bennitt or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Bennitt being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Bennitt SEAL
Isaac Davis SEAL
William Colelough SEAL

November 27th 1758 (1-49)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We William Suddorth and Rosanna his wife and William Ellzey are held and firmly bound to Thomas Lord Fairfax, Howsen Hooe, John Bailis and Allan McCrae Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eighth and in the XXXII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Suddorth and Rosanna his wife administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Benjamin Parker deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said William Suddorth and Rosanna his wife or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Suddorth and Rosanna his wife or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of their Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Suddorth and Rosanna his wife being thereunto required, do render and deliver up their Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Suddorth SEAL
 Rosanna _____ SEAL
 William Ellzey SEAL

March 26th 1759 (1-50)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Sarah Castry, Thomas Redman, and Thomas Bland are held and firmly bound to James Scott, John Baylis, Howson Hooe and Allan Macrae Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two dred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty nine in the XXXII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Castry administrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Edward Castry deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Castry Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Sarah Castry Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Sarah Castry being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Castry SEAL
 Thomas Redman SEAL
 Thomas Bland SEAL

April 23rd 1758 (1-51)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Burr Harrison, Thomas Harrison and Cuthbert Harrison are held and firmly bound to James Scott, Balis, Allan Macrae and William Tebbs and Foushee Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty nine and in the XXXII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Burr Harrison administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Linton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Burr Harrison or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Burr Harrison or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Burr Harrison being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Burr Harrison SEAL
Thomas Harrison SEAL
Cuthbert Harrison SEAL

June 25th 1759 (1-52)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We James Burn, John Diskin and William Seale are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Henry Peyton, James Scott and Allan Macrae Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fifth day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty nine and in the XXXIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James Burn administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Alex. Ballinger deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said James Burn or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said James Burn or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said James Burn being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Burn SEAL
John Diskin SEAL
William Seale SEAL

November 26th 1759 (1-53)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Robert Scott and John Moffett are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Allan Macrae, Foushee Tebbs and Lewis Reno, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of fifty pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty nine and in the XXXIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Robert Scott administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Bristow deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Robert Scott or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Robert Scott or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Robert Scott being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert Scott SEAL
John Moffett SEAL

March 24th 1760 (1-54)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Byrne, Nathaniel Overall and James Head are held and firmly bound to James Scott, Foushee Tebbs, Lewis Reno and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fourth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty in the XXXIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Byrne administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Byrne deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Byrne Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Elizabeth Byrne Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Elizabeth Byrne being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Byrne SEAL
Nathaniel Overall SEAL
James Head SEAL

March 28th 1760 (1-55)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Sarah Dagg, Foushee Tebbs and John Barker are held and firmly bound to James Scott, John Baylis, William Tebbs, Lewis Reno and John Hoe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty eighth day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty in the XXXIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Dagg administratrix with the will annexed of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Dagg deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Dagg Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Sarah Dagg Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Sarah Dagg being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------|------|
| Sarah Dagg | SEAL |
| Foushee Tebbs | SEAL |
| John Barker | SEAL |

April 28th 1760 (1-56)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Thomas Dagg, William Bennett and Isaac Davis are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, John Baylis, Foushee Tebbs and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty eighth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty and in the XXXIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Dagg administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Dagg deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Dagg or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Thomas Dagg or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Thomas Dagg being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| Thomas Dagg | SEAL |
| William Bennett | SEAL |
| Isaac Davis | SEAL |

July 20th 1760 (1-57)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Isaac Davis, Henry Lee and James Triplett are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, James Scott, Foushee Tebbs and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty and in the XXXIV Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Isaac Davis administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Joshua Davis deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Isaac Davis or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Isaac Davis or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Isaac Davis being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Isaac Davis SEAL
Henry Lee Esq. SEAL
James Triplett SEAL

July 28th 1760 (1-58)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We James Triplet, Daniel Triplet, John Hedges and Thomas Atwell are held and firmly bound to John Scot, Henry Peyton, Fushee Tebbs, and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty eighth day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty and in the XXXIV Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James Triplet and Daniel Triplet administrators of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Dagg deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said James Triplett and Daniel Triplet or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of their Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said James Triplet and Daniel Triplet or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said James Triplet and Daniel Triplet being thereunto required, do render and deliver up their Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Triplet SEAL
Daniel Triplet SEAL
John Hedges SEAL
Thomas Atwell SEAL

September 23rd 1760 (1-59)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We John Jackson and William Ellzey are held and firmly bound to Bertrand Ewell, Foushee Tebbs, Lynaugh Helm, and William Carr, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty and in the XXXIV Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Jackson administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Rachel Jackson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Jackson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Jackson or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Jackson being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Jackson SEAL
 William Ellzey SEAL

January 26th 1761 (1-60)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We James Nisbett executor of Benjamin Grayson deceased, Thomas Machen and John Graham are held and firmly bound to John Baylis, Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs and Lewis Reno, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of January in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty one and in the XXXIV Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James Nesbitt executor of Benjamin Grayson deceased administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Jededia Mitchel deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said James Nesbitt or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said James Nesbitt or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said James Nesbitt being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Nesbitt SEAL
 Thomas Machen SEAL
 John Graham SEAL

February 23rd 1761 (61)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Jane Simon, Benjamin Rush Jr. and William Wilson are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, John Baylis, Allan Macrae, John Hooe and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty one and in the XXXIIV Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Jane Simon administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Robert Highstead deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Jane Simon or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Jane Simon or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Jane Simon being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jane Simon SEAL
Benjamin Rush Jr, SEAL
William Wilson SEAL

February 23rd 1761 (62)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Aaron Hawkins and Mary Hawkins, and William Murphy are held and firmly bound to John Baylis, Foushee Tebbs and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty one and in the XXXIV Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Aaron Hawkins and Mary his wife administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Alexander Bell deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Administrators or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of their Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Administrators or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of their Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Administrators being thereunto required, do render and deliver up their Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Aaron Hawkins SEAL
Mary Hawkins SEAL
William Murphy SEAL

March 23rd 1761 (63)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Jemima Hewitt, and William Barr are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Thomas Lawson, William Tebbs and Lewis Reno Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds current money of Virginia, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty one and in the first Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Jemima Hewitt administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Hewitt deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Jemima Hewitt or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods,

Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Jemima Hewitt or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Jemima Hewitt being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jemima Hewitt SEAL
William Barr SEAL

May 25th 1761 (64)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Sarah Thorn, Henry Peyton and Edward Gwatkin are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, John Baylis and William Tebbs Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of fifteen hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fifth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty first and in the first Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Thorn administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Thorn deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Thorn or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Sarah Thorn or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Sarah Thorn being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Thorn SEAL
Henry Peyton SEAL
Edward Gwatkin SEAL

May 25th 1761 (65)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Sarah Stewart and George Calvert Jr. are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, Allan Macrae, John Baylis and Lewis Reno Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money of Virginia, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fifth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty one and in the first Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Stewart administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Daniel Stewart deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Stewart or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Sarah Stewart or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Sarah Stewart being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Stewart SEAL

George Calvert Jr. SEAL

October 26th 1761 (66)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Elizabeth Whitledge, Thomas Dagg and Ann Graham are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Bertrand Ewell, John Baylis and Lewis Reno, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money of Virginia, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty one and in the first Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Whitledge administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Whitledge deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Whitledge or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Elizabeth Whitledge or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Elizabeth Whitledge being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Whitledge SEAL

Thomas Dagg SEAL

John Graham SEAL

February 23rd 1762 (67)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Robert Wickliff and Isaac Davis are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Allan Macrae, Lewis Renoe and Lynaugh Helm, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty two and in the Second Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Robert Wickliff administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Elias Wickliff deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Robert Wickliff or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Robert Wickliff or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Robert Wickliff being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert Wickliff SEAL
Isaac Davis SEAL

March 22nd 1762 (68)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We William Watkins, William Whitsides and Edward Cornwell are held and firmly bound to James Scott, John Baylis, Howison Hooe and Lynaugh Helm, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty two and in the Second Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Watkins administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Ewell Jones deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Watkins or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Watkins or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Watkins being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Watkins SEAL
William Whitsides SEAL
Edward Cornwell SEAL

May 4th 1762 (69)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Sarah Melton, William Bird and George Reeve and are held and firmly bound to Bertrand Ewell, James Scott, William Tebbs and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money of Virginia, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty two and in the second Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Melton administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Melton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Melton or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods,

Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Sarah Melton or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Sarah Melton being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|--------------|------|
| Sarah Melton | SEAL |
| William Bird | SEAL |
| George Reeve | SEAL |

May 4th 1762 (69)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Whitledge, Thomas Dagg & John Graham are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Bertrand Ewell, John Baylis and Lewis Reno, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money of Virginia, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty one and in the first Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Whitledge administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Whitledge deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Whitledge or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Elizabeth Whitledge or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Elizabeth Whitledge being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------------|------|
| Elizabeth Whitledge | SEAL |
| Thomas Dagg | SEAL |
| John Graham | SEAL |

June 7th 1762 (1-70)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We James Foley and William Ellzey are held and firmly bound to James Scott, Henry Peyton, John Linton and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty two and in the Second Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James Foley administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Foley deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said James Foley or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said James Foley or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said James Foley being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Foley SEAL
William Ellzey SEAL

August 6th 1762 (1-71)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We John Baylis and William Baylis are held and firmly bound to James Scott, John Baylis, Howison Hooe and Lynaugh Helm, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty two and in the Second Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Baylis administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Robert Neavil deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Baylis or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Baylis or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Baylis being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Baylis SEAL
William Baylis SEAL

September 9th 1762 (1-72)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Thomas Machan and John Graham are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, Allan Macrae and James Douglass, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of twenty pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty two and in the Second Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Machan administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Nathaniel Overall deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Machan or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Thomas Machan or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Thomas Machan being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Machan SEAL
John Graham SEAL

February 11th 1763 (1-73)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Thomas Moss, and Daniel Kinchelo are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, John Baylis, Allan Macrae and Lewis Reno, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money of Virginia, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twentieth day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty three and in the first Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Moss administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Sarah Moss deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Moss or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Thomas Moss or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Thomas Moss being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Moss SEAL
Daniel Kinchelo SEAL

April 8th 1763 (1-74)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Ann Mollahon and George Johnston are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Macrae, Lewis Reno and William Tebbs Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this eighth day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty three and in the third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Ann Mollahon administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Mollahon deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Ann Mollahon or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Ann Mollahon or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Ann Mollahon being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann Mollahon SEAL
George Johnston SEAL

July 4th 1763 (1-75)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Richard Melton, William Carr and Thomas Bland are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Nisbett, James Scott and Lewis Reno, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money of Virginia, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty three and in the first Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Richard Melton administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Sarah Melton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Richard Melton or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Richard Melton or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Richard Melton being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Richard Melton SEAL
William Carr SEAL
Thomas Bland SEAL

August 1st 1763 (1-77)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Richard Adams and James Tebbs are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, John Baylis, Howson Hooe and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty three and in the Third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Richard Adams administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Jane Shadburn deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Richard Adams or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Richard Adams or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Richard Adams being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Richard Adams SEAL
James Tebbs SEAL

September 5th 1763 (1-77)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Christian Waters, William Tackett and William More are held and firmly bound to John Baylis, Howson Hooe, Lynaugh Helm, and Lewis Renoe Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty three and in the Third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Christian Waters administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Waters deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Christian Waters or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Christian Waters or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Christian Waters being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Christian Waters SEAL
William Tackett SEAL
William More SEAL

November 7th 1763 (1-78)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We John Bland and William Carr are held and firmly bound to John Henry Lee, John Baylis, Cuthbert Harrison and James Nisbett, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty three and in the Third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Bland and William Carr administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Bland deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Bland or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Bland or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Bland being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Bland SEAL
William Carr SEAL

March 1st 1764 (1-79)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Sarah Adams, Joseph Truman and Thomas Riddle are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Macrae, Lewis Reno and William Tebbs Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty four and in the Fourth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Adams administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Richard Adams deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Adams or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Sarah Adams or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Sarah Adams being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Adams SEAL
Joseph Truman SEAL
Thomas Riddle SEAL

July 2nd 1764 (1-80)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Ann Morris, John Thomas and Andrew Martin are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, James Nisbett, and John Baylis, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of twenty pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty four and in the fourth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Ann Morris administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Richard Morris deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Ann Morris or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Ann Morris or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Ann Morris being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann Morris SEAL
John Thomas SEAL
Andrew Martin SEAL

May 7th 1764 (1-81)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We John Orear and William Whitledge are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Allan Macrae, and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty four and in the Fourth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Orear administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Elizabeth Reno deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Orear or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Orear or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Orear being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Orear SEAL
William Whitledge SEAL

May 7th 1764 (1-82)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We William Carr and William Tebbs are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Allan Macrae and Lewis Renoe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty four and in the Fourth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Carr administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Francis Garner deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Carr or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Carr or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Carr being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Carr SEAL
William Tebbs SEAL

September 3rd 1764 (1-83)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Catherine Norris, Scarlett Maddin and George Bigby are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Howson Hooe, James Nisbitt and Daniel Payne, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty four and in the Fourth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Catherine Norris administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of James Norris deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Catherine Norris or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Catherine Norris or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Catherine Norris being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Catherine Norris SEAL
Scarlett Maddin SEAL
George Bigby SEAL

January 7th 1765 (1-84)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Joseph Bowman and John Gunyon are held and firmly bound to Allan Macrae, Foushee Tebbs, John Baylis, James Scott clerk, and James Douglass Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of twenty pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of January in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty five and in the Fifth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Joseph Bowman administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Nathaniel Smith deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Joseph Bowman or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Joseph Bowman or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Joseph Bowman being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Joseph Bowman SEAL
John Gunyon SEAL

March 4th 1765 (1-85)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Reeves, Foushee Tebbs and William Carr are held and firmly bound to Allan Macrae, Foushee Tebbs, James Scott clerk, and James Douglass, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money of Virginia, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty five and in the Fifth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Reeves administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Edward Moss deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Reeves or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Reeves or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Reeves being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------|------|
| John Reeves | SEAL |
| Foushee Tebbs | SEAL |
| William Carr | SEAL |

March 4th 1765 (1-86)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Francis Oden and William Horton are held and firmly bound to Allan Macrae, Foushee Tebbs, James Scott clerk, and Lewis Renoe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty five and in the Fifth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Francis Oden administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Leonard Oden deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Francis Oden or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Francis Oden or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Francis Oden being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------|------|
| Francis Oden | SEAL |
| William Horton | SEAL |

March 5th 1765 (1-87)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Leanna Wright, William More and James Wilson are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Carr, Lewis Renoe and James Douglass, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty five and in the Fifth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Leanna Wright, William More and James Wilson administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Richard Wright Jr. deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Leanna Wright or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Leanna Wright or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Leanna Wright being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Leanna Wright SEAL
William More SEAL
James Wilson SEAL

July 1st 1765 (1-88)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Sarah Wilkerson, William Melton and Eli Cleveland are held and firmly bound to Allan Macrae, James Douglass, Thomas Lawson and Thomas Blackburn, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty five and in the Fifth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Wilkerson administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Wilkerson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Wilkerson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Sarah Wilkerson or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Sarah Wilkerson being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Wilkerson SEAL
William Melton SEAL
Eli Cleveland SEAL

August 6th 1765 (1-89)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomson Mason, William Carr, Foushee Tebbs and James Douglass are held and firmly bound to Thomas Lawson, Foushee Tebbs, James Scott, and James Douglass, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty five and in the Fifth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomson Mason and William Carr administrators of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Joseph Bowman deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Thomson Mason and William Carr or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of their Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Thomas Mason and William Carr or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of their Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Carr being thereunto required, do render and deliver up their Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomson Mason SEAL
William Carr SEAL
Foushee Tebbs SEAL
James Douglass SEAL

October 7th 1765 (1-90)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we James Triplett and Foushee Tebbs are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Carr and James Douglass, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of fifty pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty five and in the Fifth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James Triplett administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of James Hay deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said James Triplett or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said James Triplett or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said James Triplett being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Triplett SEAL
Foushee Tebbs SEAL

May 5th 1766 (1-91)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mason Bennett and John Hedges are held and firmly bound to Howson Hooe, Allan Macrae, Lynaugh Helm and James Douglass, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said

Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty six and in the Sixth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mason Bennett administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Francis Purnell deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Mason Bennett or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mason Bennett or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Mason Bennett being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mason Bennett SEAL
John Hedges SEAL

June 2nd 1766 (1-92)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Carr, and William Ellzey are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Allan Macrae and James Douglass, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of fifty pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty six and in the Fifth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Carr administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Foxworthy deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Carr or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Carr or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Carr being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Carr SEAL
William Ellzey SEAL

June 3rd 1766 (1-93)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Samuel Byrns, Isaac Davies and William Davies are held and firmly bound to Allan Macrae, James Douglass, William Carr and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty six and in the Sixth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Samuel Byrns administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Charles Byrns deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Samuel Byrns or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Samuel Byrns or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Samuel Byrns being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Samuel Byrns SEAL
Isaac Davies SEAL
William Davies SEAL

October 6th 1766 (1-94)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Robert Brent and Cuthbert Bullitt are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Carr, William Tebbs, and James Douglass, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty six and in the Sixth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Robert Brent administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Jechonias deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Robert Brent or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Robert Brent or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Robert Brent being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert Brent SEAL
Cuthbert Bullitt SEAL

November 4th 1767 (1-95)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Sampson and James Foley are held and firmly bound to James Scott clerk, William Tebbs, James Douglass and Lynaugh Helm, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty seven and in the Seventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Sampson administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Sampson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Sampson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mary Sampson or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Mary Sampson being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Sampson SEAL
James Foley SEAL

April 6th 1767 (1-96)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Richard Stewart and John Graham planter, are held and firmly bound to William Tebbs, Howson Hooe, John Hooe, Lynaugh Helm and Thomas Blackburn, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty six and in the Seventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Richard Stewart administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Stewart deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Richard Stewart or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Richard Stewart or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Richard Stewart being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Richard Stewart SEAL
John Graham SEAL

June 2nd 1767 (1-97)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Barr, Henry Lee and John Murray are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, Thomas Lawson and Henry Peyton, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty seven and in the Seventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Barr administrator of the will annexed of Thomas Davies deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Barr or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Barr or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Barr being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|--------------|------|
| William Barr | SEAL |
| Henry Lee | SEAL |
| John Murray | SEAL |

December 7th 1767 (1-98)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Isabella Caster and William Carr are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs and Lynaugh Helm, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of thirty pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty seven and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Isabella Caster administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Sarah Caster deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Isabella Caster or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Isabella Caster or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Isabella Caster being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| Isabella Caster | SEAL |
| William Carr | SEAL |

December 8th 1767 (1-99)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Farrow, John Brett and Hubbard Inman? are held and firmly bound to James Scott clerk, Foushee Tebbs, Lewis Renoe, and John Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this eighth day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty seven and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Farrow administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Ann Farrow deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Farrow or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Farrow or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Farrow being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Farrow SEAL
John Brett SEAL
Hubbard Inman? SEAL

February 1st 1768 (1-100)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Norman Drummond, Will Wilson and George Bigley are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, John Hooe, Lynaugh Helm, and Lewis Renoe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty eight and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Norman Drummond administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Benjamin Drummond deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Norman Drummond or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Norman Drummond or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Norman Drummond being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Norman Drummond SEAL
Will Wilson SEAL
George Bigley SEAL

March 7th 1768 (1-101)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Hartshorn and Alexander Henderson are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Thomas Lawson, John Hooe and Thomas Blackburn, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty eight and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Hartshorn administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Hartshorn deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Hartshorn or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Hartshorn or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Hartshorn being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Hartshorn SEAL
Alex. Henderson SEAL

March 8th 1768 (1-102)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Violetta Dooling and William Carr are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Thomas Lawson, William Tebbs and Thomas Blackburn, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this eighth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty eighth and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Violetta Dooling administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Joshua Dooling deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Violetta Dooling or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Violetta Dooling or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Violetta Dooling being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Violetta Dooling SEAL
William Carr SEAL

April 4th 1768 (1-103)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Robert English, John English and Thomas Carter are held and firmly bound to William Tebbs, John Hooe, Thomas Blackburn and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty eight and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Robert English administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Sarah English deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Robert English or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Robert English or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Robert English being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert English SEAL
John English SEAL
Thomas Carter SEAL

August 3rd 1768 (1-104)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Carr, William Grayson and William Cocke are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, Thomas Lawson and Lewis Renoe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty eight and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Carr administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Mary Wells deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Carr or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Carr or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Carr being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Carr SEAL
William Grayson SEAL
William Cocke SEAL

October 3rd 1768 (1-105)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Cuthbert Harrison, Cuthbert Bullitt and John MacMillion are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott clerk, Howson Hooe and Lewis Renoe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of three hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty eight and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Cuthbert Harrison administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Cuthbert Harrison deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Cuthbert Harrison or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Cuthbert Harrison or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Cuthbert Harrison being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Cuthbert Harrison SEAL
Cuthbert Bullitt SEAL
John MacMillion SEAL

February 6th 1769 (1-106)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Israel Tolson and John Murray are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, John Hooe, Thomas Blackburn and Lewis Renoe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty nine and in the Ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Isreal Tolson administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Chas. Stanton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Isreal Tolson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Isreal Tolson or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Isreal Tolson being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Isreal Tolson SEAL
John Murray SEAL

April 3rd 1769 (1-107)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Tackitt and Lewis Reno Jr. are held and firmly bound to Howson Hooe, William Tebbs, Lewis Reno and Lynaugh Helm, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty nine and in the Ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Tackitt administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Gallehue deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Tackitt or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Tackitt or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Tackitt being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Tackitt SEAL
Lewis Reno Jr. SEAL

May 1st 1769 (1-108)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Jacob Crouch, William Jones and James Jones are held and firmly bound to James Scott, Foushee Tebbs, Lewis Reno and Thomas Blackburn, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty nine and in the Ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Jacob Crouch administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of James Crouch deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Jacob Crouch or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Jacob Crouch or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Jacob Crouch being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------|------|
| Jacob Crouch | SEAL |
| William Jones | SEAL |
| James Jones | SEAL |

May 1st 1769 (1-109)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Martha Glover, William Askins and Jesse More are held and firmly bound to James Scott, Foushee Tebbs, Thomas Blackburn and John Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty nine and in the Ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Martha Glover administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Glover deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Martha Glover or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Martha Glover or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Martha Glover being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------|------|
| Martha Glover | SEAL |
| William Askins | SEAL |
| Jesse More | SEAL |

June 5th 1769 (1-110)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Wharton and George Calvert are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Howson Hooe, William Tebbs and Lewis Reno Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty nine and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Wharton administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Wharton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Wharton or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Wharton or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Wharton being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Wharton SEAL
George Calvert SEAL

August 7th 1769 (1-111)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Andrew McLanachan, Anthony Seal Jr. and William Young are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, Foushee Tebbs, Howson Hooe, and John Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty nine and in the Ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Andrew McLanachan administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John McLanachan deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Andrew or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Andrew or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Andrew being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Andrew McLanachan SEAL
Anthony Seal Jr. SEAL
William Young SEAL

November 6th 1769 (1-112)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Cocke and Foushee Tebbs. are held and firmly bound to James Scott clerk, William Tebbs, Lewis Reno and Lynaugh Helm, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty nine and in the Ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Cocke administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Jeremiah Jordan deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Cocke or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Cocke or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Cocke being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Cocke SEAL
Foushee Tebbs SEAL

December 5th 1769 (1-113)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Valentine Cloninger and Thomas Marshall are held and firmly bound to James Scott clerk, Henry Peyton, Lewis Reno and Thomas Blackburn, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty nine and in the Ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Valentine Cloninger administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Guin deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Valentine Cloninger or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Valentine or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Valentine being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Valentine Cloninger SEAL
Thomas Marshall SEAL

March 5th 1770 (1-114)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Montgomerie, Thomas Lawson are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Lewis Reno, William Tebbs, Lynaugh Helm, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy and in the Tenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Montgomerie administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Newman deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Montgomorie or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Thomas Montgomorie or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Thomas Montgomorie being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Montgomorie SEAL
Thomas Lawson SEAL

March 6th 1770 (1-115)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Charity Rookard, Valentine Cloinger and Will Griffin are held and firmly bound to Thomas Lawson, William Carr, William Tebbs and Daniel Payne, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy and in the Tenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Charity Rookard administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Rookard deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Charity Rookard or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Charity Rookard or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Charity Rookard being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Charity Rookard SEAL
Valentine Cloinger SEAL
Will Griffin SEAL

April 2nd 1770 (1-116)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Sarah Collins and John Nelson are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, John Hooe, Lynaugh Helm, Henry Peyton and Thomas Blackburn, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy and in the Tenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Collins administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Joseph Collins deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Collins or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods,

Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Sarah Collins or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Sarah Collins being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Collins SEAL
John Nelson SEAL

April 3rd 1770 (1-117)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we George Laurie and John Riddell are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Henry Peyton, John Hooe, Lynaugh Helm, Daniel Payne, Thomas Blackburn and William Carr, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of fifty pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy and in the Tenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound George Laurie administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Presley Moss deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said George Laurie or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said George Laurie or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said George Laurie being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George Laurie SEAL
John Riddell SEAL

May 9th 1770 (1-118)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Maddox and Isaac Davise are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Lewis Reno, Thomas Lawson and Daniel Payne, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this ninth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy and in the Tenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Maddox administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Robert Tyler deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Maddox or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Maddox or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said

Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Maddox being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Maddox SEAL
Isaac Davise SEAL

May 10th 1770 (1-119)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Margaret Hardwitch, John Riddell and Hezekiah Glasscock are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Thomas Lawson, Foushee Tebbs, and Daniel Payne, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of eight hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this tenth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy and in the Tenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Margaret Hardwitch administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Aaron Hardwitch deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Margaret Hardwitch or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Margaret Hardwitch or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Margaret Hardwitch being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Margaret Hardwitch SEAL
John Riddell SEAL
Hezekiah Glasscock SEAL

November 5th 1770 (1-120)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Cook, Cornelius Kincheloe and John Murray are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Lewis Reno, John Hooe, Lynaugh Helm, and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy and in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Cook administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Williams deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Cook or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Cook or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Cook being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------------|------|
| John Cook | SEAL |
| Cornelius Kincheloe | SEAL |
| John Murray | SEAL |

February 4th 1771 (1-121)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Jane Jackson, James Gwatkins and John Lynn are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Henry Peyton, Howson Hooe, and Lynaugh Helm, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy One and in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Jane Jackson administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Charles Jackson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Jane Jackson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Jane Jackson or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Jane Jackson being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------|------|
| Jane Jackson | SEAL |
| James Gwatkins | SEAL |
| John Lynn | SEAL |

May 6th 1771 (1-122)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Skinker, Daniel Payne and Anthony Seale Jr. are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Carr, Thomas Lawson, and Jesse Ewell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy One and in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Skinker administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of George Skinker deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Skinker or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Skinker or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Skinker being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Skinker SEAL
Daniel Payne SEAL
Anthony Seale Jr. SEAL

June 3rd 1771 (1-123)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Elizabeth Davis, Daniel Kincheloe, William Kincheloe, Robert Wickliff and William Davis are held and firmly bound to Lewis Reno, Lynaugh Helm, John Hooe, Daniel Payne and Jesse Ewell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy One and in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Davis administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Isaac Davis deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Davis or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Elizabeth Davis or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Elizabeth Davis being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Davis SEAL
Daniel Kincheloe SEAL
William Kincheloe SEAL
Robert Wickliff SEAL
William Davis SEAL

June 3rd 1771 (1-124)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Whitledge and Cuthbert Harrison. are held and firmly bound to Lewis Reno, Lynaugh Helm, John Hooe and Jesse Ewell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of four hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy One and in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Whitledge administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Edith Whitledge deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Whitledge or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Whitledge or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Whitledge being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Whitledge SEAL
Cuthbert Harrison SEAL

June 7th 1771 (1-125)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Jesse Ewell, John Murray and John Gunyon. are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Daniel Payne, and William Carr, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy One and in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Jesse Ewell administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Ballendine deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Jesse Ewell or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Jesse Ewell or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Jesse Ewell being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jesse Ewell SEAL
John Murray SEAL
John Gunyon SEAL

September 6th 1771 (1-126)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Christian Power, James Abell and Humphrey Calvert are held and firmly bound to Thomas Lawson, William Carr, Daniel Payne and Jesse Ewell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of fifty pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy One and in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Christian Power administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Bryant deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Christian Power or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Christian Power or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Christian Power being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Christian Power SEAL
James Abell SEAL
Humphrey Calvert SEAL

October 7th 1771 (1-127)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Smith, William Martin and William Carr are held and firmly bound to John Hooe, Howson Hooe, William Alexander and William Carr, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of fifty pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy One and in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Smith administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of George Smith deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Smith or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Smith or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Smith being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Smith SEAL
William Martin SEAL
William Carr SEAL

March 3rd 1772 (1-128)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Murray, William Brent and Jesse Ewell are held and firmly bound to William Tebbs, Thomas Lawson, William Carr and Daniel Payne, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Two and in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Murray administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Gilbert Murray deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Murray or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Murray or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Murray being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------|------|
| John Murray | SEAL |
| William Brent | SEAL |
| Jesse Ewell | SEAL |

April 7th 1772 (1-129)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Donaldson, William Davis Jr. and Gerard Woodward are held and firmly bound to Thomas Lawson, William Carr, Jesse Ewell and Thomas Montgomerie, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Two and in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Donaldson administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Donaldson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Donaldson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mary Donaldson or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Mary Donaldson being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Mary Donaldson | SEAL |
| William Davis Jr. | SEAL |
| Gerrard Woodward | SEAL |

May 4th 1772 (1-130)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Ship, Anthony Seal Jr. and James Cullins are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Lewis Reno and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Two and in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Shipp administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Richard Drummond deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Shipp or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Shipp or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Shipp being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Shipp SEAL
Anthony Seal Jr. SEAL
James Cullins SEAL

June 2nd 1772 (1-131)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Evan Williams and Hugh Brent are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, William Alexander and Jesse Ewell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of forty pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Two and in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Evan Williams administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Jane Dunlop deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Evan Williams or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Evan Williams or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Evan Williams being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Evan Williams SEAL
Hugh Brent SEAL

June 3rd 1772 (1-132)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Chapman and Evan Williams are held and firmly bound to Thomas Lawson, Lewis Reno, Daniel Payne, and Lynaugh Helm, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Two and in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Chapman administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Powell deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Chapman or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Thomas Chapman or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Thomas Chapman being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Chapman SEAL
Evan Williams SEAL

August 7th 1772 (1-133)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Richards, Alex Rigby and James Carberry are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Thomas Lawson, Thomas Blackburn, Lynaugh Helm and William Alexander, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Two and in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Richards administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Richards deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Richards or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mary Richards or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Mary Richards being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Richards SEAL
Alex Rigby SEAL
James Carberry SEAL

November 2nd 17__ (1-134)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Rebecca Barr, Redman Grigsby and Moses Suddart are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Daniel Payne, Thomas Montgomerie and Jesse Ewell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and (not given) and in the (blank)Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Rebecca Barr administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Barr deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Rebecca Barr or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Rebecca Barr or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Rebecca Barr being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Rebecca Barr SEAL
Redman Grigsby SEAL
Moses Suddart SEAL

December 9th 1772 (1-135)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Jane Brocas, John Calvert and William Calvert are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Henry Peyton, William Carr and Thomas Alexander, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this ninth day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Two and in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Jane Brocas administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Brocas deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Jane Brocas or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Jane Brocas or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Jane Brocas being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jane Brocas SEAL
John Calvert SEAL
William Calvert SEAL

March 1st 1772 (1-136)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Charles Craddock, George Calvert and Thomas Masterson are held and firmly bound to William Carr, William Tebbs, Thomas Lawson and Thomas Montgomerie, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Two and in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Charles Craddock administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Horton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Charles Craddock or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Charles Craddock or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Charles Craddock being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Charles Craddock SEAL
George Calvert SEAL
Thomas Masterson SEAL

March 3rd 1773 (1-137)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Eliz. Davis and Lewis Renoe Sr. are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, Thomas Lawson and Thomas Montgomerie, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Three and in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Eliz. Davis administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Grace Sampson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Eliz. Davis or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Eliz. Davis or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Eliz. Davis being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Eliz. Davis SEAL
Lewis Renoe SEAL

June 9th 1773 (1-138)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Cunningham, William Carr and John Riddell are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Henry Peyton, Thomas Montgomerie and Jesse Ewell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this ninth day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Three and in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Cunningham administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Neilson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Cunningham SEAL
William Carr SEAL
John Riddell SEAL

July 5th 1773 (1-139)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Carr, Cuthbert Bullitt and Atwell are held and firmly bound to Thomas Blackburn, Thomas Montgomerie, Jesse Ewell and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Three and in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Carr administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of James Woodhouse deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Carr or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Carr or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Carr being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| William Carr | SEAL |
| Cuthbert Bullitt | SEAL |
| Thomas Atwell | SEAL |

November 2nd 1773 (1-140)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Chapman, William Tebbs and John Coppedge are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Lewis Reno and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Three and in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Chapman administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Traverse Downman deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Chapman or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Thomas Chapman or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Thomas Chapman being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------|------|
| Thomas Chapman | SEAL |
| John Coppedge | SEAL |
| William Tebbs | SEAL |

March 8th 1774 (1-141)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Christian Power, John Gunyon and Hubard Prince are held and firmly bound to William Carr, William Tebbs, Thomas Lawson and Lewis Reno, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of fifty pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this eighth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Four and in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Christian Power administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Wilson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Christian Power or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Christian Power or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Christian Power being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Christian Power SEAL
John Gunyon SEAL
Hubard Prince SEAL

May 3rd 1774 (1-142)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary Evans and Thomas Lawson are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Tebbs, Jesse Ewell, Thomas Lawson and Thomas Montgomerie, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Four and in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Evans administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Richard Evans deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Evans or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mary Evans or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Mary Evans being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Evans SEAL
Thomas Lawson SEAL

September 5th 1774 (1-143)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Askins, Thomas Homes and Lewis Reno Jr. are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Thomas Blackburn, Jesse Ewell and William Alexander, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Four and in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Askins administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Askins deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Askins or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Askins or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Askins being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Askins SEAL
Thomas Homes SEAL
Lewis Reno Jr. SEAL

October 3rd 1774 (1-144)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Ann Downman, Jas. Nisbett, John Hancock, John Linton and William Linton are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, Foushee Tebbs, Howson Hooe and Jesse Ewell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two thousand pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Four and in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Ann Downman administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Jabez Downman deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Ann Downman or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Ann Downman or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Ann Downman being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann Downman SEAL
Jas. Nisbett SEAL
John Hancock SEAL
John Linton SEAL
William Linton SEAL

November 7th 1774 (1-145)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Sarah Brewer, John Linton and John Calvert are held and firmly bound to Howson Hooe, Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, and John Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Four and in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Brewer administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Brewer deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Brewer or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Sarah Brewer or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Sarah Brewer being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Brewer SEAL
John Linton SEAL
John Calvert SEAL

January 2nd 1775 (1-146)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Mary O'Bryan and John Gunyon are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, Jesse Ewell, and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of January in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Five and in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary O'Bryan administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William O'Bryan deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mary or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Mary being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary O'Bryan SEAL
John Gunyon SEAL

March 6th 1775 (1-147)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Daniel Barnett, Jacob Marshall and James Foley are held and firmly bound to Thomas Lawson, Henry Peyton, Howson Hooe, John Hooe and William Alexander, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Five and in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Daniel Barnett administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Mich. Mon----- deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Daniel Barnett or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Daniel Barnett or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Daniel Barnett being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Daniel Barnett SEAL
Jacob Marshall SEAL
James Foley SEAL

April 3rd 1775 (1-148)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Pierce and Jacob Garroon Pierce are held and firmly bound to William Tebbs, John Hooe, Howson Hooe, William Alexander and Jesse Ewell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Five and in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Pierce administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Mary Pierce deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Pierce or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Pierce or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Pierce being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Pierce SEAL
Jacob G. Pierce SEAL

July 3rd 1775 (1-149)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Robert Dobson and Alexander Campbell are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Jesse Ewell and William Alexander, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Five and in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Robert Dobson administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Henry Holtzclaw deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Robert Dobson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Robert Dobson or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Robert Dobson being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert Dobson SEAL
 Alexander Campbell SEAL

October 2nd 1775 (1-150)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Jean Cole, Rodham Blansett and William Martin are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, Foushee Tebbs, Howson Hooe and John Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Five and in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Jean Cole administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Cole deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Jean Cole or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Jean Cole or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Jean Cole being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jean Cole SEAL
 Rodham Blansett SEAL
 William Martin SEAL

December 4th 1775 (1-151)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Masters, Thomas Homes and William Askins are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, Foushee Tebbs, John Hooe, Jesse Ewell, and William Alexander, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Four and in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Masters administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Gerard Masters deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Masters or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Thomas Masters or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Thomas Masters being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Masters SEAL
Thomas Homes SEAL
William Askins SEAL

February 5th 1776 (1-152)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Blackburn, Cuthbert Bullitt and Jesse Ewell are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Thomas Lawson, William Alexander, and Thomas Montgomerie, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Six and in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Blackburn administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Mary Blackburn deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Blackburn or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Thomas Blackburn or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Thomas Blackburn being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Blackburn SEAL
Cuthbert Bullitt SEAL
Jesse Ewell SEAL

May 6th 1776 (1-153)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Lewis Reno Jr. and James Gwatkin are held and firmly bound to John Hooe, Howson Hooe, James Nisbitt and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Six and in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Lewis Reno Jr. administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Reno deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Lewis Reno Jr. or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Lewis Reno Jr. or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Lewis Reno Jr. being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Lewis Reno Jr. SEAL
James Gwatkin SEAL

May 6th 1776 (1-154)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Gray, Elijah Wood and Joseph Blanset are held and firmly bound to John Hooe, Howson Hooe, James Nisbitt, and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Six and in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Gray administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Hezekiah Gray deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Gray or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mary Gray or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Mary Gray being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Gray SEAL
Elijah Wood SEAL
Joseph Blanset SEAL

May 6th 1776 (1-155)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Posey, William Alexander and Richard Melton are held and firmly bound to James Scott clerk, James Nisbitt, John Hooe, Howson Hooe and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Six and in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Posey administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Mary Ann Newman deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Posey or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Posey or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Posey being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Posey SEAL
William Alexander SEAL
Richard Melton SEAL

October 7th 1776 (1-156)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Hoomes, Thomas Hoomes, John Whitledge and William Whitledge are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs and John Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two thousand pounds, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Hoomes and Thomas Hoomes administrators of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of James Hoomes deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Elizabeth and Thomas or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of their Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Elizabeth and Thomas or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of their Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Elizabeth and Thomas being thereunto required, do render and deliver up their Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Hoomes SEAL
Thomas Hoomes SEAL
John Whitledge SEAL
Wm. Whitledge SEAL

January 7th 1777 (1-157)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Lawson and Thomas Chapman are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Henry Peyton, William Tebbs, William Carr, and Jesse Ewell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of January in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Six

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Lawson administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Mary Evans deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Lawson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Thomas Lawson or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Thomas Lawson being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Lawson SEAL
Thomas Chapman SEAL

June 2nd 1777 (1-158)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Aitkin, Foushee Tebbs and Thomas Chapman are held and firmly bound to Thomas Lawson, John Hooe and William Carr, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Seven

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Aitkin administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of And. Leitch deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Aitkin or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Thomas Aitkin or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Thomas Aitkin being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Aitkin SEAL
Foushee Tebbs SEAL
Thomas Chapman SEAL

August 4th 1777 (1-159)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Lee Wright Jr. and John Edwards are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Thomas Lawson, William Alexander and Jesse Ewell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of fifty pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Seven.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Lee Wright administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of James Simms deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Lee Wright or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Lee Wright or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Lee Wright being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Lee Wright SEAL
John Edwards SEAL

August 4th 1777 (1-160)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Jeremiah Gallahue and John McMillion are held and firmly bound to Thomas Lawson, William Alexander, Jesse Ewell and Henry Lee, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of January in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Six

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Jeremiah Gallahue administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Dorley Gallahue deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Jeremiah Gallahue or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Jeremiah Gallahue or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Jeremiah Gallahue being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jeremiah Gallahue SEAL
John McMillion SEAL

September 1st 1777 (1-161)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Katy Reno, John Lee Wright Jr., and Scarlet Madden are held and firmly bound to William Carr, Jesse Ewell, William Alexander and Henry Lee, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Katy Reno administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Reno deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Katy Reno or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Katy Reno or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Katy Reno being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Katy Reno SEAL
John Lee Wright SEAL
Scarlet Madden SEAL

September 1st 1777 (1-162)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Moses Moss, John Hooe and James Foley are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Carr, Jesse Ewell and William Alexander, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Seven.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Moses Moss administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Sylvester Moss deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Moses Moss or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Moses Moss or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Moses Moss being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Moses Moss SEAL
John Hooe SEAL
James Foley SEAL

October 6th 1777 (1-163)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Alexander Brown and James Triplett are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, John Hooe, William Alexander, Thomas Lawson and William Brent, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Seven.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Alexander Brown administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Cassady deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Alexander Brown or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Alexander Brown or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Alexander Brown being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Alexander Brown SEAL
James Triplett SEAL

November 3rd 1777 (1-164)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Catherine Blanset, Rhoda Blanset and William Farrow are held and firmly bound to William Carr, Jesse Ewell, William Alexander and Henry Lee, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Seven

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Catherine Blanset administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Blanset deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Catherine Blanset or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Catherine Blanset or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Catherine Blanset being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Catherine Blanset SEAL
Rhoda Blanset SEAL
Wm. Farrow SEAL

January 5th 1778 (1-165)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Davis Jr. and Cornelius Davis are held and firmly bound to John Hooe, Henry Lee, William Alexander, Thomas Lawson and William Brent, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of January in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Eight

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Davis Jr. administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Davis deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Davis Jr. or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said William Davis Jr. or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said William Davis Jr. being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Davis Jr. SEAL
Cornelius Davis SEAL

February 2nd 1778 (1-166)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Charles Simms, William Brent and John Murray are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Carr, Jesse Ewell and John McMillon, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two thousand pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Eight

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Charles Simms administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Simms deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Charles Simms or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Charles Simms or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Charles Simms being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------|------|
| Charles Simms | SEAL |
| Wm. Brent | SEAL |
| John Murray | SEAL |

April 6th 1778 (1-167)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Sarah Calvert, William Farrow and William Calvert are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Carr, and Jesse Ewell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Eight

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Calvert administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Reuben Calvert deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Calvert or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Sarah Calvert or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Sarah Calvert being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| Sarah Calvert | SEAL |
| William Farrow | SEAL |
| William Calvert | SEAL |

April 6th 1778 (1-168)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Redman Grigsby, Timothy Peyton and Mark Tharp are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Jesse Ewell, John Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Eight

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Redman Grigsby administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Richard Jervis deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Redman Grigsby or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Redman Grigsby or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Redman Grigsby being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Redman Grigsby SEAL
Timothy Peyton SEAL
Mark Tharp SEAL

May 4th 1778 (1-169)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we James Callin and Thomas Thornton are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County. To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Eight

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James Callin administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Callin deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said James Callin or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said James Callin or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said James Callin being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Callin SEAL
Thomas Thornton SEAL

May 4th 1778 (1-170)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Chichester Curtis, Robert Warren and Henry Peyton are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Eight

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Chichester Curtis administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Christopher Curtis deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Chichester Curtis or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Chichester Curtis or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Chichester Curtis being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Chichester Curtis SEAL
Robert Warren SEAL
Henry Peyton SEAL

July 6th 1778 (1-171)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Henry Watkins and Thomas Thornton are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Eight

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Henry Watkins administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Watkins deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Henry Watkins or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Henry Watkins or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Henry Watkins being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Henry Watkins SEAL
Thomas Thornton SEAL

August 3rd 1778 (1-172)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Catherine Bigbie and John Brett are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Eight

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Catherine Bigbie administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of George Bigbie deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Catherine Bigbie or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Catherine Bigbie or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Catherine Bigbie being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Catherine Bigbie SEAL
John Brett SEAL

September 7th 1778 (1-173)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we James Triplett, Evan Williams and William Farrow are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs,

Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Eight

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James Triplett administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Dage deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said James Triplett or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said James Triplett or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said James Triplett being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------|------|
| James Triplett | SEAL |
| Evan Williams | SEAL |
| William Farrow | SEAL |

September 7th 1778 (1-174)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Charles Smith and Alexander Henderson are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Eight

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Charles Smith administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Smith deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Charles Smith or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Charles Smith or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Charles Smith being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------------|------|
| Charles Smith | SEAL |
| Alexander Henderson | SEAL |

October 5th 1778 (1-175)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Margaret Foster, John Hooe, Henry Peyton and Leonard Hart are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Eight

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Margaret Foster administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of George Foster deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Margaret Foster or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Margaret Foster or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Margaret Foster being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Margaret Foster SEAL
John Hooe SEAL
Henry Peyton SEAL
Leonard Hart SEAL

November 2nd 1778 (1-176)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Violetta Oden and Thomas Blackburn are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Eight

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Violetta Oden administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Francis Oden deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Violetta Oden or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Violetta Oden or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Violetta Oden being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Violetta Oden SEAL
Thomas Blackburn SEAL

November 2nd 1778 (1-177)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we James White and William Herndon are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Eight

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James White administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Reuben Wilder deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said James White or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said James White or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said James White being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James White SEAL
William Herndon SEAL

March 1st 1779 (1-178)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Ann Popejoy and Jas Byrn are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Nine

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Ann Popejoy administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Popejoy deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Ann Popejoy or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Ann Popejoy or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Ann Popejoy being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann Popejoy SEAL
Jas Byrn SEAL

March 9th 1779 (1-179)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Milly Farrow, Lewis Reno Jr. and John Leewright Jr. are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this ninth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Nine.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Milly Farrow administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of George Farrow deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Milly Farrow or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Milly Farrow or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Milly Farrow being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Milly Farrow SEAL
Lewis Reno Jr. SEAL
John Leewright SEAL

April 6th 1779 (1-180)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Sarah Davis and George Tebbs are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Nine.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Davis administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Thomas Davis deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Davis or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Sarah Davis or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Sarah Davis being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Davis SEAL
George Tebbs SEAL

September 6th 1779 (1-181)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Learenoe Reno, John Cheshire and Thomas Homes are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Nine

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Learenoe Reno administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Reno deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Learenoe Reno or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Learenoe Reno or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Learenoe Reno being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Learenoe Reno SEAL
John Cheshire SEAL
Thomas Homes SEAL

April 4th 1780 (1-182)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Murray, Cuthbert Bullitt and William Carr are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Murray administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of T. Aitken deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Murray or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said John Murray or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Murray being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Murray SEAL
Cuthbert Bullitt SEAL
William Carr SEAL

April 4th 1780 (1-183)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we George Graham and John Campbell are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound George Graham administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Montgomerie deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said George Graham or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said George Graham or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said George Graham being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George Graham SEAL
John Campbell SEAL

May 1st 1780 (1-184)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Francis Floyd and Henry Peyton are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Francis Floyd administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of (not given) deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Francis Floyd or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Francis Floyd or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Francis Floyd being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Francis Floyd SEAL
Henry Peyton SEAL

July 3rd 1780 (1-185)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Lynn, William Gains and William Lynn are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Eight

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Lynn administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of James West deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Lynn or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said John Lynn or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said John Lynn being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Lynn SEAL
William Gains SEAL
William Lynn SEAL

March 6th 1781 (1-186)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Edward Sprigg, Thomas Attwell and William Farrow are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty One

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Edward Sprigg administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Richard Sprigg deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Edward Sprigg or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Edward Sprigg or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Edward Sprigg being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Edward Sprigg SEAL
Thomas Attwell SEAL
William Farrow SEAL

August 6th 1781 (1-187)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Margaret Rawlings and Evan Williams are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty One

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Margaret Rawlings administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Rawlings deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Margaret Rawlings or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Margaret Rawlings or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Margaret Rawlings being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Margaret Rawlings SEAL
Evan Williams SEAL

February 4th 1782 (1-188)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Kesiah Madden, William French and John Leewright are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Kesiah Madden administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of George Madden deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Kesiah Madden or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Kesiah Madden or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Kesiah Madden being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Kesiah Madden SEAL

William French SEAL

John Leewright SEAL

May 6th 1782 (1-189)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Bird, William Ellzey, William Brown and Bernard Hooe are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Bird administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of William Bird deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Bird or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Thomas Bird or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Thomas Bird being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Bird SEAL

Wm. Ellzey SEAL

Wm. Brown SEAL

Bernard Hooe SEAL

June 3rd 1782 (1-190)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we George Graham, William Carr and Richard Graham are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound George Graham administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Reginald Graham deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said George Graham or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said George Graham or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said George Graham being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George Graham SEAL

William Carr SEAL

Richard Graham SEAL

August 5th 1782 (1-191)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Hugh Flattery, Richard Graham and Daniel Carroll Brent are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Hugh Flattery administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Flattery deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Hugh Flattery or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Hugh Flattery or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Hugh Flattery being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------------|------|
| Hugh Flattery | SEAL |
| Richard Graham | SEAL |
| Daniel Carroll Brent | SEAL |

August 5th 1782 (1-192)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Benjamin Strout and Richard Reade are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Benjamin Strout administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Jona Strout deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Benjamin Strout or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Benjamin Strout or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Benjamin Strout being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| Benjamin Strout | SEAL |
| Richard Reade | SEAL |

August 2nd 1782 (1-193)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Timothy Peyton and John McMillion are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Timothy Peyton administrator of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of Valentine Peyton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Timothy Peyton or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of his Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Timothy Peyton or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of his Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Timothy Peyton being thereunto required, do render and deliver up his Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Timothy Peyton SEAL
John McMillion SEAL

November 4th 1782 (1-194)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Betsy Thornbury and John McMillion are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Betsy Thornbury administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of James Brown deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Betsy Thornbury or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Betsy Thornbury or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Betsy Thornbury being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Betsy Thornbury SEAL
John McMillion SEAL

November 4th 1782 (1-195)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Green, James Ewell and Benjamin Bridges are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Green administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of George Green deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Green or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Elizabeth Green or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Elizabeth Green being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Green SEAL
Jas Ewell SEAL
Benjamin Bridges SEAL

November 4th 1782 (1-196)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Burroughs, Moses Jeffries and John Hedges are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Burroughs administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Burroughs deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Burroughs or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mary Burroughs or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Mary Burroughs being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Burroughs SEAL
Moses Jeffries SEAL
John Hedges SEAL

well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Elizabeth Green being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Green SEAL
Jas Ewell SEAL
Benjamin Bridges SEAL

November 4th 1782 (1-196)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Burroughs, Moses Jeffries and John Hedges are held and firmly bound to Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, To the Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Burroughs administratrix of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of John Burroughs deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Burroughs or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the County Court of Prince William as such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court, and the same Goods, Chattels, and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, at the Time of her Death which at any Time after, shall come to the Hands, or Possession of the said Mary Burroughs or into the Hands, or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law: And further do make a just and true Account of her Actings and Doings therein, when thereto required by the said Court, and all the Rest and Residue of the said Goods, Chattels, and Credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said Administrators Account, the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the Court for the Time being, shall deliver and pay unto such Person or Persons respectively; as the said Justices by their Order or Judgment shall direct, pursuant to the Laws in that Case made and provided and if it shall hereafter appear, that any Last Will and Testament was made by the said Deceased, and the Executor or Executors therein named, do exhibit the same into the said Court, making Request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said Mary Burroughs being thereunto required, do render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, Approbation of such Testament being first had and made in the said Court: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, or else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Burroughs SEAL
Moses Jeffries SEAL
John Hedges SEAL

August 22nd 1753 (2-01)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Judith Davis, Edward Ennis and Joseph Thurman are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Benjamin Grayson, John Bell and John Crump, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty three and in the XXVII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Judith Davis Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Davis deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Judith or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Judith or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Judith Davis SEAL
Edward Ennis SEAL
Joseph Thurman SEAL

Judith Davis, Edward Ennis and Joseph Thurman acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 27th day of August 1753 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

August 22nd 1753 (2-02)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Mary Oden, William Rookard and Thomas Boggess are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Richard Blackburn, Benjamin Grayson and John Wright, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals this twenty second day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty three and in the XXVII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Oden, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Pembroke Oden deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Oden, SEAL
William Rookard SEAL
Thomas Boggess SEAL

Mary Oden, William Rookard and Thomas Boggess acknowledged this bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 22nd day of October 1753 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

March 25th 1754 (2-03)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Ann Farrow, John Graham, Alexander Farrow, George Johnson gent. and Thomas Machen are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Richard Blackburn, John Wright and Henry Peyton Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fifth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Ann Farrow, John Graham gent. and Alexander Farrow Executor's of the Last Will and Testament of William Farrow deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Anna & John & Alexander or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Anna & John & Alexander or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann Farrow SEAL
John Graham SEAL
Alexander Farrow SEAL
George Johnson SEAL
Thomas Machen SEAL

Ann Farrow, John Graham, Alexander Farrow, George Johnson, and Thomas Machen acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 25th day of March 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

March 25th 1854 (2-04)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Samuel Organ, William Colough and Aaron Fletcher are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Richard Blackburn and John Wright, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fifth day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Samuel Organ Executor of the Last Will and Testament of James Anderson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Samuel Organ or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Samuel Organ or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Samuel (his mark) Organ SEAL
William Coleloun SEAL
Aaron Fletcher SEAL

Samuel Organ, William Coleloun and Aaron Fletcher acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 25th day of March 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

April 22nd 1854 (2-05)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We John Smith, John Wright and Vincent Garner are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, John Wright, John Frogg, John Bell, John Crump, and Howson Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Smith Executor of the Last Will and Testament of John Smith deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Smith SEAL
John Wright SEAL
Vincent Garner SEAL

John Smith, John Wright and Vincent Garner acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 22nd day of April 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

April 22nd 1854 (2-06)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We John Baylis, William Baylis, Anthony Seale, John Linton junior, and Hugh West junior are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Richard Blackburn, John Crump, and Howson Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Baylis and William Baylis Executors of the Last Will and Testament of William Baylis deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said John Baylis and William Baylis or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Baylis and William Baylis or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Baylis SEAL
William Baylis SEAL
Anthony Seale SEAL

John Linton Jun. SEAL
Hugh West Jun. SEAL

John Baylis, William Baylis, Anthony Seale and John Linton Jun. acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 22nd day of April 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

June 25 1754 (2-07)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Sarah Calvert, John Calvert and Thomas Reeves are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Richard Blackburn, John Crump and John Wright, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds sterling. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fifth day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Calvert, administratrix with the Last Will and Testament thereunto annexed of Thomas Calvert deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Calvert or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Sarah Calvert or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah (her mark) Calvert SEAL
John Calvert SEAL
Thomas Reeves SEAL

Sarah Calvert, John Calvert and Thomas Reeve severally acknowledged this bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 25th day of April 1754 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

September 23rd 1754 (2-09)

Know all Men by these Presents, that We Margaret Hogan, William Hogan and James Hogan are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Richard Blackburn, Bertrand Ewell, Howson Hoe and John Wright, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty four and in the XXVIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Margaret Hogan, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of William Hogan deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Margaret or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Margaret or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Margaret (her mark) Hogan
William Hogan SEAL
James Hogan SEAL

Margaret Hogan, William Hogan and James Hogan acknowledged this bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 22nd day of October 1753 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

January 27th 1755 (2-11)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Reno, Lewis Reno, Nathaniel Overall and Thomas Machen are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, John Wright, Bertrand Ewell and John Crump, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of January in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty five and in the XXVIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Reno and Lewis Reno, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Lewis Reno deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Thomas and Lewis or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Thomas and Lewis or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Reno SEAL
Lewis Reno SEAL
Nathaniel Overall SEAL
Thomas Machen SEAL

Thomas Reno, Lewis Reno, Nathaniel Overall and Thomas Machen acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 27th day of January 1755 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

March 24th 1755 (2-12)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Samuel Conyers and John Conyers are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, Benjamin Grayson, John Wright and Henry Peyton, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of three hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fourth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty five and in the XXVIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Samuel Conyers and John Conyers, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Denis Conyers deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Samuel and John or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Executors or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Samuel Conyers SEAL
John Conyers SEAL
Thomas Mitchell SEAL
Henry Boatman SEAL

Samuel Conyers, John Conyers, Thomas Mitchell and Henry Boatman acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 24th day of March 1755 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

March 25th 1755 (2-15)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Francis Stribling, Talifaro Stribling and Henry Peyton are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, John Wright, John Frogg, and Benjamin Grayson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fifth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty five and in the XXVIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Francis Stribling and Talifaro Stribling, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Stribling deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Francis and Talifaro or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Francis and Talifaro or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court
Francis Stribling SEAL
Talifaro Stribling SEAL
Henry Peyton SEAL

Francis Stribling, Talifaro Stribling and Henry Peyton acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 27th day of January 1755 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

April 28th 1755 (2-16)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Ellen Davis, Isaac Davis, Benjamin Grayson gent. and George Brett are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, John Wright, Howson Hooe and John Bell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money of Virginia. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty eighth day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty five and in the XXVIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Ellen Davis and Isaac Davis, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of William Davis deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Ellen and Isaac or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Ellen and Isaac or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ellen (her mark) Davis SEAL
Isaac Davis SEAL
Benjamin Grayson SEAL
George Brett SEAL

Ellen Davis, Isaac Davis, Benjamin Grayson and George Brett acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 28th day of April 1755 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

September 22nd 1755 (2-17)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Thornton and Duff Green are held and firmly bound to Thomas Harrison, John Wright, John Churchill and Henry Peyton, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty five and in the XXIX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Thornton, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Agatha Thornton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Thornton or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Thomas Thornton or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Thornton SEAL

Duff Green SEAL

Thomas Thornton and Duff Green acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 22nd day of September 1755 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

March 22nd 1756 (2-18)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Bland, Benjamin Bland, Edward Gwatkins and William Carr are held and firmly bound to James Scott clerk, Howson Hooe, Foushee Tebbs and George Brett, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty six and in the XXIX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Bland and Benjamin Bland, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of James Bland deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Mary and Benjamin or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary and Benjamin or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Bland SEAL

Benjamin Bland SEAL

Edward Gwatkins SEAL

William Carr SEAL

Mary Bland, Benjamin Bland, Edward Gwatkins and William Carr acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 28th day of April 1755 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

August 23rd 1756 (2-19)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Matthew Moss and William Foster are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, William Blackwell and Foushee Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds sterling. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty six and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Matthew Moss, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of James Moss deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Matthew Moss or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Matthew Moss or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Matthew Moss SEAL

William Foster SEAL

Matthew Moss and William Foster acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 23rd day of August 1756 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

August 23rd 1756 (2-20)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Stone, John Wright and Jeremiah Darnell are held and firmly bound to William Blackwell, James Scott, Foushee Tebbs and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty five and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Stone, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Stone deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Stone or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Stone or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Stone SEAL
John Wright SEAL
Jeremiah Darnell SEAL

John Stone, John Wright and Jeremiah Darnell acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 23rd day of August 1756 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

August 23rd 1756 (2-21)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Lucy Peake, William Peake, Edward Humston, Richard Rixey and George Calvert are held and firmly bound to William Blackwell, James Scott, William Eustace and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty six and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Lucy Peake and William Peake, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of John Peake deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Lucy and William or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Lucy and William or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Lucy Peake SEAL
William Peake SEAL
Edward Humston SEAL
Richard Rixey SEAL
George Calvert SEAL

Lucy Peake, William Peake, Edward Humston, Richard Rixey and George Calvert acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 23rd day of August 1756 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

November 22nd 1756 (2-23)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Tackett, Samuel Jones and William Spillar are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, John Baylis and Howson Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty six and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Tackett, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Sarah Tackett deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Tackett or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William Tackett or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Tackett SEAL
Samuel Jones SEAL
William (his mark) Spillar SEAL

William Tackett, Samuel Jones and William Spillar acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 22nd day of November 1756 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

May 23rd 1757 (2-24)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Creel, Yelverson Peyton and Isaac Foster are held and firmly bound to William Eustace, James Scot, John Crump & George Brett, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of three hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty seven and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Creel, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of William Creel deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Creel or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Creel or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Creel SEAL
Yelverton Peyton SEAL
Isaac Foster SEAL

John Creel, Yelverton Peyton and Isaac Foster acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 23rd day of May 1757 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

May 23rd 1757 (2-25)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Edwards, John Dawkins and William Wyatt are held and firmly bound to James Scott, William Eustace, John Crump and Allan Macrae, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty seven and in the XXX Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Edwards, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Alex Edwards deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Edwards or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary Edwards or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Edwards SEAL

John Dawkins SEAL

William Wyatt SEAL

Mary Edwards, John Dawkins and William Wyatt acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 23rd day of May 1757 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

July 27th 1757 (2-26)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Baylis, William Eustace and William Grant are held and firmly bound to Bertrand Ewell, James Scott, William Tebbs and George Brett Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of six thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty seven and in the XXXI Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Baylis, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Richard Blackburn gentleman, deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Baylis or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Baylis or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Baylis SEAL

William Eustace SEAL

William Grant SEAL

John Baylis, William Eustace and William Grant acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 27th day of July 1757 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

October 25th 1757 (2-28)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Sinclair, Francis Tennill, Anthony Latham & Edward Wilburn are held and firmly bound to Bertram Ewell, Allan Macrae, John Baylis and Foushee Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fifth day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty Seven and in the XXXI Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Sinclair and Francis Tennill, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Mary Sinclair deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said John and Francis or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John and Francis or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Sinclair SEAL

Francis Tennill SEAL

Anthony Latham SEAL

Edward Wilburn SEAL

John Sinclair, Francis Tennill, Anthony Latham and Edward Wilburn acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 25th day of October 1757 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

November 25th 1757 (2-29)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Bullitt, Cuthbert Bullitt, Thomas Harrison, Cuthbert Harrison and John McMillon are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Bertram Ewell, Foushee Tebbs and John Baylis, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money of Virginia. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fifth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty seven and in the XXXI Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Bullitt and Cuthbert Bullitt, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Benjamin Bullitt junior deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Thomas and Cuthbert Bullitt or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Thomas and Cuthbert Bullitt or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Bullitt SEAL
Cuthbert Bullitt SEAL
Thomas Harrison SEAL
Cuthbert Harrison SEAL
John McMillon SEAL

Thomas Bullitt, Cuthbert Bullitt, Thomas Harrison, Cuthbert Harrison and John McMillon acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 25th day of November 1757 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

March 27th 1758 (2-30)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Harrison, James Nisbett, Benjamin Grayson, Spencer Grayson and Isaac Douglass, William Ellzey and George Johnson are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Bertram Ewell, James Scott clerk, and John Baylis, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty seven and in the XXXI Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Harrison, James Nisbett, Benjamin Grayson and Spencer Grayson, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Benjamin Grayson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Executors or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said executors or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Harrison SEAL
James Nisbett SEAL
Benjamin Grayson SEAL
Spencer Grayson SEAL
Isaac Douglas SEAL
William Ellzey SEAL
George Johnson SEAL

Thomas Harrison, James Nisbett, Benjamin Grayson, Spencer Grayson, Isaac Douglass, William Ellzey and George Johnson acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 27th day of March 1758 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

March 27th 1758 (2-31)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Edward Gwatkins, William More, William Ellzey and William Carr are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, John Bayliss and Howson Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eight and in the XXXI Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Edward Gwatkins and William More, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Gabriel Moffett deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Edward and William or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Edward and William or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Edward Gwatkins SEAL
William More SEAL
William Ellzey SEAL
William Carr SEAL

Edward Gwatkins, William More, William Ellzey and William Carr acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 27th day of March 1758 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

March 20th 1758 (2-32)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Benjamin Mason, William Ellzey and Francis Jackson are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, Foushee Tebbs and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twentieth day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eight and in the XXXI Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Benjamin Mason, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of George Mason, deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Benjamin Mason or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Benjamin Mason or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Benjamin Mason SEAL
William Ellzey SEAL
Francis Jackson SEAL

Benjamin Mason, William Ellzey and Francis Jackson acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 20th day of March 1758 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

May 22nd 1758 (2-33)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Peters, William Roussan and Rhodam Tulloss are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, John Frogg, John Baylis and John Crump, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eight and in the XXXI Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Peters, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of James Peters deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Peters or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary Peters or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Peters SEAL
William Roussan SEAL
Rodham Tulloss SEAL

Mary Peters, William Roussan and Rodham Tulloss acknowledged this bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 22nd day of May 1758 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

November 27th 1758 (2-36)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Emms, William Kincheloe, Isaac Davise and John Baylis are held and firmly bound to John Bell, James Scott, Allan Macrae and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds sterling. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eight and in the XXXII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Emms, William Kincheloe and Isaac Davise, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Edward Emms deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Elizabeth, William and Isaac or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Elizabeth, William and Isaac or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Emms SEAL
William Kincheloe SEAL
Isaac Davise SEAL
John Baylis SEAL

Elizabeth A Emms, William Kincheloe, Isaac Davise and John Baylis acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 27th day of November 1758 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

November 27th 1758 (2-37)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Conway and Joseph Blackwell are held and firmly bound to John Baylis, James Scott, Henry Lee and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of November in the Year of our Lord

One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eight and in the XXXII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Conway, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of George Seaton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Conway or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William Conway or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Conway SEAL

Joseph Blackwell SEAL

William Conway and Joseph Blackwell acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 27th day of November 1758 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

November 27th 1858 (2-38)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Margaret Sinclair and William Dawkins are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, John Baylis and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty eight and in the XXXII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Margaret Sinclair, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Robert Sinclair deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Margaret Sinclair or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Margaret Sinclair or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Margaret Sinclair SEAL

William Dawkins SEAL

Margaret Sinclair and William Dawkins acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 27th day of November 1758 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

March 26th 1759 (2-39)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Graham, William Seal and Newman Matthews are held and firmly bound to James Scott, John Crump, Allan Macrae and Howson Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of three hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty nine and in the XXXII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Graham, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of John Graham deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Graham or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Graham or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Graham SEAL
William Seal SEAL
Newman Matthews SEAL

John Graham, William Seal and Newman Matthews acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 26th day of March 1759 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

June 25th 1759 (2-40)

Know all Men by these Presents that we Sarah Cocker, Masson Bennett and Thomas Reeve are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, Allan Macrae and Foushee Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fifth day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty nine and in the XXXIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Cocker, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Ebonizer Moss deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Cocker or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Sarah Cocker or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Cocker SEAL
Masson Bennett SEAL
Thomas Reeve SEAL

Sarah Cocker, Masson Bennett and Thomas Reeve acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 25th day of June 1759 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

August 27th 1759 (2-41)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we James Seaton, Bertrand Ewell and Howson Kenner gent. are held and firmly bound to James Scott, John Bell, Foushee Tebbs and Lynaugh Helm, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty seventh day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty nine and in the XXXIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James Seaton, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of George Seaton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said executor or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said executor or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Seaton SEAL
Bertrand Ewell SEAL
Howson Kenner SEAL

James Seaton, Bertrand Ewell and Howson Kenner acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 27th day of August 1759 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

October 22nd 1759 (2-42)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Edward Moss, Thomas Thornton and John Reeve are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, John Bell, John Hooe and William Carr, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty nine and in the XXXIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Edward Moss, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Matthew Moss deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Edward Moss or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Edward Moss or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Edward (mark) Moss SEAL
Thomas Thornton SEAL
John Reeve SEAL

Edward Moss, Thomas Thornton and John Reeve acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 22nd day of October 1759 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

November 28th 1759 (2-43)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Hughs, Richard Jervis and Redmon Grigsby are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, John Bell, Foushee Tebbs and Lynaugh Helm, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty eighth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and fifty nine and in the XXXIII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Hughs, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Robert Hughs deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Hughs or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said executor or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Hughs SEAL
Richard Jervis SEAL
Redman Grigsby SEAL

William Hughs, Richard Jervis and Redman Grigsby acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 28th day of November 1759 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

May 26th 1760 (2-44)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Wickliff, William Tebbs and Elijah Wickliff are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, John Bell, Lewis Reno and Lynaugh Helm, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds sterling. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty and in the XXXIV Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Wickliff, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Robert Wickliff deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Elizabeth or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Elizabeth or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth (her X) Wickliff SEAL
William Tebbs SEAL
Elijah Wickliff SEAL

Elizabeth Wickliff, William Tebbs and Elijah Wickliff acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 26th day of May 1760 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

June 24th 1760 (2-45)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Lashbrook, James Bridges and Benjamin Rush Jun. are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott clerk, Foushee Tebbs and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fourth day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty and in the XXXIV Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Lashbrook and James Bridges, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of _____ deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Mary and James or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary and James or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary (X) Lashbrook SEAL
James Bridges SEAL
Benjamin Rush Jun. SEAL

Mary Lashbrook, James Bridges and Benjamin Rush acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 24th day of June 1760 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

February 23rd 1760 (2-46)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Edward Gwatkins, Archibald Bigby, William Ellzey and Thomas Attwell are held and firmly bound to Allan Macrae, John Bell, John Hooe and Lewis Reno, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty and in the XXXIV Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Edward Gwatkins and Archibald Bigby, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of George Bigby deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Edward and Archibald or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Executors or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Edward Gwatkins SEAL
Archibald Bigby SEAL
William Ellzey SEAL
Thomas Attwell SEAL

Edward Gwatkins, Archibald Bigby, William Ellzey and Thomas Attwell acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 23rd day of February 1761 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

May 25th 1761 (2-47)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Rossannah Foley, James Foley, John Baylis and John Peake are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, William Tebbs and Lewis Reno, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty fifth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty one and in the XXXIV Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Second.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Rossannah Foley, and James Foley, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of John Foley deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Rossannah and James Foley or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Rossannah and James Foley or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Rossannah Foley SEAL
James Foley SEAL
John Baylis SEAL
John Peake SEAL

Rossannah Foley, James Foley, John Baylis and John Peake acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 25th day of May 1761 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

May 26th 1761 (2-48)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Tackett, John Bayliss, Lynaugh Helm, and Peter Glascock are held and firmly bound to James Scott, William Tebbs, Thomas Lawson and George Brett, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty one and in the first Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Tackett, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of William Spiller deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Tackett or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William Tackett or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said

Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Tackett SEAL
John Bayliss SEAL
Lynaugh Helm SEAL
Peter Glascock SEAL

William Tackett, John Bayliss, Lynaugh Helm, and Peter Glascock acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 26th day of May 1761 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

June 23rd 1761 (2-49)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Rebecca Ward, John Jackson and Thomas Reno are held and firmly bound to James Scott clerk, Allan Macrae, William Tebbs and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty third day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty one and in the First Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Rebecca Ward, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Dixey Ward deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Rebecca Ward or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Rebecca Ward or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Rebecca (X) Ward SEAL
John Jackson SEAL
Thomas Reno SEAL

Rebecca Ward, John Jackson and Thomas Reno acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 23rd day of June 1761 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

August 25th 1761 (2-49A)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Sarah Lattimore, Bertrand Ewell, and George Calvert Jun. are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott clerk, John Hooe and Lewis Reno., Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty and in the First Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Lattimore, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of John Lattimore deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Lattimore or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Sarah Lattimore or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah (X) Lattimore SEAL
Bertrand Ewell SEAL
George Calvert Jun. SEAL

Sarah Lattimore, Bertrand Ewell and George Calvert Jun. acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 25th day of August 1761 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

February 22nd 1762 (2-50)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Hazelrigg, James Hazelrigg, Abel Hazelrigg, Thomas Falkner and Patrick Hamrick Jun. are held and firmly bound to John Bell, William Tebbs, Lewis Reno and Lynaugh Helm. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 22nd day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty-two and in the Second Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Hazelrigg, Abel Hazelrigg and James Hazelrigg, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Richard Hazelrigg deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said William, Abel and James or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William, Abel and James or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------------|------|
| William Hazelrigg | SEAL |
| Abel Hazelrigg | SEAL |
| James Hazelrigg | SEAL |
| Thomas Falkner | SEAL |
| Patrick Hamrick Jun. | SEAL |

William Hazelrigg, Abel Hazelrigg, James Hazelrigg, Thomas Falkner and Patrick Hamrick Jun. acknowledged the within bond as their acts and deeds in Prince William County Court the 22nd day of February 1762 and was then recorded.

Teste – John Graham, Clerk

February 22nd 1762 (2-51)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we George Calvert, Jacob Calvert, William Bennett and John Reeves are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Lewis Reno, Thomas Lawson & Lynaugh Helm, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twentieth day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty-two and in the Second Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound George Calvert, and Jacob Calvert, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Richard Crupper deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Executors or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Executors or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| George Calvert | SEAL |
| Jacob Calvert | SEAL |
| William Bennett | SEAL |
| John Reeves | SEAL |

February 20th 1762 (2-52)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Simon Luttrell, John Brett, William Carr & Elijah Wickliff are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Henry Peyton, Lewis Reno & Lynaugh Helm, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 20th day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty-two and in the Second Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Simon Luttrell & John Brett, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of George Brett deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Executors or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Executors or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George Calvert SEAL
Jacob Calvert SEAL
William Bennett SEAL
John Reeves SEAL

June 7th 1762 (2-53)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Patience Bland, Edward Gwatkin & Benjamin Bland. are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, Allan Macrae and Lewis Reno, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty-two and in the Second Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Patience Bland, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of John Bland deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Patience Bland or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Patience Bland or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Patience (X) Bland SEAL
Edward Gwatkin SEAL
Benjamin Bland SEAL

June 7th 1762 (2-54)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we James Cullins, Thomas Thornton and Peter Glascock are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, Allan Macrae, and Lewis Reno, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty two and in the second Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James Cullins, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of James Cullins deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said James Cullins or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said James Cullins or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

 Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Cullins SEAL
 Thomas Thornton SEAL
 Peter Glascock SEAL

February 22nd 1762 (2-55)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John McMillian, Burr Harrison and William Bennett are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Allan Macrae, William Tebbs & Lewis Reno, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty second day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty two and in the second Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John McMillan, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of John McMillan deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John McMillan or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John McMillan or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John McMillan SEAL
 Burr Harrison SEAL
 William Bennett SEAL

May 2nd 1763 (2-56)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Newman Mathis, James Bridges & John Reeve are held and firmly bound to John Baylis, Allan Macrae, William Tebbs and William Carr, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty three and in the Third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Newman Mathis, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Griffin Mathis deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Newman Mathis or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Newman Mathis or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Newman Mathis SEAL
 James Bridges SEAL
 John Reeve SEAL

June 6th 1763 (2-57)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Leonard Hart, John Peyton & John Lumdale are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Allan Macrae, Lynaugh Helm & Thomas Lawson, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty three and in the Third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Leonard Hart, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Hart deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Leonard Hart or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Leonard Hart or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Leonard Hart SEAL
John Peyton SEAL
John Lumdale SEAL

September 5th 1763 (2-58)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Reeves, William Wilson, Edward Gwatkin & Benjamin Bristow are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Nisbitt, Jno Baylis and Lewis Reno, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty-three and in the Third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Reeves, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of _____ deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Reeves or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary Reeves or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Reeves SEAL
William Wilson SEAL
Edward Gwatkin SEAL
Benjamin Bristow SEAL

March 5th 1764 (2-59)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Robert Wickliff, Daniel Kincheloe, Isaac Davis & William Tyler are held and firmly bound to James Nisbett, Foushee Tebbs, Allan Macrae & Howson Hooe, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty four and in the Third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Robert Wickliff & Daniel Kincheloe Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Elijah Wickliff deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Robert & Daniel or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Robert & Daniel or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert Wickliff SEAL
Daniel Kincheloe SEAL
Isaac Davis SEAL
William Tyler SEAL

April 2nd 1764 (2-60)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Patrick Hamrick & James Bridges are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Nisbett, John Baylis & Foushee Tebbs, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty four and in the Third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Patrick Hamrick, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Patrick Hamrick deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Patrick Hamrick or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Patrick Hamrick or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Patrick Hamrick SEAL
James Bridges SEAL

May 10th 1764 (2-60B)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Baylis & John Graham of Prince William County are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Lewis Reno, James Douglas & Daniel Payne, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this tenth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty four and in the Forth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Baylis, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of William Baylis deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Baylis or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Baylis or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Baylis SEAL
John Graham SEAL

September 3rd 1764 (2-60B)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Hedges, John Graham, John Linton & James Triplett of are held and firmly bound to John Hedges, John Graham, John Linton & James Triplett, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty four and in the Forth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Hedges, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of David Wise deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Hedges or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Hedges or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Hedges SEAL
John Graham SEAL
John Linton SEAL
James Triplett SEAL

September 30th 1764 (2-62)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Ship, James Hawkins & John Wake are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Howson Hooe, John Hooe & Thomas Lawson, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 30th day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty four and in the Forth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Ship, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of John Johnson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Ship or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Ship or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Ship SEAL
James Hawkins SEAL, John Wake SEAL

October 10th 1764 (2-63)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Bridgar Haynie and Benjamin Rush are held and firmly bound to James Nisbett, Foushee Tebbs, Allan Macrae & Lewis Reno, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this tenth day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty four and in the Forth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Bridgar Haynie Executor of the Last Will and Testament of John Diskin deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Bridgar Haynie or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Bridgar Haynie or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Bridgar Haynie SEAL

Benjamin Rush SEAL

December 3rd 1764 (2-64)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Rookard, Thomas Arrington, George Calvert Jun., & John Rookard are held and firmly bound to James Nisbett, Allan Macrae, Foushee Tebbs & Lewis Reno, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty four and in the Fifth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Rookard and Thomas Arrington Executors of the Last Will and Testament of William Rookard deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Thomas Rookard and Thomas Arrington or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Thomas Rookard and Thomas Arrington or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Rookard SEAL
Thomas Arrington SEAL
George Calvert Jun. SEAL
John Rookard SEAL

March 4th 1765 (2-66)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Wells, Samuel Wells and James Grinstead are held and firmly bound to John Baylis, James Scott clerk, James Douglas & Lewis Reno, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty Five and in the Fifth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Wells Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Charles Wells deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Wells SEAL
Samuel Wells SEAL
James Grinstead SEAL

October 9th 1765 (2-67)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Jane Baylis, William Brent, James Nisbett & Thomas Blackburn are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Lewis Reno, William Carr & Allan Macrae, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of four thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 9th day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty Five and in the Fifth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Jane Baylis Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of John Baylis deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Jane Baylis or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Jane Baylis or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jane Baylis SEAL
William Brent SEAL
James Nisbett SEAL
Thomas Blackburn SEAL

July 7th 1766 (2-68)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Coffe and William Carr are held and firmly bound to Allan Macrae, Foushee Tebbs, Thomas Lawson and Thomas Blackburn, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 7th day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty six and in the Sixth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Coffe, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of John Coffe deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Coffe or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary Coffe or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Coffe SEAL
William Carr SEAL

October 7th 1766 (2-69)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Barr, Henry Lee and William Elzey are held and firmly bound to Henry Hooe, John Hooe, Lynaugh Helm, and Thomas Lawson, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 7th day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty six and in the Sixth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Barr, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Judith Barr deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Barr or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William Barr or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Barr SEAL
Henry Lee SEAL
William Elzey SEAL

December 1st 1766 (2-70)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Lee, Thomas Lawson, William Carr & Thomas Blackburn are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, John Hooe, Lynaugh Helm & William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of four thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty-six and in the Seventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Lee and Thomas Lawson, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Allan Macrae deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Executors or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Executors or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Lee SEAL
Thomas Lawson SEAL
William Carr SEAL
Thomas Blackburn SEAL

December 1st 1766 (2-71)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Carr, Alexander Henderson, John Riddle, Robert Brent & Thomas Lawson are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, William Tebbs, Lynaugh Helm, and Thomas Blackburn, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of four thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty-six and in the Seventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Carr, Alexander Henderson and John Riddle, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of James Douglass deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Carr, Henderson & Riddle or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Carr, Henderson & Riddle or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Carr SEAL
Alexander Henderson SEAL
John Riddle SEAL
Robert Brent SEAL
Thomas Lawson SEAL
Henry Peyton SEAL

December 1st 1766 (2-72)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Betty Harper, Richard Evans & William Carr are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, John Hooe, Thomas Blackburn, Lynaugh Helm and William Tebbs, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 1st day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty six and in the Seventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Betty Harper, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of George Harper deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Betty Harper or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Betty Harper or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------|------|
| Betty Harper | SEAL |
| Richard Evans | SEAL |
| William Carr | SEAL |

December 7th 1767 (2-73)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Lettice Thornton, John Peyton & Cuthbert Bullett are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, Daniel Payne & Lynaugh Helm, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 7th day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty seven and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Lettice Thornton, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Thornton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Lettice Thornton or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Lettice Thornton or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| Lettice Thornton | SEAL |
| John Peyton | SEAL |
| Cuthbert Bullett | SEAL |

December 7th 1767 (2-74)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Foster, James Bridges, Alexander Davidson & William Wyatt are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Lewis Reno, John Hooe, Lynaugh Helm & Daniel Payne, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum _____ pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 7th day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty seven and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Foster, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of William Foster deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Foster or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Foster SEAL
James Bridges SEAL
Alexander Davidson SEAL
William Wyatt SEAL

December 7th 1767 (2-75)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Ann Wright, William Wright, Joseph Wright, William More & Jeremiah Moore are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs & Lewis Reno, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty-seven and in the Seventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Ann Wright, William Wright, and Joseph Wright Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Richard Wright deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Mary, William & Joseph or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary, William & Joseph or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Ann Wright SEAL
William Wright SEAL
Joseph Wright SEAL
William Moore SEAL
Jeremiah Moore SEAL

December 8th 1767 (2-76)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Gwatkins, James Gwatkins, William Bennett & George Calvert are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott clerk, Lewis Reno & John Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this eighth day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty-seven and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Gwatkins and James Gwatkins, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Edwards Gwatkins deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said John Gwatkins & James Gwatkins or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Gwatkins & James Gwatkins or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Gwatkins SEAL
James Gwatkins SEAL
William Bennett SEAL
George Calvert SEAL

March 10th 1768 (2-77)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Lewis Reno, Elender Reno, Lynaugh Helm, & John Graham are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs & Daniel Payne, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of three hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this tenth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty-eight and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Lewis Reno & Elender Reno, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of John Reno deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Lewis Reno and Elender Reno or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Lewis Reno & Elender Reno or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|--------------|------|
| Lewis Reno | SEAL |
| Elender Reno | SEAL |
| Lynaugh Helm | SEAL |
| John Graham | SEAL |

August 1st 1767 (2-79)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we James Triplett and Foushee Tebbs are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Howson Hooe, Lewis Reno and Lynaugh Helm, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 1st day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty eight and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James Triplett, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of William Triplett deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said James Triplett or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said James Triplett or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------|------|
| James Triplett | SEAL |
| Foushee Tebbs | SEAL |

September 5th 1768 (2-80)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we James Gwatkin, William Moore, George Bigbie and Simon Luttrell are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Thomas Lawson, Lewis Reno & William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty-eight and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James Gwatkin and William Moore, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of John Gwatkin deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said James Gwatkin and William Moore or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said James Gwatkin and William Moore or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Gwatkin SEAL
William Moore SEAL
George Bigbie SEAL
Simon Luttrell SEAL

October 3rd 1768 (2-81)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Ann White, William Carr, Thomas Moss and William Finch are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, Howson Hooe and Lewis Reno, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 3rd day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty-eight and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Ann White, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of William White deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Ann White or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Ann White or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann White SEAL
William Carr SEAL
Thomas Moss SEAL
William Finch SEAL

October 3rd 1768 (2-82)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Esther Kelley, Hugh Brent and John Matison are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott clerk, Lewis Reno, and Howson Hoe, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 3rd day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty eight and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Esther Kelley, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Joseph Kelley deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Esther Kelley or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Esther Kelley or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Esther (X) Kelley SEAL
Hugh Brent SEAL
John Matison SEAL

November 7th 1768 (2-83)

Know all men by these presents that we Rachel Dalton, James Dalton, William Carr and William Bennett are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Lynaugh Helm, Lewis Reno, and Daniel Payne, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty-eight and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Rachel Dalton and James Dalton, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of John Dalton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Rachel Dalton and James Dalton or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Rachel Dalton and James Dalton or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| Rachel Dalton | SEAL |
| James Dalton | SEAL |
| William Carr | SEAL |
| William Bennett | SEAL |

March 7th 1769 (2-84)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Peggy Arrington and James Johnson are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Nisbett, Thomas Lawson and John Hooe, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 7th day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty nine and in the Ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Peggy Arrington, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Arrington deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Peggy Arrington or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Peggy Arrington or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------------|------|
| Peggy (X) Arrington | SEAL |
| James Johnson | SEAL |

July 3rd 1769 (2-85)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Lettice Thornton, John Peyton & Cuthbert Bullett are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, Daniel Payne & Lynaugh Helm, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 3rd day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty nine and in the Ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Stone, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Samuel Stone deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Stone or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Sarah Stone or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| Sarah (X) Stone | SEAL |
| Isaac Davise | SEAL |

September 4th 1769 (2-86)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Bridges & James Bridges are held and firmly bound to James Scott, howson Hooe, William Tebbs, Lynaugh Helm, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 4th day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty nine and in the Ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Bridges, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Elizabeth English deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Bridges or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Bridges or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Bridges SEAL
James Bridges SEAL

October 2nd 1769 (2-87)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Lewis Reno Jun., William Lewis and Valentine Clowinger are held and firmly bound to James Scott clerk, Daniel Payne, William Tebbs and Lynaugh Helm, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum one hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 2nd day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty nine and in the Ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Lewis Reno Jr., Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Reno deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Lewis Reno Jr. or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Lewis Reno Jr. or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Lewis Reno Jr. SEAL
William Lewis SEAL
Valentine Clowinger SEAL

October 2nd 1769 (2-88)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Lynaugh Helm, John Moffett, and William Alexander of Prince William County are held and firmly bound to James Scott clerk, Daniel Payne, Lewis Reno and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty-nine and in the Ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Lynaugh Helm and John Moffett, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Margaret Helm deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Lynaugh Helm and John Moffett or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Lynaugh Helm and John Moffett or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Lynaugh Helm SEAL
 John Moffett SEAL
 William Alexander SEAL

March 5th 1770 (2-89)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Charles Thornton, Thomas A. Holland & Hugh Brent are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Lewis Reno, Daniel Payne and Lynaugh Helm, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 5th day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy and in the Tenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Charles Thornton, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Thornton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Charles Thornton or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Charles Thornton or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Charles Thornton SEAL
 Thomas A. Holland SEAL
 Hugh Brent SEAL

March 17th 1770 (2-90)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Wilkinson, Thomas Lawson & Henry Lee are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, Daniel Payne & Lynaugh Helm, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 17th day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy and in the Tenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Wilkinson, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Benjamin Wilkinson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Wilkinson or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Elizabeth Wilkinson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Wilkinson SEAL
 Thomas Lawson SEAL
 Henry Lee SEAL

January 17th 1771 (2-91)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Smith, and Giles Carter are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Thomas Lawson and John Hooe, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum one hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 17th day of January in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy One and in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Smith, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Susannah Carter deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Smith or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Smith or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John (X) Smith SEAL
Giles Carter SEAL

May 6th 1771 (2-92)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John McMillian and Cuthbert McMillian are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Thomas Lawson, William Carr and Jesse Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 6th day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy One and in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John McMillian, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Cuthbert McMillian deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John McMillian or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John McMillian or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John McMillian SEAL
Cuthbert McMillian SEAL

June 4th 1771 (2-93)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Foster & John Hoe are held and firmly bound to Lewis Reno, Daniel Payne, Lynaugh Helm and Thomas Montgomerie, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum eight hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 4th day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy One and in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Foster, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Robert Foster deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Foster or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William Foster or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said

Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Foster SEAL
John Hoe SEAL

July 1st 1771 (2-94)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Daniel Bradford & Cuthbert Bullitt are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, John Hooe, Thomas Lawson and Thomas Montgomerie, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum fifteen hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 1st day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-One and in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Daniel Bradford, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Daniel Bradford deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Daniel Bradford or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Daniel Bradford or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Daniel Bradford SEAL
Cuthbert Bullitt SEAL

August 5th 1771 (2-95)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Cook, Evan Williams, William Cocke, William Grayson, Isreal Tolson, and Charles Adams are held and firmly bound to John Hooe, Lewis Reno, Lynaugh Helm and Henry Lee, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-One and in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Cook and Evan Williams, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of John Cook deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Elizabeth Cook and Evan Williams or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Elizabeth Cook and Evan Williams or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Cook SEAL
Evan Williams SEAL
William Cocke SEAL
William Grayson SEAL
Isreal Tolson SEAL
Charles Adams SEAL

September 2nd 1771 (2-96)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Harrison Jr., George Florence Jr., Cuthbert Harrison and William Purcell are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Henry Peyton, Foushee Tebbs, and Jesse Ewell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-one and in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Harrison Jr. and George Florence Jr., Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Normand Drummond deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Thomas Harrison Jr. and George Florence or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Thomas Harrison Jr. and George Florence or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------------|------|
| Thomas Harrison Jr. | SEAL |
| George Florence Jr. | SEAL |
| Cuthbert Harrison | SEAL |
| William Purcell | SEAL |

December 2nd 1771 (2-97)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Obediah Calvert, Thomas Stone, Ester Calvert, Foushee Tebbs and Thomas Blackburn are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Howson Hooe, William Carr and Henry Peyton, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-one and in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Obediah Calvert, Thomas Stone and Ester Calvert, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of George Calvert deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Obediah, Thomas and Ester or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Obediah, Thomas & Ester or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| Obediah Calvert | SEAL |
| Thomas Stone | SEAL |
| Ester Calvert | SEAL |
| Foushee Tebbs | SEAL |
| Thomas Blackburn | SEAL |

January 6th 1772 (2-98)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Betty Ashmore, Francis Triplett and Charles Gallahue are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Howson Hooe, Thomas Blackburn and Jesse Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 6th day of January in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-two and in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Betty Ashmore, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of William Ashmore deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Betty Ashmore or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Betty Ashmore or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said

Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Betty Ashmore SEAL
Fancis Triplett SEAL
Charles Gallahue SEAL

March 2nd 1772 (2-99)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Kesia Tolson, Daniel Kincheloe, Charles Adams, William Davis & Hubbard Prince are held and firmly bound to William Carr, William Tebbs, Thomas Lawson and William Cocke, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of (no amount given.) Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 2nd day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy two and in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Kesia Tolson, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Isreal Tolson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Kesia Tolson or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Kesia Tolson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Kesia Tolson SEAL
Daniel Kincheloe SEAL

May 4th 1772 (2-100)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Tebbs, William Tebbs, William Grayson & Thomas Chapman are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Thomas Blackburn, Lewis Reno, and Thomas Lawson, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 4th day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-two and in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Tebbs, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of James Tebbs deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Tebbs or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary Tebbs or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Tebbs SEAL
William Tebbs SEAL
William Grayson SEAL
Thomas Chapman SEAL

May 5th 1772 (2-101)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Brown, John Hooe and Anthony Seal are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Henry Peyton, Thomas Lawson, Lewis Reno and Lynaugh Helm, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 5th day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-Two and in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Brown, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Lydia Byrn deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Brown or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William Brown or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Brown SEAL
John Hooe SEAL
Anthony Seal SEAL

June 1st 1772 (2-102)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Sarah Calvert, Francis Calvert, William Farrow and George Calvert of Deep Hole, are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Henry Peyton, Thomas Lawson, Lewis Reno and Lynaugh Helm, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 1st day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-two and in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Calvert and Francis Calvert, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Jacob Calvert deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Sarah Calvert and Francis Calvert or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Sarah Calvert and Francis Calvert or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah (X) Calvert SEAL
Francis Calvert SEAL
William Farrow SEAL
George Calvert SEAL

July 6th 1772 (2-103)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we George Ash, Jesse Ewell and Thomas Bird are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Thomas Lawson, Lewis Reno, William Carr and Thomas Blackburn, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 6th day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-Two and in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound George Ash, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Lydia Byrn deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said George Ash or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said George Ash or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George Ash SEAL
Jesse Ewell SEAL
Thomas Bird SEAL

October 5th 1772 (2-104)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Jane Smith, Charles Stewart and Vester Moss are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Carr, Lewis Reno, Henry Peyton and Thomas Montgomerie, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 5th day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-two and in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Jane Smith, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Joseph Smith deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Jane Smith or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Jane Smith or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jane (X) Smith SEAL
Charles (X) Stewart SEAL
Vester (X) Moss SEAL

February 1st 1773 (2-105)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we James Gwatkin, Francis Jackson, & Hugh Brent of Prince William County are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Lewis Reno, Thomas Montgomerie and Lynaugh Helm, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 1st day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy and in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James Gwatkin, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of James Carberry deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said James Gwatkin or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said James Gwatkin or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Gwatkin SEAL
Francis Jackson SEAL
Hugh Brent SEAL

August 2nd 1773 (2-106)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Lydia Parsons, Joshua Ratcliff & Elijah Wood are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Henry Peyton, Lynaugh Helm, William Alexander, and Lewis Reno, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of fifty pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 2nd day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-Three and in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Lydia Parsons, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of William Parsons Sr. deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Lydia Parsons or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Lydia Parsons or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Lydia Parsons SEAL
Joshua Ratcliff SEAL
Elijah Wood SEAL

October 4th 1773 (2-107)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we James King, Thomas Bland and John Dowell are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Lewis Reno, and Jesse Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum one hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 4th day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-Three and in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James King, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Samuel King deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said James King or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said James King or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James (X) King SEAL
Thomas Bland SEAL
John Dowell SEAL

February 7th 1774 (2-108)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Asa Reeve, John Hooe and John Reeve are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs and Jesse Ewell Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-four and in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Asa Reeve and John Reeve, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of George Reeve deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Asa & John or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Asa & John or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Asa (X) Reeve SEAL
John Hooe SEAL
John (X) Reeve SEAL

September 5th 1774 (2-109)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Lynch and Robert Lawson are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Alexander, Howson Hooe, and Thomas Lawson, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 5th day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-four and in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Linch, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Christopher Linch deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Linch or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary Linch or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary (X) Linch SEAL

Robert Lawson SEAL

October 3rd 1774 (2-110)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Lewis Reno younger, Thomas Reno, David Reno & John McMillan are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, Foushee Tebbs, Jesse Ewell, Howson Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-one and in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Lewis Reno younger, Thomas Reno and David Reno, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Lewis Reno deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Lewis, Thomas & David or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Lewis, Thomas & David or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Lewis Reno SEAL

Thomas Reno SEAL

David Reno SEAL

John McMillan SEAL

November 7th 1774 (2-111)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Seth Peyton, Valentine Peyton, John Peyton, John Linton, John Brett & Timothy Peyton are held and firmly bound to Howson Hooe, Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs and Thomas Lawson, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 7th day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-four and in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Seth Peyton, Valentine Peyton and John Peyton of the Last Will and Testament of John Peyton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Seth, Valentine & John or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Seth, Valentine & John or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Seth Peyton SEAL
Valentine Peyton SEAL
John Peyton SEAL
John Linton SEAL
John Brett SEAL
Timothy Peyton SEAL

November 7th 1774 (2-112)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Hooe and Howson Hooe are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, Henry Peyton, and Thomas Lawson, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum two thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 7th day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-Four and in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Hooe, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Falkner deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Hooe or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Hooe or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Hooe SEAL
Howson Hooe SEAL

Not Given (2-113)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Daniel Barnett, Jacob Marshall & James Foley are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, William Alexander, Thomas Lawson, John Hooe and Howson Hooe, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum (not given). Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound (not given) Executor of the Last Will and Testament of (not given) deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said (not given) or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said (not given) or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

March 5th 1775 (2-114)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Solomon Hornbuckle & William Lyndsey are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, Howson Hooe, John Hooe, Foushee Tebbs, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 5th day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-Five and in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Solomon Hornbuckle, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of William Hornbuckle deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Solomon Hornbuckle or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Solomon Hornbuckle or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Solomon Hornbuckle SEAL
William Lyndsey SEAL

April 3rd 1775 (2-115)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Carter, John Higgeson, Jas Grinstead & John Earls, are held and firmly bound to William Tebbs, John Hooe, Howson Hooe, William Alexander, and Jesse Ewell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of three hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-five and in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Carter and John Higgeson, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Highlander deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said William Carter & John Higgeson or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William Carter & John Higgeson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Carter SEAL
John Higgeson SEAL
Jas Grinstead SEAL
John Earls SEAL
Thomas Blackburn SEAL

December 2nd 1775 (2-116)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Humphrey Francis, Ann Whiting, and Mathew Whiting are held and firmly bound to Henry Peyton, Foushee Tebbs, Howson Hooe and John Hooe Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-one and in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Humphrey Francis and Ann Whiting, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Henry Whiting deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Humphrey and Ann or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Humphrey and Ann or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Humphrey Francis SEAL
Ann Whiting SEAL
Mathew Whiting SEAL

May 6th 1776 (2-118)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Alexander, James Gwatkin and Cuthbert Harrison are held and firmly bound to James Nisbett, John Hooe, Howson Hooe and William Tebbs, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of eight hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-six and in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Alexander and James Gwatkin, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Samuel Jones deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said William Alexander and James Gwatkin or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William Alexander and James Gwatkin or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Alexander SEAL
James Gwatkin SEAL
Cuthbert Harrison SEAL

November 2nd 1775 (2-117)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Gunyon & Jesse Ewell are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Thomas Lawson and William Tebbs, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum two hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 2nd day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-Five and in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, the Third.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Gunyon, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of John Gunyon deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Gunyon or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Gunyon or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Gunyon SEAL
Jesse Ewell SEAL

August 5th 1776 (2-119)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Calk, James Grinstead and Joshua Bott are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Howson Hooe, Henry Lee, William Alexander, & John Hooe, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 5th day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-Six.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Calk, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of James Calk deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Calk or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said

Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William Calk or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Calk SEAL
James Grinstead SEAL
Joshua Bott SEAL

October 7th 1776 (120)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Valentine Peyton & John Brett are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Henry Peyton, John Hooe, William Tebbs and William Carr, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 7th day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-Six.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Valentine Peyton, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Mary Cannon deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Valentine Peyton or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Valentine Peyton or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Valentine Peyton SEAL
John Brett SEAL

September 1st 1777 (2-121)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Fanny Melton, Scarlet Madden, and John Leewright are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Carr and Jesse Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of _____ Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 1st day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-seven.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Fanny Melton Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of William Melton jun. deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Fanny Melton or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Fanny Melton or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Fanny Melton SEAL
Scarlet Madden SEAL
John Leewright SEAL

September 1st 1777 (2-121B)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John McMillan and John Murray are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Carr, John Hooe, William Alexander, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 1st day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-Seven

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John McMillan, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Charles Gallahue deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John McMillan or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John McMillan or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John McMillan SEAL
John Murray SEAL

October 6th 1777 (2-121C)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Newman, Thomas Newman & Alexander Brown are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Nisbett, Thomas Lawson and John Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of fifteen hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-seven.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Newman, and Thomas Newman Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Newman deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Elizabeth Newman and Thomas Newman or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Elizabeth Newman and Thomas Newman or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth(X) Newman SEAL
Thomas Newman SEAL
Alexander Brown SEAL

October 6th 1777 (2-122)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Owens, Elizabeth Owens, John Linton and John Simms are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Nisbett, John Hooe and William Brent, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy - seven .

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Owens and Elizabeth Owens Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Joshua Owens deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said John & Elizabeth or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John & Elizabeth or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Owens SEAL
Elizabeth Owens SEAL
John Linton SEAL
John Simms SEAL

October 6th 1777 (2-123)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Foley, John Simms and Benjamin Cooper are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, John Hooe, James Nisbett, Thomas Lawson, William Brent and Alexander Brown, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 6th day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy seven.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Foley, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Jacob Foley deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Foley or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary Foley or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Foley SEAL
John Simms SEAL
Benjamin Cooper SEAL

December 7th 1777 (2-124)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Sarah Carpenter, Samuel Byrn and Benjamin Cooper are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Carr, William Brent and Alexander Brown, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of eight hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 7th day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and sixty seven

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Carpenter, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Benjamin Carpenter deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Carpenter or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Sarah Carpenter or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Carpenter SEAL
Samuel Byrn SEAL
Benjamin Cooper SEAL

April 6th 1777 (2-125)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Hoof and Timothy Peyton are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Nisbett, John Hooe, William Carr, Richard Graham, Jesse Ewell, and John McMillan, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 6th day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-seven.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Hoof, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Jonathan Hoof deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Hoof or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary Hoof or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said

Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary (X) Hoof SEAL
Timothy Peyton SEAL

May 4th 1778 (2-126)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we George Newman Brown, William Hampton, Henry Hampton, Hugh Brent, Robert Warren and Thomas Thornton are held and firmly bound to Thomas Lawson, Richard Graham, Jesse Ewell, and John Murray, Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this forth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-eight.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound George Newman Brown, William Hampton and Henry Hampton, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Henry Hampton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said George, William and Henry or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said George, William and Henry or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George N. Newman SEAL
William Hampton SEAL
Henry Hampton SEAL
Hugh Brent SEAL
Robert Warren SEAL
Thomas Thornton SEAL

May 4th 1778 (2-127)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Robert Warren and Valentine Peyton are held and firmly bound to Thomas Lawson, Richard Graham, James Ewell, John McMillan, and John Murray, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum two thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 4th day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-Seven.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Robert Warren, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Charles Thornton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Robert Warren or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Robert Warren or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert Warren SEAL
Valentine Peyton SEAL

July 6th 1778 (2-128)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Henry Wilson, Benjamin Wigginton, Thomas Bland and Eli Cleveland, are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Scott, John Hooe, Henry Peyton, James Nisbett, John Murray and William Brent, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-eight.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Henry Wilson and Benjamin Wigginton, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Henry Wilson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Henry and Benjamin or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Henry and Benjamin or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|--------------------|------|
| Henry Wilson | SEAL |
| Benjamin Wigginton | SEAL |
| Thomas Bland | SEAL |
| Eli Cleveland | SEAL |

September 7th 1778 (2-129)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Sarah Smith, James Smith & Robert Warren are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, James Ewell, William Brent and John Tyler, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy-eight.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Smith and James Smith of the Last Will and Testament of Caleb Smith deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Sarah Smith and James Smith or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Sarah Smith and James Smith or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------|------|
| Sarah(X) Smith | SEAL |
| James(X) Smith | SEAL |
| Robert Warren | SEAL |

December 8th 1778 (2-130)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Powell Jun. & John Linton are held and firmly bound to John Hooe, Jesse Ewell, John McMillam, and Reginald Graham, Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum two thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this 8th day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-Eight.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Powell Jun., Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Dagg deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Powell Jun. or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William Powell Jun. or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------------|------|
| William Powell Jun. | SEAL |
| John Linton | SEAL |

October 6th 1778 (2-130)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Powell Jun. and John Linton are held and firmly bound to John Hooe, Jesse Ewell, John McMillan and Reginald Graham, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this twenty sixth day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and seventy eight.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Powell Jun., Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Dagg deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Powell Jun. or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William Powell Jun. or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Powell Jun. SEAL
John Linton SEAL

March 1st 1779 (2-131)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Hogan and George Green are held and firmly bound to John McMillion, James Ewell, Alexander Brown and John Murray, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Nine.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Hogan, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Hogan deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Hogan or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Thomas Hogan or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Hogan SEAL
George (X) Green SEAL

March 1st 1779 (2-132)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Haden Crook and Anthony Whitehead are held and firmly bound to Thomas Lawson, John McMillon and Jas. Ewell, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Nine.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Haden Crook, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Zephaniah Crook deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Haden Crook or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary Haden Crook or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Haden (X) Crook SEAL
Anthony Whitehead SEAL

May 30th 1779 (2-133)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Dale, Luke Hanks and Robert Warren, Alexander Keith and Robert Brown are held and firmly bound to Jas. Nisbett, Richard Graham, Jno McMillam and John Murray, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this thirty day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Nine.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Dale, Luke Hanks and Robert Warren, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Robert Dale deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Executors or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Executors or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Dale SEAL
Luke Hanks SEAL
Robert Warren SEAL
Alex Keith SEAL
Robert Brown SEAL

May 3rd 1779 (2-134)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Margaret Foote, Lynaugh Helm and William Alexander are held and firmly bound to Jas. Nisbett, Richard Graham, John McMillon and John Murray, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of twenty thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Nine.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Margaret Foote, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Richard Foote deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Margaret Foote or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Margaret Foote or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Margaret Foote SEAL
Lynaugh Helm SEAL
William Alexander SEAL

July 5th 1779 (2-135)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Leachman, Leonard Leachman and James Ross are held and firmly bound to James Nisbett, James Scott, Jesse Ewell, William Brent and John Murray, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Nine.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Leachman, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of _____ deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Hogan or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Thomas Hogan or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Leachman SEAL
Leonard Leachman SEAL
James Ross SEAL

August 2nd 1779 (2-135 B)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Jane Reeve, William Reeve and Robert Warren are held and firmly bound to James Nisbett, Foushee Tebbs, John Hooe and John Murray, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Nine.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Jane Reeve and William Reeve, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of _____ deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Jane and William or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Jane and William or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jane (X) Reeve SEAL
William (X) Reeve SEAL
Robert Warren SEAL

October 5th 1779 (2-136)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Margaret Tennell, Bernard Hooe, Benjamin Tennell and John Peyton are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, John Tyler and John Murray, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of October in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Nine.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Margaret Tennell and Bernard Hooe, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Francis Tennell deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Margaret and Bernard or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Margaret and Bernard or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Margaret (X) Tennell SEAL
Bernard Hooe SEAL
Benjamin Tennell SEAL
John Peyton SEAL

February 7th 1780 (2-137)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Ann Peachey and Thomas Lawson are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Jas. Ewell and John McMillion, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Ann Peachey, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Sam Peachey deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Ann Peachey or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Ann Peachey or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann Peachey SEAL
Thomas Lawson SEAL

February 7th 1780 (2-138)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Seth Harrison, William Alexander and Cuthbert Bullitt are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Foushee Tebbs, Jas. Ewell, and John McMillion, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Seth Harrison and William Alexander, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Cuthbert Harrison deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Seth and William or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Seth and William or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Seth Harrison SEAL
William Alexander SEAL

March 6th 1780 (2-139)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Robert Hutchinson and Benjamin Hutchinson are held and firmly bound to Jas. Nisbitt, Foushee Tebbs, John Hooe and John McMillion, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Robert Hutchinson, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of John Hutchinson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Robert Hutchinson or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Robert Hutchinson or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert Hutchinson SEAL
Benjamin Hutchinson SEAL

August 7th 1780 (2-139 B)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Litha Cheshire, John Lynn and William Lynn are held and firmly bound to James Nisbett, John Hooe, Jesse Ewell, and John McMillion, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said

Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Litha Cheshire, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of John Cheshire deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Litha Cheshire or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Litha Cheshire or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Litha Cheshire SEAL
John Lynn SEAL
William Lynn SEAL

February 5th 1781 (2-140)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Eleanor Thomas, Mark Mathew Mankin and George Maddox are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Tebbs, Richard Graham and John Murray, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of fifteen thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of February in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Eleanor Thomas, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of George Thomas deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Eleanor Thomas or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Eleanor Thomas or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Eleanor Thomas SEAL
Mark Mathew Mankin SEAL
George Maddox SEAL

March 5th 1881 (2-141)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Benjamin Cooper and Jas. Gwatkin are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, John McMillion and John Murray, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Benjamin Cooper, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Mary Foley deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Benjamin Cooper or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Benjamin Cooper or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Benjamin Cooper SEAL
Jas. Gwatkin SEAL

March 5th 1781 (2-142)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Benjamin Gaines, Joseph Botts and Aaron Botts are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, Jno McMillion and John Murray, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of twenty thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty One.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Benjamin Gaines, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Joshua Botts deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Benjamin Gaines or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Benjamin Gaines or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Benjamin Gaines SEAL
Joseph Botts SEAL
John Murray SEAL

April 2nd 1881 (2-143)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Thomas Chapman, John Brett and Henry Peyton are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Thomas Lawson, James Ewell and Richard Graham, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty One.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Thomas Chapman, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Mary Reaves deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Thomas Chapman or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Thomas Chapman or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas (X) Chapman SEAL
John Brett SEAL
Henry Peyton SEAL

August 6th 1881 (2-144)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we James Ewell and Thomas Blackburn are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Henry Lee, John McMillion and John Murray, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand pounds of gold and silver current in currency of Commonwealth of Virginia Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty One.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James Ewell, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Henry Peyton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said James Ewell or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said James Ewell or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said

Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Ewell SEAL
Thomas Blackburn SEAL

September 3rd 1781 (2-145)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Peyton Jun., John McMillion and Alex Keith are held and firmly bound to James Nisbett, Foushee Tebbs, John Tyler, Jno Murray and Richard Graham, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand pounds of gold and silver current in currency of Commonwealth of Virginia Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty One.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Peyton Jun., Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Henry Peyton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John Peyton Jun. or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John Peyton Jun. or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Peyton Jun. SEAL
John McMillion SEAL
Alex Keith SEAL

November 5th 1781 (2-146)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Ezekiel Cornwell, Francis Cornwell, William Lynn, and Ben Thomas are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Henry Lee, John McMillion and John Murray, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds silver. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty One.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Ezekiel Cornwell, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Charles Cornwell deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Ezekiel Cornwell or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Ezekiel Cornwell or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ezekiel Cornwell SEAL
Francis Cornwell SEAL
William Lynn SEAL
Ben Thomas SEAL

November 5th 1781 (2-147)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Seale, Anthony Seale, William Brown, Bernard Hooe and John Hooe are held and firmly bound to James Nisbett, Foushee Tebbs, James Ewell and John Murray Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five thousand pounds silver. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty One.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Seale, Anthony and William Brown, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Anthony Seale deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said John, Anthony and William or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John, Anthony and William or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Seale SEAL
Anthony Seale SEAL
William Brown SEAL
Bernard Hooe SEAL
John Hooe SEAL

December 3rd 1781 (2-148)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Sarah Cooper, Charles Johnson, William Randolph and William Cornwell are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, Jno McMillion, William Tebbs, Jas Ewell and Richard Graham, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds silver. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty One

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Cooper and Charles Johnson, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Henry Cooper deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Sarah Cooper and Charles Johnson or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Sarah and Charles or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.
Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Cooper SEAL
Charles Johnson SEAL
William Randolph SEAL
Wm. Cornwell SEAL

January 7th 1782 (2-149)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Sam Jackson Jun., William Fielder, John McMillion and Stephen Howison are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Carr, John Hooe, Wm. Tebbs, and John Murray, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of January in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sam Jackson Jr. and William Fielder, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Fras. Jackson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Sam Jackson Jun. and Wm. Fielder or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Sam and William or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.
Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sam Jackson Jun. SEAL
Wm. Fielder SEAL
John McMillion SEAL
Stephen Howison SEAL

June 3rd 1782 (2-150)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Sarah Anne Landrum, Richard Graham and John Hooe are held and firmly bound to James Nisbett, Foushee Tebbs, Thomas Lawson, Burr Harrison and John Janney, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum oftwo thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Sarah Anne Landrum, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of William Landrum deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Sarah Anne Landrum or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Sarah Anne Landrum or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|--------------------|------|
| Sarah Anne Landrum | SEAL |
| Richard Graham | SEAL |
| John Hooe gent. | SEAL |

August 5th 1782 (2-152)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Daniel Obrien, Asa Reeves and John Crook are held and firmly bound to James Nisbett, Foushee Tebbs, John Hooe, Richard Graham, James Ewell, John McMillion and John Murray, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Daniel Obrien, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of John Reeves deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Daniel Obrien or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, shall at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Daniel Obrien or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------|------|
| Daniel Obrien | SEAL |
| Asa Reeves | SEAL |
| John Crook | SEAL |

December 2nd 1782 (2-153)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Scott Clark and Cuthbert Bullitt are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, John Hooe, James Ewell and William Carr, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Scott Clark, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of John Scott executor of James Scott Clark deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said John or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said

Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Scott Clark SEAL
Cuthbert Bullitt SEAL

December 2nd 1782 (2-154)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Benjamin Mattison, William Fewell, George Jackson and James Hamrick are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, John Hooe, James Ewell and William Carr, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Benjamin Mattison, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Truman Higgs deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Benjamin Mattison or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Benjamin Mattison or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Benjamin Mattison SEAL
William Fewell SEAL
George Jackson SEAL
James Hamrick SEAL

March 3rd 1783 (2-155)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Murray and Jesse Ewell of Prince William County are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Tebbs, Rev'd John Scott and Robert Brown, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Murray, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of John Murray deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Murray or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Elizabeth Murray or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Murray SEAL
Jesse Ewell SEAL

1783 (2-156)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Joanna Dolgarn, John Dolgarn, William Carr and Richard Graham are held and firmly bound to Gentlemen Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of eight hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Three.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Joanna Dolgarn and John Dolgarn Executors of the Last Will and Testament of John Dolgarn deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Joanna Dolgarn and John Dolgarn or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Joanna Dolgarn and John Dolgarn or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Joanna (X) Dolgarn SEAL
Jno (X) Dolgarn SEAL
William Carr SEAL
Richard Graham SEAL

April 1st 1783 (2-157)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Louis Read, William Tackett, John Lee Wright Jr. and Cuthbert Bullitt Esq. are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, Jesse Ewell and Al Lithgow, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Two.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Lewis Read and William Tackett, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of William Tackett deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Lewis Read and Wm. Tackett or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Lewis Read and Wm. Tackett or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Lewis Read. SEAL
Wm. Tackett SEAL
John Lee Wright Jr. SEAL
Cuthbert Bullitt SEAL

July 7th 1783 (2-158)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Smoot, James Ewell and Notley Smoot are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Carr, Arthur Lee and Robert Brown, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of July in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Three.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Smoot, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Smoot deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Smoot or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Elizabeth Smoot or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Smoot SEAL
James Ewell SEAL
Notley Smoot SEAL

August 4th 1783 (2-159)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Jeanna Dalgarne, James Dalgarne, Valentine Peyton and George Reamy are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, John Hooe, John Tyler, James Ewell, John Pope and William Edward Wean (?), Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of (not given) Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents.

Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Three.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Jeanna Dalgarne, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of John Dalgarne deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Jeanna Dalgarne or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Jeanna Dalgarne or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jeanna Dalgarne SEAL
James Dalgarne SEAL
Valentine Peyton SEAL
George Reamy SEAL

September 1st 1783 (2-160)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William McDaniel and James Gwatkins are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, Burr Harrison and William Linton, and William Carr, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of three hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Three.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William McDaniel, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Daniel O'Neal deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William McDaniel or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William McDaniel or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William McDaniel SEAL
James Gwatkins SEAL

December 1st 1783 (2-161)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Litha Harrison and William Alexander are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Carr, Burr Harrison, Mathew Harrison and William Linton Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Three.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Litha Harrison, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Ann Harrison deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Litha Harrison or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Litha Harrison or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Litha Harrison SEAL
William Alexander SEAL

December 1st 1783 (2-162)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Nathaniel Wickliff, Mary Tennison, Isaac Wickliff and John Jordan are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Carr, Burr Harrison and William Linton, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this first day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Three.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Nathaniel Wickliff, and Mary Tennison, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of William Tennison deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Nathaniel and Mary or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Nathaniel and Mary or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Nathaniel Wickliff SEAL
Mary Tennison SEAL
Isaac Wickliff SEAL
John Jordan SEAL

May 3rd 1784 (2-163)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Scarlet Madden and John Cannon are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, Jesse Ewell, John McMillion and Valentine, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Four.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Scarlet Madden, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Fanny Shute deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Scarlet Madden or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Scarlet Madden or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Scarlet Madden SEAL
John Cannon SEAL

1784 (2-164)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Scott and Cleom Moore are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, John Tyler, Mathew Harrison and John Pope, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Four in the Ninth Year of the Commonwealth

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Scott, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Sarah Scott deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Scott or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William Scott or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court;

and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Scott SEAL
Cleom Moore SEAL

August 3rd 1784 (2-165)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mark Mathew Mankin and Stephen Lee are held and firmly bound to Foushee Tebbs, William Tebbs, Burr Harrison, John Hooe and John Pope, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this third day of August in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Four.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mark Mathew Mankin, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Lydia Musgrove Monger deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Executor or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Executor or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mark Mathew Mankin SEAL
Stephen Lee SEAL

November 2nd 1784 (2-166)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Willoughby Tebbs and William Tebbs are held and firmly bound to John Hooe, Bernard Hooe, Howson Hooe and William Carr, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this second day of November in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Four.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Willoughby Tebbs, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Foushee Tebbs deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Willoughby Tebbs or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Willoughby Tebbs or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Willoughby Tebbs SEAL
William Tebbs SEAL

March 7th 1785 (2-167)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Carter, Samuel Carter, David Carter and John Hedges are held and firmly bound to William Tebbs, John Hooe, Alexander Brown and Valentine Peyrton, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this seventh day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Five.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Carter, Samuel Carter, and David Carter, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Giles Carter deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said William, Samuel and David or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William, Samuel and David or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Carter SEAL
Samuel Carter SEAL
David Carter SEAL
John Hedges SEAL

April 5th 1785 (2-168)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William Carr and Cuthbert Bullitt are held and firmly bound to John McMillion, Matthew Harrison, Bernard Hooe and William Linton, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Five.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William Carr, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Chapman deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William Carr or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William Carr or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Carr SEAL
Cuthbert Bullitt SEAL

April 5th 1785 (2-169)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Stephen Howison and Cuthbert Bullitt are held and firmly bound to Howson Hooe, John Hooe, Arthur Lee and Bernard Hooe, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Five.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Stephen Howison, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of John Cheshire deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Stephen Howison or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Stephen Howison or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Stephen Howison SEAL
Cuthbert Bullitt SEAL

April 6th 1785 (2-170)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we William B. Harrison and Robert Brown are held and firmly bound to William Carr, Richard Graham, Arthur Lee, Alex Lithgow and John Pope, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Five in the ninth year of the Commonwealth.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound William B. Harrison, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of George Kitchen deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said William B. Harrison or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said William B. Harrison or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William B. Harrison SEAL
Robert Brown SEAL

July 4th 1785 (2-171)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Samuel Tebbs and Cuthbert Bullitt are held and firmly bound to William Tebbs, Mathew Harrison, William Linton and George Graham, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Five.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Samuel Tebbs, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Foushee Tebbs deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Samuel Tebbs or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Samuel Tebbs or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Samuel Tebbs SEAL
Cuthbert Bullitt SEAL

September 6th 1785 (2-172)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Presley Petty, Redman Grigsby and Mark Thorpe are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, William Tebbs, Burr Harrison, John Tyler and John McMillon, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Five in the tenth year of the Commonwealth.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Presley Petty, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Joseph Petty deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Presley Petty or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Presley Petty or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Presley Petty SEAL
Redman Grigsby SEAL
Mark Thorpe SEAL

March 6th 1786 (2-174)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Jackson, George Jackson, John Calvert, John Redmon and James Greenstad are held and firmly bound to Howson Hooe, William Tebbs, William Alexander and Mathew Harrison, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of three thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Six.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound John Jackson and George Jackson, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Samuel Jackson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said John and George or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said John and George or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Jackson SEAL
George Jackson SEAL
John Calvert SEAL
John Redmon SEAL
James Greenstad SEAL

March 6th 1786 (2-176)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we John Jordan, James Lowe, David Bland and John Currie are held and firmly bound to Howson Hooe, William Tebbs, William Alexander, and Mathew Harrison, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Six.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound James Lowe and John Jordan, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of John Hoskins deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said James Lowe and John Jordan or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said James Lowe and John Jordan or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Jordan SEAL
James Lowe SEAL
David Bland SEAL
John Currie SEAL

September 4th 1786 (2-177)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Timothy Holtzclaw, James Grayson, Joseph Barker, William Brown and William Mathews are held and firmly bound to William Tebbs, William Carr, Jesse Ewell, Alex Brown and William Linton, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fourth day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Six.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Timothy Holtzclaw, James Grayson and Joseph Barker, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of John Grayson deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Timothy, James and Joseph or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Timothy, James and Joseph or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Timothy Holtzclaw SEAL
James Grayson SEAL
Joseph Barker SEAL
William Brown SEAL
William Mathews SEAL

March 6th 1786 (2-175)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Burr Peyton, John Linton, and John Cannon are held and firmly bound to Howson Hooe, William Tebbs, William Alexander and Mathew Harrison, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of two thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this sixth day of March in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Six.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Burr Peyton, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Valentine Peyton deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of him the said Burr Peyton or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for him and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Burr Peyton or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of his Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Burr Peyton SEAL
John Linton SEAL
John Cannon SEAL

September 5th 1786 (2-1780)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Mary Burroughs, John Hammitt and Philip Spiller are held and firmly bound to William Tebbs, Richard Graham, Mathew Harrison and John McMillion, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of one thousand pounds. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this fifth day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Six.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Mary Burroughs, Executor of the Last Will and Testament of John Burroughs deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of her the said Mary Burroughs or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for her and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Mary Burroughs or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for her do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of her Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Burroughs SEAL
John Hammitt SEAL
Philip Spiller SEAL

May 30th 1779 (2-133)

Know all Men by these Presents, that we Elizabeth Dale, Luke Hanks and Robert Warren, Alexander Keith and Robert Brown are held and firmly bound to Jas. Nisbett, Richard Graham, Jno McMillam and John Murray, Gent. Justices of the Court of Prince William County, now sitting, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money. Payment whereof well and truly to be made to the said Justices, and their Successors, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our Seals, this thirty day of May in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy Nine.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bound Elizabeth Dale, Luke Hanks and Robert Warren, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Robert Dale deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which have, or shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of them the said Executors or into the Hands or Possession of any other Person or Persons for them and the same so made, do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William at such Time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and the same Goods, Chattels and Credits, and all other the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the said Deceased, which at any Time shall come to the Hands, Possession, or Knowledge of the said Executors or into the Hands and Possession of any other Person or Persons for them do well and truly administer according to Law; And further do make a True and Just Account of their Actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said Court; and also well and truly pay and deliver all the Legacies contained and specified in the said Testament, as far as the said Goods, Chattels and Credits, will thereunto extend, and the Law shall charge: Then this Obligation to be void and of none Effect, else to remain in full Force and Virtue.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Dale SEAL
Luke Hanks SEAL
Robert Warren SEAL
Alex Keith SEAL

November 6th 1815 (3-01)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Linton and William A. Linton are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, James Deneale, Zachariah Ward and Charles Ming, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Four Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of November A. D. 1815.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Linton administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Mary Brundidge (late Mary Linton) deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Linton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Linton SEAL
William A. Linton SEAL

November 7th 1815 (3-02)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Colin Campbell and John Maddox are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Gerard Alexander, Charles Ming, and Bernard Hooe Jr., Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Four Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Seventh day of November 1815.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Colin Campbell administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Martha Campbell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Colin Campbell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Colin Campbell do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Colin Campbell SEAL
John Maddox SEAL

December 4th 1815 (3-03)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John M. Tyler and William A. Linton are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Zachariah Ward, John Fox, Bernard Hooe Jr., Charles Ming, and William Smith Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Sixteen Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fourth day of December 1815.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John M. Tyler administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Charles G. Tyler deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John M. Tyler or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John M. Tyler do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John M. Tyler SEAL
William A. Linton SEAL

December 5th 1815 (3-04)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William A.G. Dade and Thomas Harrison are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Zachariah Ward, John Fox, and Bernard Hooe Jun. Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Four Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of December 1815.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William A. G. Dade administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Sarah Dade deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Dade or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said W. A. G. Dade do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William A. G. Dade SEAL
Thos. Harrison SEAL

March 4th 1816 (3-05)

Know all men, by these presents, that we David Johnston and Thomas W. Hewitt are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Washington J. Washington, John Fox, Charles Ming, and John Linton Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fourth day of March 1816.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said David Johnson administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Francis Johnston deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said David Johnston or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said David Johnston do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

David Johnston SEAL
Thomas W. Hewitt SEAL

November 5th 1816 (3-06)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Jane Evans and Lewis Dickinson are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Fox, Bernard Hooe Jr. and John Hooe Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Six Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fifth day of November 1816.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Jane Evans administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of James G. Evans deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Jane Evans or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executrix obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Jane do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jane Evans SEAL
Lewis Dickinson SEAL

February 3rd 1817 (3-07)

Know all men, by these presents, that we George F. Huber, Henry Fairfax, Philip Harrison & Philip D. Dawe are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Fox, Charles Ming, and John Linton Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty four thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of February 1817.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said George F. Huber administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Joseph Huber deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said George F. Huber or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said George F. Huber do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George F. Huber SEAL
Henry Fairfax SEAL
Philip Harrison SEAL
Philip D. Dawe SEAL

March 6th 1817 (3-08)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Hord and Robert Hord are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, David Boyle, John Linton, and Thomas Chapman Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of March 1817.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas Hord administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Hawkins Hord deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Hord or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Thomas Hord do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Hord SEAL
Robert Hord SEAL

April 8th 1817 (3-09)

Know all men, by these presents, that we George Boswell, William D. Simmons, Reuben Calvert and William Nelson are held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, Charles Ming, William Smith and Thomas Chapman Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this April 8th 1817.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said George Boswell administrator de bonis non of the goods, chattels and credits of Reuben Sanders deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Boswell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Geo. Boswell do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George Boswell SEAL
Wm. D. Simmons SEAL
Reuben Calvert SEAL
Wm. Nelson SEAL

June 2nd 1817 (3-10)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Jeremiah Debell. Thomas Newman, and Archibald Wilson are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Fox, William Smith, and Thomas Chapman, gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of June 1817.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Jeremiah Debell administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John Debell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Jeremiah Debell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Jeremiah Debell do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jeremiah Debell SEAL
Thomas Newman SEAL
Archibald Wilson SEAL

July 7th 1817 (3-11)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Adam Kremer and Zebulon Kankey are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Gerard Alexander, Zachariah Ward, and William Smith, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of July 1817.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Adam Kremer administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Winifred Kremer deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Adam Kremer or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Adam Kremer do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Adam Kremer SEAL
Zebulon Kankey SEAL

November 3rd 1817 (3-12)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James Ferguson, Samuel Cawood & William M. Lewis are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Zachariah Ward, John Fox, Charles Ming, and John Linton Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of four thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of November 1817.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James Ferguson administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John Ferguson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Ferguson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said James Ferguson do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Ferguson SEAL
Samuel Cawood SEAL
Wm. M. Lewis SEAL

December 1st 1817 (3-13)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Hunton, Charles Hunton, Charles Ming, and Joseph Gilbert are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, Zachariah Ward, Thomas Chapman and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this First day of December 1817.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Hunton and Charles Hunton administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Green deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said William and Charles Hunton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for them and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of their actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said William & Charles Hunton do in such case being required, render and deliver up their letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Hunton SEAL
Charles Hunton SEAL
Charles Ming SEAL
Joseph Gilbert SEAL

January 5th 1818 (3-14)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Washington J. Washington, James Sanders and John Leachman are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, John Fox, William Smith, and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Seven Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of January 1818.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Washington J. Washington administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of James Campbell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said W. J. Washington or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Washington do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Washington J. Washington SEAL
James Sanders SEAL
John Leachman SEAL

January 5th 1818 (3-15)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Richard Foote and John Gibson Jr. are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Washington J. Washington, John Fox, and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of January 1818.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Richard Foote administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Helen Gibbon Foote deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Richard Foote or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Richard Foote do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Richard Foote SEAL
John Gibson Jr. SEAL

February 2nd 1818 (3-16)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas C. Thornton and Zebulon Kankey are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, William Smith, Thomas Chapman and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of February 1818

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas C. Thornton administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Carr Chapman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said T. C. Thornton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Thomas C. Thornton do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas C. Thornton SEAL
Zebulon Kankey SEAL

April 7th 1818 (3-17)

Know all men, by these presents, that we George Graham & John Linton. are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, John Fox, William Smith and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Three Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of April 1818

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said George Graham administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Jane Graham deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said George Graham or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said George Graham do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George Graham SEAL
John Linton SEAL

May 4th 1818 (3-18)

Know all men, by these presents, that we George Boswell Sen. & Richard Arrington are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Fox, Zachariah Ward, John Linton and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fourth day of May 1818.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Geo. Boswell Sen. administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Wm. Boswell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Geo. Boswell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Boswell do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George Boswell SEAL
Richard Arrington SEAL

June 2nd 1818 (3-19)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Charles Ewell Jr., Charles Ewell Sen., and John Taylor are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, Washington J. Washington, Zachariah Ward, John Fox, Bernard Hooe Jr., John Linton and William Smith, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of June 1818

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Charles Ewell Jr. administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Catherine Carter deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Charles Ewell Jr. or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Charles Ewell Jr. do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|--------------------|------|
| Charles Ewell Jr. | SEAL |
| Charles Ewell Sen. | SEAL |
| John Taylor | SEAL |

July 6th 1818 (3-20)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Jane Boyle, Timothy Brundidge and John King are held, and firmly bound, to Edmund Brooke, Washington J. Washington, Philip Alexander, John Linton, William Smith and Thomas Chapman Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Twenty Five Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of July 1818

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Jane Boyle administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of David Boyle deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Jane Boyle or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executrix obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Jane Boyle do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Jane Boyle | SEAL |
| Timothy Brundidge | SEAL |
| John King | SEAL |

October 6th 1818 (3-21)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William D. Dowell and Joseph R. Gilbert are held, and firmly bound, to John Linton, William Smith, Thomas Chapman and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Four Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of October 1818.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William D. Dowell de bonis non administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Jeremiah Dowell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said W. D. Dowell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said William D. Dowell do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| William D. Dowell | SEAL |
| Joseph R. Gilbert | SEAL |

April 5th 1819 (3-22)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Washington J. Washington, Robert H. Little and James Green are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, William Smith, John M. Tyler, Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of April 1819.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said W. J. Washington administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of James McClenahan deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Washington J. Washington or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Washington J. Washington do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Washington J. Washington SEAL
Robert H. Little SEAL
James Green SEAL

April 6th 1819 (3-23)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Rogers, William P. Rogers & William L. Wilkinson are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Bernard Hooe Jr., Thomas Chapman, and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Four Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of April 1819.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas Rogers administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Griffin Mathews deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Rogers or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Rogers do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Rogers SEAL
Wm. P. Rogers SEAL
Wm. L. Wilkinson SEAL

June 7th 1819 (3-24)

Know all men, by these presents, that we George W. Jackson and Wm. R. Chapman are held, and firmly bound, to Edmund Brooke, James Deneale, William Smith, Thomas Chapman and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of June 1819

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said George W. Jackson administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Mary Jackson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Geo. W. Jackson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Geo. W. Jackson do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George W. Jackson SEAL
Wm. R. Chapman SEAL

October 4th 1819 (3-25)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Richard Foote, John Fitzhugh and Philip Harrison are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, Zachariah Ward, John Fox, Thomas Chapman and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Four Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fourth day of October 1819.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Richard Foote administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Lucy Foote his wife deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Richard Foote or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Richard Foote do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Richard Foote SEAL
John Fitzhugh SEAL
Phillip Harrison SEAL

November 1st 1819 (3-26)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Catherine Garner, William Fairfax and Hezekiah Reaves are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, John Fox, John Linton, and Michael Cleary Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this First day of November 1819.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Catherine Garner administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of William Garner deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Catherine or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executrix obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Catherine Garner do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Catherine Garner SEAL
William Fairfax SEAL
Hezekiah Reaves SEAL

November 2nd 1819 (3-27)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Anderson, Jas Keys, and Daniel Cole are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, James Deneale, Washington J. Washington, and William Smith Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Second day of November 1819.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Anderson administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Kitty Anderson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Wm. Anderson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Wm. Anderson do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Anderson SEAL
Jas Keys SEAL
Daniel Cole SEAL

November 2nd 1819 (3-28)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Anderson, James Keys and Daniel Cole are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, James Deneale, Washington J. Washington, and William Smith Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Second day of November 1819.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Anderson administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Thomas Anderson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William Anderson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Anderson do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Anderson SEAL
James Keys SEAL
Daniel Cole SEAL

December 6th 1819 (3-29)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas T. Arrington and Wm. D. Simmons are held, and firmly bound, to Washington J. Washington, Zachariah Ward, William Smith, Thomas Chapman and Thomas Lawson Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Three Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Sixth day of December 1819.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas T. Arrington administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Rowzee Barnett deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Arrington or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Arrington do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas T. Arrington SEAL
William D. Simons SEAL

February 7th 1820 (3-30)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Brundidge and John Linton are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, William Smith, Thomas Chapman, and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Seventh day of February 1820

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Brundidge administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Jane Brundidge (late Jane Tyler) deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William Brundidge or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said William Brundidge do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Brundidge SEAL
John Linton SEAL

February 8th 1820 (3-31)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Brawner and John Hooe Jr. are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, John Linton, William Smith and Thomas Chapman Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Eighth day of February 1820.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Brawner administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Samuel Purcell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William Brawner or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Brawner do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Brawner SEAL
John Hooe Jr. SEAL

August 7th 1820 (3-32)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Wm. Norman, Edward Norman, Joseph R. Lynn, Benson Lynn, George Copin and Alexander Keys are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, Charles Ming, John Bronaugh and William Smith Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Seventh day of August 1820.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Norman & Edward Norman administrator s of the goods, chattels and credits of Eliza Norman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said William Norman and Edward Norman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for them and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of their actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Wm. Norman and Edward Norman do in such case being required, render and deliver up their letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Wm. Norman SEAL
Edward Norman SEAL
Joseph R. Lynn SEAL
Benson Lynn SEAL
Geo. Copin SEAL
Alexander Keys SEAL

August 7th 1820 (3-33)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Alexander McPherson and Leonard Love are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, Charles Ming, John Bronaugh, and William Smith, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Seventh day of August 1820.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Alexander McPherson administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Sarah Roby deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said A. McPherson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said A. McPherson do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Alexander McPherson SEAL
Leonard Love SEAL

September 4th 1820 (3-34)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Carter, William Fairfax and James Carter are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, Zachariah Ward, John Linton and William Smith Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fourth September 1820

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Carter administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Samuel Carter deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Carter or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John Carter do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Carter SEAL
William Fairfax SEAL
James Carter SEAL

October 3rd 1820 (3-35)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Carter, Joseph R. Gilbert, Lewis Dickinson & Phillip D. Dawe are held, and firmly bound, to Thomas T. Page, Zachariah Ward, James Fewell & John Linton Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Four Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Third day of October 1820.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Joseph R. Gilbert administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Joseph Gilbert deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Joseph R. Gilbert or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Gilbert do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Joseph R. Gilbert SEAL
Lewis Dickinson SEAL
Philip D. Dawe SEAL

November 6th (3-36)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Robert Hamilton, Landon Carter Jr. and Jesse Ewell Jun. are held, and firmly bound, to Edmund Brooke, James Deneale, John Fox and Michael Cleary, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Four Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Sixth day of November 1820.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Robert Hamilton administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Maria Hamilton deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Robert Hamilton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Robert Hamilton do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert Hamilton SEAL
Landon Carter Jr. SEAL
Jesse Ewell Jr. SEAL

November 7th 1820 (3-37)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Charles Ewell Sen. and Robert Hamilton are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, Gerard Alexander, William Smith and Jesse Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Seventh day of November 1820.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Charles Ewell Sr. administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John Petty deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Charles Ewell Sr. or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Charles Ewell Sr. do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Charles Ewell Sen. SEAL
Robert Hamilton SEAL

January 1st 1821 (3-38)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Edward Norman, William Norman, Joseph R. Lynn, and Simon Luttrell are held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, Charles Ming, William Smith, Jesse Ewell, Michael Cleary Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this First day of January 1821

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Edward Norman administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Thomas Norman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said

Edward Norman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Edward Norman do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Edward Norman SEAL
William Norman SEAL
Joseph R. Lynn SEAL
Simon Luttrell SEAL

April 3rd 1821 (3-39)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Larkin, Thomas Larkin, Henry D. Larkin, John D. Larkin, Francis D. Larkin, John Maddox, and John Bower are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, James Deneale, Charles Ming, and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Twenty Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Third day of April 1821

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Larkin and Daniel Larkin administrators of the goods, chattels and credits of Thomas Larkin deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said Wm. Larkin and Daniel Larkin or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for them and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of their actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Wm. Larkin and Daniel Larkin do in such case being required, render and deliver up them letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Larkin SEAL
Daniel Larkin SEAL
Thomas Larkin SEAL
Henry D. Larkin SEAL
John D. Larkin SEAL
Francis D. Larkin SEAL
John Maddox SEAL
John Bower SEAL

May 7th 1821 (3-40)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Richard B. Tyler, Gustavous B. Tyler, and William B. Tyler are held, and firmly bound, to Zachariah Ward, John Bronaugh, William Smith, John Hooe, and Michael Cleary Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Seventh day of May 1821

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Richard B. Tyler administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Jno M. Tyler deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Richard B. Tyler or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Richard B. Tyler do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Richard B. Tyler SEAL
Gustavous B. Tyler SEAL
William B. Tyler SEAL

May 7th 1821 (3-41)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Mills and Hugh Davis are held, and firmly bound, to Zachariah Ward, John Bronaugh, John Hooe, and Michael Cleary Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of One Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Seventh day of May 1821

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Mills administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Ruthy Davis deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Mills or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John Mills do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Hugh Davis SEAL
John Mills SEAL

August 7th 1821 (3-42)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Dowell, William C. Dowell, and Jeremiah Dowell are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Fox, John Hooe, and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Seventh day of August 1821

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas Dowell administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Isaac Dowell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Dowell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Thomas Dowell do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jeremiah Dowell SEAL Thomas Dowell SEAL
William C. Dowell SEAL

August 7th 1821 (3-43)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Smith, Thomas Nelson and Thomas Davis are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, William Barnes, Jesse Ewell, and John Hooe Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Seventh day of August 1821

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Smith administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John S. Smith deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Smith or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John Smith do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------|------|
| John Smith | SEAL |
| Thomas Nelson | SEAL |
| Thomas Davis | SEAL |

August 9th 1821 (3-44)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William R. Chapman and Peyton Norvill are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Zachariah Ward, William Smith and Michael Cleary Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Ninth day of August 1821

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William R. Chapman administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of James Hayes deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William R. Chapman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said William R. Chapman do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|--------------------|------|
| William R. Chapman | SEAL |
| Peyton Norvill | SEAL |

September 4th 1821 (3-45)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Byrne and Uriah Byrne are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Fox, William M. Craig and Michael Cleary Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Four Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fourth day of September 1821.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Byrne administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Dorcas Debell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William Byrne or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said William Byrne do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------|------|
| William Byrne | SEAL |
| Uriah Byrne | SEAL |

September 4th 1821 (3-46)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Stone, Joseph R. Lynn, Samuel Botts, and Lemuel Stone are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Fox, Charles Ming, William M. Craig and Michael Cleary, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Nine Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fourth day of September 1821.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Stone administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Jorias Stone deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Stone or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John Stone do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Stone SEAL
Joseph R. Lynn SEAL
Samuel Botts SEAL
Lemuel Stone SEAL

October 1st 1821 (3-47)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Daniel Ward and French Johnston are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Thomas T. Page, Edmund Brooke, Zachariah Ward, John Hooe, Jesse Ewell and Michael Cleary, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this First day of October 1821.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Daniel Ward administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Smoote deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Daniel Ward or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Daniel Ward do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Daniel Ward SEAL
French Johnston SEAL

November 5th 1821 (3-48)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William B. Tyler and Richard B. Tyler are held, and firmly bound, to Edmund Brooke, Gerard Alexander Jr., John Linton and William M. Craig, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fifth day of November 1821.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William B. Tyler administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Gustavus Tyler deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William B. Tyler or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said William B. Tyler do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William B. Tyler SEAL
Richard B. Tyler SEAL

November 6th 1821 (3-49)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Linton and William A. Linton are held, and firmly bound, to Gerard Alexander, Charles Ming, Thomas Chapman, and Michael Cleary Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Sixth day of November 1821

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Linton administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John T. Linton deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Linton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John Linton do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Linton SEAL
William A. Linton SEAL

November 8th 1821 (3-50)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Joseph R. Gilbert and P. D. Dawe are held, and firmly bound, to Philip Alexander, Zachariah Ward, John Linton, and Michael Cleary, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Eighth day of November 1821.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Joseph R. Gilbert administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Thomas Guy deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Joseph R. Gilbert or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Joseph R. Gilbert do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Joseph R. Gilbert SEAL
P. D. Dawe SEAL

December 2nd 1821 (3-51)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James Mason and Robert C. Mason are held, and firmly bound, to Zachariah Ward, Charles Ming, John Linton, Michael Cleary and John Hooe, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Second day of December 1821

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James Mason administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Mason deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Mason or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said James Mason do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Mason SEAL
Robert C. Mason SEAL

December 2nd 1821 (3-52)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Nathaniel Gray, William M. Craig and Charles Ming, are held, and firmly bound, to Edmund Brooke, Zachariah Ward, John Linton, John Hooe and Michael Cleary, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Second day of December 1821

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Nathaniel Gray administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Martin Maddox deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Nathaniel Gray or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Nathaniel Gray do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Nathaniel Gray SEAL
Wm. M. Craig SEAL
Charles Ming SEAL

December 3rd 1821 (3-53)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Reno, Strother Reno, Charles Hunton and Peyton Norvill are held, and firmly bound, to Zachariah Ward, John Linton, Charles Ming, and Michael Cleary, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Third day of December 1821

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Reno and Strother Reno administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of David Reno deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said William Reno and Strother Reno or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for them and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of their actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said William Reno and Strother Reno do in such case being required, render and deliver up their letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Reno SEAL
Strother Reno SEAL
Charles Hunton SEAL
Peyton Norvill SEAL

December 4th 1821 (3-54)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James Arnold, John Tansill, Moses Arnold, and William Pearson are held, and firmly bound, to Zachariah Ward, Charles Ming, John Linton and John Hooe, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Four December 1821.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James Arnold administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Arnold deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Arnold or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said James Arnold do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| James Arnold | SEAL |
| John Tansill | SEAL |
| Moses Arnold | SEAL |
| William Pearson | SEAL |

January 7th 1822 (3-55)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Daniel Foster, William R. Chapman, Lewis Dickinson, James Foster, George F. Huber and Foushee Tebbs are held, and firmly bound, to William Barnes, Charles Ming, John Linton, Jesse Ewell and Michael Cleary, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Seventh day of January 1822.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Daniel Foster and William R. Chapman administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Cundiff deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said Daniel Foster and William R. Chapman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for them and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of their actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Daniel Foster and William R. Chapman do in such case being required, render and deliver up their letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| Daniel Foster | SEAL |
| Wm. R. Chapman | SEAL |
| Lewis Dickinson | SEAL |
| James Foster | SEAL |
| George F. Huber | SEAL |
| Foushee Tebbs | SEAL |

March 4th 1822 (3-56)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Richard Foote and John Fitzhugh are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Linton, William Smith, and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Three Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fourth day of March 1822

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Richard Foote administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Eliza E. M. Foote deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Richard Foote or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Richard Foote do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Richard Foote SEAL

John Fitzhugh SEAL

April 1st 1822 (3-57)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Charles Hunton, Eppa Hunton, William E. Hunton and Henry Brooks are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, William Bronaugh, John Hooe, Robert Hamilton, and James Macrae Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this First day of April 1822

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Charles Hunton administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Brooks deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Charles Hunton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Charles Hunton do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Charles Hunton SEAL

Eppa Hunton SEAL

Wm. E. Hunton SEAL

Henry Brooks SEAL

May 6th 1822 (3-58)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William McDaniel and John Smith are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Fox, Jesse Ewell, and George W. Jackson Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Sixth day of May 1822.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Robert Latham administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of James Acres deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Robert Latham or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Robert Latham do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert Latham SEAL

John Hutchison SEAL

May 6th 1822 (3-59)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William McDaniel and John Smith are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Fox, Jesse Ewell, and George W. Jackson, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Sixth day of May 1822.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William McDaniel administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Wm. McDaniel deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William McDaniel or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Wm. McDaniel do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William McDaniel SEAL
John Smith SEAL

June 3rd 1822 (3-60)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Mathew Robinson and Michael Cleary are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, William Barnes, Washington J. Washington, Charles Ming Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Third day of June 1821

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Mathew Robinson administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Edward Robinson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Mathew Robinson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Mathew Robinson do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mathew Robinson SEAL
Michael Cleary SEAL

June 5th 1822 (3-61)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Leachman and William E. Hunton are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, William Smith, Jesse Ewell, and James Galleher, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fifth day of June 1822

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Jno Leachman administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Benjamin Lingleton deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Jno Lingleton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Jno Lingleton do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jno Leachman SEAL
Wm. E. Hunton SEAL

August 5th 1822 (3-62)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas B. Sinclair, Walter Warder and Bernard Hooe Jr. are held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, Zachariah Ward, Jesse Ewell, and George W. Jackson Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fifth day of August 1822.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas B. Sinclair administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Joshua Buckley Jr. deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas B. Sinclair or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Thomas B. Sinclair do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas B. Sinclair SEAL
Walter Warder SEAL
Bernard Hooe Jr. SEAL

August 5th 1822 (3-63)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John V. Brewer and John D. Lee are held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, William M. Craig, Jesse Ewell, and Charles Hunton Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Six Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fifth day of August 1822.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John V. Brewer administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Henry Brewer deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John V. Brewer or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John V. Brewer do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John V. Brewer SEAL
John D. Lee SEAL

September 2nd 1822 (3-64)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Catherine Buckley, Thomas M. Gossom and Alexander Gossom are held, and firmly bound, to William Barnes, John Fox, John Hooe and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Second day of September 1822.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Kitty Catherine Buckley administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of Joshua Buckley deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said K. Buckley or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executrix obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said K. Buckley do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Catherine Buckley SEAL
Thomas M. Gossom SEAL
Alexander Gossom SEAL

September 2nd 1822 (3-65)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Alexander W. Gossom, Thomas M. Gossom and Nathan Haislip are held, and firmly bound, to William Barnes, John Fox, John Hooe and Jesse Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Second day of September 1822.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Alexander W. Gossom administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Buckley deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said A. W. Gossom or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said A. W. Gossom do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------------|------|
| Alexander W. Gossom | SEAL |
| Thomas M. Gossom | SEAL |
| Nathan Haislip | SEAL |

October 7th 1822 (3-66)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Flounce, John Graham, William Flounce and Charles Hunton are held, and firmly bound, to Washington J. Washington, Philip Alexander, John Hooe and Gerard Alexander, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Seven Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Seventh day of October 1822

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Flounce administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Flounce deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Flounce or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John Flounce do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| John Flounce | SEAL |
| John Graham | SEAL |
| William Flounce | SEAL |
| Charles Hunton | SEAL |

October 7th 1822 (3-67)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Brawner and Thomas Thurman are held, and firmly bound, to Washington J. Washington, Philip Alexander, John Hooe and Gerard Alexander, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Seventh day of October 1822.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Brawner administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Augustine Gaines deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Wm. Brawner or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Wm. Brawner do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Wm. Brawner SEAL
Thomas Thurman SEAL

November 6th 1822 (3-68)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Catherine Ewell and Penelope B. Alexander are held, and firmly bound, to Philip Alexander, Charles Ming and Jesse Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Four Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Sixth day of November 1822.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Catherine Ewell administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of Catherine Ewell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Catherine Ewell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executrix obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Catherine Ewell do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Catherine Ewell SEAL
Penelope B. Alexander SEAL

November 6th 1822 (3-69)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James Foster, James Fewell, and Redmon Foster are held, and firmly bound, to Philip Alexander, Charles Ming, Jesse Ewell, Gerard Alexander, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Sixth day of November 1822.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James Foster administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Daniel Foster deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Foster or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said James Foster do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Foster SEAL
James Fewell SEAL
Redmon Foster SEAL

November 6th 1822 (3-100)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Brown, William Brawner and Russel K. Wigginton are held, and firmly bound, to William Barnes, Jesse Hooe, Charles Ming and James Gwatkin, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Four Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Second day of December 1822.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas Brown administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Joseph Brown deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Brown or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Thomas Brown do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Brown SEAL
William Brawner SEAL
Russel Wigginton SEAL

January 6th 1823 (3-101)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Baylis Grigsby and John Thomas are held, and firmly bound, to John Hooe, Charles Hunton, Robert Hamilton and James Gwatkin, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Sixth day of January 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Baylis Grigsby and John Thomas administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Nathaniel Grigsby Jr. deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Baylis Grigsby or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Baylis Grigsby do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Baylis Grigsby SEAL
John Thomas SEAL

January 6th 1823 (3-102)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William R. Chapman and James Foster are held, and firmly bound, to John Hooe, Charles Hunton, Robert Hamilton, and James Gwatkin, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Four Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Sixth day of November 1822.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William R. Chapman administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Benjamin Murphy deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Foster or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said William R. Chapman do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Wm. R. Chapman SEAL
James Foster SEAL

February 3rd 1823 (3-103)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James Hampton, Thomas L. Hunton and Horatio McNish are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, William Smith, John Hooe and Richard Foote Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Twelve Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Third day of February 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James Hampton administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Samuel King deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Hampton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said James Hampton do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Hampton SEAL
Thomas L. Hunton SEAL
Horatio McNish SEAL

February 3rd 1823 (3-104)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John W. Williams and William R. Chapman are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Geo. W. Jackson, Richard Foote and James Gwatkin, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Third day of February 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Jno W. Williams administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John Hayes deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Foster or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Jno W. Williams do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jno. W. Williams SEAL
Wm. R. Chapman SEAL

March 3rd 1823 (3-105)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Miles Duvall, Jno S. Harrison and James Jordan are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Washington J. Washington, Charles Hunton, and James Gwatkin, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Third day of March 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Miles Duvall administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John Duvall deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Miles Duvall or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Miles Duvall do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Miles Duvall SEAL
Jno S. Harrison SEAL
James Jordan SEAL

March 4th 1823 (3-106)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Tomlin, John W. Williams and Phil D. Dawe are held, and firmly bound, to Washington J. Washington, John Hooe, Griffin Stith, and James Gwatkin, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fourth day of March 1823

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Tomlin administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Thomas Tomlin deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Wm. Tomlin or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Wm. Tomlin do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Wm. Tomlin SEAL
Jno. W. Williams SEAL
Phil D. Dawe SEAL

April 8th 1823 (3-107)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sally Linton, John W. Tyler, William A. Linton and Richard B. Tyler are held, and firmly bound, to Washington J. Washington, Gerard Alexander, James Macrae and James Gwatkin, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Thirty Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Eighth day of April 1823

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Sally Linton administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of John Linton deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sally Linton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executrix obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Sally Linton do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sally Linton SEAL
John W. Tyler SEAL
Wm. A. Linton SEAL
Richard B. Tyler SEAL

April 8th 1823 (3-108)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John W. Tyler and William A. Linton are held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, Charles Ming, James Gwatkin, and Richard Foote, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Four Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Eighth day of April 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John W. Tyler administrator de bonis non of the goods, chattels and credits of John T. Linton deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John W. Tyler or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John W. Tyler do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John W. Tyler SEAL

Wm. A. Linton SEAL

May 5th 1823 (3-109)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Fitzhugh and Henry A. Barron are held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, Charles Ming, Charles Hunton and Jesse Hooe Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of One Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fifth day of May 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Fitzhugh administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Thomas Freeland deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Fitzhugh or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John Fitzhugh do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Fitzhugh SEAL

Henry A. Barron SEAL

June 2nd 1823 (3-110)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Nehemiah Lynn, William Lynn, George Copin and John Maddox are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Charles Ming, Edmund Burke, and Michael Cleary, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Second day of June 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Nehemiah Lynn and William Lynn administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Elizabeth Lynn deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said Nehemiah and William or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for them and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of their actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Nehemiah and William do in such case being required, render and deliver up their letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Nehemiah Lynn SEAL

William Lynn SEAL

George Copin SEAL

John Maddox SEAL

June 3rd 1823 (3-111)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Hoomes Jr., Wm. Manuel, Edmund Hoomes, Isaac Bridwell and Thomas Calvert are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Fox, Charles Ming, Jesse Ewell and Wm. M. Craig, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of June 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas Hoomes Jr. administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Thomas Hoomes deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Hoomes Jr. or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Thomas Hoomes Jr. do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Holmes Jr. SEAL
William Manuel SEAL
Edmund Holmes SEAL
Isaac Bridwell SEAL
Thornton Calvert SEAL

July 7th 1823 (3-112)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James Cocke, William R. Chapman, and Jno W. Williams are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, William Barnes, Jesse Ewell, and George W. Jackson, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Seventh day of July 1823

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James Cocke administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Cocke deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Cocke or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said James Cocke do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Cocke SEAL
Wm. R. Chapman SEAL
Jno. W. Williams SEAL

August 4th 1823 (3-113)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Constant Cornwell, Thomas Nelson Jr., and Charles Beach are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Edmund Brooke, Redmon Fox and Charles Ming, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Six Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Fourth day of August 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Constant Cornwell administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of Humphrey Calvert deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Constant Cornwell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executrix obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Constant Cornwell do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Constant Cornwell SEAL
Thomas Nelson SEAL
Charles Beach SEAL

August 5th 1823 (3-114)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Silas Foster, and John W. Reeves are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Fox, William M. Craig, and James Foster, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of August 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Silas Foster administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Thomas Larkin (of Occoquan) deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Foster or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Foster do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Silas Foster SEAL
John W. Reeves SEAL

October 6th 1823 (3-115)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Elizabeth Tayloe, John Maddox and John Hall are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Jesse Ewell, Griffin Stith, and James Foster, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Sixth day of October 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Elizabeth Tayloe administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of Francis Tayloe deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Tayloe or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Elizabeth Tayloe do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Tayloe SEAL
John Maddox SEAL
John Hall SEAL

March 2nd 1823 (3-116)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Richard H. Barnes, Addison N. Thomas, John Thomas, Bayliss Grigsby and Thomas Nelson are held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, Griffin Stith, John Hooe, and Michael Cleary, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Four Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of March 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Richard H. Barnes and Addison N. Thomas administrators of the goods, chattels and credits of William Barnes deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said Richard H. Barnes and Addison N. Thomas or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for them and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which they shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of their actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Richard H. Barnes and Addison N. Thomas do in such case being required, render and deliver up their letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Richard H. Barnes SEAL
Addison N. Thomas SEAL

November 3rd 1823 (3-117)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Wheeler and John Lee are held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, John Hooe, Thomas Nelson and Redmon Foster, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this Third day of November 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Wheeler administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Thomas Bradfield deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Foster or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said William Wheeler do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Wheeler SEAL
John Lee SEAL

November 4th 1823 (3-118)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John W. Williams & Barnaby Cannon are held, and firmly bound, to Washington J. Washington, Charles Ming, Griffin Stith, Thomas Nelson Jr., Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of December 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John W. Williams administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John Stith Jr. deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John W. Williams or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John W. Williams do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John W. Williams SEAL
Barnaby Cannon SEAL

December 1st (3-119)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Mary Ann Potts, Alexander Howison & Peter Trone are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Edmund Brooke, Charles Ming, George W. Jackson, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of December 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Mary Ann Potts administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of John Potts deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Mary Ann Potts or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Mary Ann Potts do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Ann Potts SEAL
Alexander Howison SEAL
Peter Trone SEAL

November 4th 1823 (3-120)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Truman Townshend and William Florance are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Jesse Ewell, William M. Craig, George W. Jackson, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of December 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Truman Townshend administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Jarvis Shaw deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Truman Townshend or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Truman Townshend do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Truman Townshend SEAL
William Florance SEAL

January 5th 1824 (3-121)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Jane Carney, Benjamin Carney, William Carney, John Carney, Elizabeth Murphy, Penelope Carney and Byram Hardin are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Fox, Charles Hunton, John Hutchison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of Six Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of January 1824.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Jane Carney administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of Benjamin Carney deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Jane Carney or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Jane Carney do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jane Carney SEAL
Benjamin Carney SEAL
William Carney SEAL
John Carney SEAL
Elizabeth Murphy SEAL
Penelope Carney SEAL
Byram Hardin SEAL

February 2nd 1824 (3-123)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Thomas, Baylis Grigsby and William R. Chapman are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Jesse Ewell, Charles Hunton, and Lawrence G. Alexander, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of February 1824.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Thomas administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of French Johnson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Thomas or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John Thomas do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|--------------------|------|
| John Thomas | SEAL |
| Baylis Grigsby | SEAL |
| William R. Chapman | SEAL |

April 6th 1824 (3-124)

Know all men, by these presents, that we George Washington and John Macrae are held, and firmly bound, to Michael Cleary, George W. Jackson, Charles Hunton, and James Foster, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of April 1824.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said George Washington administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Elizabeth Mason deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said George Washington or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said George Washington do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| George Washington | SEAL |
| John Macrae | SEAL |

May 3rd 1824 (3-125)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Mary Ann Norman, Edward Norman and Thomas Norman are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Jesse Ewell, Richard Foote, and Redmon Foster, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of May 1824.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Mary Ann Norman administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of William Norman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Mary Ann Norman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Mary Ann Norman do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| Mary Ann Norman | SEAL |
| Edward Norman | SEAL |
| Thomas Norman | SEAL |

June 8th 1824 (3-126)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Robert Alexander, John Alexander, John W. Williams and Barnaby Cannon are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Edmund Burke, Michael Cleary, Richard Foster, and Redmon Foster, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this eighth day of June 1824.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Robert Alexander administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Alexander deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Robert Alexander or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Robert Alexander do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert Alexander SEAL
John Alexander SEAL
John W. Williams SEAL
Barnaby Cannon SEAL

September 8th 1824 (3-127)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Ann R. Foster, John Leachman and William R. Chapman are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Charles Ming, Griffin Stith, and Richard Foote, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twelve hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this eighth day of September 1824.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Ann R. Foster administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of Daniel Foster deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Ann R. Foster or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Ann R. Foster do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann R. Foster SEAL
John Leachman SEAL
William R. Chapman SEAL

October 4th 1824 (3-128)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Gibson Jr., Jacob Weaver and Frederick H. Muschett are held, and firmly bound, to Edmund Brooke, Charles Ming, John Hooe, and Lawrence G. Alexander, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of October 1824.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Gibson Jr. administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Edward Muschett deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Gibson Jr. or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John Gibson Jr. do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Gibson Jr. SEAL
Jacob Weaver SEAL
Frederick H. Muschett SEAL

November 2nd 1824 (3-129)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Joseph Johnson, Sarah Cockrell wife of Moses Cockrell, Nancy H. Dye, Rutt Johnson, William Hickson, Benjamin Pridmore, William M. Lewis and Mary Johnson are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Charles Ming, James Gwatkin, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of November 1824.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Joseph Johnson, Sarah Cockrell wife of Moses Cockrell, Nancy H. Dye wife of John Dye administrators and administrixes of the goods, chattels and credits of Rutt Johnson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said Joseph Johnson, Sarah Cockrell wife of Moses Cockrell, Nancy H. Dye wife of John Dye administrators and administrixes or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Joseph Johnson, Sarah Cockrell wife of Moses Cockrell, Nancy H. Dye wife of John Dye administrators and administrixes do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Joseph Johnson SEAL
Sarah Cockrell SEAL
Nancy H. Dye SEAL
Rutt Johnson SEAL
Wm. Hickson SEAL
Benjamin Pridmore SEAL
William M. Lewis SEAL

January 3rd 1825 (3-130)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Brown, Charles Smarr and Thomas Violett are held, and firmly bound, to Philip Alexander, Jesse Ewell, John Hoe, and Joseph R. Gilbert, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of four thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of October 1825.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Brown administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John Brown deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Brown or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John Brown in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Brown SEAL
Charles Smarr SEAL
Thomas Violett SEAL

2 June 1828 John Brown's power revoked and administration de bonis non granted to Henry M. Lewis

February 7th 1825 (3-131)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sarah Mount, John Graham and Uriah Graham are held, and firmly bound, to Washington J. Washington, John Hooe, Richard Foote, Charles S. Carter, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of four hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of February 1825.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Sarah Mount administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of James Mount deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sarah Mount or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Sarah Mount do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Mount SEAL
John Graham SEAL
Uriah Graham SEAL

March 7th 1825 (3-132)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John B. Thomas & John Thomas are held, and firmly bound, to Gerard Alexander, Charles Ming, Robert Hamilton, Redmon Foster, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twelve hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of March 1825.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John B. Thomas administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Penelope Thomas deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John B. Thomas or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John B. Thomas in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John B. Thomas SEAL
John Thomas SEAL

March 8th 1825 (3-133)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Rebecca Lucas and Samuel Lucas are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Richard Foote, Joseph R. Gilbert and Charles S. Carter Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this eighth day of March 1825.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Rebecca Lucas administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of William Mann deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Rebecca Lucas or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Rebecca Lucas do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Rebecca Lucas SEAL
Samuel Lucas SEAL

March 9th 1825 (3-134)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas W. Hewitt and Barnaby Cannon are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, James Foster, Joseph R. Gilbert, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this ninth of March A. D. 1825.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas W. Hewitt administrator _of the goods, chattels and credits of Enoch Ward deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Hewitt or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Thomas Hewitt do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Hewitt SEAL
Barnaby Cannon SEAL

May 2nd 1825 (3-135)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thurman Townshend, Nathan Haislip and Alexander Tennell are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, John Hooe, Charles Hunton and John Hutchison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of May A. D. 1825.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thurman Townshend administrator _of the goods, chattels and credits of Carter B. Fountaine deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Truman Townshend or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Truman Townshend do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Truman Townshend SEAL
Nathan Haislip SEAL
Alexander Tennell SEAL

June 1st 1825 (3-136)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James Purcell, Richard Davis and John Barron are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, George W. Jackson, Thomas Nelson, and Redmon Foster, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of June 1825.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James Purcell administrator _of the goods, chattels and credits of James Purcell Jun. deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Purcell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said James Purcell do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Purcell SEAL
Richard Davis SEAL
John Barron SEAL

August 1st 1825 (3-137)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas D. Larkin and Francis D. Larkin are held, and firmly bound, to Philip Alexander, Griffin Stith, Jesse Ewell, and George W. Jackson, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of August A. D. 1825.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas D. Larkin administrator _of the goods, chattels and credits of John D. Larkin deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas D. Larkin or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Thomas D. Larkin do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas D. Larkin SEAL
Francis D. Larkin SEAL

September 5th 1825 (3-138)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Henry Bussey and William E. Hunton are held, and firmly bound, to Washington J. Washington, Charles Ming, William Smith, and Charles Hunton, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of four hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of September 1825.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Henry Bussey administrator _of the goods, chattels and credits of Peter Owens deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Henry Bussey or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Henry Bussey do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Henry Bussey SEAL
William E. Hunton SEAL

September 5th 1825 (3-139)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John S. Harrison, Peyton Norvill and Richard Stonnell are held, and firmly bound, to Washington J. Washington, Charles Ming, Charles Hunton, and William Smith, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of September 1825.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John S. Harrison administrator _of the goods, chattels and credits of George Boswell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Harrison or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Harrison do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jno. S. Harrison SEAL
Peyton Norvill SEAL
Richard Stonnell SEAL

September 5th 1825 (3-140)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Jesse E. Weems, Joseph R. Gilbert and Henry C. Slade are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Philip Alexander, Jesse Ewell, and John Hutchison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of September 1825

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Jesse E. Weems administrator _of the goods, chattels and credits of Mason L. Weems deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Jesse E. Weems or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Jesse E. Weems do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jesse E. Weems SEAL
Joseph R. Gilbert SEAL
Henry C. Slade SEAL

September 5th 1825 (3-141)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Joseph R. Gilbert, William Tomlin and John W. Williams are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Philip Alexander, Jesse Ewell, and John Hutchison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of September 1825.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Joseph R. Gilbert administrator _of the goods, chattels and credits of Susanna Adams deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Gilbert or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Gilbert do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Joseph R. Gilbert SEAL

William Tomlin SEAL
John W. Williams SEAL

September 5th 1825 (3-142)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Joseph R. Gilbert, William Tomlin and John W. Williams are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Philip Alexander, Jesse Ewell, and John Hutchison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of September 1825.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Joseph R. Gilbert administrator _of the goods, chattels and credits of Sarah Wright deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Gilbert or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Gilbert do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Joseph R. Gilbert SEAL
William Tomlin SEAL
John W. Williams SEAL

November 10th 1825 (3-143)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Fitzhugh and Richard Foote are held, and firmly bound, to Jesse Ewell, James Gwatkin, James Foster, and James B. T. Thornton, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this tenth day of November 1825.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Fitzhugh administrator _of the goods, chattels and credits of Philip Fitzhugh deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Fitzhugh or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John Fitzhugh do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Fitzhugh SEAL
Richard Foote SEAL

December 5th 1825 (3-144)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Robert Hamilton, Landon Carter & Addison B. Carter are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Charles Hunton, Griffin Stith and Redmon Foster, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of December 1825

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Robert Hamilton administrator _of the goods, chattels and credits of Richard Carter deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Robert Hamilton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Richard Hamilton do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Richard Hamilton SEAL
Landon Carter SEAL
Addison B. Carter SEAL

January 2nd 1826 (3-145)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William R. Chapman, John Leachman, and Lewis Dickinson are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Griffin Stith, Jesse Ewell, and Joseph R. Gilbert, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of January 1826.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William R. Chapman de bonis non administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Shaw deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William R. Chapman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said William R. Chapman do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William R. Chapman SEAL
John Leachman SEAL
Lewis Dickinson SEAL

January 3rd 1826 (3-146)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Ann E. Wheeler, William M. Lewis, Russell K. Wigginton and William H. Dogan are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Jesse Ewell, Griffin Stith and Redmon Foster, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of January 1826.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Ann E. Wheeler, administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of William Wheeler deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Ann E. Wheeler or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Ann E. Wheeler do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann E. Wheeler SEAL
William M. Lewis SEAL
Russell K. Wigginton SEAL
William H. Dogan SEAL

February 6th 1826 (3-147)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John W. Tyler, Willoughby William Tebbs and William B. Tyler are held, and firmly bound, to Griffin Stith, Robert Hamilton, Richard Foote, George W. Jackson, and Joseph R. Gilbert, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of February 1826.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John W. Tyler administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Nathan Haislip deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John W. Tyler or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John W. Tyler do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John W. Tyler SEAL
 Willoughby Wm. Tebbs SEAL
 Wm. B. Tyler SEAL

To the worshipful court of Prince William County it is my wish and desire that Mr. John W. Tyler shall administer on the estate of my deceased husband Nathan Haislip and I hereby relinquish my right to administer on said estate.

Witness my hand & seal 1st February 1826

Anna Haislip (her mark) SEAL
 J. Brawner, witness

February 6th 1826 (3-148)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thompson Green and William C. Alexander are held, and firmly bound, to Griffin Stith, Robert Alexander, Richard Foote, George W. Jackson and Joseph R. Gilbert, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three hundred and forty dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of February 1826

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas Green administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Lewis Green deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thompson Green or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administration according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Thompson Green do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thompson Green SEAL
 William C. Alexander SEAL

February 6th 1826 (3-149)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John U. Reeves, John W. Williams and Mason French are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Charles Hunton, John Hutchison, and Joseph R. Gilbert, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of February 1826.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John U. Reeves administration of the goods, chattels and credits of Sarah King deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John U. Reeves or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John U. Reeves do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John U. Reeves SEAL
John W. Williams SEAL
Mason French SEAL

March 6th 1826 (3-150)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Tomlin, John W. Williams and Willoughby Wm. Tebbs are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Michael Cleary, Charles Hunton and Richard Foote, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of March 1826

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Tomlin administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Robert Sanders deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Tomlin or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Tomlin do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Tomlin SEAL
John W. Williams SEAL
Willoughby Tebbs SEAL

March 6th 1826 (3-151)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John S. Harrison, William Tomlin and Willoughby W. Tebbs are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Michael Cleary, Charles Hunton and Richard Foote, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of March 1826.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John S. Harrison administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John Duval deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John S. Harrison or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said John S. Harrison do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John S. Harrison SEAL
William Tomlin SEAL
Willoughby W. Tebbs SEAL

March 7th 1826 (3-152)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Philip Webster and John Brawner are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Griffin Stith, Michael Cleary, Joseph R. Gilbert, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of four hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of March 1826.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Philip Webster administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Henry Webster deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Philip Webster or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Philip Webster do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Philip Webster (his mark) SEAL
John Brawner (his mark) SEAL

April 6th 1826 (3-153)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Presley Woodyard, William R. Chapman, James Fewell, and William H. Tebbs are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, John Hutchison, Joseph R. Gilbert, John Fitzhugh and Richard Foote, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of April 1826

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Presley Woodyard administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Mary Anderson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Presley Woodyard or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Presley Woodyard do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Presley Woodyard SEAL
Wm. R. Chapman SEAL
James Fewell SEAL
William H. Tebbs SEAL

April 3rd 1826 (3-154)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Theron W. Newman, Garner Fortune and Christopher C. Cushing are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, John Hutchison, Joseph R. Gilbert, and Richard Foote, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of April 1826.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Theron W. Newman administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of James Newman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Theron W. Newman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Theron W. Newman do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Theron W. Newman SEAL
Garner Fortune SEAL
Christopher C. Cushing SEAL

May 1st 1826 (3-155)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Ann B. Newman, Theron W. Newman, and Christopher C. Cushing are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Richard Foote, Redmon Foster, John Fitzhugh and James French,

Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of May 1826

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Ann B. Newman administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of James Newman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Ann B. Newman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Ann B. Newman do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann B. Newman SEAL
Theron W. Newman SEAL
Christopher C. Cushing SEAL

June 5th 1826 (3-156)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William A. G. Dade and William Foote are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Charles Hunton, Richard Foote, and Joseph R. Gilbert, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of June 1826.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William A. G. Dade administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Jane A. Baylor deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William A. G. Dade or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said William A. G. Dade do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William A. G. Dade SEAL
William Foote SEAL

August 1st 1826 (3-157)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James French & Stephen French are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Michael Cleary, Lawrence G. Alexander, and Charles S. Carter, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of forty thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of August 1826.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James French administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William French deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James French or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said James French do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James French SEAL
Stephen French SEAL

August 7th 1826 3-(158)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sanford Thurman, James Fewell, Benjamin Johnson and Joseph Johnson are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Michael Cleary, Robert Hamilton and Charles S. Carter, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of August 1826.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Sanford Thurman administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Thomas Thurman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Sanford Thurman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Sanford Thurman do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sanford Thurman SEAL
James Fewell SEAL
Benjamin Johnson SEAL
Joseph Johnson SEAL

August 9th 1826 (3-159)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas R. Hampton and William C. Hampton are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Jesse Ewell, Charles Hunton and George W. Jackson, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this ninth day of August 1826.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas R. Hampton administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Sandy Harris deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas R. Hampton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Thomas R. Hampton do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas R. Hampton SEAL
William C. Hampton SEAL

Note- It is not my wish that Thomas R. Hampton administrator on the estate of my deceased husband Sandy Harris

Ann Harris (her mark)
Teste – Jane Owens 9 August 1826

September 4th 1826 (3-160)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Martha Bell and Elizabeth M. Thompson are held, and firmly bound, to John Hooe, Jesse Ewell, Charles Hunton, and Stuart G. Thornton, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of September 1826.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Martha Bell administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of William Bell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Martha Bell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Martha Bell do in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Martha Bell SEAL
Elizabeth M. Thompson SEAL

September 4th 1826 (3-161)

Know all men, by these presents, that we George E. Green, Lewis Berkeley, John Graham, Richard A. Brett and Truman Townshend are held, and firmly bound, to John Hooe, Jesse Ewell, Charles Hunton, and Stuart G. Thornton, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty two thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this ninth day of August 1826.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said George E. Green administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of James Green deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said TGeorge E. Green or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said George E. Green do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George E. Green SEAL
Lewis Berkeley SEAL
John Graham SEAL
Richard A. Brett SEAL

Letter to the worshipful Court of the County of Prince William – It is not my wish to administer on the estate of my deceased husband. Therefore desire that my son George should administer on said estate.

Sarah Green – 1 Sep 1826
Witness – Jesse Ewell

November 6th 1826 (3-162)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James Florance and Rowland Florance are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Hunton, George W. Jackson, James B. T. Thornton, and Michael Cleary, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of November 1826.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James Florance administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Florance deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Florance or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administrator according to law; and further do make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court and all the rest of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the justices of the said court for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said James Florance do in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration – then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Florance SEAL
Rowland Florance SEAL

November 6th 1815 (4-01)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Oglevy, Larkin Carr, Travis Groves, & Henley Groves are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Zachariah Ward, James Deneale & Charles Ming Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of November Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John Oglevy executor of Redwood/Renwood Evans deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Oglevy or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------|------|
| John Oglevy | SEAL |
| Travis Groves | SEAL |
| Larkin Carr | SEAL |
| Henley Groves | SEAL |

December 4th 1815 (4-02)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Richard H. Henderson, Charles Fenton Mercer, Archibald Henderson, Thomas Henderson, Thomas L. Moore, Inman Horner, Johnston Cleveland, George Williams, Joshua Osborn, George Rust & James Rust are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Fox, Benjamin Hooe Jr., Charles Ming, & William Smith Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Richard H. Henderson executor of Alexander Henderson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Richard H. Henderson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | | | |
|----------------------|--------|--------------------|--------|
| Richard H. Henderson | (SEAL) | Charles F. Mercer | (SEAL) |
| Arch Henderson | (SEAL) | Thomas Henderson | (SEAL) |
| Inman Horner | (SEAL) | Johnston Cleveland | (SEAL) |
| Thomas L. Moore | (SEAL) | George Williams | (SEAL) |
| Joshua Osborn | (SEAL) | George Rust | (SEAL) |
| James Rust | (SEAL) | | |

December 4th 1815 (4-03)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Henderson, Bernard Hooe Jr., Archibald Henderson, Richard H. Henderson, Thomas Ingram, John A. W. Smith & Thomas T. Withers are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Fox, Charles Ming & William Smith Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thomas Henderson executor of Alexander Henderson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Henderson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

| | | | | |
|---|----------------------|------------------|---------------------|--------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | | Thomas Henderson | (SEAL) | |
| | Bernard Hooe Jr. | (SEAL) | Archibald Henderson | (SEAL) |
| | Richard H. Henderson | (SEAL) | Thomas Ingram | (SEAL) |
| | John A. W. Smith | (SEAL) | Thomas T. Withers | (SEAL) |

December 4th 1815 (4-04)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Adam Kremer, Zebulon Kankey & William D. Simmons are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Zachariah Ward, Bernard Hooe Jr., Charles Ming, and William Smith Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of four thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Adam Kremer administrator with will annexed of Gerard Spinks deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Adam Kremer or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

| | | | |
|---|--|--------------------|--------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | | Adam Kremer | (SEAL) |
| | | Zebulon Kankey | (SEAL) |
| | | William D. Simmons | (SEAL) |

Administration de bonis non granted to Richard Ratcliffe August 1816

February 5th 1815 (4-05)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Elizabeth Calvert, Hugh Davis & Joseph Smith are held, and firmly bound, to William Barnes, Zachariah Ward, John Linton and William Smith Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand two hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of February Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Elizabeth Calvert executrix of John Calvert deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Elizabeth or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

| | | | |
|---|--|------------------------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | | Elizabeth (her mark) Calvert | SEAL |
| | | Joseph Smith | SEAL |
| | | Hugh Davis | SEAL |

March 6th 1816 (4-06)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John G. Heslop, David Boyle and Richard H. Henderson are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Gerard Alexander, John Linton and William Smith Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of March Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John G. Heslop executor of George Graham deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John G. Heslop or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge his then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John G. Heslop (SEAL)
David Boyle (SEAL)
Richard H. Henderson (SEAL)

March 7th 1816 (4-07)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Lewis Dickinson and Richard W. Weedon are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Linton, John Bronaugh and John Linton Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of March Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Lewis Dickinson administrator with the will annexed of Richard Robertson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Dickinson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Lewis Dickinson SEAL
Richard W. Weedon SEAL

April 1st 1816 (4-08)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Gerard Alexander Jun., Lawrence G. Alexander, William Foote, and Philip Alexander are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, David Boyle, John Fox and William Smith Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of April Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Lewis Dickinson administrator with the will annexed of Richard Robertson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Alexander or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Gerard Alexander Jun. (SEAL)
Lawrence G. Alexander (SEAL)
William Foote (SEAL)
Phillip Alexander (SEAL)

June 4th 1816 (4-09)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Philip D. Dawe, John Merchant and John Carter are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Gerard Alexander, John Fox and John Hooe Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand five hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Philip D. Dawe executor of Jacob Merchant deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Philip D. Dawe or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Philip D. Dawe (SEAL)
John Merchant (SEAL)
John Carter (SEAL)

April 1st 1816 (4-10)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sarah Keitch and Thomas Brisco are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, William Smith, Thomas Chapman, & John Hooe Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Sarah Keitch administratrix with the will annexed of Letitia Keitch deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sarah Keitch or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Keitch (SEAL)
Thomas Briscoe (SEAL)

October 7th 1816 (4-11)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Richard Ratcliffe, James Deneale and Richard H. Henderson are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Charles Ming, John Linton, William Smith, and John Bronaugh Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand five hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Richard Ratcliffe administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of Gerard Spinks deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Richard Ratcliffe or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Richard Ratcliffe (SEAL)
James Deneale (SEAL)
Richard H. Henderson (SEAL)

October 7th 1816 (4-12)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Elizabeth A. Stuart (late Elizabeth A. Lee) and William Stuart are held, and firmly bound, to William Barnes, John Fox, John Bronaugh & William Smith Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eighteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of October Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Elizabeth A. Stuart executrix of Thomas Lee Sen. deceased do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Elizabeth or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court Elizabeth A. Stuart (SEAL) William Stuart (SEAL)

October 7th 1816 (4-13)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Hutchison, Sampson Hutchison and Nathan Hutchison are held, and firmly bound, to William Barnes, Philip Alexander, John Fox and William Smith Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twelve thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of October Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John Hutchison administrator with the will annexed of William Mount deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Hutchison or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Hutchison (SEAL)

Sampson Hutchison (SEAL)

Nathan Hutchison (SEAL)

December 3rd 1816 (4-14)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Ingram, Nathaniel Gray & James W. Wallace are held, and firmly bound, to John Linton, John Bronaugh, William Smith & John Hooe Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 3rd day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thomas Ingram executor of Mathew W. Brooke deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Ingram or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Ingram (SEAL)

Nathaniel Gray (SEAL)

James (Westwood?) Wallace (SEAL)

December 3rd 1816 (4-15)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Linton, Philip Harrison and John Linton are held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, John Bronaugh, William Smith and John Hooe Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of forth five thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 3rd day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said William Linton one of the executors of William Tyler deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William Linton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Linton (SEAL)

Philip Harrison (SEAL)

John Linton (SEAL)

June 2nd 1817 (4-16)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Wheeler, George Brasfield, Thomas Newman and Garner Fortune are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Edmund Brooke, William Smith and Thomas Chapman Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eighteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said William Wheeler and George Brasfield executors of Leonard Brasfield deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William Wheeler and George Brasfield or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for them and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of their actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge them then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|--------|
| William Wheeler | (SEAL) |
| George Brasfield | (SEAL) |
| Thomas Newman | (SEAL) |
| Garner Fortune | (SEAL) |

June 2nd 1817 (4-17)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Garner Fortune and George Brasfield are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Edmund Brooke, Robert H. Little, William Smith and Thomas Chapman Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand eight hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Garner Fortune administrator with the will annexed of Allman Fortune deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Garman Fortune or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|--------|
| Garner Fortune | (SEAL) |
| George Brasfield | (SEAL) |

June 2nd 1817 (4-18)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Byrne and Richard H. Henderson are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Edmund Brooke, Robert H. Little, William Smith and Thomas Chapman Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand two hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said William Byrne administrator de bonis non of the estate of William Davis deceased with the will annexed, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William Byrne or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------------|--------|
| William Byrne | (SEAL) |
| Richard H. Henderson | (SEAL) |

July 7th 1817 (4-19)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Thornton, James Deneale and John Sinclair are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Zachariah Ward, Bernard Hooe Jr., John Linton and Thomas Chapman Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand two hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of July Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thomas Thornton executor of Thomas Thornton deceased with the will annexed, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Thornton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Thornton (SEAL)
James Deneale (SEAL)
John Sinclair (SEAL)

December 1st 1817 (4-20)

Know all men, by these presents, that I John Linton am held and firmly bound to James Deneale, Zachariah Ward, Thomas Chapman and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal, and dated this 1st day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John Linton executor of Ann L. Nesbett deceased with the will annexed, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William Byrne or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Linton (SEAL)

December 1st 1817 (4-21)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Brawner, Nathan Haislip and Redmon Foster are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, James Deneale, Zachariah Ward, Thomas Chapman and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twelve thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John Brawner administrator with will annexed of Basil Brawner deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Brawner or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Brawner SEAL
Nathan Haislip SEAL
Redmon Foster SEAL

February 2nd 1818 (4-22)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Thurman, William L. Wilkinson and William Brawner are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, William Smith, Thomas Chapman and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of February Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thomas Thurman executor of Robert Thurman, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Thurman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Thurman SEAL
William L. Wilkinson SEAL
William Brawner SEAL

March 2nd 1818 (4-23)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Brawner, Nathan Haislip and Redmon Foster are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, John Fox, John Linton and Thomas Chapman Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twelve thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of March Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said William Brawner administrator with the will annexed of Basil Brawner deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William Brawner or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Brawner SEAL
Nathan Haislip SEAL
Redmon Foster SEAL

June 4th 1818 (4-24)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Philip D. Dawe, William R. Chapman, John Merchant and John Leachman are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, John Fox, John Linton, Thomas Chapman and Jesse Ewell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Philip D. Dawe administrator with will annexed of Mary Ann Dawe deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Dawe or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Philip D. Dawe SEAL
W. R. Chapman SEAL
John Merchant SEAL
John Leachman SEAL

MEMO: Administration was granted to the Sheriff in 1825 – see Minute Book for 1825

August 9th 1821 (4-25)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sarah B. Ewell, Charles Ewell and Jesse Ewell are held, and firmly bound, to Edmund Brooke, Washington J. Washington, Phillip Alexander, John Fox, John Linton, William S. Smith and Thomas Chapman Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of July Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Sarah B. Ewell administratrix with the will annexed of Sol. Ewell Jr. deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sarah B. Ewell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah B. Ewell SEAL
Charles Ewell SEAL
Jesse Ewell SEAL

August 3rd 1818 (4-26)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Briscoe and Alexander M. Briscoe are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Edmund Brooke, John Fox, Jesse Ewell and Gerard Alexander Jr. Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of seven thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 3rd day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thomas Briscoe administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of John McMillon deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Briscoe or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Briscoe SEAL
Alexander M. Briscoe SEAL

September 7th 1818 (4-27)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sally King, Daniel King, Alexander Howison, William Fairfax & Absolem King are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, Zachariah Ward, William Smith & Thomas Chapman, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors we bind ourselves and our heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seal, and dated this 7th day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Sally King and Daniel King executors of Daniel King deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said Sally and Daniel or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for them and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of their actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge them then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sally King SEAL
Daniel King SEAL
Alexander Howison SEAL
William Fairfax SEAL
Absolem King SEAL

October 5th 1818 (4-28)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Robert H. Little, Alexander M. Briscoe and Carter B. Fontaine are held, and firmly bound, to John Linton, John Bronaugh, Thomas Chapman, John Hooe and Jesse Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of October Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Robert H. Little executor of Elizabeth Whiting, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Robert H. Little or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert H. Little SEAL
Alexander Briscoe SEAL
Carter B. Fontaine SEAL
William Brawner SEAL

November 2nd 1818 (4-29)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Burr W. Harrison, William Elzey and Henry T. Harrison are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Edmund Brooke, Zachariah Ward, Thomas Chapman, John Fox and John Hooe

Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of October Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Burr W. Harrison administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of Mathew Harrison deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Burr Harrison or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Burr W. Harrison SEAL

William Ellzey SEAL

Henry T. Harrison SEAL

March 1st 1819 (4-30)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Simon Luttrell, Thomas Chapman, Joseph R. Lynn, & Reuben Calvert are held, and firmly bound, to Phillip Alexander, William Smith & Jesse Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty-four thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors. We bind ourselves and our heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal, and dated this 3rd day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty one,

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Simon Luttrell executor of Robert Luttrell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Simon Luttrell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Simon Luttrell SEAL

Thomas Chapman SEAL

Joseph R. Lynn SEAL

Reuben Calvert SEAL

June 7th 1819 (4-31)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Benjamin Jackson, Benjamin Dean & Walter Warder are held, and firmly bound, to Edmund Brooke, James Deneale, Washington J. Washington, Benjamin Hooe Jr., Charles Ming, John Linton, Thomas Chapman, John Hooe and Jesse Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors. We bind ourselves and our heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred nineteenth

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Benjamin Jackson executor of William Jackson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Benjamin Jackson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Benjamin Jackson SEAL

Benjamin Dean SEAL

Walter Warder SEAL

August 2nd 1819 (4-32)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Archer, John W. Stump, Michael Cleary & William Moss are held, and firmly bound, to Edmund Brooke, Phillip Alexander, Zachariah Ward, John Fox, Benjamin Hooe Jr., William Smith, Thomas Chapman & John Hooe, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fourteen Thousand Dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John Archer & William Stump executors of John Stump deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Archer & John Stump or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for them and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of their actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Archer SEAL
John W. Stump SEAL
Michael Cleary SEAL
William Moss SEAL

November 1st 1819 (4-33)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Thurman, James Fewell & Francis Lewis are held, and firmly bound, to James Deneale, John Linton, Thomas Chapman & Michael Cleary, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of four hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of November Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thomas Thurman administrator with will annexed of William Roach deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Thurman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Thurman SEAL
James Fewell SEAL
Francis Lewis SEAL

November 2nd 1819 (4-34)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Washington J. Washington, Edward E. Carter and Benjamin Dean are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Edmund Brooke, James Deneale, and William Smith, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifteen hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of November Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Washington J. Washington administrator de bonis non with will annexed of Jno McClanahan deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Washington or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Washington J. Washington SEAL
Edward E. Carter SEAL
Benjamin Dean SEAL

March 5th 1821 (4-35)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Edward W. Simpson, Redmon Foster & William L. Wilkinson are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Robert H. Little, John Linton & William Smith, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of March Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty one,

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Peyton Norvill administrator with will annexed of James Reid deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Norvill or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Peyton Norvill SEAL
William Chapman SEAL

October 1st 1821 (4-39)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sidney F. Chapman, John Macrae and Frederick A. Chapman are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, Thomas T. Page, Edmund Brooke, Zachariah Ward, John Hooe, Jesse Ewell and Michael Cleary Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of October Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John Macrae administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of George Graham deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Macrae or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Macrae SEAL
S. F. Chapman SEAL
F. A. Chapman SEAL

December 3rd 1821 (4-40)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Gerard Alexander Jr. am held, and firmly bound, to Edmund Brooke, Phillip Alexander, Charles Ming, John Linton, Jesse Ewell and Michael Cleary Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors. I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal, and dated this 3rd day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Gerard Alexander Jr. executor of Richard B. Alexander deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Gerard Alexander or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Gerard Alexander SEAL

December 9th 1821 (4-41)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Margaret Gallagher, Rowzee Peyton & Walter Harrison are held, and firmly bound, to Zachariah Ward, Charles Ming, John Linton & John Hooe Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty one,

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Margaret Gallagher executrix of Bernard Gallagher, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Margaret or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Margaret Gallagher SEAL
Rowzee Peyton SEAL
Walter Harrison SEAL

December 4th 1821 (4-42)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Frances G. Bronaugh am held, and firmly bound, to Zachariah Ward, Charles Ming, John Linton and John Hooe Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors. I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal, and dated this 4th day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Frances G. Brawner executrix of John Bronaugh deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Frances or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Frances G. Bronaugh SEAL

December 4th 1821 (4-43)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Henry Slade, Mason L. Weems and Jesse E. Weems are held, and firmly bound, to Zachariah Ward, Charles Ming, John Linton & John Hooe Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 4 day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Henry Slade administrator authenticated of the will annexed of Charles Slade deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Henry Slade or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Henry Slade SEAL
Mason L. Weems SEAL
Jesse E. Weems SEAL

January 7th 1822 (4-44)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Charles Shirley Carter & Thomas Turner are held, and firmly bound, to William Barnes, John Fox, Charles Ming, John Linton and Michael Cleary gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of January Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Charles Shirley Carter executor of Edward E. Carter deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Charles Shirley Carter or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Charles Shirley Carter SEAL
Thomas Turner SEAL

January 7th 1822 (4-45)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Rowland Florance and James Foster are held, and firmly bound, to William Barnes, John Fox, Charles Ming, John Linton and Michael Cleary gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of January Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Rowland Florance executor of George Florance deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Rowland or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Rowland Florance SEAL
James Foster SEAL

January 7th 1822 (4-46)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Addison H. Clarke and Michael Cleary are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ewell, William Barnes, Philip Alexander, John Fox, Charles Ming, John Linton and Griffin Stith gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal, and dated this 7th day of January Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Addison H. Clarke executor of Ann Spinks deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Clarke or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Addison H. Clarke SEAL
Michael Cleary SEAL

January 7th 1822 (4-47)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Joseph R. Lynn, George F. Huber and George Copin are held, and firmly bound, to William Barnes, Charles Ming, John Linton, Jesse Ewell and Michael Cleary gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of January Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Joseph R. Lynn administrator de bonis non with the authenticated copy of the will annexed of Thomas Nelson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Lynn or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Joseph R. Lynn SEAL
George F. Huber SEAL
George Copin SEAL

April 2nd 1822 (4-48)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James Florence, Jno Thomas and French Johnson are held, and firmly bound, to John Linton, John Hooe, William M. Craig and James W. Macrae gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of April Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said James Florence executor of George Florence deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Florence or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------|------|
| James Florence | SEAL |
| Jno Thomas | SEAL |
| French Johnson | SEAL |

April 2nd 1822 (4-49)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Spence, Foushee Tebbs and Willoughby Tebbs are held, and firmly bound to John Linton, John Hooe, William M. Craig and James W. Macrae gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of thirty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of April Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John Spence administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of William Carr Sen. deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Spence or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| John Spence | SEAL |
| Foushee Tebbs | SEAL |
| Willoughby Tebbs | SEAL |

April 2nd 1822 (4-50)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Henry A. Barron, Hanson Gassaney, and Enoch Renoe are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ewell, Phillip Alexander, Jesse Ewell, James W. Macrae and James Gallagher, gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of May Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Henry Barron administrator with the will annexed of Hendley Barron deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Spence or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| Henry A. Barron | SEAL |
| Hanson Gassaney | SEAL |
| Enoch Renoe | SEAL |

September 2nd 1822 (4-51)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Robert Hooe, James H. Hooe and Enoch Mason are held, and firmly bound to William Barnes, John Fox, John Hooe and Jesse Ewell gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of thirty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of September Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Robert Hooe executor of Elizabeth Carter deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Robert Hooe or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert Hooe SEAL
James H. Hooe SEAL
Enoch Mason SEAL

1822 (4-52)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Robert Hamilton, Landon Carter Jr. and James H. Hooe are held, and firmly bound to William Barnes, Jno Fox, Jno Hooe, and Jesse Ewell gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this (blank) day of (blank) Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty (blank)

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Robert Hamilton executor of Elizabeth Carter. deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Robert Hamilton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert Hamilton SEAL
Landon Carter Jr. SEAL
James H. Hooe SEAL

October 7th 1822 (4-53)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Delia Smith am held, and firmly bound to Washington J. Washington, Phillip Alexander, Jno Fox, Jesse Ewell, Griffin Stith, Gerard Alexander, Charles Hunton and Robert Hamilton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors . I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal, and dated this 7th day of October Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Delia Smith executrix of George Smith deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Delia Smith or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Delia Smith SEAL

October 7th 1822 (4-54)

Know all men, by these presents, that I William Brundidge am held, and firmly bound to Washington J. Washington, Phillip Alexander, Jno Fox, Jesse Ewell, Griffin Stith, Gerard Alexander, Charles Hunton and Robert Hamilton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors. I bind myself and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal, and dated this 7th day of October Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said William Brundidge executor of Timothy Brundidge deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William Brundidge or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Brundidge SEAL

November 2nd 1822 (4-55)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Anna Ward and Berkeley Ward are held, and firmly bound to W. J. Washington, Philip Alexander, Jno Fox, Jno Hooe, Gerard Alexander and Charles Hunton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of November Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty two

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Anna Ward administratrix with the will annexed of Zachariah Ward deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Anna Ward or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Anna Ward SEAL
B. Ward SEAL

November 4th 1822 (4-56)

Know all men, by these presents, that we George & Austin B. Weedon are held, and firmly bound to Washington J. Washington, Charles Ming, Griffin Stith and James Gwatkins gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of November Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty two

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said George Weedon executor of Charles Harding deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Robert Hamilton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George Weedon SEAL
Austin B. Weedon. SEAL

December 2nd 1822 (4-57)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James Mount, Charles Hunton, James Green & John Graham are held, and firmly bound to William Barnes, Charles Ming, John Hooe and James Gwatkins gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twelve thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty two

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said James Mount administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of William Mount deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Mount or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Mount SEAL
Charles Hunton SEAL
James Green SEAL
John Graham SEAL

March 4th 1822 (4-58)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Joseph R. Gilbert, William Tomlin and P. D. Dawe are held, and firmly bound to Washington J. Washington, John Hooe, Griffin Stith and James Gwatkins gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of November Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Joseph R. Gilbert executor of Rebecca Bell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Joseph R. Gilbert or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Joseph R. Gilbert | SEAL |
| William Tomlin | SEAL |
| P. D. Dawe | SEAL |

April 8th 1822 (4-59)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Joseph R. Gilbert, William Tomlin & P. D. Dawe are held, and firmly bound to Washington J. Washington, John Hooe, Griffin Stith and James Gwatkins gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of November Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Joseph R. Gilbert executor of Rebecca Bell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Joseph R. Gilbert or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Joseph R. Gilbert | SEAL |
| William Tomlin | SEAL |
| P. D. Dawe | SEAL |

June 2nd 1823 (4-60)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Robert Alexander and William Alexander are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ewell, Charles Ming, Edmund Brooke and Michael Cleary gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of thirty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Robert Alexander and William Alexander executors of Hector Alexander deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Robert & William or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Robert Alexander | SEAL |
| William Alexander | SEAL |

June 3rd 1823 (4-61)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Gibson Jr. & John Gibson Sr. are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ewell, Griffin Stith, Michael Cleary, Jesse Ewell, and James Gwatkins gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 3rd day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John Gibson Jr. executor of Alexander Muschett deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Gibson Jr. or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Gibson Jr. SEAL
John Gibson Sr. SEAL

June 6th 1823 (4-62)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Williams and George Williams are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Gerard Alexander, James Gwatkins and James Foster gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John W. Williams executor of Alexander Muschett deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Williams or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Williams SEAL
George Williams SEAL

July 7th 1823 (4-63)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Samuel Williams, Joseph Palmer, William R. Chapman and Zebulon Kankey are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ewell, William Barnes, John Fox, and Richard Foote gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of July Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Samuel Williams administrator with the will annexed of Thomas T. Page deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Samuel Williams or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Samuel Williams SEAL
Joseph Palmer SEAL
William Chapman SEAL
Zebulon Kankey SEAL

August 4th 1823 (4-64)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Joseph R. Lynn, Simon Luttrell & Benson Lynn are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ewell, John Fox, Charles Hunton & James Gwatkins gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Joseph R. Lynn executor of James Holliday deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Joseph Lynn or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Joseph R. Lynn SEAL
Simon Luttrell SEAL
Benson Lynn SEAL

August 4th 1823 (4-65)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Benson Cole, Edward Norman and Mathias Cole are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ewell, John Fox, Charles Hunton and James Gwatkins gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Benjamin Cole executor of James Holliday deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Benjamin Cole or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Benson Cole SEAL
Edward Norman SEAL
Mathias Cole SEAL

August 5th 1923 (4-66)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Robert Hamilton, Thomas B. Hamilton, Landon Carter and Richard H. Carter are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ewell, John Fox, Charles Ming and William M. Craig gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Robert Hamilton and Thomas B. Hamilton executors of Alexander Compton deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said Robert Hamilton and Thomas B. Hamilton into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for them and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of their actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert Hamilton SEAL
Thomas B. Hamilton SEAL
Landon Carter SEAL
Richard H. Carter SEAL

September 1st 1823 (4-67)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Mason L. Weems, Jesse E. Weems and Henry C. Slade are held, and firmly bound to Washington J. Washington, John Fox, Griffin Stith, Michael Cleary and Richard Foote gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of September Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Mason L. Weems executor of Charlotte deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Mason L. Weems or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mason L. Weems SEAL

Jesse E. Weems SEAL
Henry C. Slade SEAL

September 1st 1823 (4-68)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Mary Storke, John Storke Jr. and William Jett Storke are held, and firmly bound to Edmund Brooke, W. J. Washington, Charles Ming and James Gwatkins gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of September Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Mary Storke executrix of Jno Storke deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Mary Stover or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Storke SEAL
John Storke Jr. SEAL
William Jett Storke SEAL

November 5th 1823 (4-69)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Charles Ewell, William R. Chapman and John Maddox are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Griffin Stith, Thomas Nelson Jr. & Redmon Foster gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of November Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Charles Ewell executor of Sarah Ewell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Charles Ewell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Charles Ewell SEAL
William R. Chapman SEAL
John Maddox SEAL

December 2nd 1823 (4-70)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Charles Ewell Jr., James Foster, William R. Chapman and John Maddox are held, and firmly bound to John Fox, Charles Ming, William M. Craig and James Gwatkins gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Charles Ewell Jr. executor of Charles Ewell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Mason L. Weems or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Charles Ewell Jr. SEAL
James Foster SEAL
William R. Chapman SEAL
John Maddox SEAL

February 2nd 1824 (4-71)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Henry Dogan, William M. Lewis and William Wheeler are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ewell, Washington J. Washington, Edmund Brooke, Richard Foote and Lawrence G. Alexander gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of September Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said William Henry Dogan executor of Henry Dogan deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Mason L. Weems or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------------|------|
| William Henry Dogan | SEAL |
| William M. Lewis | SEAL |
| William Wheeler | SEAL |

February 2nd 1824 (4-72)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Addison H. Clarke and Charles Hunton are held, and firmly bound to Edmund Brooke, Washington J. Washington, Richard Foote, James Gwatkins, and Lawrence G. Alexander gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of February Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty four

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Addison H. Clarke executor of James Fant deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Clarke or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Addison H. Clarke | SEAL |
| Charles Hunton | SEAL |

March 1st 1824 (4-73)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Nancy Brewer, William P. Rogers and Russell K. Wigginton are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ewell, John Fox, Charles Hunton, Richard Foote and Lawrence Alexander gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of March Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty four

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Nancy Brewer executrix of John Brewer deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Nancy Brewer or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------------|------|
| Nancy Brewer | SEAL |
| William P. Rogers | SEAL |
| Russell K. Wigginton | SEAL |

March 1st 1824 (4-74)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Joseph R. Lynn, Elizabeth Lynn and Eleanor P. Lynn are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ewell, John Fox, Charles Hunton, Richard Foote and Lawrence Alexander gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand five hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of March Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty four.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Joseph C. Lynn administrator with the will annexed of Nehemiah Lynn deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Joseph C. Lynn or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Joseph C. Lynn SEAL
Elizabeth Lynn SEAL
Eleanor P. Lynn SEAL

June 7th 1824 (4-75)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Richard Stonnell, Alfred Lee and John S. Harrison are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ewell, Edmund Brooke, John Fox and Robert Hamilton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty four

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Richard Stonnell executor of Jesse Warder deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Stonnell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Richard Stonnell SEAL
Alfred Lee SEAL
John S. Harrison SEAL

June 7th 1824 (4-76)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Elizabeth Moon and Douglas Conner are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ewell, Edmund Brooke, John Hooe, Robert Hamilton and Redmon Foster gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty four

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Elizabeth Moon administratrix with the will annexed of John Moon deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Elizabeth or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence P. D. Dawe

Elizabeth Moon SEAL
Douglas Conner SEAL

June 7th 1824 (4-77)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thompson A. Green and Alfred Lee are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ewell, Edmund Brooke, John Hooe, Robert Hamilton and Redmon Foster gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 8th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty four

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thompson A. Green administrator of the will annexed of William Green deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thompson A. Green or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court
Thompson A. Green SEAL
Alfred Lee SEAL

August 6th 1824 (4-78)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John F. Davis, William C. Davis and Richard Davis are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, James Foster, Redmon Foster and Seaton W. Norris gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty four

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John F. Davis executor of Richard Davis Sen. deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John F. Davis or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court
John F. Davis SEAL
William C. Davis SEAL
Richard Davis SEAL

September 6th 1824 (4-79)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Mary Newman, David Blackwell, Thomas J. Newman and Christopher C. Cushing are held, and firmly bound to Washington J. Washington, Charles Ming, Lawrence G. Alexander and Redmon Foster gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of September Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty four

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Mary Newman executrix of William J. Newman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Mary Newman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court
Mary Newman SEAL
David Blackwell SEAL
Thomas J. Newman SEAL
Christopher C. Cushing SEAL

Security qualified as to their sufficiency in open court – P. D. Dawe C. C.

October 4th 1824 (4-80)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Thomas B. Hamilton am held, and firmly bound to Edmund Brooke, Charles Ming, John Hooe, Thomas Nelson Jr. and Redmon Foster gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ninety dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors. I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal, and dated this 4th day of October Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thomas B. Hamilton administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of Sebellah Peyton deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas B. Hamilton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas B. Hamilton SEAL

February 8th 1825 (4-81)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas C. Mount, William Byrne and John Brown are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Redmon Foster, Charles S. Carter and Joseph R. Gilbert gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 8th day of February Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty four

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thomas C. Mount administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of William Mount deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas C. Mount or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas C. Mount SEAL
William Byrne SEAL
John Brown SEAL

June 8th 1825 (4-82)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thompson Green and William Brawner are held, and firmly bound to George W. Jackson, Richard Foote, Thomas Nelson Jr. & Joseph R. Gilbert gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 8th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty five

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thomas Green administrator with the will annexed of Thomas Green deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thompson Green or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thompson Green SEAL
William Brawner SEAL

September 5th 1825 (4-83)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Elizabeth T. Hooe, John Hooe Jr. and Robert H. Hooe are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Redmon Foster, Charles S. Carter and Joseph R. Gilbert gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of September Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty five

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Elizabeth T. Hooe executrix of Bernard Hooe Sen. deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Elizabeth T. Hooe or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince

William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Elizabeth T. Hooe | SEAL |
| John Hooe Jr. | SEAL |
| Robert H. Hooe | SEAL |

September 5th 1825 (4-84)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas H. Buckner and Aris Buckner are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Jesse Ewell, Richard Foote and Charles S. Carter gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of September Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty five

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thomas Buckner executor of Bernard Hooe Sen. deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas H. Buckner or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Thomas H. Buckner | SEAL |
| Aris Buckner | SEAL |

November 8th 1825 (4-85)

Know all men, by these presents, that we George Brasfield and Garner Fortune are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, John Hooe, Richard Cleary, Charles Hunton and Charles S. Carter gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 8th day of February Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty five

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thomas Brasfield executor of Maria Brasfield deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Brasfield or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| George Brasfield | SEAL |
| Garner Fortune | SEAL |

December 6th 1825 (4-86)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Thomas Nelson Jr. am held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Jesse Ewell, James Foster, John Hutchison and James Gwatkins gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors. I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, jointly by these presents. Sealed with my seal, and dated this 6th day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty five

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thomas Nelson Jr. executor of Constance Cornwell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Nelson Jr. or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Thomas Nelson Jr. | SEAL |
|-------------------|------|

December 6th 1825 (4-87)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Nelson Jr., Nancy Blockley and Caty Petty are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Jesse Ewell, James Foster, James Gwatkins and Joseph R. Gilbert gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty five

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thomas Nelson Jr. administrator with the will annexed of Jesse Cornwell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Nelson Jr. or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Thomas Nelson Jr. | SEAL |
| Nancy Blockley | SEAL |
| Caty Petty | SEAL |

January 3rd 1826 (4-88)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James Gwatkins and Henry A. Barron are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Jesse Ewell, Griffin Stith & Redmon Foster gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 3rd day of January Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty six

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said James Gwatkins executor of Edward Gwatkins deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Gwatkins or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| James Gwatkins | SEAL |
| Henry A. Barron | SEAL |

June 8th 1826 (4-89)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Barnaby Cannon, Philip D. Dawe, John W. Williams and M. B. Sinclair are held, and firmly bound to Charles Hunton, Richard Foote and George Jackson gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 8th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty six

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Barnaby Cannon executor of the last will and testament of George F. Huber deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Barnaby Cannon or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| Barnaby Cannon | SEAL |
| Philip D. Dawe | SEAL |
| John W. Williams | SEAL |
| M. B. Sinclair | SEAL |

August 7th 1826 (4-90)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William L. Scott, James W. Scott, Francis H. Dunnington & Barnaby Cannon are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Michael Cleary, Lawrence G. Alexander and Charles S. Carter gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of sixteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty six

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said William L. Scott executor of Jesse Scott deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William L. Scott or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------------|------|
| William L. Scott | SEAL |
| James W. Scott | SEAL |
| Francis H. Dunnington | SEAL |
| Barnaby Cannon | SEAL |

August 7th 1826 (4-91)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sanford Thurman, James Fewell, Benjamin Johnson and Joseph Johnson are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Griffin Stith, Robert Hamilton, and Charles S. Carter gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty six

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Sanford Thurman executor of Robert Thurman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Sanford Thurman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| Sanford Thurman | SEAL |
| James Fewell | SEAL |
| Benjamin Johnson | SEAL |
| Joseph Johnson | SEAL |

August 8th 1826 (4-92)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Philip Deakins and Michael Cleary are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Jesse Ewell, Griffin Stith & Thomas Nelson Jr. gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one hundred fifty dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 8th day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty six

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Philip Deakins administrator of the estate with the Will of Gerard Weston deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Philip Deakins or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------|------|
| Philip Deakins | SEAL |
| Michael Cleary | SEAL |

October 2nd 1826 (4-93)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Peyton Mills, John T. Fairfax, John B. Davis and John M. Reeves are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Charles Hunton, Thomas Nelson Jr. & Henry A. Barron gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of January Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty six

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Peyton Mills and John T. Fairfax executors of John Mills deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said Mills & Fairfax or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for them and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of their actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge them then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Peyton Mills SEAL
John T. Fairfax SEAL
John B. Davis SEAL
John M. Reeves SEAL

October 2nd 1826 (4-94)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sidney Alexander & Nedham L. Washington are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Charles Hunton, Thomas Nelson & Henry A. Barron gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of October Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty six

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Sidney Alexander administrator with the will annexed of Jane Alexander deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sidney Alexander or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sidney Alexander SEAL
Nedham L. Washington SEAL

February 5th 1827 (4-95)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Foster and Redmon Foster are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Griffin Stith, Charles Hunton and Robert Hamilton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand five hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of February Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thomas Foster executor of the last will and testament of Benjamin Dawson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Foster or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Thomas Foster SEAL
Redmon Foster SEAL

March 6th 1827 (4-96)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Bazil Brawner, William Brawner and James B. T. Thornton are held, and firmly bound to Michael Cleary, George W. Jackson and Redmon Foster gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of seven thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of March Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Bazil Brawner executor of the last will and testament of Garner Fortune deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Bazil Brawner or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------------|------|
| Bazil Brawner | SEAL |
| William Brawner | SEAL |
| James B. T. Thornton | SEAL |

March 6th 1827 (4-97)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Fortune, Truman Townshend, John D. Lee and James Jennings are held, and firmly bound to Jesse Ewell, Michael Cleary, George W. Jackson, and James Gwatkins gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of seven thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of March Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Thomas Fortune executor of the last will and testament of Garner Fortune deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Fortune or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| Thomas Fortune | SEAL |
| Truman Townshend | SEAL |
| John D. Lee | SEAL |
| James Jennings | SEAL |

January 1828 (4-98) (Original very faint and difficult to read)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William F. Moore, John Tolson, ____ Mason, and George H. Tolson are held, and firmly bound to Jesse Ewell, Richard Foote, Charles Ming and Robert Hamilton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand five hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of February Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said _____ executor of the last will and testament of Enoch Reno deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said _____ or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| George H. Tolson | SEAL |
| Wm. Moore | SEAL |

June 6th 1827 (4-99)

Know all men, by these presents, that I John W. Williams am held, and firmly bound to John Hooe, Jesse Ewell, Joseph R. Gilbert and Stuart G. Thornton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of thirty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal, and dated this 6th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John Williams executor of George Williams deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Williams or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| John W. Williams | SEAL |
|------------------|------|

January 8th 1828 (4-100)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James A. Padgit, Timothy Padgit, John Barron and Thomas Hoff are held, and firmly bound to Joseph R. Gilbert, James B. T. Thornton, John Fitzhugh and Thomas B. Hamilton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 8th day of January Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said James A. Padgit administrator with the will annexed of Moore Hoff deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Foster or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| James A. Padgit | SEAL |
| Timothy Padgit | SEAL |
| John Barron | SEAL |
| Thomas Hoff | SEAL |

February 5th 1828 (4-101)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Barnaby Cannon, Willoughby Tebbs and John Williams are held, and firmly bound to Griffin Stith, Lawrence G. Alexander, Redmon Foster and Benjamin Johnson gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of February Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Barnaby Cannon executor of the last will and testament of William Tomlin deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Barnaby Cannon Thomas Foster or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| Barnaby Cannon | SEAL |
| Willoughby Tebbs | SEAL |
| John Williams | SEAL |

May 5th 1828 (4-102)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Margaret Gallagher, Ann Gallagher and Peter Trone are held, and firmly bound to Jesse Ewell, James Gwatkins, Charles S. Carter & James B. T. Thornton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of May Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Margaret Gallagher administratrix with the will of William H. Gallagher deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Margaret Gallagher or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|--------------------|------|
| Margaret Gallagher | SEAL |
| Ann Gallagher | SEAL |
| Peter Trone | SEAL |

May 5th 1828 (4-103)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sanford Thurman, Joseph Johnson and James Fewell are held, and firmly bound to Robert Hamilton, Thomas Nelson Jr., Thomas B. Hamilton and Benjamin Johnson gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of May Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Sanford Thurman executor of the last will and testament of Elizabeth Thurman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Sanford Thurman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court
Sanford Thurman SEAL
Joseph Johnson SEAL
James Fewell SEAL

1828 (4-104)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Lucinda Belt, Henry M. Lewis and William E. L. Belt are held, and firmly bound to Jesse Ewell, Redmon Foster, John Fitzhugh and Thomas B. Hamilton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of _____ to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this day of Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Lucinda Belt executrix of the last will and testament of William Belt deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Lucinda Belt or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court
Lucinda Belt SEAL
Henry M. Lewis SEAL
William E. L. Belt SEAL

June 6th 1827 (4-105/98)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sally King, Daniel H. King, Charles Cornwell, Mary H. King, Frances King, Benjamin King and Priscilla King are held, and firmly bound to John Hooe, Jesse Ewell, Joseph R. Gilbert and Stuart G. Thornton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Sally King executrix of Daniel King deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sally King or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court
Sally King SEAL
Daniel H. King SEAL
Charles Cornwell SEAL
Mary H. King SEAL
Francis King SEAL
Benjamin King SEAL
Stuart G. Thornton SEAL

July 7th 1828 (4-106)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James B. C. Thornton and Barnaby Cannon are held, and firmly bound to Jesse Ewell, Thomas Nelson Jr., John Fitzhugh and James B. Ewell gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of July Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said James B. C. Thornton executor of Harriet Volet deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James B. C. Thornton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James B. C. Thornton SEAL
Barnaby Cannon SEAL

September 1st 1828 (4-107)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Elizabeth W. G. Mount, William Byrne and George E. Green are held, and firmly bound to Griffin Stith, Michael Cleary, Thomas Nelson Jr. and Joseph R. Gilbert gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of September Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Elizabeth W. E. Mount executrix of Thomas C. Mount deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said E.W.C. Mount or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth W.G. Mount SEAL
William Byrne SEAL
George E. Green SEAL

October 6th 1828 (4-108)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Daniel McLeod and William Simms are held, and firmly bound to John Hooe Jr, Griffin Stith, Michael Cleary and Benjamin Johnson, gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this day of Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Daniel McLeod administrator with the will annexed of George F. Huber deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Daniel McLeod or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Daniel McLeod SEAL
William Simms SEAL

November 4th 1828 (4-109)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Willoughby W. Tebbs and Samuel J. Tebbs are held, and firmly bound to William Smith, Michael Cleary, Redmon Foster and Joseph R. Gilbert gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of November Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Willoughby W. Tebbs administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of William Tomlin deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Willoughby W. Tebbs or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Willoughby W. Tebbs SEAL
Samuel R. Gilbert SEAL

January 5th 1829 (4-110)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sarah Cockrell, Francis M. Lewis, Benjamin Johnson and Joseph Johnson are held, and firmly bound to Jesse Ewell, Thomas Nelson Jr., Michael Cleary and William A. Howison gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of January Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Sarah Cockrell administratrix with the will annexed of Moses Cockrell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sarah Cockrell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Cockrell SEAL
Francis M. Lewis SEAL
Benjamin Johnson SEAL
Joseph Johnson SEAL

March 2nd 1929 (4-111)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Stone and Fanny Stone are held, and firmly bound to John Hooe Jr., Jesse Ewell, Thomas Nelson Jr. and James B. Ewell gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of March Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John Stone administrator with the will annexed of Lemuel Stone deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Stone or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Stone SEAL
Fanny Stone SEAL

April 6th 1829 (4-112)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Gibson Jr. and John Gibson Sr. are held, and firmly bound to Robert Hamilton, Charles S. Carter, John Fitzhugh, Thomas B. Hamilton and Thomas Nelson Jr. gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of April Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John Gibson Jr. executor of William Smith deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Gibson Jr. or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Gibson Jr. SEAL

John Gibson Sr. SEAL

June 1st 1829 (4-113)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Willoughby W. Tebbs am held, and firmly bound to George W. Jackson, Richard Foote, Benjamin Johnson & Michael Cleary gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors I bind myself and my our heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal, and dated this 1st day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Willoughby W. Tebbs executor of John Spence deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Willoughby W. Tebbs or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Willoughby W. Tebbs SEAL

June 1st 1829 (4-114)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Willoughby W. Tebbs and Samuel J. Tebbs are held, and firmly bound to George W. Jackson, Richard Foote, Benjamin Johnson & Michael Cleary gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said W. W. Tebbs administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of William Carr deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Willoughby W. Tebbs or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Willoughby W. Tebbs SEAL

Samuel J. Tebbs SEAL

September 7th 1829 (4-116)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Gibson Jr. and Jacob Weaver are held, and firmly bound to James Gwatkins, John Hutchison, Lawrence G. Alexander and William A. Harrison gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of September Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John Gibson Jr. executor of Sarah Keech deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Gibson Jr. or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Gibson Jr. SEAL

Jacob Weaver SEAL

December 7th 1829 (4-117)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Elizabeth W. Dade am held, and firmly bound to Thomas Nelson Jr., Thomas B. Hamilton, William Cleary & James W. F. Macrae gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of thirty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seals, and dated this 7th day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Elizabeth W. Dade executrix of William A. G. Dade deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Elizabeth W. Dade or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth W. Dade

SEAL

December 7th 1829 (4-118)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Pearson Chapman, Thomas Foster, Henry M. Lewis, Charles A. Chapman and Susannah P. Chapman are held, and firmly bound to James Gwatkins, Lawrence G. Alexander, John Fitzhugh and James W. F. Macrae gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of forty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Pearson Chapman executor of George Chapman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Pearson Chapman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Pearson Chapman

SEAL

Thomas Foster

SEAL

Henry M. Lewis

SEAL

Charles A. Chapman

SEAL

Susannah P. Chapman

SEAL

February 1st 1830 (4-119)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Samuel Weaver and Jacob Weaver are held, and firmly bound to Richard Foote, Thomas B. Hamilton, William Cleary and William A. Harrison gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of February Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Samuel Weaver administrator with the will annexed of Carr Bailey deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Samuel Weaver or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Samuel Weaver

SEAL

Jacob Weaver

SEAL

1829 (4-120)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Daniel McCarty Fitzhugh and Richard Foote are held, and firmly bound to Thomas B. Hamilton, James B. T. Thornton, William Cleary and William A. Harrison gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twelve thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this day of September Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Daniel McCarty Fitzhugh executor of Thomas Fitzhugh deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Daniel McCarty Fitzhugh. or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Daniel McCarty Fitzhugh SEAL
Richard Foote SEAL

April 6th 1830 (4-121)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Charles E. Dade am held, and firmly bound to Jesse Ewell, James Foster, Redmon Foster and James B. T. Thornton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of thirty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal, and dated this 6th day of September Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Charles E. Dade executor of William A. Dade deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of me the said Charles E. Dade or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Charles E. Dade SEAL

June 7th 1830 (4-122)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Ann Gallagher am held, and firmly bound to Jesse Ewell, Redmon Foster, Thomas B. Hamilton and James B. Ewell gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal, and dated this 7th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Ann Gallagher executor of Mary C. Gallagher deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of me the said Charles E. Dade or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann Gallagher SEAL

August 2nd 1830 (4-123)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Bryan Harding, Wileman Thomas and Seymour Lynn are held, and firmly bound to Jesse Ewell, Michael Cleary, Thomas B. Hamilton & Benjamin Johnson gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Bryan Harding executor of Jane Carney deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Bryan Harding or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------|------|
| Bryan Harding | SEAL |
| Wileman Thomas | SEAL |
| Seymour Lynn | SEAL |

August 2nd 1830 (4-124)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Philip Warder and Samuel Weaver are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Jesse Ewell, Robert Hamilton & John Fitzhugh gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Philip Warder executor of Elizabeth Green deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Philip Warder or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------|------|
| Philip Warder | SEAL |
| Samuel Weaver | SEAL |

May 2nd 1831 (4-125)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Stuart G. Thornton, Ariss Buckner and Richard T. Mitchell are held, and firmly bound to Robert Hamilton, Redmon Foster, John Fitzhugh and James B. Ewell gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fourteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty one

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Stuart G. Thornton executor of Ellen M. Dent deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Stuart G. Thornton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------------|------|
| Stuart G. Thornton | SEAL |
| Arris Buckner | SEAL |
| Richard T. Mitchell | SEAL |

June 6th 1831 (4-126)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Martha C. Bailey, Charles Hunton and Henry A. Barron are held, and firmly bound to Richard Foote, Charles S. Carter, Thomas B. Hamilton and John Fitzhugh gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fourteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of May Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty one

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Martha C. Bailey administratrix de bonis non with the will annexed of Carr Bailey deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Martha C. Bailey or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| Martha C. Bailey | SEAL |
| Charles Hunton | SEAL |

Henry A. Barron

SEAL

August 2nd 1831 (4-127)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Absalom King, Willoughby W. Tebbs, Daniel King and Charles Cornwell are held, and firmly bound to John Hutchison, Thomas Nelson, John W. Williams and Thomas C. Thornton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty one

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Absoleum King administrator with the will annexed of Daniel King deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Absoleum King or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Absoleum King SEAL
Willoughby Tebbs SEAL
Daniel King SEAL

August 2nd 1831 (4-128)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Ann Larkin, Thomas D. Larkin, Francis M. Lewis and William Bowen are held, and firmly bound to John Hutchison, Thomas Nelson, John W. Williams and Thomas C. Thornton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand five hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty one

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Ann Larkin Executrix of Elizabeth P. Roach deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Ann Larkin or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann Larkin SEAL
Thomas D. Larkin SEAL
Francis M. Lewis SEAL
William Bowen SEAL

October 3rd 1831 (4-129)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Jesse E. Weems, James Jones and Gustavus Jones are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Richard Foote, Benjamin Johnson and Thomas C. Thornton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand two hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 3rd day of October Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty one

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Jesse E. Weems administrator with the will annexed of Joseph Jones deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Jesse E. Weems or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jesse E. Weems SEAL
James Jones SEAL
Gustavous Jones SEAL

November 8th 1831 (4-130)

Know all men, by these presents, that I James W. Scott am held, and firmly bound to Michael Cleary, John Hutchison, John W. Williams and Thomas C. Thornton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with my seal, and dated this 8th day of November Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty one

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said James W. Scott executor of Clarinda Scott deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James W. Scott or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James W. Scott SEAL

November 8th 1831 (4-131)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Richard P. Scott, Willoughby W. Tebbs and James W. Scott are held, and firmly bound to Michael Cleary, John Hutchison, Stuart G. Thornton and Thomas C. Thornton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 8th day of November Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty one

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Richard P. Scott executor of the last will and testament of John A. Stangle deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Richard P. Scott or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Richard P. Scott SEAL
Willoughby W. Tebbs SEAL
James W. Scott SEAL

March 5th 1832 (4-132)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Joseph R. Lynn, Harriet Rubleman, Joshua Taylor and Seymour Lynn are held, and firmly bound to Richard Foote, Lawrence G. Alexander, Benjamin Johnson & James B. Ewell gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twelve thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of March Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty two

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Joseph R. Lynn executor of the last will and testament of John G. Rubleman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Joseph R. Lynn or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Joseph R. Lynn SEAL
Harriet Rubleman SEAL
Joshua Taylor SEAL
Seymour Lynn SEAL

May 7th 1832 (4-133)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sanford Rogers, Reuben Rogers and William P. Rogers are held, and firmly bound to John Hooe Jr., Robert Hamilton, Thomas B. Hamilton & William H. Tebbs gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of May Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty two

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Sanford Rogers executor of William Rogers deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Stuart G. Thornton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------------|------|
| Stuart G. Thornton | SEAL |
| Arris Buckner | SEAL |
| Richard T. Mitchell | SEAL |

June 4th 1832 (4-134)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sarah B. Davis, Caleb Stone and Samuel Stone are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Thomas B. Hamilton, Benjamin Johnson, Albert Newman and George Weedon gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty two

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Sarah B. Davis administrator with the will annexed of Richard Davis deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sarah B. Davis or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------|------|
| Sarah B. Davis | SEAL |
| Caleb Stone | SEAL |
| Samuel Stone | SEAL |

June 5th 1832 (4-135)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Robert Williams, John Williams and James E. Williams are held, and firmly bound to John Hutchison, Stuart G. Thornton, Thomas B. Hamilton and James H. Reid gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty two

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Robert Williams executor of Phillip D. Dawe deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Robert Williams or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Robert Williams | SEAL |
| John Williams | SEAL |
| James E. Williams | SEAL |

August 6th 1832 (4-136)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Henly Groves, John W. Williams and Richard Annis are held, and firmly bound to John Hooe, Richard Foote, Thomas Nelson and Benjamin Johnson gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of August Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty two

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Henly Groves administrator with the will annexed of Thomas Turner deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Henly Groves or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| Henly Groves | SEAL |
| John W. Williams | SEAL |
| Richard Annis | SEAL |

October 1st 1832 (4-137)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William H. Fitzhugh, Charles E.S .Fitzhugh and Walter Hore are held, and firmly bound to Charles Ming, Michael Cleary, Richard Foote, Charles S. Carter and Thomas B. Hamilton gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of October Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty two

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said William H. Fitzhugh executor of the last will and testament of Sophia Carter deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William H. Fitzhugh or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------------|------|
| William H. Fitzhugh | SEAL |
| Charles E. S. Fitzhugh | SEAL |
| Walter Hore | SEAL |

December 3rd 1832 (4-138)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Samuel J. Tebbs, Mary F. Spence & Elizabeth Tebbs are held, and firmly bound to Michael Cleary, George W. Jackson, John Fitzhugh, Benjamin Johnson and John W. Williams gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 3rd day of December Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty two

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Samuel J. Tebbs administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of William Carr deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Samuel J. Tebbs or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| Samuel J. Tebbs | SEAL |
| Mary F. Spence | SEAL |
| Elizabeth Tebbs | SEAL |

March 4th 1833 (4-139)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Richard Foote, Thomas Hord and Jesse E. Weems are held, and firmly bound to Robert Hamilton, John Fitzhugh, James B. Ewell, George Weedon & Thomas Nelson Jr. gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Latham, Thomas Latham, Theron W. Newman and James D. Tennille are held, and firmly bound to John Hutchison, Stuart G. Thornton and Jesse E. Weems gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 3rd day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John Latham and Thomas Latham executors of the last will and testament of Robert Latham deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said John Latham and Thomas Latham or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for them and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of their actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| John Latham | SEAL |
| Thomas Latham | SEAL |
| Theron W. Newman | SEAL |
| James D. Tennille | SEAL |

June 3rd 1833 (4-147)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Nedham L. Washington and John H. Washington are held, and firmly bound to John Hutchison, Stuart G. Thornton, Albert Newman and Jesse E. Weems gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 3rd day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Nedham L. Washington administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of Jane Alexander deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Nedham L. Washington or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------------|------|
| Nedham L. Washington | SEAL |
| John H. Washington | SEAL |

June 5th 1833 (4-148)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Alfred S. P. Windsor, William Windsor, Christopher Windsor and Bertram Windsor are held, and firmly bound to John Hooe Jr., Richard Foote, Thomas Nelson, John W. Williams and Jesse E. Weems gentlemen justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors – we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of June Anno Dom, one thousand eight hundred and thirty three

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Alfred S. P. Windsor administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of Sampson Windsor deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Alfred S. P. Windsor or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the county court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law; and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when thereunto required by the said court: and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------------|------|
| Alfred S. P. Windsor | SEAL |
| William Windsor | SEAL |
| Christopher Windsor | SEAL |
| Bertram Windsor | SEAL |

March 6th 1827 (5-01)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Clinkseales, John W. Reeves and Craven Peake are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, Michael Cleary, George W. Jackson and James Gwatin, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifteen hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of March A. D. 1827

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John B. Clinkseales administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Samuel Clinkseales deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Clinkseales or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said John B. Clinkseales do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------------|------|
| John B. Clinkseales | SEAL |
| Jno W. Reeves | SEAL |
| Craven Peake | SEAL |

March 6th 1827 (5-02)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Truman Townshend, Thomas Fortune and William J. Weldon are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, George W. Jackson, James Gwatin and Redmon Foster, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of March A. D. 1827

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Truman Townshend administrator de bonis non of the goods, chattels and credits of William Buckley deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Truman Townshend or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Truman Townshend do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Truman Townshend | SEAL |
| Thomas Fortune | SEAL |
| William J. Weldon | SEAL |

March 8th 1827 (5-03)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Baylis Grigsby and Thomas Nelson Jr. are held, and firmly bound, unto John Hooe, Charles Hunton, Redmon Foster and Stuart G. Thornton, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this eighth day of March A. D. 1827.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Baylis Grigsby administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John P. Grigsby deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Baylis Grigsby or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Baylis Grigsby do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Baylis Grigsby SEAL
Thomas Nelson Jr. SEAL

March 9th 1827 (5-04)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Goodwin and Charles Chick are held, and firmly bound, unto John Hooe Jr., Lawrence G. Alexander, Redmon Foster, and Stuart G. Thornton, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 9th day of March A. D. 1827.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Goodwin administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Valentine P. Adams deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Goodwin or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said John Goodwin do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Goodwin SEAL
Charles Chick SEAL

April 2nd 1827 (5-05)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William E. Alexander and Joshua Bishop are held, and firmly bound, unto William Smith, Lawrence G. Alexander, Joseph R. Gilbert, Simon Luttrell and Jesse Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of April A. D. 1827

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William E. Alexander administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Barton Carrico deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William E. Alexander or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said William E. Alexander do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William E. Alexander SEAL
Joshua Bishop SEAL

Note – I hereby wish and request William E. Alexander to administrator on the estate of my husband Barton Carrico deceased.
Given under my hand this second day of April 1827

Witness: Addison H. Sanders

Charlotte (her mark) Carrico

March 6th 1827 (5-06)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Elizabeth Dunnington, Willoughby Wm. Tebbs, Barnaby Cannon and Charles W. Colquhoun are held, and firmly bound, unto John Hooe, Griffin Stith, Thomas Nelson Jr. and Simon Luttrell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of May A. D. 1827

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Elizabeth Dunnington administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of Francis H. Dunnington deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Dunnington or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Elizabeth Dunnington do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|----------------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | Elizabeth Dunnington | SEAL |
| | Willoughby Wm. Tebbs | SEAL |
| | Barnaby Cannon | SEAL |
| | Charles W. Colquhoun | SEAL |

June 5th 1827 (5-07)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Henry Barron, John Fitzhugh and William W. Tebbs are held, and firmly bound, unto John Hooe, Griffin Stith, Thomas Nelson Jr., and Simon Luttrell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of June A. D. 1827

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Henry A. Barron administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William H. Barron deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Henry A. Barron or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Henry A. Barron do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|------------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | Henry A. Barron | SEAL |
| | John Fitzhugh | SEAL |
| | William W. Tebbs | SEAL |

August 7th 1827 (5-08)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John U. Reeves, Truman Townshend and John W. Williams are held, and firmly bound, unto John Hooe, Jesse Ewell, Charles Hunton, and Robert Hamilton, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of August A. D. 1827

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John U. Reeves administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William B. Crouch deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John U. Reeves or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said John U. Reeves do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|------------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | John U. Reeves | SEAL |
| | Truman Townshend | SEAL |
| | John W. Williams | SEAL |

November 5th 1827 (5-09)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Margaret Townshend, James D. Tennille and George Tennille are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, Michael Cleary, Richard Foote, Charles S. Carter and Thomas B. Hamilton Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of November A. D. 1827

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Margaret Townshend administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of Truman Townshend deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Margaret Townshend or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Margaret Townshend do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|--------------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | Margaret Townshend | SEAL |
| | James D. Tennille | SEAL |
| | George Tennille | SEAL |

June 5th 1827 (5-07)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Henry Barron, John Fitzhugh and William W. Tebbs are held, and firmly bound, unto John Hooe, Griffin Stith, Thomas Nelson Jr., and Simon Luttrell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of June A. D. 1827

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Henry A. Barron administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William H. Barron deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Henry A. Barron or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Henry A. Barron do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|------------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | Henry A. Barron | SEAL |
| | John Fitzhugh | SEAL |
| | William W. Tebbs | SEAL |

November 5th 1827 (5-10)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Elizabeth Norman, Charles Norman and George Copen are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, Michael Cleary, Richard Foote, Charles S. Carter and Thomas B. Hamilton Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of thirteen thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of November A. D. 1827

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Elizabeth Norman administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of Edward Norman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Norman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Elizabeth Norman do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|------------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | Elizabeth Norman | SEAL |
| | Charles Norman | SEAL |
| | George Copen | SEAL |

November 8th 1827 (5-11)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Williams, Philip D. Dawe and Barnaby Cannon are held, and firmly bound, unto John Hooe Jr., Charles S. Carter, Thomas B. Hamilton, and Benjamin Johnson, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this eighth day of November A. D. 1827

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Williams administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Shaw deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Williams or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said John Williams do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|----------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | John Williams | SEAL |
| | Philip D. Dawe | SEAL |
| | Barnaby Cannon | SEAL |

December 3rd 1827 (5-12)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Barron, James Fewell, and Thomas Hoff are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, Charles Hunton, Redmon Foster, and Benjamin Johnson, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of December A. D. 1827

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Barron administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Eleanor Barron deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Barron or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said John Barron do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|--------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | John Barron | SEAL |
| | James Fewell | SEAL |
| | Thomas Hoff | SEAL |

January 7th 1828 (5-13)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Barron, James Fewell, and Thomas Hoff are held, and firmly bound, unto John Hooe, Griffin Stith, Redmon Foster, and John Fitzhugh, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of January A. D. 1828

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Barron administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Jesse Barron deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Barron or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said John Barron do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|-------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | John Barron | SEAL |
|---|-------------|------|

James Fewell
Thomas Hoff

SEAL
SEAL

March 3rd 1828 (5-14)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Benoni E. Harrison and Richard B. Tyler are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, Richard Foote, Lawrence G. Alexander, Benjamin Johnson, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of March A. D. 1828

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Benoni E. Harrison administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John S. Harrison deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Benoni E. Harrison or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Benoni E. Harrison do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Benoni E. Harrison
Richard B. Tyler

SEAL
SEAL

March 7th 1827 (5-15)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Ann P. Leachman, James Fewell, John W. Williams, John Williams, James Tennell and William P. Cundiff are held, and firmly bound, unto John Hooe Jun., Redmon Foster, Charles S. Carter, and Benjamin Johnson, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of November A. D. 1827

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Ann P. Leachman administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of John Leachman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Ann P. Leachman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Ann P. Leachman do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann Leachman
James Fewell
John W. Williams
John Williams
James Tennell
William P. Cundiff

SEAL
SEAL
SEAL
SEAL
SEAL
SEAL

March 4th 1828 (5-16)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Ann Jones, John Bland and James B. Hayes are held, and firmly bound, unto Robert Hamilton, John Hooe Jun., Redmon Foster, and Benjamin Johnson, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of March A. D. 1828

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Ann Jones administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of William S. Jones deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Ann Jones or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Ann Jones do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|-----------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | Ann Jones | SEAL |
| | John Bland | SEAL |
| | Joseph B. Hayes | SEAL |

March 4th 1828 (5-18)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Williams and Barnaby Cannon are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, Robert Hamilton, Redmon Foster, and Joseph R. Gilbert, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of March A. D. 1828

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Williams administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Mary Shaw deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Williams or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said John Williams do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|----------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | John Williams | SEAL |
| | Barnaby Cannon | SEAL |

_____ 1828 (5-18)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Jesse E. Weems, Mason L. Weems and Henry C. Slade are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, James Gwatin, James B. Thornton, and Benjamin Johnson, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this _____ day of _____ A. D. 1828

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Jesse E. Weems administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Leroy Ewell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Jesse E. Weems or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Jesse E. Weems do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|----------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | Jesse E. Weems | SEAL |
| | Mason L. Weems | SEAL |
| | Henry C. Slade | SEAL |

June 2nd 1828 (5-19)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Catherine Berkeley and Theron W. Newman are held, and firmly bound, unto John Hutchison, Redmon Foster, Joseph R. Gilbert, and Benjamin Johnson, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of June A. D. 1828

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Catherine Berkeley administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of William Berkeley deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Catherine Berkeley or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Catherine Berkeley do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Catherine Berkeley
Theron W. Newman

SEAL
SEAL

June 2nd 1828 (5-20)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Henry M. Lewis, Francis M. Lewis and William M. Lewis are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, Thomas Nelson Jr., Joseph R. Gilbert and Benjamin Johnson, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand seven hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of June A. D. 1828

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Henry M. Lewis administrator de bonis non of the goods, chattels and credits of John Brown deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Henry M. Lewis or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Henry M. Lewis do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Henry M. Lewis SEAL
Francis M. Lewis SEAL
William M. Lewis SEAL

July 7th 1828 (5-21)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Hannah Curry and John A. Stangle are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, Thomas Nelson Jr., John Fitzhugh, Jas B. Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of June A. D. 1828

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Hannah Curry administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of James Curry deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Hannah Curry or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Hannah Curry do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Hannah Curry SEAL
John A. Stangle SEAL

August 4th 1828 (5-22)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John P. Philips, Stephen Macormck, Joseph Thompson, Joseph R. Gilbert and William E. Hunton are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, Robert Hamilton, Redmon Foster, and Jas. Fewell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of August A. D. 1828

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John P. Philips administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Richard H. Philips deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John P. Philips or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said John P. Philips do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court John Philips SEAL
 Stephen Macormick SEAL
 Joseph Thompson SEAL
 Joseph R. Gilbert SEAL

Note: The County Court of Prince William are hereby informed that I waive and relinquish my right to administer on the estate of my late husband Richard H. Philips deceased and request that they should approve his brother John P. Philips his administrator.
July 31, 1828
Celia Ann Philips

September 1st 1828 (5-23)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Williams, Philip D. Dawe and Luke Cannon Jr. are held, and firmly bound, unto Griffin Stith, Michael Cleary, Thomas Nelson Jr., and Joseph R. Gilbert, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of September A. D. 1828

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Williams administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Barnaby Cannon deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Williams or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said John Williams do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court John Williams SEAL
 Philip D. Dawe SEAL
 Luke Cannon Jr. SEAL

November 4th 1828 (5-24)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Thayer & George G. Tyler are held, and firmly bound, unto William Smith, Michael Cleary, Charles S. Carter and John Hutchison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of November A. D. 1828

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Thayer administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Thayer deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Thayer or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said John Thayer do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court John Thayer SEAL
George G. Tyler SEAL

November 4th 1828 (5-25)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Catherine Howison, Reuben Crigler, Allen Howison, Alexander Howison, and James Howison are held, and firmly bound, unto William Smith, Michael Cleary, Richard Foote and James B. Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars current money to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of November A. D. 1828

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Catherine Howison administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of Robert T. Howison deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Catherine Howison or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Catherine Howison do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court Catherine Howison SEAL
Reuben Crigler SEAL
Allen Howison SEAL
Alexander Howison SEAL
James Howison SEAL

January 5th 1829 (5-26)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Philip D. Dawe & John Williams are held, and firmly bound, unto Robert Hamilton, Redmon Foster, William Cleary and William A. Harrison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of January A. D. 1829

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Philip D. Dawe administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Dawe deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Philip D. Dawe or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Philip D. Dawe do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court Philip D. Dawe SEAL
John Williams SEAL

April 7th 1829 (5-27)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Elizabeth Jennings and Thomas Fortune are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, Redmon Foster, Joseph R. Gilbert, and John Hutchison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of April A. D. 1829

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Elizabeth Jennings administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of James Jennings deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Elizabeth Jennings or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Elizabeth Jennings do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Elizabeth Jennings SEAL
Thomas Fortune SEAL

April 7th 1829 (5-28)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James Craig & Charles J. Fox are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, John Hutchison, Joseph R. Gilbert & James B. T. Thornton, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of April A. D. 1829

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James Craig administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Emily Fox deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Craig or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said James Craig do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Craig SEAL
Charles J. Fox SEAL

Note: 1833 January 7th Jas Craig power revoked and administration de bonis non granted to McCarty
J. Wms. Cc

June 1st 1829 (5-29)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Robert Hamilton, Thomas Hamilton & Landon Carter Jr. are held, and firmly bound, unto George W. Jackson, Richard Foote, Benjamin Johnson & William Cleary, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of June A. D. 1829

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Robert Hamilton administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Isaac Henry deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Robert Hamilton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Robert Hamilton do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert Hamilton SEAL
Thomas Hamilton SEAL
Landon Carter Jr. SEAL

June 1st 1829 (5-30)

Know all men, by these presents, that we George N. B. Renoe, Strother Renoe and James Fewell are held, and firmly bound, unto Robert Hamilton, James B. T. Thornton, Thomas B. Hamilton & James W. F. Macrae, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of June A. D. 1829

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said George N. B. Renoe administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Renoe deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said George N. B. Renoe or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said George N. B. Renoe do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|--------------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | George N. B. Renoe | SEAL |
| | Strother Renoe | SEAL |
| | James Fewell | SEAL |

September 7th 1829 (5-31)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Joseph R. Lynn, John R. Rubbleman & Benjamin Cole are held, and firmly bound, unto James Gwatkin, Robert Hamilton, Thomas Nelson Jr. & John Fitzhugh, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of September A. D. 1829

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Joseph R. Lynn administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Thomas Luttrell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Joseph R. Lynn or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Joseph R. Lynn do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|-------------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | Joseph R. Lynn | SEAL |
| | John R. Rubbleman | SEAL |
| | Benjamin Cole | SEAL |

September 7th 1829 (5-32)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Reuben Hutchison & John Hutchison are held, and firmly bound, unto Charles Ming, Robert Hamilton, George G. Tyler & John Fitzhugh, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twelve hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of September A. D. 1829

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Reuben Hutchison administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Francis D. Bumry deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Reuben Hutchison or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Reuben Hutchison do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|------------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | Reuben Hutchison | SEAL |
| | John Hutchison | SEAL |

September 7th 1829 (5-33)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John L. Beveridge, William R. Beveridge, Samuel R. Beveridge & Craven Clowe are held, and firmly bound, unto Charles Ming, Robert Hamilton, George G. Tyler, and John Fitzhugh, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of September A. D. 1829

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John L. Beveridge administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Thomas Beveridge deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John L. Beveridge or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said John L. Beveridge do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------------|------|
| John L. Beveridge | SEAL |
| William R. Beveridge | SEAL |
| Samuel R. Beveridge | SEAL |
| Craven Clowe | SEAL |

September 7th 1829 (5-34)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Henry A. Barron, Samuel Weaver and Samuel Lattimer are held, and firmly bound, unto Charles Ming, Jesse Ewell, John Fitzhugh, and Thomas B. Hamilton, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifteen hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of September A. D. 1829

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Henry A. Barron administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Thompson Green deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Henry A. Barron or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Henry A. Barron do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| Henry A. Barron | SEAL |
| Samuel Weaver | SEAL |
| Samuel Lattimer | SEAL |

Note: This is to certify to the County Court of Prince William that I decline the administration of the estate of my deceased husband Doc. Isaac Henry and am desirous that Mr. Robert Hamilton should be appointed by the court the administer of said estate. Given under my hand this 1st day of June 1829. Judith Henry Appraisers – Alfred Ball, Landon Carter Jr.

Wm. F. Carter, Richard T. Mitchell

September 7th 1829 (5-35)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Hooe Jun. & Bernard Hooe are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, James Gwatkin, John Fitzhugh, & Thomas B. Hamilton, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of September A. D. 1829

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Hooe Jun. administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Courtney Sen. deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Hooe Jun. or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said John Hooe Jun. do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court John Hooe Jun. SEAL
 Bernard Hooe SEAL

October 5th 1829 (5-36)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Richard O. Shirley, John Riley and William P. Cundiff are held, and firmly bound, unto Redmon Foster, Joseph R. Gilbert, Benjamin Johnson and George G. Tyler, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of October A. D. 1829

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Richard O. Shirley administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Fielding Shirley deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Richard Shirley or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Richard Shirley do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court Richard O. Shirley SEAL
 John Riley SEAL
 William P. Cundiff SEAL

November 3rd 1829 (5-37)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Henry F. Roe, Thomas Nelson Jr. and John C. Weedon are held, and firmly bound, unto Redmon Foster, James B. T. Thornton and James W. F. Macrae, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of November A. D. 1829

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Henry F. Roe administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Catherine C. Roe deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Henry F. Roe or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Henry F. Roe do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court Henry F. Roe SEAL
 Thomas Nelson Jr. SEAL
 John C. Weedon SEAL

December 7th 1829 (5-38)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Stone, Charles Stone and Samuel Botts are held, and firmly bound, unto Thomas Nelson Jr., Thomas D. Hamilton, William Cleary, and James W. F. Macrae, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of December A. D. 1829

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Stone administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Margaret Stone deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Stone or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said John Stone do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------|------|
| John Stone | SEAL |
| Charles Stone | SEAL |
| Samuel Botts | SEAL |

January 4th 1830 (5-39)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Leanna Martin, Peyton Norvill, Elias B. Martin & Cuthbert Owens are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, Robert Hamilton, James B. Ewell & William A. Harrison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of January A. D. 1830

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Leanna Martin administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of Hezekiah Martin deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Leanna Martin or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Leanna Martin do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| Leanna Martin | SEAL |
| Peyton Norvill | SEAL |
| Elias B. Martin | SEAL |
| Cuthbert Owens | SEAL |

January 4th 1830 (5-40)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Henry Haislip, Ann Haislip and Michael House are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, Robert Hamilton, James B. Ewell, and James W. F. Macrae, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of January A. D. 1830

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Henry Haislip administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Nathan Haislip deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Henry Haislip or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Henry Haislip do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|---------------|------|
| Henry Haislip | SEAL |
| Ann Haislip | SEAL |
| Michael House | SEAL |

March 1st 1830 (5-41)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sarah T. Gilbert, Thomas Nelson Jr., Mordecai B. Sinclair, John G. Rubbleman and Jesse E. Weems are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, Michael Cleary, James B. T. Thornton & William Cleary, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of four thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of March A. D. 1830

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Sarah T. Gilbert administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of Joseph R. Gilbert deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sarah T. Gilbert or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Sarah T. Gilbert do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court
Sarah T. Gilbert SEAL
Thomas Nelson Jr. SEAL
Mordecai B. Sinclair SEAL
Jno G. Rubbleman SEAL
Jesse E. Weems SEAL

May 3rd 1830 (5-42)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Daniel Thornberry & Samuel Weaver are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, Robert Hamilton, Redmon Foster and Charles S. Carter, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of November A. D. 1828

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Daniel Thornberry administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John D. Lee deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Daniel Thornberry or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Daniel Thornberry do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court
Daniel Thornberry SEAL
Samuel Weaver SEAL

Note: Administrator de bonis non granted to Margaret Lee, January 7th 1839

August 2nd 1830 (5-43)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Zachariah Allen, Mary Ann Lang & Robert T. Howison are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, Michael Cleary, Thomas B. Hamilton and Benjamin Johnson, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of August A. D. 1830

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Zachariah Allen administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John Long deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Zachariah Allen or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Zachariah Allen do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court
Zachariah Allen SEAL
Mary Ann Lang SEAL
Robert T. Howison SEAL

August 2nd 1830 (5-44)

well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of December A. D. 1830

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Henry M. Lewis administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Thomas Hoff deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Henry M. Lewis or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Henry M. Lewis do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------------|------|
| Henry M. Lewis | SEAL |
| Mordecai B. Sinclair | SEAL |
| James A. Padgett, | SEAL |

February 7th 1831 (5-48)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Vincient Stonnell and George Cornwell are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, James Gwatkin, Thomas B. Hamilton, and George G. Tyler, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of February A. D. 1831

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Vincent Stonnell administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Thomas Stonnell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Vincent Stonnell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Vincent Stonnell do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| Vincent Stonnell | SEAL |
| George Cornwell | SEAL |

February 7th 1831 (5-49)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Cockrell and George Washington are held, and firmly bound, unto Jesse Ewell, James Gwatkin, Thomas B. Hamilton and George G. Tyler, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of four hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of February A. D. 1831

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Cockrell administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Hezekiah Rolls deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William Cockrell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said William Cockrell do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| William Cockrell | SEAL |
| George Washington | SEAL |

March 7th 1831 (5-50)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Seymour Lynn and Joshua Tayloe are held, and firmly bound, unto Michael Cleary, Richard Foote, Thomas Nelson and Redmon Foster, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of May A. D. 1831

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Nancy Brett administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of George Brett deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Nancy Brett or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Nancy Brett do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Nancy Brett | SEAL |
| Richard Brett Sr. | SEAL |
| Richard Brett Jr. | SEAL |

May 2nd 1831 (5-54)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John W. Williams and Willoughby W. Tebbs are held, and firmly bound, unto Redmon Foster, Benjamin Johnson, and William H. Tebbs, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of four hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of May A. D. 1831

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John W. Williams administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Catherine Williams deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John W. Williams or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said John W. Williams do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| John W. Williams | SEAL |
| Willoughby Tebbs | SEAL |

June 8th 1831 (5-55)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Martha L. French, James French and Richard Foote are held, and firmly bound, unto Michael Cleary, James B. T. Thornton, John Fitzhugh and Albert Newman, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this eighth day of June A. D. 1831

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Martha L. French administratrix de bonis non of the goods, chattels and credits of William French deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Martha L. French or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Martha L. French do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|------------------|------|
| Martha L. French | SEAL |
| James French | SEAL |
| Richard Foote | SEAL |

July 4th 1831 (5-56)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Wileman Thomas and James Florance are held, and firmly bound, unto Redmon Foster, James B. T. Thornton, Thomas C. Thornton, and Albert Newman, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of July A. D. 1831

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Wileman Thomas administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Richard H. Barnes deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Wileman Thomas or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Wileman Thomas do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court William Thomas SEAL
 James Florance SEAL

July 4th 1831 (5-57)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sarah Murphy, James H. Reid and Robert Alexander are held, and firmly bound, unto Redmon Foster, James B. T. Thornton, Albert Newman & Thomas C. Thornton, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of July A. D. 1831

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Sarah Murphy administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of William C. Murphy deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sarah Murphy or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Sarah Murphy do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court Sarah Murphy SEAL
 James H. Reid SEAL
 Robert Alexander SEAL

Note: 1832, July 2nd power of administration revoked and letter of administration de bonis non granted to James H. Reid.

August 2nd 1831 (5-58)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Stabler and Samuel M. Janney are held, and firmly bound, unto Robert Hamilton, James Foster, John W. Williams and Thomas C. Thornton, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of August A. D. 1831

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Stabler administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Edward Stabler deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William Stabler or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said William Stabler do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court William Stabler SEAL
 Samuel M. Janney SEAL

September 5th 1831 (5-59)

Know all men, by these presents, that we George Brent and Charles Hunton are held, and firmly bound, unto Charles Ming, Michael Cleary, Thomas C. Thornton and John W. Williams, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of September A. D. 1831

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said George Brent administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Hannah Brent deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said George Brent or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said George Brent do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George Brent

SEAL

Charles Hunton

SEAL

September 5th 1831 (5-60)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Wileman Thomas and Addison N. Thomas are held, and firmly bound, unto Charles Ming, Thomas B. Hamilton, Thomas C. Thornberry & John W. Williams, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of September A. D. 1831

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Wileman Thomas administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Barnes deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Wileman Thomas or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Wileman Thomas do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Thomas

SEAL

Addison N. Thomas

SEAL

October 3rd 1831 (5-61)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Hutchison and William B. Tyler are held, and firmly bound, unto Charles Ming, Benjamin Johnson, John W. Williams and Thomas C. Thornton, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of October A. D. 1831

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Hutchison administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Alfred Graham deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Hutchison or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said John Hutchison do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Hutchison

SEAL

William B. Tyler

SEAL

November 7th 1831 (5-62)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Allen Macrae and James W. F. Macrae are held, and firmly bound, unto Michael Cleary, Thomas Nelson, James B. Ewell, Benjamin Johnson and John W. Williams, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of November A. D. 1831

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Allen Macrae administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John Macrae deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Allen Macrae or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Allen Macrae do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Allan Macrae SEAL
James W. F. Macrae SEAL

November 7th 1831 (5-63)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Selecman, George Selecman and Henry Selecman are held, and firmly bound, unto Redmon Foster, James B. T. Thornton, Thomas C. Thornton, and Albert Newman, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of November A. D. 1831

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Selecman administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of William Selecman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William Selecman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said William Selecman do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Selecman SEAL
George Selecman SEAL
Henry Selecman SEAL

November 7th 1831 (5-64)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Absolom King and Howson Hooe (of Robert) are held, and firmly bound, unto Michael Cleary, Thomas Nelson, James B. Ewell, and John W. Williams, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of four hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of November A. D. 1831

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Absolom King administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Sally King deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Absolom King into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Absolom King do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Absolom King SEAL
Howson Hooe SEAL

November 9th 1831 (5-65)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Nathaniel Tyler and John W. Tyler are held, and firmly bound, unto John Hooe Jr., Michael Cleary, Stuart G. Thornton and Thomas C. Thornton, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and

Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of January A. D. 1832

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Addison B. Carter administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Judith Carter deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Addison B. Carter or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Addison B. Carter do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|--------------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | Addison B. Carter | SEAL |
| | Landon Carter Jr. | SEAL |
| | James W. F. Macrae | SEAL |
| | Jesse Ewell | SEAL |

March 6th 1832 (5-69)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Catherine Latham and Thomas Nelson are held, and firmly bound, unto Thomas Nelson, Lawrence G. Alexander, Redmon Foster and James B. Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of March A. D. 1832

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Catherine Latham administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of Robert Latham Jun. deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Catherine Latham or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Catherine Latham do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|------------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | Catherine Latham | SEAL |
| | Thomas Nelson | SEAL |

July 4th 1831 (5-70)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Ann Murphy, John Bland and Thomas Cocke are held, and firmly bound, unto John Hooe Jr., Thomas Nelson, Redmon Foster and James B. Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of July A. D. 1832

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Ann Murray administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of Thompson Murphy deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Ann Murray or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Ann Murray do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|----------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | Ann (X) Murphy | SEAL |
| | John Bland | SEAL |
| | Thomas Cocke | SEAL |

May 7th 1832 (5-71)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas M. Boyle, James W. F. Macrae and Edmund Tyler are held, and firmly bound, unto John Hooe Jun., Robert Hamilton, Thomas B. Hamilton, and William H. Tebbs, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of May A. D. 1832

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas M. Boyle administrator de bonis non of the goods, chattels and credits of Daniel Boyle deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas M. Boyle or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Thomas M. Boyle do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|--------------------|------|
| Thomas M. Boyle | SEAL |
| James W. F. Macrae | SEAL |
| Edmund Tyler | SEAL |

May 7th 1832 (5-72)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas M. Boyle, James W. F. Macrae, Edmund Tyler are held, and firmly bound, unto John Hooe Jr., Robert Hamilton, Thomas B. Hamilton and William H. Tebbs Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of May A. D. 1832

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas M. Boyle administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Jane Boyle deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas M. Boyle or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Thomas M. Boyle do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|--------------------|------|
| Thomas M. Boyle | SEAL |
| James W. F. Macrae | SEAL |
| Edward Tyler | SEAL |

July 2nd 1832 (5-73)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Howson Hooe, Rice Hooe and John Hooe Sen. are held, and firmly bound, unto Michael Cleary, John Hutchison, Richard Foote and James B. Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of forty thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of July A. D. 1832

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Howson Hooe administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Robert H. Hooe Sen. deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Howson Hooe or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Howson Hooe do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------|------|
| Howson Hooe | SEAL |
| Rice Hooe | SEAL |

John Hooe SEAL

Note: To the Court of Prince William County now setting. We the undersigned by leave to repose to your honour that our father Robert H. Hooe Sen. died intestate as far as we know or believe and that we wish our brother Howson Hooe be permitted to administer without having other security exacted of him than his brothers Rice and John Hooe.

Given under hands and seals this 2nd day of July 1832

Ann Waugh SEAL

Mary D. Hooe SEAL

Sarah Hooe SEAL

July 2nd 1832 (5-74)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sarah Ann Trone, Lucinda Trone, James Trone, George Weedon, John C. Weedon, John S. Trone and Austin Weedon are held, and firmly bound, unto Charles Ming, Robert Hamilton, George W. Jackson, Thomas B. Ewell and John W. Williams, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of July A. D. 1832

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Sarah Ann Trone administratrix of the goods, chattels and credits of Peter Trone deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sarah Ann Trone or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which she shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said Sarah Ann Trone do, in such case being required, render and deliver up her letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Ann Trone SEAL

Lucinda Trone SEAL

James Trone SEAL

George Weedon SEAL

John C. Weedon SEAL

John S. Trone SEAL

Austin Weedon SEAL

July 2nd 1832 (5-75)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James H. Reid and John W. Williams are held, and firmly bound, unto John Hooe Jr., Benjamin Johnson, Thomas C. Thornton and Frederick H. Muschett Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Justices or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of July A. D. 1832

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James H. Reid administrator de bonis non of the goods, chattels and credits of William E. Murphy deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James H. Reid or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, which he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Justices of the said Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively, as are entitled to the same by law; and if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the Probate thereof, and the said James H. Reid do, in such case being required, render and deliver up his letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James H. Reid SEAL

John W. Williams SEAL

August 5th 1833 (6-01)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Isaac Bridwell, Edward Horner, Lewis Bridwell, Langhorn Bridwell and Fielding Jewell are held, and firmly bound, to Jesse Ewell, John Fitzhugh, Albert Newman and Jesse E. Weems, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of August Anno Domini 1833.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Isaac Bridwell administrator with the will annexed of Isaac Bridwell, deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Isaac Bridwell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Isaac Bridwell SEAL
Edward Horner SEAL
Lewis Bridwell SEAL
Langhorn Bridwell SEAL
Fielding Jewell SEAL

November 5th 1833 (6-02)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Jesse E. Weems and Richard Foote are held, and firmly bound, to John Hooe, Lawrence G. Alexander, Thomas Nelson, and Redmon Foster, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of November Anno Domini 1833.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Jesse E. Weems administrator with the will annexed of Thos. W. Ewell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Isaac Bridwell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Jesse E. Weems SEAL
Richard Foote SEAL

February 3rd 1834 (6-03)

Know all men, by these presents, that I James Hooe am held, and firmly bound, to Redmon Foster, John Fitzhugh, Benjamin Johnson and Albert Newman, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of forty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this 3rd day of February Anno Domini 1834.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James Hooe executor of Howson Hooe Sr. deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Hooe or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Hooe SEAL

February 3rd 1834 (6-04)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Roach and Huriah Graham are held, and firmly bound, to George G. Tyler, Benjamin Johnson, Albert Newman and Jesse E. Weems Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of four hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 3rd day of February Anno Domini 1834.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Roach administrator with the will annexed of William Roach deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Isaac Bridwell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Roach SEAL

Huriah Graham SEAL

March 4th 1834 (6-05)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Nancy Murphy am held, and firmly bound, to George W. Jackson, Thomas Nelson, Redmon Foster and Robert Williams, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of four hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this 4th day of March Anno Domini 1834.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Nancy Murphy executrix of William Murphy deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Nancy Murphy or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Nancy Murphy SEAL

April 8th 1833 (6-06)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Hayward Foote, William H. Foote, Sarah S. Foote and Francis T. Chevis are held, and firmly bound, to John Hooe Jr., Jesse Ewell, Thomas S. Nelson and John W. Williams, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 8th day of April Anno Domini 1834.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Hayward Foote administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of Richard S. Foote deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Hayward Foote or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Hayward Foote SEAL

Wm. H. Foote (by John Williams his attorney in fact)SEAL

Sarah S. Foote(by John Williams her attorney in fact)SEAL

Francis T. Chevis (SEAL

May 6th 1834 (6-07)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Ann Gallagher am held, and firmly bound, to Thomas Nelson, John Fitzhugh, Benjamin Johnson and Jesse E. Weems, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of sixteen hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this 6th day of May Anno Domini 1834.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Ann Gallagher executrix of Margaret Gallagher deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Ann Gallagher or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann Gallagher SEAL

May 6th 1834 (6-08)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Ann Gallagher are held, and firmly bound, to Thomas Nelson, John Fitzhugh, Benjamin Johnson and Jesse E. Weems, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of sixteen hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of May Anno Domini 1834.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Ann Gallagher administratrix de bonis non with the will annexed of Benjamin Gallagher of Margaret Gallagher deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Ann Gallagher or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann Gallagher SEAL

Margaret S. Gallagher SEAL

Julia F. Gallagher SEAL

August 4th 1834 (6-09)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Stark, Seymour Lynn and Peyton Bridwell are held, and firmly bound, to Jesse Ewell, Lawrence G. Alexander, John W. Williams, and Jesse E. Weems, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of August Anno Domini 1834.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said William Stark administrator with the will annexed of David Jammison, deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, together with an inventory of the real estate within this Commonwealth which by the said will may be subject to his authority and which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William Stark or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Stark SEAL

Seymour Lynn SEAL

Peyton Bridwell SEAL

October 7th 1834 (6-10)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Basil Brawner, John Williams, James D. Tennille and Ann B. King are held, and firmly bound, to John Hutchison, George G. Tyler, John W. Williams and Robert Williams, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of October Anno Domini 1834.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Basil Brawner administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of John A. Stangle, deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, together with an inventory of the real estate within this Commonwealth which by the said will may be subject to his authority and which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Basil Brawner or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge and real estate him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force. (November 6th 1843 Brawner's powers revoked)

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court:

Basil Brawner SEAL

John Williams SEAL

James D. Tennille SEAL

Ann B. King SEAL

November 4th 1834 (6-11)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Gibson and Jacob Weaver are held, and firmly bound, to Thomas Nelson, Redmon Foster, George Weedon, Robert William and Allen Howison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of seven thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of November Anno Domini 1834.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Gibson executor of Catherine S. Hancock deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which by the said will may be subject to his authority and which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Gibson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Gibson SEAL
Jacob Weaver SEAL

February 2nd 1835 (6-12)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Gibson, Jacob Weaver and Alexander Berryman are held, and firmly bound, to Jesse Ewell, Redmon Foster, James B. Ewell, and Robert Williams, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of February Anno Domini 1835.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Gibson administrator with the will annexed of William Ashmore deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Gibson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John Gibson SEAL
Jacob Weaver SEAL
Alexander Berryman SEAL

February 2nd 1835 (6-13)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Sarah Maddox am held, and firmly bound, to Jesse Ewell, Redmon Foster, James B. Ewell, and Robert Williams, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this 2nd day of February Anno Domini 1835.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Sarah Maddox executrix of Noah Maddox deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sarah Maddox or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Maddox SEAL

June 1st 1835 (6-14)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Gray, Robert B. Merchant and William Cockrell are held, and firmly bound, to Michael Cleary, John Hutchison, Lawrence G. Alexander and George Weedon, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of February Anno Domini 1835.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Gray executor of Robinson Gray deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Gray or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|----------------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | John Gray (his mark) | SEAL |
| | Robert B. Merchant | SEAL |
| | William Cockrell | SEAL |

July 6th 1835 (6-15)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Nelson, John W. Williams and William W. West are held, and firmly bound, to Jesse Ewell, Benjamin Johnson, George Weedon, Jesse E. Weems, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of July Anno Domini 1835.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas Nelson administrator with the will annexed of Jesse Cornwell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Nelson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|------------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | Thomas Nelson | SEAL |
| | John W. Williams | SEAL |
| | William W. West | SEAL |

October 5th 1835 (6-16)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James D. Graham and John W. Tyler are held, and firmly bound, to John Hooe, Jesse Ewell, Redmon Foster, and James B. Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of October Anno Domini 1835.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James D. Graham administrator with the will annexed of Sally Linton deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James D. Graham or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|-----------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | James D. Graham | SEAL |
| | John W. Tyler | SEAL |

June 6th 1835 (6-17)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Daniel Ratcliffe, William F. Purcell, Rowland Florance, William J. Weldon and Thomas P. Hooe are held, and firmly bound, to Lawrence G. Alexander, James B. Ewell, John W. Williams, and Allen Howison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of June Anno Domini 1835.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Daniel Ratcliffe and William F. Purcell administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of Charles Fierer deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said Daniel Ratcliffe and William F. Purcell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for them and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of their actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge them then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force. (1839 June 4th Power of administrator revoked and annulled in court)

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|--------------------|------|
| Daniel Ratcliffe | SEAL |
| William F. Purcell | SEAL |
| Rowland Florance | SEAL |
| William J. Weldon | SEAL |

June 6th 1835 (6-18)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Mary Ann Allen and Walter King are held, and firmly bound, to John Fitzhugh, John W. Williams, George Weedon, Jesse E. Weems, and Jesse Ewell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 6th day of June Anno Domini 1836.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Mary Ann Allen administratrix with the will annexed of Levi Allen deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Mary Ann Allen or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------|------|
| Mary Ann Allen | SEAL |
| Walter King | SEAL |

June 7th 1836 (6-19)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Nathaniel Skinner, William Rose and John Hutchison are held, and firmly bound, to Thomas Nelson, Albert Newman, Allen Howison, and Samuel H. Janney, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of seven thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of June Anno Domini 1836.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Nathaniel Skinner executor of Cornelius Skinner deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits and real estate of the said deceased, together with an inventory of the real estate within this Commonwealth which by the said will may be subject to his authority and which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Nathaniel Skinner or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Nathaniel Skinner | SEAL |
| William Rose | SEAL |
| John Hutchison | SEAL |

August 1st 1836 (6-20)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Mary Cleary, William Cleary and Howison Hooe are held, and firmly bound, to Thomas Nelson, James B. Ewell, John W. Williams and Allen Howison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of August Anno Domini 1836.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Mary Cleary executrix of Michael Cleary deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Mary Cleary or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Cleary SEAL
William Cleary SEAL
Howison Hooe SEAL

October 3rd 1836 (6-21)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sarah E. Hayes, Erasmus Helm and William Helm are held, and firmly bound, to Thomas Nelson, James B. Ewell, Jesse E. Weems and Allen Howison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of October Anno Domini 1836.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Sarah E. Hayes administratrix de bonis non with the will annexed of Thomas W. Ewell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sarah E. Hayes or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah E. Hayes SEAL
William Helm SEAL
Erasmus Helm SEAL

by Wm. Helm attorney in fact.

October 3rd 1836 (6-22)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James Gibson and Jacob Weaver are held, and firmly bound, to John Hooe Jr., John W. Williams, Jesse E. Weems, and Robert Williams, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of October Anno Domini 1836.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James Gibson executor of Catherine S. Hancock deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James Gibson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James Gibson SEAL

Jacob Weaver SEAL

January 5th 1847 James M. A. Muschett gave bond and qualified as administrator de bonis non with the will annexed.

November 8th 1835 (6-23)

Know all men, by these presents, that we J. Seddon Mason, John Hore, William W. Peyton, John Williams and Thomas M. Farrow are held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, George Weedon, Allen Howison and James D. Tennille, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 8th day of November Anno Domini 1836.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Seddon Mason executor of Thomas P. Hooe together with an inventory of the real estate within this Commonwealth which by the said will may be subject to his authority which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said J. Seddon Mason or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force. (1842, August 2nd Power of attorney revoked on order of Court)

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

J. Seddon Mason SEAL
John Hore SEAL
William W. Peyton SEAL
John Williams SEAL
Thomas M. Farrow SEAL

December 5th 1836 (6-24)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James B. T. Thornton, John F. Jackson, John Williams, Thomas M. Farrow and James Purcell are held, and firmly bound, to Jesse Ewell, Lawrence G. Alexander, Robert Williams and Allen Howison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of December Anno Domini 1836.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James B. T. Thornton executor of Thomas P. Hooe deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, together with an inventory of the real estate within this commonwealth which by the said will may be subject to his authority and which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James B. T. Thornton or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James B. T. Thornton SEAL
John F. Jackson SEAL
John Williams SEAL
Thomas Farrow SEAL
James Purcell SEAL

February 2nd 1835 (6-25)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James W. Scott and James H. Reid are held, and firmly bound, to Jesse Ewell, Lawrence G. Alexander, Robert Williams and Addison Howison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of December Anno Domini 1836.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James W. Scott executor of William S. Scott deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James W. Scott or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James W. Scott SEAL
James H. Reid SEAL

January 2nd 1837 (6-26)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Ann E. Murray, George W. Clifford and James B. Hayes are held, and firmly bound, to Jesse Ewell, James B. T. Thornton, Robert Williams and James D. Tennille, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of January Anno Domini 1837.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Ann E. Murray administratrix with the will annexed of James Murray deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Ann E. Murray or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Ann E. Murray SEAL
George W. Clifford SEAL
James B. Hayes SEAL

February 2nd 1837 (6-27)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Mary B. Cannon am held, and firmly bound, to Jesse Ewell, James B. T. Thornton, Robert Williams and James D. Tennille, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this 2nd day of January Anno Domini 1837.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Mary B. Cannon executor of Nathaniel R. Cannon deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Mary B. Cannon or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary B. Cannon SEAL

March 6th 1837 (6-128)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sarah Kincheloe and James B. T. Thornton are held, and firmly bound, to John Hooe, George G. Tyler, Samuel H. Janney and James D. Tennille, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of three thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of March Anno Domini 1837.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Sarah Kincheloe executrix of Caroline Kincheloe deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sarah Kincheloe or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Kincheloe SEAL
James B. T. Thornton SEAL

March 7th 1837 (6-29)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Bertrand Trenis, Francis E. Hayes, Sarah E. Hayes and Bertrand E. Hayes are held, and firmly bound, to Thomas Nelson, Allen Howison, Samuel H. Janney, Addison H. Sanders, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of March Anno Domini 1837.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Bertrand E. Trenis administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of Sarah Ewell deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Bertrand E. Trennis or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Bertrand Trenis | SEAL |
| Francis E. Hayes | SEAL |
| Sarah E. Hayes | SEAL |
| Bertrand E. Hayes | SEAL |

June 5th 1837 (6-30)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James W. Ransdell and Charles Hunton are held, and firmly bound, to Thomas Nelson, James B. Ewell, Albert Newman and Samuel H. Janney, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of nine thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 5th day of June Anno Domini 1837.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said James W. Ransdell executor of Jonathan Reeve deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James W. Ransdell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| James W. Ransdell | SEAL |
| Charles Hunton | SEAL |

August 7th 1837 (6-31)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Foster, William H. Gaines, James W. Foster and Redmon Foster are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Jesse Ewell, James B. Ewell, and Allen Howison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of ten thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of August Anno Domini 1837.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas Foster executor of Elizabeth Foster deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, together with an inventory of the real estate within this Commonwealth which by the said will may be subject to his authority and which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Foster or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge and real estate then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-------------------|------|
| Thomas Foster | SEAL |
| William H. Gaines | SEAL |

Robert Alexander SEAL
John Alexander SEAL

June 4th 1838 (6-35)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Cyrus C. Marsteller and Richard H. Marsteller are held, and firmly bound, to John Hutchison, Benjamin Johnson, Allen Howison, Addison H. Sanders, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand four hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 4th day of June Anno Domini 1838.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Cyrus C. Marsteller administrator with the will annexed of Charity S. Ware deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Cyrus C. Marsteller or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Cyrus C. Marsteller SEAL
Richard H. Marsteller SEAL

July 2nd 1838 (6-36)

Know all men, by these presents, that I George G. Tyler am held, and firmly bound, to Jesse Ewell, Thomas Nelson, James B. Ewell and James D. Tennille, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this Second day of July Anno Domini 1838.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said George G. Tyler executor of Sarah Tyler deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said George G. Tyler or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George G. Tyler SEAL

September 3rd 1838 (6-37)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Nelson H. Hawley and John Heath are held, and firmly bound, to Charles Ming, Albert Newman, Jesse E. Weems and William S. Colquhoun, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of September Anno Domini 1838.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Nelson H. Hawley administrator with the will annexed of Sarah M. Hawley deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Nelson H. Hawley or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Nelson H. Hawley SEAL
John Heath SEAL

January 7th 1839 (6-38)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Thomas Alexander, Howson Hooe and Lawrence G. Alexander are held, and firmly bound, to John Hutchison, James B. Ewell, Allen Howison and James W. F. Macrae, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of four thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of January Anno Domini 1839.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Thomas Alexander administrator with the will annexed of Philip Alexander deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Thomas Alexander or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|-----------------------|------|
| Thomas Alexander | SEAL |
| Howson Hooe | SEAL |
| Lawrence G. Alexander | SEAL |

March 5th 1839 (6-39)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Gibson, Howson Hooe, and James B. T. Thornton are held, and firmly bound, to John Hutchison, Thomas Nelson, Robert Williams, and Richard W. Wheat, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of March Anno Domini 1839.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said John Gibson administrator with the will annexed of James Hooe deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Gibson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

| | |
|----------------------|------|
| John Gibson | SEAL |
| Howson Hooe | SEAL |
| James B. T. Thornton | SEAL |

August 5th 1839 (6-40)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Mary B. Green, Charles Hunton and Michael House are held, and firmly bound, to Jesse Ewell, Redmon Foster, George G. Tyler and Jesse E. Weems, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of six hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of August Anno Domini 1839.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Mary B. Green administratrix with the will annexed of Jesse Green deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Mary B. Green or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary B. Green SEAL
Charles Hunton SEAL
Michael House SEAL

September 2nd (6-41)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Robert A. Calvert, Benjamin Cooper, Alexander Howison and Charles G. Howison are held, and firmly bound, to John Hooe Jr., George Weedon, Allen Howison, and James D. Tennille, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of September Anno Domini 1839.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Robert A. Calvert and Benjamin Cooper executors of Sarah C. Calvert deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said Robert A. Calvert and Benjamin Cooper or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for them and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert A. Calvert SEAL
Benjamin Cooper SEAL
Alexander Howison SEAL
Charles G. Howison SEAL

March 2nd 1840 (6-42)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Richard McCuen, William McCuin and Walter McCuin are held, and firmly bound, to James D. Tennille, Benoni E. Harrison, Samuel H. Janney and William F. Purcell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of March Anno Domini 1840.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Richard McCuin administrator with the will annexed of Patrick McCuin deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Richard McCuin or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Richard McCuin SEAL
William McCuin SEAL
Walter McCuin SEAL

June 1st 1840 (6-43)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Hendly Groves, John King, and Henry Windsor are held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, Benoni E. Harrison, Albert Newman and William Cockrell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of June Anno Domini 1840.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Hendly Groves administrator with the will annexed of Sarah Willet deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Hendly Groves or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William ,at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Hendley Groves SEAL

John King SEAL
Henry Windsor SEAL

July 6th 1840 (6-44)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William H. Dogan and James D. Tennille are held, and firmly bound, to George G. Tyler, Jesse E. Weems, John C. Weedon and William F. Purcell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of July Anno Domini 1840.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said William H. Dogan executor of George Tennille deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William H. Dogan or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William H. Dogan SEAL
James D. Tennille SEAL

August 4th 1840 (6-45)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Samuel H. Janney, Joseph Janney Jr. and Addison H. Sanders are held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, Robert Williams, Basil Brawner, and William F. Purcell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand two hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of August Anno Domini 1840.

The condition of the above obligation is, That if the said Samuel H. Janney executor of John Shaw deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, together with an inventory of the real estate within this Commonwealth which by the said will may be subject to his authority and which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Samuel H. Janney or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Samuel H. Janney SEAL
Joseph Janney Jr. SEAL
Addison H. Sanders SEAL

July 5th 1841 (6-46)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Rose, Robert T. Rose and John Ish are held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, Jesse Ewell, James B. T. Thornton, and James D. Tennille, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of eight thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of July Anno Domini 1841.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said William Rose executor of the last will and testament of William Rose Sen. deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William Rose or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William Rose SEAL
Robert T. Rose SEAL
John Ish SEAL

August 2nd 1841 (6-47)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Alexander C. Bullitt and Hendly Groves are held, and firmly bound, to Jesse Ewell, Benjamin Johnson, Benoni E. Harrison, and William Cockrell Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of August Anno Domini 1841.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Alexander C. Bullitt administrator with the will annexed of Thomas J. Bullitt deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Alexander C. Bullitt or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Alexander C. Bullitt SEAL
Hendly Groves SEAL

October 4th 1841 (6-48)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Charles G. Howison am held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, George Weedon, John C. Weedon, James W. F. Macrae, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this fourth day of October Anno Domini 1841.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Charles G. Howison executor of the last will and testament of Stafford Matthews deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, together with an inventory of the real estate within this Commonwealth which by the said will may be subject to his authority and which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Charles G. Howison or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Charles G. Howison SEAL

October 4th 1841 (6-49)

Know all men, by these presents, that I George A. Smith am held, and firmly bound, to Thomas Nelson, James D. Tennille, John C. Weedon and Zebulon A. Kankey, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of fifty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this sixth day of December Anno Domini 1841.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said George A. Smith administrator de bonis non with the will of George Smith deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, together with an inventory of the real estate within this Commonwealth which by the said will may be subject to his authority and which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said George A. Smith or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George A. Smith SEAL

March 7th 1842 (6-50)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Nathaniel S. Oden and Peyton Norvill are held, and firmly bound, to Allen Howison, Addison H. Sanders, Charles G. Howison, and Benoni E. Harrison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of four hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this seventh day of March Anno Domini 1842.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Nathaniel S. Oden administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of Sarah M. Hawley deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Nathaniel S. Oden or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Nathaniel S. Oden
Peyton Norvill

SEAL
SEAL

June 7th 1842 (6-51)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Seymour Lynn, James Arnold and James B. T. Thornton are held, and firmly bound, to Allen Howison, James D. Tennille, Benoni E. Harrison and Basil Brawner, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of June Anno Domini 1842.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Seymour Lynn administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of John Smith deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Seymour Lynn or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Seymour Lynn
James Arnold
Jas. B. T. Thornton

SEAL
SEAL
SEAL

June 7th 1842 (6-52)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James French, William T. French, Stephen French Jr. and Redmon Foster are held, and firmly bound, to Allen Howison, James D. Tennille, Benoni E. Harrison and Basil Brawner, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of forty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of June Anno Domini 1842.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said James French executor of Stephen French deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Stephen French or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James French

SEAL

William T. French SEAL
Stephen French Jr. SEAL
Redmon Foster SEAL

September 5th 1842 (6-53)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Albert Newman, Christopher C. Cushing and Charles Hunton are held, and firmly bound, to James D. Tennille, Zebulon A. Kankey, Benoni E. Harrison and Basil Brawner, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of September Anno Domini 1842.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Albert Newman administrator with the will annexed of Elizabeth Beach deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Albert Newman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Albert Newman SEAL
Christopher C. Cushing SEAL
Charles Hunton SEAL

June 7th 1842 (6-54)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Orra M. Henderson, James McIlhane and Robert Henderson are held, and firmly bound, to Redmon Foster, Benjamin Johnson, John C. Weedon and Seymour Lynn, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of June Anno Domini 1842.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Orra M. Henderson administratrix de bonis non with the will annexed of Alexander Henderson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Orra M. Henderson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Orra M. Henderson SEAL
James McIlhane SEAL
Robert Henderson SEAL

November 7th 1842 (6-55)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Alfred Ball, Benjamin T. Chinn and Edward L. Carter are held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, Benjamin Johnson, James D. Tennille and , Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of November Anno Domini 1842.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Seymour Lynn administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of John Smith deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Seymour Lynn or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Seymour Lynn SEAL
James Arnold SEAL

November 7th 1842 (6-56)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William J. Weir and Joseph Palmer are held, and firmly bound, to John Fox, Albert Newman, George G. Tyler and James D. Tennille, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of sixty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of November Anno Domini 1844.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said William J. Weir and Joseph Palmer executors of Robert Weir deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said William J. Weir and Joseph Palmer or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for them and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of their actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge them then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William J. Weir SEAL
Joseph Palmer SEAL

November 7th 1843 (6-57)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Beverly Hutchison, Nathaniel S. Oden, Thomas Latham and Gustavus A. Hutchison are held, and firmly bound, to Thomas Nelson, George Weedon, Robert Williams, Zebulon A. Kankey and William Cockrell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of sixteen thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of March Anno Domini 1843.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Beverly Hutchison executor of the last will and testament of John Hutchison deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, together with an inventory of the real estate within this Commonwealth which by the said will may be subject to his authority and which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Beverly Hutchison or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Beverly Hutchison SEAL
Nathaniel S. Oden SEAL
Thomas Latham SEAL
Gustavus A. Hutchison SEAL

March 6th 1843 (6-58)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Mary Conner am held, and firmly bound, to Jesse Ewell, James D. Tennille, Benoni E. Harrison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of seven hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this sixth day of March Anno Domini 1843.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Mary Conner executrix of the last will and testament of Douglas Conner deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, together with an inventory of the real estate within this Commonwealth which by the said will may be subject to his authority and which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Mary Conner or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Mary Conner SEAL

May 1st 1843 (6-59)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Joseph Janney and John H. Janney are held, and firmly bound, to John Fitzhugh, Robert Williams, James D. Tennille and Benoni E. Harrison, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of May Anno Domini 1843.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Joseph Janney executor of Philip Deakins deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said Joseph Janney or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for them and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of their actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge them then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court
Joseph Janney SEAL
John H. Janney SEAL
(John H. Janney by Jno Williams his attorney in fact)

June 6th 1843 (6-60)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Allen Howison, John Williams and Redmon Foster are held, and firmly bound, to James D. Tennille, Richard W. Wheat, Benoni E. Harrison, Basil Brawner and William Cockrell, Gentlemen Justices of the County Court of Prince William now sitting, in the sum of five thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of June Anno Domini 1843.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Allen Howison executor of the last will and testament of Elizabeth Dogan deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said Allen Howison or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for them and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of their actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge them then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court
Allen Howison SEAL
John Williams SEAL
Redmon Foster SEAL

July 3rd 1843 (6-61)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Francis Hanna, Hugh C. Davis and Pembroke Reid are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of one thousand five hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to the said Justices, or their successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of July Anno Domini 1843.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Francis Hanna administrator with the will annexed of Hugh Davis deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, together with an inventory of the real estate within this Commonwealth which by the said will may be subject to his authority and which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said Francis Hanna administrator with the will annexed of Hugh Davis deceased or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for them and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of their actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge them then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court
Francis Hanna SEAL

Hugh C. Davis SEAL
Penbroke Reid (his mark) SEAL

August 7th 1843 (6-62)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Robert G. Maddox, John H. Maddox and Thomas S. Maddox are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of four thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of August Anno Domini 1843.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Robert G. Maddox with the will annexed of Addison Maddox deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Robert G. Maddox or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Robert G. Maddox SEAL
John H. Maddox SEAL
Thomas S. Maddox SEAL

December 4th 1843 (6-63)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Sarah Copin and Seymour Lynn are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of three hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this fourth day of December Anno Domini 1843.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Sarah Copin executrix of the last will and testament of George Copin deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sarah Copin or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Sarah Copin SEAL
Seymour Lynn SEAL

April 1st 1844 (6-64)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Richard Atkinson, John C. Weaver, Zebulon A. Kankey, Joseph Palmer, William C. Merchant and George Weedon are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of eight thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of April Anno Domini 1844.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Richard Atkinson executor of George Atkinson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Richard Atkinson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Richard Atkinson SEAL
John C. Weaver SEAL

| | |
|---------------------|------|
| Zebulon A. Kankey | SEAL |
| Joseph Palmer | SEAL |
| William C. Merchant | SEAL |
| George Weedon | SEAL |

April 1st 1844 (6-65)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Seymour Lynn and George Weedon are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of three thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of May Anno Domini 1844.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Seymour Lynn executor of Sarah Maddox deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Seymour Lynn or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|---------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | Seymour Lynn | SEAL |
| | George Weedon | SEAL |

May 6th 1844 (6-66)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Benjamin Cooper am held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of three hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this sixth day of May Anno Domini 1844.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Benjamin Cooper executor of Basil King deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Benjamin Cooper or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|-----------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | Benjamin Cooper | SEAL |
|---|-----------------|------|

September 2nd 1844 (6-67)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William W. Davis, Seymour Lynn, Samuel Tansill, Thomas M. Farrow, John W. Davis and Robert A. Calvert are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of April Anno Domini 1844.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said William W. Davis executor of Thomas Davis deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said William W. Davis or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

| | | |
|---|------------------|------|
| Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court | William W. Davis | SEAL |
| | Seymour Lynn | SEAL |
| | Samuel Tansill | SEAL |
| | Thomas M. Farrow | SEAL |

John W. Davis SEAL
Robert A. Calvert SEAL

April 1st 1844 (6-68)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Sophia Davis am held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of three thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this third day of March Anno Domini 1845.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Sophia Davis executrix of Hugh W. Davis deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Sophia Davis or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court Sophia Davis SEAL

March 3rd 1845 (6-69)

Know all men, by these presents, that I John B. Cannon am held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of seven thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this third day of March Anno Domini 1845.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John B. Cannon executor of Elizabeth F. Cannon deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John B. Cannon or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court
John B. Cannon SEAL

May 5th 1845 (6-70)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James William Norman and Seymour Lynn are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of two hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of May Anno Domini 1845.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said James William Norman executor of John S. Norman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James William Norman or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court
James Wm. Norman SEAL
Seymour Lynn SEAL

April 1st 1844 (6-71)

Know all men, by these presents, that we James W. Washington and Temple M. Washington are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of four thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this second day of June Anno Domini 1845.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said James W. Washington administrator with the will annexed of Euphan Brent deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James W. Washington or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James W. Washington SEAL
Temple M. Washington SEAL

July 7th 1845 (6-72)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Beverly Powell and Edmund O. Powell are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of two hundred fifty dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of July Anno Domini 1845.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Beverly Powell executor of Ann S. Gill deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Beverly Powell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Beverly Powell SEAL
Edmund O. Powell SEAL

July 7th 1845 (6-73)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Gustavus A. Hutchison and Francis Knapp are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of four thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of July Anno Domini 1845.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Gustavus A. Hutchison executor of Ludwell H. Hutchison deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Gustavus A. Hutchison or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Gustavus A. Hutchison SEAL
Ludwell H. Hutchison SEAL

August 5th 1845 (6-74)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John Sowden and Thomas T. Cannon are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of two hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of August Anno Domini 1845.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John Sowden administrator with the will annexed of Daniel Carr deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John Sowden or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

William H. Dogan SEAL
John D. Dogan SEAL

April 6th 1846 (6-78)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Edmund O. Powell and William H. Moore are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of two thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this sixth day of April Anno Domini 1846.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Edmund O. Powell administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of Ann S. Gill deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Edmund O. Powell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Edmund O. Powell SEAL
William H. Moore SEAL

September 7th 1846 (6-79)

Know all men, by these presents, that we George H. Cockrell and William Stonnell are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this seventh day of September Anno Domini 1846.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said George H. Cockrell administrator with the will annexed of Sarah Foote deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said George H. Cockrell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George H. Cockrell SEAL
William Stonnell SEAL

November 3rd 1846 (6-80)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Frances B. Gibson am held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of fifty thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this third day of November Anno Domini 1846.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Frances B. Gibson executrix of John Gibson deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, together with an inventory of the real estate within this commonwealth which by the said will may be subject to her authority and which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Frances B. Gibson or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Frances B. Gibson

SEAL

January 4th 1847 (6-81)

Know all men, by these presents, that I Martha L. French am held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of six thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this fourth day of January Anno Domini 1847.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Martha L. French executrix of Susan A. French deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, together with an inventory of the real estate within this commonwealth which by the said will may be subject to her authority and which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of her the said Martha L. French or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for her and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as she shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of her actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge her then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Martha L. French SEAL

January 5th 1847 (6-82)

Know all men, by these presents, that I James M. A. Muschett am held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of five hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia I bind myself and my heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal, and dated this fifth day of January Anno Domini 1847.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said James M. A. Muschett administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of Catherine S. Hancock deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, together with an inventory of the real estate within this commonwealth which by the said will may be subject to his authority and which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said James M. A. Muschett or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

James M. A. Muschett SEAL

February 1st 1847 (6-83)

Know all men, by these presents, that we William Horner, James Horner and Elizabeth Horner are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of two hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of February Anno Domini 1847.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said William Horner and James Horner administrators with the will annexed of Edward Horner deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of them the said George H. Cockrell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for them and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as they shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of their actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge them then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George H. Cockrell SEAL
William Stonnell SEAL

March 1st 1847 (6-84)

Know all men, by these presents, that we George F. Carney, Seymour Lynn, Henry Moore and Benson Lynn are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of eight thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of March Anno Domini 1847.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said George F. Carney executor of George Carney deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said George F. Carney or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

George F. Carney SEAL
Seymour Lynn SEAL
Henry Moore SEAL
Benson Lynn SEAL

March 1st 1847 (6-85)

Know all men, by these presents, that we Roy L. Davis, Lawrence Cole and Seymour Lynn are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this first day of March Anno Domini 1847.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said Roy L. Davis administrator with the will annexed of Jesse Davis deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said Roy L. Davis or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

Roy D. Davis SEAL
Lawrence Cole SEAL
Seymour Lynn SEAL

April 5th 1847 (6-86)

Know all men, by these presents, that we John W. Lipscomb, Thomas K. Davis and Philip D. Lipscomb are held, and firmly bound to The Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment whereof, well and truly to be made to The Commonwealth of Virginia we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of April Anno Domini 1847.

The condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John W. Lipscomb administrator with the will annexed of John Thurman deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession, or knowledge of him the said John W. Lipscomb or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same so made do exhibit into the County Court of Prince William, at such time as he shall be thereunto required by the said Court and the same goods, chattels and credits, and real estate do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings, which thereunto required by the said Court, and further do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said will, as far as the said goods, chattels, and credits, and real estate will extend, according to the value thereof, and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force.

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of the Court

John W. Lipscomb SEAL
Thomas K. Davis SEAL
Philip D. Lipscomb SEAL

To the worshipful Court of Prince William County Mr. Sanford Thurman the executor appointed by the late John Thurman deceased, having refused to act, the undersigned representatives of the said John Thurman's request that administration with the will annexed, the administration of said estate given under our hand and seal this 20 day of March 1847.

Silas ____
Wm. Mankin

Abell, James 128,129
 Accotick Run 2
 Acres, James 251
 Adams, Charles 197,198,199
 Adams, Richard 104,105,106
 Adams, Sarah 106
 Adams, Valentine P. 326
 Addison, William 17
 ahDoggarty, Jarvis 53
 Aitken, John 155
 Aitken, Thomas 155
 Albin, Thomas 15
 Alexander, Gerrard 51,52,230,234,243,247,248,254,255,281,291,295,296
 Alexander, Gerard Jr. 291
 Alexander, Hector 297
 Alexander, Jane 308,324
 Alexander, John 265,362
 Alexander, Lawrence G. 264,266,276,301,302,306,307,310,314,315,319,326,330,349,352,356,357,359,364
 Alexander, Penelope B. 255
 Alexander, Philip 237,248,254,255,266,269,270,271,281,283,286,288,289,290,291,293,294,295,296,364
 Alexander, Richard B. 291
 Alexander, Robert 265,273,297,298,345,362
 Alexander, Sidney 308
 Alexander, Thomas 133,364
 Alexander, William 129,131,132,136,138,139,140,141,142,143,144,145,146,147,195,202,203,204,205,206,207,208,214,215,223,224,228,229,265,297,298
 Alexander, William C/E.273,326
 Allen, George 19
 Allen, Jane 19
 Allen, Levi 357
 Allen, Mary Ann 357
 Allen, Zachariah 340,341
 Ambrose, John 61
 Anderson, Elizabeth 86
 Anderson, James 163
 Anderson, Margaret 29
 Anderson, Richard 29
 Anderson, Thomas 240
 Anderson, William 240
 Annis, Richard 321
 Archer, John 289
 Arnold, James 368,370
 Arnold, Moses 250
 Arrington, Peggy 193
 Arrington, Richard
 Arrington, Thomas 17,28,45,186,193
 Arrington, Thomas T. 240
 Ash, George 200,201
 Ashby, Thomas 9
 Ashford, Ann 10
 Ashford, John 8,9,10,12,13
 Ashford, Michael 8,12
 Ashmore, Betty 199
 Ashmore, John 24
 Ashmore, Mary 24
 Ashmore, William 72,77,78
 Askins, William 120,136,137,140,141
 Atkinson, Richard 372,373
 Atwell, Thomas 95,135,156,157,178
 Awbrey, Francis 1,7,8,15,16,30,31,49,50
 Awbrey, John 49,50
 Awbrey, Richard 49,50
 Awbrey, Thomas 49,50
 Bailey, Carr 315,318
 Bailey, Elizabeth 64
 Bailey, Martha C. 317,318
 Baker, Charles 37
 Baker, James 11
 Baker, William 16
 Barker, Leonard 5,610,18,21
 Ball, Alfred 369
 Ball, Edward 51
 Ball, John 68,73
 Ball, Sarah 51
 Ballenger, William 128
 Ballinger, Alex 92
 Barker, John 93
 Barker, Joseph 229
 Barker, Leonard 42
 Barnes, Richard H. 261,262,345
 Barnes, William 246,250,253,254,256,260,261,280,282,283,292,295,296,298,346
 Barnett, Daniel 138,139,204,205
 Barnett, Rowzee 240
 Barr, Judith 188
 Barr, Rebecc 132
 Barr, William 97,98,114,115,132,187,188
 Barron, Eleanor 329
 Barron, Hendley 294
 Barron, Henry A. 259,294,306,308,317,318,327,328,337
 Barron, Jesse 330
 Barron, John 269,310,329,330
 Barron, William H. 327
 Barry, Edward 2,5,23,39,47
 Barton, Anne 34,35
 Barton, Valentine 8,10,21,35
 Battaley, M. 1,4
 Battaley, Moses/Moseby 19
 Batton, Catherine 66,67
 Batton, Harmon 66,67
 Baxter, Elizabeth 3
 Baxter, James 4,11,13,17,21
 Baxter, John 46,47,55
 Baxter, Thomas 3
 Baxter, William 15,17
 Baylis, Jane 187
 Baylis, John 74,75,77,80,81,84,85,86,87,88,89,90,91,93,94,96,97,98,99,100,101,102,103,105,106,108,163,164,169,170,173,174,178,179,182,183,184,185,186,187
 Baylis, William 163,164,185
 Baylor, Jane A. 276
 Beach, Charles 260,261
 Beach, Thomas 47
 Bean, William 8
 Beck, John 3
 Belfare, James 79
 Belfare, Sarah 79
 Bell, Alexander 97
 Bell, John 66,73,163,166,173,175,176,177,178,180
 Bell, Martha 278
 Bell, Rebecca 297
 Bell, William 297
 Belt, William 311
 Bennett, Mason 52,53,111,112,175
 Bennett, William 180,181,190,191,193
 Bennot, William 20,21
 Berkeley, Lewis 278
 Berry, Henry 57
 Berryman, Alexander 362
 Berryman, Elizabeth G. 362
 Berryman, Thomas N. 362
 Berryman, Thomas N. Jr. 362
 Beveridge, John L. 337
 Beveridge, Samuel R. 337
 Beveridge, Thomas 337
 Beveridge, William R. 337
 Bigbie, Archibald 178

Bigbie, Catherine 150
 Bigbie, George 150
 Bigby, George 108,178,192
 Bigley, George 116
 Billing, Jasper 52
 Billings, Jasper 57,58
 Bird, Thomas 158,200,201
 Bird, William 100,101,158
 Bishop, Joshua 326
 Blackburn, Richard 2,3,4,11,
 28,43,52,59,62,63,64,66,67,
 68,69,70,73,162,163,164,170
 Blackburn, Thomas 110,114,
 116,117,119,120,122,123,124
 132,135,136,141,152,187,188
 189,198,199,200,205,218
 Blackwell, David 303
 Blackwell, Joseph 54,57,59,
 60,64,83,174
 Blackwell, William 49,54,62,
 63,65,77,78,79,80,167,168
 Bland, Benjamin 167,181,
 182
 Bland, David 228
 Bland, James 167
 Bland, John 105,106,181,
 331,349,350
 Bland, Mary 167
 Bland, Patience 181,182
 Bland, Thomas 86,91,104,
 202,211
 Bland, William 40
 Blansett, Catherine 146,147
 Blansett, John 146
 Blansett, Joseph 142
 Blansett, Rhoda 146,147
 Blansett, Rhodam 140
 Blockley, Nancy 306
 Boatman, Henry 165,166
 Boggess, Robert 46
 Boggess, Thomas 162
 Bolling, William 17,18
 Bosman, Thomas 6,7
 Boswell, George 233,236,270
 Boswell, William 236
 Bothun, David 38
 Bothune, Margaret 47
 Bott, Joshua 207
 Botts, Aaron 217
 Botts, Joseph 217
 Botts, Joshua 217
 Botts, Samuel 247,339
 Boughton, Edward 20
 Bourne, John 3
 Bowen, William 318
 Bower, John 244
 Bowie, John 19,20,21,23,24,
 25,26,27,28,29,30,31,32,33,
 34,35,36,37,38,39,40,41,42,
 43,44,45,46,47,48,49,50,51,
 52,53,54,55,56,57,58,59,60,
 61,62,63,64,65
 Bowman, Joseph 108,111
 Boyle, David 233,237,281,
 350
 Boyle, Jane 237
 Boyle, John 78
 Boyle, Thomas M. 350
 Brabin, Elizabeth 20
 Bradford, Daniel 197
 Bradford, John 62
 Brasfield, George 284,305
 Brasfield, Thomas 262,305
 Brawner, Basil 285,286,309,
 354,366,268,369,371
 Brawner, Francis G. 292
 Brawner, J. 273
 Brawner, John 285
 Brawner, William 241,254,
 255,256,275,285,286,288,304
 305,309
 Brent Town 5
 Brent, Daniel C. 159
 Brent, Euphan 375
 Brent, George 346
 Brent, Hannah 346
 Brent, Hugh 131,192,193,195
 201,202,210
 Brent, Robert 113,188
 Brent, William 129,130,146,
 147,148,187,208,209,211,214
 Brett, George 58,69,76,77,78
 166,167,169,170,179,181,344
 Brett, John 1,58,115,116,150
 181,204,207,217
 Brett, Nancy 344
 Brett, Richard Jr. 344
 Brett, Richard Sr. 344
 Brett, Richard A. 278
 Brewer, Henry 253
 Brewer, John V. 253
 Brewer, Nancy 301,302
 Brewer, Sarah 137,138
 Brewer, Thomas 138
 Brewster, William 29,30
 Bridges, Benjamin 73,74,160
 161
 Bridges, James 177,178,182
 184,190,194
 Bridges, John 194
 Bridges, William 61,73
 Bridwell, Isaac 260,352
 Bridwell, Langhorn 352
 Bridwell, Lewis 352
 Bridwell, Peyton 354
 Brisco, Thomas 282,287,288
 341
 Bristow, Benjamin 183,184
 Brocas, Jane 133
 Brocas, Thomas 133
 Brochenbrough, Wm. 1
 Broddwater, Charles 33
 Broddwater, Elizabeth 33
 Bronaugh, Frances G. 292
 Bronaugh, Jeremiah 6,7,25
 Bronaugh, John 241,242,244
 245,281,283,287
 Bronaugh, William 251
 Brooke, Edmund 237,238,
 243,247,249,260,262,266,284
 286,287,288,289,290,291,297
 300,301,302,303,304
 Brooke, Mathew W. 283
 Brooks, Henry 251
 Brooks, William 251
 Brooshaw, William 16
 Brown, Alexander 146,208,
 209,212,226,229
 Brown, George 64,66
 Brown, George N. 210
 Brown, John 15,32,64,266,
 267,304,332
 Brown, Robert 213,221,227,
 230,256
 Brown, Thomas 256
 Brown, William 64,158,200
 219,229
 Brundidge, Jane 241
 Brundidge, Mary 230
 Brundidge, Timothy 237,296
 Brundidge, William 296,295
 Bryant, John 128
 Buchanan, Elizabeth 28
 Buchanan, Joseph 28
 Buckley, Catherine 253,254
 Buckley, Joshua 253
 Buckley, K. 253
 Buckley, Kitty C. 253
 Buckley, William 254
 Buckner, Aris 305,320
 Buckner, Thomas 305
 Buckner, Thomas H. 305
 Bullet/Bullett/Bullitt
 Bullitt, Alexander C. 367
 Bullitt, Benjamin 31,53,56,57
 171

Bullitt, Cuthbert 113,118,119
 135,141,155,171,189,193,197
 215,221,222,226,227
 Bullitt, Thomas 171
 Bullitt, Thomas J. 367
 Bullock, Sarah 49,60
 Bullock, Thomas 37,42,60
 Bumry, Francis D. 336
 Burgess, Francis 83,84
 Burk, John 32,33
 Burn, James 92
 Burroughs, John 229
 Burroughs, Mary 161,229,
 230
 Burroughs, John 161
 Bussey, Henry 269,270
 Butler, William 55,63
 Byrn, Charles 113
 Byrn, George 19,20,64
 Byrn, James 153
 Byrn, Lydia 200
 Byrn, Samuel 112,113,209
 Caborn, Robert 20
 Calk, Jane 207
 Calk, William 207
 Callin, James 149
 Callin, John 149
 Calvert, Elizabeth 280
 Calvert, Ester 198
 Calvert, Francis 200
 Calvert, George 133,168,169
 179,181,186,190,198,200
 Calvert, George Jr. 70,74,98,
 121,180,186
 Calvert, Humphrey 128,129,
 260
 Calvert, Jacob 180,181
 Calvert, John 133,137,138,
 164,228
 Calvert, Obediah 198
 Calvert, Reuben 148,233,288
 Calvert, Reuben Jr. 341
 Calvert, Robert A. 365,374
 Calvert, Sarah 148,164,200
 Calvert, Sarah C. 365
 Calvert, Thomas 164,260
 Calvert, William 133
 Campbell, Alexander 139,
 140
 Campbell, Colin 230,231,341
 Campbell, James 235
 Campbell, John 155
 Campbell, Martha 230
 Camper, John 66,67
 Cawood, Samuel 234
 Cannady, John 48
 Cannon, Barnaby 262,265,
 268,306,307,310,312,327,329
 331,333
 Cannon, Elizabeth F. 374
 Cannon, John 224,229
 Cannon, John B. 374
 Cannon, Luke 57
 Cannon, Luke Jr. 333
 Cannon, Mary 207
 Cannon, Mary B. 360
 Cannon, Nathaniel R. 360
 Cannon, Penelope 376
 Cannon, Thomas T. 375,376
 Cantaberry, John 63
 Canterbury, John 40
 Carberry, James 132,201
 Carney, Benjamin 263,264
 Carney, Jane 263,264
 Carney, John 263,264
 Carney, Penelope 263,264
 Carney, William 263,264
 Carpenter 2,6
 Carpenter, Benjamin 209
 Carpenter, Sarah 209
 Carr, Daniel 60,375
 Carr, John 24,40,78
 Carr, Larkin 279
 Carr, William 78,81,95,104,
 105,106,107,109,110,111,112
 113,115,117,118,123,124,126
 128,129,130,133,134,135,136
 143,144,145,146,147,148,155
 158,167,172,176,181,187,188
 189,192,193,196,198,199,200
 201,207,208,209,210,219,221
 222,223,224,225,226,227,229
 294,314,321
 Carrico, Barton 326
 Carrico, Charlotte 326
 Carter, Addison B. 272,349
 Carter, Catherine 237
 Carter, Charles S. 267,268,
 276,277,292,293,295,304,305
 307,310,317,321,322,328,329
 330,333,340,342
 Carter, David 226
 Carter, Edward E. 289,290
 Carter, Edward L. 369
 Carter, Elizabeth 295
 Carter, Giles 196
 Carter, James 242
 Carter, James P. 343,344
 Carter, Job 6
 Carter, John 242,243,281
 Carter, Judith 249
 Carter, Landon Jr. 243,290, 291,335,336,337,349
 Carter, Richard 272
 Carter, Richard H. 299
 Carter, Samuel 226,242
 Carter, Sophia 321
 Carter, Thomas 117
 Carter, William 205,226
 Carter, William F. 337
 Cassady, Thomas 146
 Caster, Isabella 115
 Carter, Landon 272,299
 Carter, Susannah 196
 Caster, Sarah 115
 Castry, Edward 91
 Castry, Sarah 91
 Chambers, Daniel 4,58
 Chambling, Byron Jr. 70
 Champ, John 22
 Champ, William 27
 Champlin, Aron 68
 Champlin, William 68
 Chapman, Carr 236
 Chapman, Charles A. 315
 Chapman, Frederick A. 291
 Chapman, George 315
 Chapman, Pearson 315
 Chapman, Sidney F. 291
 Chapman, Susannah P. 315
 Chapman, Thomas 26,131,
 135,143,144,199,200,217,226
 233,234,235,237,238,239,240
 241,248,282,284,285,286,287
 288,289
 Chapman, William R. 238,
 239,246,250,256,257,260,264
 265,272,275,282,286,291,298
 300,301
 Champney, William 38
 Charles Co. Md. 4
 Cheshire, John 154,216,226
 Cheshire, Litha 216
 Chevis, Francis T. 353
 Chick, Charles 326
 Chilton, John 3,59
 Chinn, Benjamin T. 369
 Chinn, Charles 79
 Churchill, Henry 79
 Churchill, John 74,75,167
 Clarke, Addison H. 293,301
 Clarke, John Scott 221
 Clark, Susannah 22
 Cleary, Mary 358
 Cleary, Michael 239,243,244
 245,246,247,248,249,250,252
 259,261,264,265,274,275,276

277,278,313,314,317,319,321
 322,325,328,333,334,340,341
 343,344,346,347,348,350,356
 358
 Cleary, Richard 305
 Cleary, William 305
 Cleveland, Eli 110,211
 Cleveland, Johnson 279
 Clifford, George W. 360
 Clifton, William 45
 Clinkseales, John 325
 Clinkseales, Samuel 325
 Cloninger, Valentine 122,123
 Clowe, Craven 337
 Cocke, Catesby 1,2,3,4,5,6,8,
 9,10,11,13,19,20,23,24,25,28,
 42,46,47,49,55,60,64,66,194
 Cocke, John 197
 Cocke, William 118,121,122,
 197
 Cocker, John 187
 Cockrell, George H. 377,378
 Cocker, Sarah 175
 Cockrell, Moses 266,313
 Cockrell, Sarah 266,313
 Cockrell, William 342,343,
 356
 Cofer, Francis 46,47
 Cofer, Mary 46
 Cofer, Thomas 46,47
 Cole, Benjamin 336
 Cole, Benson 299
 Cole, Mathias 299
 Cole, Daniel 240
 Cole, Jean 140
 Cole, John 140
 Colelough, William 90
 Colquhoun, Charles W. 327
 Collins, Joseph 123,124
 Collins, Sarah 123,124
 Colough, William 163
 Colvill, John 24,25,26,27,34
 Connely, Brian 7,8
 Conner, Douglas 302,303
 Conner, Mary 370
 Conner, Samuel 14,20,21,44, 47,48
 Conway, Thomas 10,11,26
 Conway, William 174
 Conyers, John 165,166
 Conyers, John 76,165,166
 Conyers, Samuel 165,166
 Cook, Elizabeth 197,198
 Cook, John 125,126
 Cooper, Henry 74,75,219
 Cooper, Sarah 219
 Copen/Copin, George 259
 293,328,329,372
 Copin, Sarah 327
 Coppedge, John 135
 Cornwell, Charles 53,218,
 311,312,318
 Cornwell, Constant 260,261
 Cornwell, Constance 306
 Cornwell, Edward 100
 Cornwell, Ezekiel 218,219
 Cornwell, Francis 218,219
 Cornwell, George 342
 Cornwell, Jesse 306,356
 Cornwell, Peter 53
 Cornwell, William 219
 Courtney, William Sr. 338
 Craddock, Charles 133
 Craig, James 335
 Craig, William M. 246,247,
 249,253,260,261,263,294,299
 300
 Creel, John 169,170
 Creel, William 169
 Crigler, Reuben 331
 Crook, John 220
 Crook, Mary Haden 213
 Crook, Zephaniah 213
 Crouch, Jacob 120
 Crouch, James 120
 Crouch, William B. 327
 Crump, John 55,56,57,66,70,
 72,74,75,76,85,88,161,163,
 164,165,169,170,173,175
 Crupper, Elizabeth 88
 Crupper, Richard 18,46,47,74
 Crupper, Richard R. 19,20
 Crupper, Robert 75
 Cullins, James 57,130,131,
 182
 Cundiff, Isaac 65
 Cundiff, Mary 65
 Cundiff, William P. 330,338
 Cunningham, William 134
 Currie, John 228
 Curry, Hannah 332,333
 Curry, James 332
 Curtis, Chichester 149
 Curtis, Christopher 149
 Curtis, James 84
 Cushing, Christopher C. 275
 276,369
 Dade, Charles E. 316
 Dade, William A. 316
 Dade, Sarah 231
 Dade, William A.G. 231
 Dagg, James 41
 Dagg, John 4,54,94,95
 Dagg, Sarah 93
 Dagg, Thomas 41,99,101
 Dale, Elizabeth 213,230
 Dale, Robert 230,213
 Dalgarne/Dolgarn
 Dalgarne, Joanna 223
 Dalgarne, James 223
 Dalgarne, John 223
 Dallas, Thomas 80
 Dallas, Vylett 80
 Dallistoe, Richard 21
 Dalton, Andrew 63
 Dalton, James 193
 Dalton, John 193
 Dalton, Rachel 193
 Darnall, David 55
 Darnell, Jeremiah 168
 Darnal, Morgan 62
 Davidson, Alexander 190
 Davies, David 1
 Davies, Isaac 112,113
 Davies, Thomas 56,57,114
 Davies, William 112,113
 Davis, Cornelius 147
 Davis, Elizabeth 127,134
 Davis, Ellen 162,166,167
 Davis, Hiram D. 376
 Davis, Hugh 245,280,371
 Davis, Hugh C. 371,372
 Davis, Hugh W. 374
 Davis, Isaac 166,167,173,174
 184,194
 Davis, Isreal 90,94,95,99,100
 124,125
 Davis, Jesse 379
 Davis, John 27,147
 Davis, John B. 308,343
 Davis, John F. 303
 Davis, John W. 373,374
 Davis, Joseph 52
 Davis, Joshua 95
 Davis, Judith 161,162
 Davis, Margaret 27
 Davis, Mary 30
 Davis, Richard 30,269,303,
 320
 Davis, Roy L. 379
 Davis, Ruthy 245
 Davis, Sarah 154
 Davis, Sarah B. 320
 Davis, Sophia 374
 Davis, Thomas 80,154,161,
 246,373
 Davis, Thomas K. 379

Davis, William 127,166,199, 284
 Davis, William C. 303
 Davis, William Jr. 130,147
 Davis, William W. 373,374
 Davise, Isaac 124,125
 Dawe, Mary Ann 286
 Dawe, P. D. 248,297,303,304
 Dawe, Phil D. 258
 Dawe, Philip D. 232,243,281, 282,286,306,307,320,329,333 334
 Dawe, William 334
 Dawkin, John 3
 Dawkins, John 2,170
 Dawkins, William 86,174
 Dawson, Benjamin 308
 Deacon, Richard 25
 Deakers, Thomas 61
 Deakins, Philip 307,308,371
 Dean, Benjamin 288,289,290
 DeBell, Jeremiah 233,234
 DeBell, John 233
 DeButts, Lawrence 5,6
 Delisle, Stephen 5,13
 Deneale, James 230,234,235 236,237,238,239,240,241,242 243,244,279,282,285,286,287 288,289,290
 Dickins, John 68,69
 Dickinson, Lewis 232,243 250,281
 Diskin, John 1,2,3,14,22,23, 31,32,34,49,50,51,57,58,65, 92
 Dodson, Amey 40
 Dodson, David 40
 Dodson, George 81,82,90
 Dodson, Lazerous 89,90
 Dodson, Margaret 89,90
 Dobson, Robert 139,140
 Dodson, Thomas 40
 Dogan, Elizabeth 371
 Dogan, Henry 301
 Dogan, John D. 376
 Dogan, William H. 272,273, 366,376
 Dogan, William Henry 301
 Dolgarn, Joanna 222
 Dolgarn John 222
 Donaldson, John 130
 Donaldson, Mary 130
 Dooling, Joshua 117
 Dooling, Violetta 117
 Doolittle, Thomas 83
 Dorgan, Timothy 5
 Douglass, Isreal 171,172
 Douglas, James 75,76,102, 108,109,110,111,112,113,184 188,362,363
 Dowell, Jane 362,363
 Dowell, John 202
 Dowell, Thomas 245
 Dowell, William C. 245
 Dowell, W. D. 237
 Dowell, William D. 237,238
 Downman, Ann 137
 Downman, Jabez 137
 Downman, John 135
 Downman, Traverse 135
 Drakeford, Anne 44
 Drakeford, Elizabeth 44,45
 Drakeford, Richard 37
 Drummond, Aaron 20,67
 Drummond, Benjamin 116
 Drummond, Norman 116
 Drummond, Richard 130
 Drummond, Thomas 67,343
 Dulany, Cavan 4,15
 Dunaway, Catherine 47,48
 Duncan, Elizabeth 32,33
 Duncan, John 54,80,81
 Duncan, Joseph 80,81
 Dunlop, Jane 131
 Dunlop, William 34
 Dunnington, Elizabeth 327
 Dunnington, Francis 307
 Dunton, John 41
 Dunton, Thomas 41
 Durran, John 20,21
 Duvall, John 257,274
 Duvall, Miles 257,258
 Dyal, Edward 44
 Dyal, Priscilla 44
 Dye, John 266
 Dye, Nancy 266
 Earle, Samuel 56
 Earls, John 205
 Easter, Giles 45
 Easter, Jane 45
 Edge, John 26
 Edmund, Elias 68
 Edwards, John 144
 Edwards, Mary 170
 Elliott, William 28
 Elzey, Lewis 11,12,15,17,21 23,25,26,32,56
 Elzey, William 81,82,83,85, 90,91,95,96,101,102,112,158
 Emms, Edward 8,9,10,12,173
 Emms, Elizabeth 173,174
 English, Elizabeth 194
 English, John 117,118
 English, Robert 117,118
 English, Sarah 117
 Ennis, Edward 49,50,161,162
 Eustace, William 77,84,85, 168,169,170
 Evans, James G. 232
 Evans, John 49,50
 Evans, Mary 136,143
 Evans, Richard 136,189
 Ewell, Bertran 55,56,67,74, 75,77,78,81,82,83,85,95,99, 100,101,164,165,170,171,175 176,179,180
 Ewell, Catherine 255
 Ewell, Charles 43,230,231 232,233,234,235,236,238,240 245,246,247,251,252,257,259 260,261,262,263,264,265,266 279,280,281,282,284,285,286 287,288,289,290,291,293,297 298,299,300,301,302,303
 Ewell, Charles Jr. 237,301
 Ewell, Charles Sr. 237,243, 244
 Ewell, James 161
 Ewell, James B. 312,316,317 319,322,334,339,343,347,349 350,355,356,357,358,361,363 364
 Ewell, Jesse 43,126,127,128, 129,130,131,132,134,135,136 137,138,139,140,141,143,144 145,146,147,148,160,161,196 198,199,200,201,202,203,205 206,207,210,211,212,213,214 215,216,217,218,219,220,221 222,223,224,229,234,235,236 237,238,239,241,243,244,246 247,250,251,252,253,254,255 260,261,263,264,266,270,271 272,277,278,285,286,287,288 290,291,293,295,298,305,306 307,309,310,311,312,313,316 317,325,326,327,328,329,330 331,332,333,335,336,337,339 340,341,342,349,352,353,354 355,356,359,360,361,362,363 364,366,370
 Ewell, Leroy 331
 Ewell, Sarah 300,361
 Ewell, Sarah B. 286,287
 Ewell, Sol. Jr. 287
 Ewell, Thomas B. 351
 Ewell, Thomas W. 352,358
 Ezannel, Daniel 32,33

Fairfax, Henry 232
 Fairfax, John T. 308
 Fairfax, William 239,242,287
 Fairfax, Thomas Lord 83,88, 89,90
 Fairfax, William 44,45,46,47 48,49,50,51
 Falkner, Thomas 180,204
 Farguson, James 69
 Farrow, Abraham 58
 Farrow, Ann 115,162
 Farrow, Alexander 162
 Farrow, Isaac 70,71
 Farrow, Jane 13
 Farrow, John 2,13,67
 Farrow, Milly 153
 Farrow, Sibell 58
 Farrow, Thomas 359
 Farrow, Thomas M. 359,373, 374
 Farrow, William 115,116,146 147,148,150,151,156,157,162 200
 Fegan, Bridget 57
 Feagan, Daniel 64
 Feagan, Edward 12,64
 Feagin, Edward 12
 Feagan, Francis 64
 Feagan, Henry 64
 Fearnslly, James 83
 Fearnasley, Sarah 83
 Jeffries, Moses 161
 Ferguson, Isaac 8
 Ferguson, James 234
 Ferguson, John 6
 Jervis, Richard 176,177
 Fewell, James 243,255,275, 277,289,311,329,330,333,336
 Fewell, William 221
 Fielder, William 220
 Fierer, Charles 357
 Filkins, Henry 52
 Filkins, Rose 52,53
 Finch, William 192
 Finnings, Augustine 61
 Fishback, Harmon 7,8
 Fiter, Mary 14
 Fiter, Milford 14
 Fitzhugh, Charles E. S. 321
 Fitzhugh, Daniel M. 316
 Fitzhugh, John 239,251,259, 271,275,276,310,311,312,314 315,317,321,322,323,327,328 329,332,336,337,338,343,344 349,352,353,354,357,371
 Fitzhugh, Phillip 271
 Fitzhugh, Thomas 316
 Fitzhugh, William H. 321
 Flattery, Hugh 159
 Flattery, John 159
 Fletcher, Aaron 163
 Fletcher, James 63
 Florance, George 293
 Florence, George Jr. 198
 Florance, James 278,279
 Florance, Rowland 278,279, 293
 Florance, William 263,279
 Flounce, John 254
 Flounce, William 254
 Floyd, Francis 155
 Foley, Jacob 209
 Foley, James 101,102,113, 138,139,145,178,204
 Foley, John 178
 Foley, Mary 209,217
 Foley, Rosannah 178
 Fontaine, Carter B. 288
 Fountaine, Carter B. 268
 Foote, Eliza E. M. 251
 Foley, John 101
 Foote, Hayward 353
 Foote, Helen G. 235
 Foote, Lucy 259
 Foote, Margaret 213,214
 Foote, Richard 60,61,213,235 239,251,257,258,265,267,268 271,273,274,275,276,298,299 301,302,304,305,306,309,314 315,316,317,318,319,321,322 323,324,328,330,334,335,343 344,345,350,352
 Foote, Richard S. 253
 Foote, Sarah S. 353,377
 Foote, William 276,281
 Foote, William H. 353
 Ford, Thomas 37
 Jordan, John 224,228
 Fortune, Garner 275,276,284 305,309
 Freeland, Thomas 309,335
 Foster, Ann R. 265
 Foster, Elizabeth 361
 Foster, Daniel 250,255,265
 Foster, George 151
 Foster, Isaac 169,170
 Foster, James 250,255,256, 257,261,264,268,271,293,298 300,301,303,305,316,345,349
 Foster, James W. 361,362
 Foster, Margaret 151,152
 Foster, Neal 7
 Foster, Redmon 255,262,264 265,267,269,272,276,285,286 290,300,302,303,304,305,306 308,309,310,311,313,316,317 322,323,325,326,329,330,331 332,333,334,335,338,340,343 224,345,347,349,352,353,355 356,361,362,364,368,369,371
 Foster, Richard 265
 Foster, Robert 197
 Foster, Silas 261
 Foster, Thomas 308,310 315 361,362
 Foster, William 34,35,167, 168,190,197
 Fouch, Amos 348
 Fouch, Temple 348
 Fox, Charles J. 335
 Fox, Emily 235
 Fox, John 231,232,233,234, 235,236,237,239,243,244,245 246,247,251,252,253,254,258 259,260,261,262,268,279,280 281,283,286,287,288,289,292 293,295,296,298,299,300,301 302,359,365,366,367,369,370
 Fox, Redmon 260
 Foxworthy, Thomas 112
 France 2
 Freeland, Thomas 259
 Francis, Hunphrey 205,206
 French, Daniel 35,36,51
 French, James 53,276,277, 344,345,368,369
 French, Martha L. 344,345, 378
 French, Mason 274
 French, Stephen 276,277,368
 French, Stephen Jr. 368
 French, Susan A. 378
 French, William 53,157,158, 277,344
 French, William T. 368,369
 Frogg, John 42,49,54,55,59, 74,85,86,166
 Frogg, William 54,55
 Frost, John 15
 Gaines, Augustine 255
 Gaines, Benjamin 217
 Gaines, William 156
 Gaines, William H. 361,362
 Galleher, James 252
 Gallahue, Ann 70
 Gallahue, Charles 199,208
 Gallahue, Darby 77,78
 Gallahue, Dorley 145

Gallahue, Jeremiah 145
 Gallehue, John 119
 Gardner, James 26
 Garner, Catherine 239
 Garner, Charles 30
 Garner, John 30,59,66,67
 Garner, Parish 76
 Garner, Vincient 59,163
 Garner, William 239
 Garrison, Cuthbert 64
 Gaskins, Elizabeth 39,40
 Gaskins, Thomas 39
 Gassaney, Hanson 294
 Gent, George 7,8,14
 Gent, John 58
 Gibbins, John 59,60
 Gibbins, Rachel 59,60
 Gibson, Jacob 10
 Gibson, Jane 10
 Gibson, John 364
 Gibson, John Jr. 235,266,298
 Gibson, John Sr. 298
 Gilbert, Joseph 234,235
 Gilbert, Joseph R. 234,235,
 237,238,243,248,266,268,270
 271,272,273,274,275,276,277
 297,304,305,306,309,310,311
 312,313,326,331,332,333,335
 338,340
 Gilbert, Samuel R. 313
 Gilbert, Sarah T. 340
 Gill, Ann S. 375
 Gladden, John 15,16,17
 Glading, William 45,46
 Glascock, Peter 182
 Glasscock, Hezekiah 125
 Glover, Martha 120
 Glover, William 120
 Godfrey, William 42,47
 Going, John
 Gooch, William 2
 Goon, William 68
 Gosling, Jane 63
 Gosling, John 1,2,40
 Gosling, Simon 63
 Gossom, Alexander 253,254
 Gossom, Thomas m. 253,254
 Gossum, William 6
 Graham, Alfred 346
 Graham, Ann 99
 Graham, George 155,158,227
 236,281,291
 Graham, Huriah 352,353
 Graham, James D. 356,357
 Graham, Jane 236
 Graham, John 5,58,66,67,68
 69,70,71,72,73,74,75,76,77,
 78,80,81,96,99,101,102,162,
 163,164,165,166,167,168,169
 179,171,173,174,175,176,177
 178,179,180,184,185,191,254
 267,278,296,297
 Graham, Reginald 158,211,
 212
 Graham, Richard 158,159,
 210,213,216,217,218,219,220
 222,227,229
 Graham, Susannah F. 324
 Graham, Uriah 267
 Grant, John 4,52,55,60,61,55
 Grant, William 77,80,84,170
 Gray, Hezekiah 142
 Gray, John 356
 Gray, Mary 142
 Gray, Nathaniel 249,283
 Grayson, Benjamin 18,28,43,
 56,59,60,64,66,72,73,96,161
 162,165,166,167,171,172
 Grayson, James 229
 Grayson, John 229
 Grayson, Spencer 171,172
 Grayson, William 118,197,
 198,199,200
 Great Britain 1
 Green, Duff 167
 Green, Elizabeth 160,161
 Green, George 160
 Green, George E. 278,312
 Green, James 238,278,296
 Green, Jesse 364
 Green, Lewis 273
 Green, Mary B. 344,365
 Green, Sarah 278
 Green, Thomas 87,273,304
 Green, Thompson 273,304
 305,337
 Green, Thompson A. 303
 Green, William 81,234,303
 Greenstad, James 228
 Gregg, Elizabeth 55
 Gregg, John 3,4,6,11,17,28,
 43,49,55
 Greshon, James 63
 Greshon, Mary 63
 Griffin, Will 123
 Griffith, Charles 33
 Grigsby, Baylis 325,326
 Grigsby, John P. 326
 Grigsby, Redman 132,148,
 149,176
 Grinnan, Orvin 58
 Grinstead, James 186,187,
 205,207
 Groves, Henley 279,321,365
 366,367
 Groves, Travis 279
 Guess, Anne 37
 Guess, Joseph 24
 Guin, Thomas 122
 Gunyon, John 108,128,136
 138,206,207
 Guy, Thomas 248
 Gwatkin, Edward 62,63,98,
 167,172,178,181,182,183,184
 190,306
 Gwatkin, James 126,141,142
 190,191,192,201,202,206,216
 217,223,256,257,258,266,271
 296,297,298,299,300,301,305
 306,309,314,325,331,336,338
 342
 Gwatkin, John 190,191,192
 Hackney, Frances 59
 Hackney, William 19,59,63
 Haislip, Ann 339,340
 Haislip, Anna 273
 Haislip, Henry 339,340
 Haislip, Henry C. 341
 Haislip, Nathan 254,268,269
 273,285,286,339
 Hagard, William 87
 Hall, Edward 74,75
 Hall, Mary 74,75
 Hall, William 16,17
 Halley, Thomas 1
 Hamilton, Maria 243
 Hamilton Parish 1,3
 Hamilton, Robert 243,244,
 251,256,267,272,273,277,295
 296,299,302,303,307,308,309
 311,314,317,320,322,327,331
 333,334,335,337,339,340,343
 344,345,350,351
 Hamilton, Thomas B. 299,
 304,310,311,314,315,316,317
 320,321,322,323,328,329,335
 337,338,339,340,341,342,346
 350
 Hamlin, Bryant 89
 Hammitt, John 229,230
 Hamper, John 7,8
 Hampton, Henry 210
 Hampton, Thomas R. 277,
 278
 Hampton, William 210
 Hampton, William C. 277, 278

Hamrick, Elizabeth 84
 Hamrick, James 221
 Hamrick, John 82
 Hamrick, Patrick 184
 Hamrick, Patrick Jun. 180
 Hamrick, Robert 84
 Hamrick, Sarah 82
 Hancock, Catherine S. 358, 378
 Hancock, John 137
 Hancock, Scarlet 3
 Hanks, Luke 213,230
 Hanna, Francis 371,372
 Hanover County 5
 Harbort, James 29,30
 Hardin, Benjamin 263,264
 Hardin, Charles 89
 Hardin, John 10,11
 Hardin, Mark 4,10,11
 Hardin, Mary 10,11
 Harding, Bryan 317
 Harding, Charles 296
 Hardwick, Aaron 125
 Hardwick, Margaret 125
 Harle, William 11,12
 Harper, George 59,89,189
 Harper, George 189
 Harris, Sandy 277
 Harrison, Ann 224
 Harrison, Benoni E. 330,365, 367,368,369,370,371
 Harrison, Burr 91,92,182,220 223,224,227
 Harrison, Burr W. 288
 Harrison, Cuthbert 56,65,66, 91,92,105,118,119,127,128, 171,198,206,215
 Harrison, George 22
 Harrison T. 288
 Harrison, John S. 257,258, 269,270,274,275,302,330
 Harrison, Litha 223,224
 Harrison, Mary 22
 Harrison, Mathew 213,225, 226,227,228,229,288
 Harrison, Nathaniel 9
 Harrison, Philip 232,239,283 284
 Harrison, Seth 215
 Harrison, Sibell 58
 Harrison, Thomas 2,9,12,13, 22,54,55,63,66,67,68,69,70, 71,72,75,88,91,92
 Harrison, Thomas Jr. 2,13, 31,56,58, 59,60,62,63,64,161 162,163,164,165,166,167,171 172,198,231
 Harrison, Thomas Jr. 2,13,31, 198
 Harrison, Walter 292
 Harrison, William 6
 Harrison, William A. 314,315 316,334
 Harrison, William B. 227
 Hart, John 7
 Hart, Leonard 151,152,183
 Harthing, Wm. M.
 Hartshorn, John 116
 Hawkins, Aaron 97
 Hawkins, James 185
 Hawkins, Mary 97
 Hawley, Nelson H. 363,364
 Hawley, Sarah M. 363,368
 Hay, James 111
 Hayes, Bertrand E. 361
 Hayes, Francis E. 361
 Hayes, John 257
 Hayes, Joseph B. 331
 Hayes, Sarah E. 358,361
 Haynie, Bridar 186
 Hazelrigg, Abel 180
 Hazelrigg, James 180
 Hazelrigg, William 180
 Head, James 67,93
 Heath, John 363,364
 Hedges, John 95,111,112,161 185,226
 Hedges, Robert 39,40
 Hedgman, Nathaniel 2
 Helm, Erasmus 358
 Helm, Lynaugh 77,78,95,99, 100,102,105,111,113,114,115 116,119,121,122,123,124,125 126,127,131,132,175,176,177 179,180,181,185,187,188,189 190,191,193,194,195,197,200 201,202,213
 Helm, Margaret 195
 Helm, William 358
 Henderson, Alexander 116, 117,151,188,189,279,280,369
 Henderson, Arch 279
 Henderson, Archibald 279, 280
 Henderson, James 24
 Henderson, Orra M. 369
 Henderson, Richard H. 279, 280,281,282,284,285
 Henderson, Robert 369
 Henderson, Thomas 279,280
 Henry, Isaac 335,337
 Henry, Judith 337
 Herndon, William 152,153
 Heslop, John G. 281
 Hewitt, Jemima 97,98
 Hewitt, Thomas W. 231,232 268
 Hewitt, William 97
 Hews, Sarah 38,39
 Hews, William 39
 Higginson, John 205
 Highlander, Elizabeth 205
 Highstead, Robert 96
 Higgins, Richard 28,29,30,41
 Hoff, Moore 310
 Hoff, Thomas 310,329,330 342
 Hogan, James 164,165
 Hogan, Margaret 164,165
 Hogan, Thomas 212
 Hogan, William 164,165
 Holland, Thomas A. 195
 Holliday, James 299
 Holling, William 50
 Hollis, John 32
 Holmes, Christopher 37,38
 Holmes, John 37
 Holmes, Mary 37,38
 Holtzclaw, Henry 139
 Holtclaw, John 14
 Holtzclaw, Timothy 229
 Homes, Thomas 136,137,140 141,154
 Honeye, John 1
 Hooe, Benjamin 279,288
 Hooe, Bernard 158,214,215, 219,225,226,230,231,232,237 238,253,280,285,305,338
 Hooe, Elizabeth T. 305
 Hoe, Howson 77
 Hooe, Howson 68,69,70,77, 79,80,83,85,8687,89,90,91,96 100,102,105,109,111,114,118 119,121,126,137,139,140,141 142,191,192,194,198,199,203 204,205,206,207,225,226,228 229,347,348,350,351,352,358 364
 Hooe, James 352,364
 Hooe, James H. 295
 Hooe, Jesse 256,259
 Hooe, John 96,114,115,116, 117,119,120,121,123,124,125 127,129,137,138,139,140,141 142,143,144,145,146,147,148 151,152,189,190,193,196,197 200,202,203,204,205,206,207

208,209,210,211,212,214,215
 216,219,220,221,223,225,226
 241,244,245,246,247,249,250
 251,253,254,256,257,258,261
 262,266,268,278,281,282,283
 287,288,289,292,294,295,296
 297,302,303,304,305,309,311
 312,313,320,321,323,324,325
 326,327,328,329,330,331,338
 338,348,349,350,351,352,353
 356,358,360,362,365
 Hooe, Mary D. 351
 Hooe, Rice 350,351
 Hooe, Robert 295
 Hooe, Robert H. 305,351
 Hooe, Sarah 351
 Hooe, Thomas P. 357,359
 Hoof, Jonathan 210
 Hoof, Mary 210
 Hoomes, Elizabeth 143
 Hoomes, James 143
 Hoomes, Thomas 143
 Hopper, John 73
 Hord, Hawkins 233
 Hord, Robert 233
 Hord, Thomas 233,322
 Hore, John 359
 Hore, Walter 321
 Hornbuckle, Solomon 205
 Hornbuckle, William 205
 Horner, Edward 352
 Horner, Inman 279
 Hornsby, Leonard 53
 Horton, William 109,133
 Hoskins, John 228
 Hot, Nimrod 48,49,50,51
 House Carpenter 5
 House, Michael 339,340,364
 Howison, Addison 359,362
 Howison, Alexander 287,334
 365
 Howison, Allen 334,355,357
 358,359,361,363,364,365,368
 371
 Howison, Catherine 334
 Howison, Charles G. 365,367
 368
 Howison, James 334
 Howison, Robert T. 334,340
 341
 Howison, Stephen 219,220
 226,227,262,263
 Howison, William A. 313
 Huber, George F. 232,250,
 293,294,306
 Huber, Joseph 232
 Hudnall, Joseph 59,62,65
 Hudnall, Thomas 42,43
 Hughes, Ralph 7,12,51
 Hughs, Ralph 26
 Hughs, Robert 176
 Hughs, William 176,177
 Humston, Edward 168,169
 Hunton, Charles 234,235,249
 250,251,253,254,256,257,263
 264,268,269,270,272,274,276
 277,278,295,296,297,299,301
 302,305,306,308,317,318,325
 327,346,361,364,365,369,376
 Hunton, Eppa 251,376
 Hunton, Thomas L. 257
 Hunton, William 234,235
 Hunton, William E. 251,252
 269,333
 Hurst, William 43,44
 Hutchison, Benjamin 215,216
 Hutchison, Beverly 370
 Hutchison, Gustavus A. 370
 375
 Hutchison, John 252,263,268
 270,271,274,275,283,290,291
 305,314,318,319,320,323,324
 332,333,335,336,341,346,347
 350,354,356,357,358,363,364
 370
 Hutchison, Ludwell H. 375
 Hutchison, Nathan 283
 Hutchison, Reuben 336,337
 Hutchison, Robert 215,216
 Hutchison, Sampson 283
 Huton, Benjamin 23
 Ingram, Thomas 280,283
 Inman, Hubbard 115,116
 Ireland 2
 Ish, John 366,367
 Jackson, Benjamin 288,289
 Jackson, Charles 126
 Jackson, Francis 73,74,172,
 173,201,202,220
 Jackson, George 221,228,306
 Jackson, George W. 277,278,
 238,239,251,252,253,260,263
 264,273,277,278,309,314,321
 323,325,335,351,353
 Jackson, James S. 343
 Jackson, John 95,96,179,228
 Jackson, John F. 359
 Jackson, Lodowick 48
 Jackson, Mary 239
 Jackson, Rachel 95
 Jackson, Samuel 59,60,228
 Jackson, Samuel Jr. 219,220
 Jackson, William 288
 James, Thomas 87
 Jammison, David 354
 Janney, Amos 25,26
 Janney, John 220
 Janney, John H. 371
 Janney, Joseph 371
 Janney, Joseph Jr. 366
 Janney, Samuel H. 357,360,
 361,362,365,366
 Janney, Samuel M. 345,346
 Jarvis, Richard 34,35,45,148
 Jefferson, Henry 6
 Jeffries, Moses 161
 Jennings, Elizabeth 335
 Jennings, James 309,335
 Jett, Mary 6
 Jewell, Fielding 352
 Johnson, Benjamin 277,307,
 310,311,312,313,314,317,318
 319,320,321,323,329,330,331
 332,335,338,340,341,344,346
 347,348,349,351,352,353,354
 356,363,367,369
 Johnson, Charles 219
 Johnson, David 232
 Johnson, French 264,294
 Johnson, Geoffrey 18,19,24,
 37
 Johnson, George 103,104,162
 163,171,172
 Johnson, James 193
 Johnson, John 9,185
 Johnson, Joseph 266,277,307
 311,311
 Johnson, Mary 266
 Johnson, Rutt 266
 Jones, Ann 331
 Jones, Ewell 100
 Jones, Gustavous 318,319
 Jones, James 120,318,319
 Jones, Robert 6,7,10,11,33,53
 54,55,56,57,58,60,61,62,63,
 64
 Jones, Samuel 169,206
 Jones, Solomon 79,80
 Jones, William 79,120
 Jones, William S. 331
 Jordan, James 257,258
 Jordan, Jeremiah 122
 Jordan, Thomas 60
 Junkison, George 90
 Kankey, Zebulon 234,235,
 236,280,298,367,369,370,372
 373
 Keech, Sarah 315

Keitch, Sarah 282
 Keith, Alexander 213,218, 230
 Kelly, Joseph 192
 Kelly, John 74,75
 Kelly, Joseph 83,84,192
 Kendall, Sarah 62
 Kendall, Thomas 62
 Kendall, William 62
 Kenner, Howison 65
 Kenner, Howson 175,176
 Kenner, Howson 88
 Kenner, Richard 69,70
 Kenner, Samson 55,56
 Keys, James 240
 Kincheloe, Cornelius 125,126
 Kinchelo, Daniel 103,127, 184
 Kinchelo, John 22,31
 Kincheloe, Sarah 360
 Kincheloe, William 127,173 174
 King, James 202
 King, Samuel 17,18,202
 Kirkland, William 39
 Koone, Nicholas 38
 Koone, Sarah 38
 Koons, James 44
 Kremer, Adam 234,280
 Kremer, Winifred 234
 Lacon, Francis 62
 Lacon, Jane 62,63
 Lain, James 48
 Lain, Sarah 48
 Lain, William 48
 Lambert, Sarah 27
 Land, Owen 27
 Landrum, Sarah Anne 220
 Landrum, William 220
 Lang, Mary Ann 340,341
 Lashbrook, Mary 177,178
 Latham, Anthony 170,171
 Latham, Catherine 349
 Latham, John 324
 Latham, Robert 252,324
 Latham, Robert Jr. 349
 Latham, Thomas 324,370
 Lattimer, Samuel 337
 Lattimore, Sarah 179,180
 Laun, Francis 26,27
 Laurie, George 124
 Lawson, Marmaduke 43
 Lawson, Robert 203
 Lawson, Thomas 93,94,96,97 100,104,107,110,111,114,116 117,118,122,123,124,125,126 128,129,130,131,132,133,134 135,136,138,141,143,144,145 146,147,177,179,180,183,185 187,188,189,192,193,195,196 197,199,200,203,204,206,208 209,210,213,215 217,220,240
 Leachman, Ann P. 330
 Leachman, John 235,252,253 265,272,286,330
 Leachman, Leonard 214
 Leachman, Thomas 214
 Lee, Alford 302,303
 Lee, Arthur 222,226,227
 Lee, Elizabeth A. 282
 Lee, Henry 75,76,77,78,79,80 81,82,83,84,85,86,87,88,89, 92,94,95,98,99,101,102,103, 104,105,106,107,108,111,114 115,116,118,119,125,126,128 130,131,132,134,135,136,139 141,143,144,145,146,147,148 167,169,171,172,173,174,175 176,177,179,180,181,182,183 184,185,187,188,189,190,191 192,193,195,196,197,198,199 200,201,202,203,206,207,208 209,210,211,215,216,218,221 227
 Lee, John 188
 Lee, John D. 253,262,309, 340
 Lee, Margaret 340
 Lee, Stephen 225
 Lee, Thomas Sr. 302
 Leewright, John Jr. 153,207, 208
 Leitch, And. 144
 Lewis, Stephen 15
 Lewis, William 194
 Lewis, William M. 234
 Lillard, Martha 7
 Linch, Christopher 203
 Linch, Mary 203
 Lingleton, Benjamin 252
 Linton, John 92,101,137,138, 185,204,208,209,211,212,229 230,232,233,234,236,237,239 241,242,243,247,248,249,250 251,258,280,281,282,283,284 285,286,287,288,289,290,291 292,293,294
 Linton, John Jr. 163,164
 Linton, John T. 248,259
 Linton, Lettice 49
 Linton, Mary 230
 Linton, Moses 64,65
 Linton, Sally 258,356
 Linton, William 137,223,224, 226,227,229,283,284
 Linton, William A. 230,231 248,258,259
 Lithgow, Al 222
 Lithgow, Alex 227
 Little, Robert H. 238,284, 287,288,290
 Long, John 340
 Lowe, James 228
 Lucas, Anne 28,29
 Lucas, Francis 26,29
 Lucas, Rebecca 268
 Lucas Samuel 268
 Lumdale, John 183
 Lunenburg Parish 1
 Luttrell, Robert 288
 Luttrell, Simon 70,71,72,181, 182,244,288,299,326,327,328
 Lyndsey, William 205
 Lynn, Benson 241,299,379
 Lynn, Eleanor P. 302
 Lynn, Elizabeth 259,302
 Lynn, John 89,126,156,216
 Lynn, Joseph C. 302
 Lynn, Joseph R. 241,243,244 247,288,293,294,299,319,320 326
 Lynn, Nehemiah 259
 Lynn, Seymour 317,320,343 354,368,369,370,372,373,374 379
 Lynn, William 156,216,218, 219,259
 Machen, Thomas 77,84,85,96 102
 MacMillion, John 118,119
 Machen, Thomas 162,163, 165
 Macormick, Stephen 333
 Macrae, Allan 75,76,77,82,83 89,90,91,92,96,98,99,102,103 107,108,109,110,111,112,170 173,175,178,179,181,182,183 184,186,187,188,347
 Macrae, James 251,258
 Macrae, James W. 294
 Macrae, James W. F. 315,336 338,339,347,349,350,364,367
 Macrae, John 264,291,347
 Macrae, William 103,106
 Madden, George 157,158
 Madden, John 7
 Madden, Kesiah 157,158

Madden, Scarlet 71,108,145
224
Maddox, Addison 372
Maddox, George 216
Maddox, John 64,124,125,
230,231,244,259,261,300,301
Maddox, John H. 372
Maddox, Martin 249
Maddox, Noah 322,355
Maddox, Robert G. 372
Maddox, Sarah 355,356,373
Maddox, Thomas S. 372
Mahen, John 49,50
Mankin, Mark Mathew 216,
225
Mankin, William 279
Mann, William 268
Marr, Daniel 59,62
Marr, John 62
Marshall, Jacob 138,139,204
205
Marshall, Margaret 70,71,72
Marshall, Robert 71,85
Marshall, Thomas 71,85,122
Martin, Andrew 106
Martin, Elias B. 339
Martin, Hezekiah 339
Martin, Leanna
Marten, Joseph 7,8
Martin, Stephen 29
Martin, William 129,140
Martyn, John 5
Marsteller, Cyrus C. 363
Marsteller, Richard H. 363
Mason, Ann 11,25
Mason, Benjamin 172,173
Mason, Elizabeth 264
Mason, Enoch 295
Mason, George 11,173
Mason, J. Seddon 359
Mason, James 249
Mason, Mary 11
Mason, Robert C. 249
Mason, Thomas 11,89,111
Mason, Thomson 11,111
Mason, William 249
Masters, Gerard 140
Masters, Thomas 140,141
Masterson, Thomas 133
Mathews, Griffin 238
Mathews, Newman 175
Mathews, William 229
Mathis, Griffin 183
Mathis, Newman 182,183
Matison, Benjamin 221
Matison, John 192,193
McCarty, Daniel 34,316,335
McCarty, Denis 2,8,9,10,11,
12,13,14,15,17,18,19,20,21,
22,23,24,25,26,27,28,29,30,
31,32,33,34,35,36,37,38,39,
40,41,42,43,44
McClenahan, James 238,289
McCuin, Patrick 365
McCuin, Richard 365
McCuin, Walter 365
McCuin, William 365
McDaniel, William 223,251,
252
McDonnell, James 4
McDowell, Mary 50
McDowell, Thomas 50
McIlhane, James 369
McKenney, Daniel 54
McKenney, John 35
McLanachan, Andrew 121
McLanachan, John 121
McLeod, Daniel 312,313
McMillian, Cuthbert 196
McMillan, James 31
McMillan, John 31,182,203
208,210,212
McMilliam, John 213,230
McMillian, John 182,196
McMillion, John 212,213,215
216,217,218,219,220,224,226
229
McMillon, John 145,147,159
160,171,213,227,287
McMillan, Keith 31
McNemarr, Lawrence 5
McNish, Horatio 257
McPherson, A. 242
McPherson, Alexander 242
Melton, Fanny 207,208
Melton, John 38,39
Melton, Richard 82,104,142, 143
Melton, Sarah 100,101,104
Melton, William 100,110,207
Mercer, Charles Fenton 279
Mercer, T. 4
Merchant, John 286
Merchant, William C. 372
Merur, John 11
Metcalf, Dianah 87
Metcalf, John 67,68,87
Miller, Richard 34
Miller, William 83
Mills, John 245,308
Mills, Peyton 308,313,344
Ming, Charles 230,232,233,
234,235,241,242,244,247,248
249,250,252,255,256,258,259
260,262,263,264,265,266,267
268,269,270,271,272,274,275
276,277,279,280,282,288,290
291,293,296,297,298,299,300
303,304,305,306,307,308,309
317,318,320,321,322,336,337
346,351,361,362,363
Minter, Joseph 28
Mitchell, Jededia 96
Mitchell, Richard T. 337
Mitchell, Robert T. 317,320
Mitchell, Thomas 77,165,166
Moffett, Gabriel 172
Moffett, John 92,93,195
Mollahon, Ann 103,104
Mollahon, Thomas 103
Monger, Lydia Musgrove
225
Montgomerie, Thomas 122,
123,130,132,133,134,135,136
141,155,197,201
Moon, Elizabeth 302
Moon, John 302
More, Eleanor 47,48
More, Jesse 120
Moore, Thomas 192
More, William 105,110,172
Moore, William 192
Morgan, Charles 4,51,57,58
Morris, Ann 106
Morris, Elizabeth 4
Morris, James 3,4
Morris, Richard 106
Morris, Thomas 63
Moss, Ebonizer 175
Moss, Edward 109,176
Moss, James 168
Moss, Mathew 167,176
Moss, Moses 145
Moss, Presley 124
Moss, Sarah 103
Moss, Sylvester 146
Moss, Vester 201
Moss, Thomas 103
Moss, William 289
Mount, James 267,296,297
Mount, Sarah 267
Mount, Thomas C. 304,312
Mount, Wm. 283,296,304
Murphy, Ann 349,350,360
Murphy, Benjamin 256
Murphy, John 46
Murphy, Nancy 353

Murphy, Sarah 345
 Murphy, Thompson 349
 Murphy, William 97,345,351
 353
 Murray, Elizabeth 221,222
 Murray, Gilbert 129
 Murray, James 360
 Murray, John 114,115,119,
 125,126,128,129,130,147,155
 208,210,211,212,213,214,216
 217,218,219,220,221,230
 Muschett, Alexander 298
 Muschett, Edward 266
 Muschett, Frederick H. 266, 351
 Muschett, James M. A.
 359,378
 Muse, James 17
 Napier, Rene 41,42
 Neale, Christopher 51,52
 Neale, Elizabeth 30,31
 Neale, John 31
 Neale, Rhodam 52
 Neapsco Creek 3
 Neavil, Robert 102
 Neilson, John 134
 Nelson, John 123
 Nelson, Thomas 246,261,262
 269,293,304,305,306,318,322
 343,347,349,352,353,354,355
 356,357,358,361,363,364,367
 370
 Nelson, Thomas Jr. 260,262,
 300,307,308,311,312,313,314
 315,321,325,327,328,332,333
 336,338,339,340
 Nelson, William 233
 Newman, John 122
 Nesbett, Ann L. 285
 Nesbitt, James 96
 Nisbett, James 96,104,105,
 106,137
 Newman, Albert 320,324,343
 344,345,348,352,357,361,363
 365,369,370
 Newman, Ann B. 276
 Newman, Elizabeth 208
 Newman, James 275,276
 Newman, Mary 303,304
 Newman, Richard 290,291,
 343
 Newman, Thomas J. 303
 Newman, Theron W. 275,276
 324,332
 Newman, Thomas 208,253,
 234,284
 Newman, William J. 291
 Newman, William Jett 290
 Norman, Charles 328,329
 Norman, Edward 241,242,
 244,264,265,299,328
 Norman, Eliza 241,242
 Norman, Elizabeth 328,329
 Norman, James William 374
 Norman, John S. 374
 Norman, Mary Ann 264,265
 Norman, Thomas 244,264,
 265
 Norman, William 241,242
 244
 Norris, Catherine 108
 Norris, James 108
 Norris, Seaton W. 303
 Norvil, George 28
 Norvill, Peyron 246,249,250,
 270,291,339,368
 Oakley, Jemima 73
 Oakley, William 73
 Obrien, Daniel 220
 O'Bryan, Mary 138
 O'Bryan, William 138
 Occoquan 261
 Oden, Mary 162
 Oden, Nathaniel S. 368,370
 Oden, Pembroke 162
 Oglevy, John 279
 Oglevy, Travis 279
 O'Neal, Daniel 233
 Orair, Daniel 54
 Orear, John 107
 Organ, Mathew 16
 Organ, Solomon 16
 Orear, Henry 3
 Oriar/Orear, Daniel 23
 Oriar, Hester 22,23
 Organ, Samuel 163
 Osborn, Anne 31
 Osborn, Joshua 2
 Osborn, Margaret 31
 Osborn, Mary 31
 Osborn, Prudence 65
 Osborn, Richard 32,35,36
 Osborn, T. 1
 Osborn, Thomas 14,22,31,32
 Oriar, John 22,23
 Osborn, T. 1
 Overall, John 54
 Overall, Nathaniel 54,93,102, 165
 Owen, Francis 86
 Owens, Cuthbert 339
 Owens, John 208
 Owsley, Thomas 2
 Padderson, Catherine 32
 Padgett, James A. 342
 Padgitt, James A. 310
 Padgitt, Timothy 310
 Page, Thomas T. 243,247,
 291,298
 Pagett, Reubin 14
 Palmer, Joseph 298,370
 Parish – Hamilton 1,4
 Parish – Lunenburg 1
 Parish – Turo 1
 Parker, Benjamin 91
 Parker, Sarah 26
 Parsons, Lydia 202
 Parsons, William Sr. 202
 Payne, Daniel 108,123,124,
 125,126,127,128,129,131,132
 184,189,190,191,193,194,195
 197
 Payne, William 46
 Peachey, Ann 215
 Peachey, Sam 215
 Peake, Craven 325
 Peake, John 168,178
 Peake, Lucy 168,169
 Peake, William 168,169
 Pearson, William 250
 Peters, Mary 173
 Petty, Caty 306
 Petty, John 243
 Petty, Joseph 227
 Petty, Presley 227,228
 Peyton, Burr 229
 Peyton, Henry 67,68,69,92,
 94,95,96,98,101,114,121,122,
 123,124,126,133,134,137,138
 140,143,149,151,152,155,156
 162,165,166,167,181,188,189
 198,200,201,202,203,204,205
 207,211,217,218
 Peyton, John 19,71,72,77,78,
 183,189,193,204,214,215,218
 Peyton, John Jr. 71,218
 Peyton, Rowzee 292
 Peyton, Sebellah 304
 Peyton, Seth 204
 Peyton, Sibella 290
 Peyton, Timothy 148,149,159
 160,204,210
 Peyton, Valentine 17,31,33,
 55,56,57,60,64,65,66,160,204
 207,211,223,229
 Peyton, Yelverson 169,170
 Phillips, Celia Ann 333
 Phillips, John 333

Phillips, Richard H. 333
 Pierce, John 139
 Pierce, John G. 139
 Pierce, Mary 139
 Pinnot, George 29,30
 Poindexter, Thomas 5
 Pool, Mackegie 89,90
 Pope, Humphrey 30,78
 Pope, John 225
 Popejoy, Ann 153
 Popejoy, William 153
 Porter, Thomas 2
 Posey, John 142,143
 Potts, Mary Ann 262,263
 Poulson, Henry 68
 Powell, Beverly 375
 Powell, Edmund 375,377
 Powell, John 131
 Powell, William 211,212
 Power, Christian 128,129,136
 Price, Richard 44
 Prince, Hubard 136,199
 Pridmore, Benjamin 266
 Pritchett, Christopher 56,57
 Purcell/Purnell ?
 Purcell, James 269,359
 Purcell, James Jr. 269
 Purcell, Samuel 241
 Purcell, William 198
 Purcell, William F. 357,365,
 366
 Purcell, John 27
 Purnell, Francis 112
 Purnell, John Chapman 26,69
 Quantico Run 3
 Queen, John 29
 Rainey, Absolom 83
 Randolph, William 219
 Ransdell, James W. 361
 Ratcliff, Daniel 357
 Ratcliff, Joshua 202
 Ratcliff, Richard 280,282
 Rawlings, Margaret 157
 Rawlings, William 157
 Read, Louis 222
 Reade, Richard 159
 Reading, Timothy 52
 Reading, William 52
 Reagan, Michael 44,45,47
 Reagan, William 47
 Reamy, George 223
 Rector, Timothy 52
 Redmon, John 228
 Redman, Thomas 91
 Reeves, Asa 220
 Reeve, George 100,101
 Reeves, John 27,109,180,181
 220
 Reeves, John U. 274,327,328
 Reeves, John W. 261,325
 Reeves, Mary 183,184,217
 Reeves, Thomas 164
 Reid, James h. 359,360
 Reid, Joseph 5,38
 Reid, Pembroke 371
 Reno, Elender 191
 Reno, Elizabeth 107
 Reno, Enoch 294
 Reno, Davis 191
 Reno, George N. B. 336
 Reno, John 53,191
 Reno, Katy 145
 Reno, Lewis 54,92,93,97,98,
 99,101,103,104,105,106,107,
 109,110,115,116,118,119,120
 121,122,124,125,127,130,131
 134,135,136,137,141,142,153
 165,177,178,179,180,181,182
 183,184,186,187,190,191,192
 193,194,195,197,199,200,201
 202,203
 Reno, Lewis Jun. 194,195,
 203
 Reno, Strother 249,250,336
 Reno, Thomas 29,30,145,165
 179,194,203
 Reno, William 141,154,249,
 250,336
 Rhorry, John 12
 Richards, John 132
 Richards, Mary 132
 Richardson, Nicholas 35
 Riddell, John 124,125,134
 Riddle, John 188,189
 Riddle, Thomas 106
 Rigby, Alex 132
 Right, John 24
 Riley, John 338
 Rixey, Richard 86,168,169
 Roach, William 341,342
 Robertson, Francis 49,50
 Robertson, Richard 281
 Robinson, Edward 252
 Robinson, Edward N. 376
 Robinson, Mathew 252
 Robinson, Thomas 6,7,8,9,10
 11,12,13,14,15,16,17,18,21,
 22,23,24,28,30,31,33,37
 Roe, Catherine C. 338
 Roe, Henry F. 338
 Rogers, Hamilton 348
 Rogers, Thomas 238
 Rogers, William P. 238,301, 302
 Rolls, Hezekiah 342
 Rookard, Charity 123
 Rookard, John 186
 Rookard, Thomas 186
 Rookard, William 40,68,69,
 70,71,162,186
 Rose, Robert T. 366,367
 Rose, William 366,367,341
 Ross, James 214
 Roussan, William 173
 Rubleman, Harriet 319,320
 Rubleman, John G. 319,340
 Rubleman, John R. 336
 Rush, Benjamin 177,178,186
 Rush, Benjamin Jr. 96,97
 Russel, Ann 8
 Russel, Benjamin 41
 Russel, John 41
 Russel, Margaret 9
 Russel, William 76
 Rust, George 279
 Rust, James 279
 Rust, Peter 48,49
 Rutter, Richard 15,16
 Sampson, Grace 134
 Sampson, Mary 113,114
 Sampson, William 113
 Samson, Marmaduke 56
 Sanders, Elinor 33
 Sanders, James 235
 Sanders, Robert 274
 Scott, Clarinda 319
 Scott, James 77,78,79,80,81,
 82,83,84,85,86,87,88,89,90,
 91,92,93,94,98,100,101,102
 104,108,109,111,113,115,118
 120,121,122,142,167,168,169
 170,171,172,173,174,175,177
 178,179,181,182,186,190,192
 194,195,211,214
 Scott, James W. 307,319,322
 359,360
 Scott, Jesse 307
 Scott, John 221
 Scott, Mary 74
 Scott, Richard P. 319,323
 Scott, Robert 92,93
 Scott, Sarah 225
 Scott, Thomas 74
 Scott, William 32,225
 Scott, William L. 307
 Scott, William S. 360
 Seal, Anthony 121

Seale, Anthony 65,121,126,
 127,130,131,163,164,200,219
 Seal, John 219
 Seal, William 175
 Seales, Walter 73,74
 Searson, Francis 9,28,29,39, 40,89
 Seaton, George 174
 Seaton, James 88,175,176
 Selecman, George 347
 Selecman, Henry 347
 Selecman, William 347
 Settle, Martin 66
 Settle, Mary 66
 Settle, Strother 66
 Shadborn/Shadburn
 Shadburn, Jane 11,104
 Shadburn, John 12
 Shadburn, Mary 11
 Shadburn, William 11,12
 Shamlin, Aaron 89
 Shaw, William 329
 Shepherd, Elizabeth 38
 Ship, John 130,131,185
 Ships Carpenter 4
 Shirley, Fielding 338
 Shirley, Richard O. 338
 Shute, Fanny 224
 Sias, John 80
 Simes, Mary 45
 Simes, Richard 45
 Simms, Charles 147
 Simms, James 144
 Simms, John 147
 Simon, Jane 96,97
 Simons, John 71,72
 Simmons, William D. 233,
 240,241,280
 Simms, John 208,209
 Simms, William 312,313
 Simpson, Edward W. 290
 Simpson, Jane 6
 Simpson, Richard 43
 Simpson, Thomas 6,43
 Simpson, William 43
 Sinclair, John 170,171,285
 Sinclair, M. B. 306,307
 Sinclair, Margaret 174,175
 Sinclair, Mary 171
 Sinclair, Mordecai B. 340,
 342,343
 Sinclair, Thomas B. 253
 Sinkler, Robert 86
 Sinkler, Wayman 65
 Skinker, George 126,127
 Skinker, William 126,127
 Skinner, Cornelius 357
 Skinner, Nathaniel 357,358
 Skinner, Howson 52
 Slade, Charles 292
 Slade, Henry 292,299,300,
 331,332
 Slade, Henry C. 270
 Slewing, William 35
 Smarr, Charles 266,267
 Smith, August 5
 Smith, Caleb 211
 Smith, Charles 151
 Smith, Delia 295
 Smith, George 85,129,295, 367
 Smith, George A. 367,368
 Smith, Jacob 36,37,66
 Smith, James 211
 Smith, Jane 201
 Smith, John 46,84,129,163,
 196,246,251,252,368,369
 Smith, John A. W. 280
 Smith, Joseph 201,280
 Smith, Mary 18,19
 Smith, Nathaniel 108
 Smith, Richard 323
 Smith, Sarah 211
 Smith, Susannah 56,57
 Smith, Thomas 8,9,10,12,13,
 15,16,21,56,151
 Smith, William 18,231,233,
 234,235,236,237,238,240,241
 242,243,244,246,251,252,257
 269,270,279,280,281,282,283
 284,285,287,288,289,290,291
 313,314,326,333,334
 Smoot, Elizabeth 222,223
 Smoot, Notley 222,223
 Smoot, Thomas 222
 Sowden, John 375,376
 Sparks, Mary 13
 Sparks, William 13
 Spence, John 294,314,323
 Spence, Mary F. 321,322,323
 Spicer, Ross 57
 Spiller, Philip 229,230
 Spiller, Rachel 26,27
 Spiller, William 81,82,169
 Spinks, Gerard 280
 Sprigg, Edward 156
 Sprigg, Richard 156
 St. Clare, Abraham 42
 Stabler, Edward 345,346
 Stabler, William 345,346
 Stafford Co. 2,4
 Stamps, Ledia 80,81
 Stangle, John A. 319,332,333
 Stanton, Charles 119
 Stark, William 354
 Steele, Mathew 76,77,84,85
 Stewart, Charles 201
 Stewart, Daniel 98
 Stewart, Richard 114
 Stewart, Sarah 98,99
 Stewart, Thomas 114
 Stith, Griffin 258,261,262,
 265,272,273,275,293,295,296
 297,298,299,300,306,307,308
 310,312,327,328,329,333
 Stith, John Jr. 262
 Stone, Caleb 320
 Stone, Charles 339
 Stone, Ester 39
 Stone, Fanny 313,314
 Stone, Francis 39
 Stone, John 168,247,313,314,
 339
 Stone, Jorias 247
 Stone, Lemuel 247,313
 Stone, Margaret 339
 Stone, Samuel 84,194,320
 Stone, Sarah 193,194
 Stone, Thomas 55,82,168,198
 Stonnell, Richard 270,302
 342
 Stonnell, Thomas 342
 Stonnell, Vincient 342
 Stonnell, William 377,378
 Storke, John 300
 Storke, John Jr. 300
 Storke, Mary 300
 Storke, William Jett 300
 Stribling, Francis 166
 Stribling, Talifaro 166
 Stribling, Thomas 65,166
 Strother, James 19
 Strout, Benjamin 159
 Stuart, Elizabeth A. 282,283
 Stuart, William 282,283
 Stump, John 289
 Stump, John W. 289
 Sturman, John 14,30,31,45,
 46,49,50,57
 Suddart, Moses 132
 Suddorth, Rosanna 90,91
 Suddorth, William 90,91
 Summers, Elizabeth 67,68
 Summers, John 67,68
 Suthard, Edward 31
 Suthard, John 22,23
 Tackett, John 62,63
 Tackett, Lewis 26,27

Tackett, Sarah 169
 Tackett, William 81,82,105, 169,170,179,222
 Tackitt, William 119
 Tackman, Thomas 18,19, 24
 Tansill, John 250
 Tansill, Samuel 373,374
 Tasph, John 24
 Tayloe, Charles 36
 Tayloe, Elizabeth 261
 Tayloe, Francis 261
 Tayloe, George 35
 Tayloe, Henry 35
 Tayloe, John 1
 Tayloe, Joshua 343
 Tayloe, Robert 36
 Tayloe, Mary 40
 Tebbs, Daniel 50
 Tebbs, Elizabeth 321,322
 Tebbs, Foushee 76,77,81,89, 91,92,93,94,95,96,97,107,108 109,110,111,112,113,114,115 116,117,118,119,120,121,122 123,124,125,126,128,130,131 133,134,135,137,139,140,143 144,167,168,170,171,172,175 176,177,184,186,187,189,190 191,192,193,195,196,198,199 201,202,203,204,205,206,207 214,215,216,217,218,219,220 221,222,223,224,225,227,230
 Tebbs, James 199
 Tebbs, Mary 199
 Tebbs, Samuel 227
 Tebbs, Samuel J. 313,314, 321,322,323
 Tebbs, William 76,77,82,83, 87,88,90,91,94,94,95,96,97, 98,100,101,103,106,107,112, 113,114,115,117,118,119,121 122,123,129,133,134,135,136 137,138,139,141,142,143,168 170,172,173,174,177,178,179 180,182,188,189,190,191,193 194,195,199,200,202,204,205 206,207,214,215,217,219,221 222,224,225,226,227,228,229
 Tebbs, William H. 275,320, 344,350
 Tebbs, Willoughby 225,226, 273,274,275,294,310,313,314 318,327,328,344
 Tebbs, George 154
 Tebbs, James 50,51,104,105
 Tennell/Tennill/Tennille
 Tennille, Alexander 268,269
 Tennell, Alexander 268,269
 Tennell, Benjamin 214,215
 Tennell, Francis 214
 Tennell, Margaret 214,215
 Tennill, Francis 170,171
 Tennille, George 328,366
 Tennille, James 330
 Tennille, James D. 324,328 354,355,359,360,362,363,365 366,367,368,369,370,371
 Tennille, Francis 170,171, 214
 Tennison, Mary 224
 Tennison, William 224
 Tharp, Mark 148
 Thatcher, James 15
 Thayer, John 334
 Thayer, William 334
 Thomas, Addison N. 346
 Thomas, Ben 218,219
 Thomas, Eleanor 216
 Thomas, George 216
 Thomas, John 106,267
 Thomas, John B. 267
 Thomas, Penelope 267
 Thomas, Wileman 317,345, 346,376
 Thompson, Elizabeth M. 278
 Thompson, Joseph 333
 Thorn, Sarah 98
 Thorn, William 22,23,54,67, 68,98
 Thornbury, Betsy 160
 Thornberry, Daniel 340
 Thornberry, Elizabeth 55
 Thornberry, Richard 55
 Thornton, Agatha 167
 Thornton, Charles 195,210
 Thornton, James B. T. 271, 278,309,310,312,316,331,335 336,338,340,342,344,345,347 359,360,361,366,368,370
 Thornton, Lettice 189,193
 Thornton, Stuart G. 278,309, 311,312,317,319,320,324,325 326,343,348
 Thornton, T. C. 236
 Thornton, Thomas 150,167, 182,195,210,285
 Thornton, Thomas C. 235, 236,318,319,345,346,347,351
 Thornton, Timothy 50,51
 Thorpe, Mark 228,277
 Thurman, Elizabeth 311
 Thurman, John 379
 Thurman, Joseph 161,162
 Thurman, Robert 307
 Thurman, Sanford 277,307 311,379
 Thurman, T. 2
 Thurman, Thomas 254,255, 285,286,289
 Tillet, Giles 17,23
 Tillet, Samuel 23
 Tindall, Joseph 25
 Tolson, George H. 309
 Tolson, Kesia 199
 Tolson, Isreal 119,197,198, 199
 Tomkins, Elizabeth 45,46
 Tomkins, John 45
 Tomlin, Thomas 258
 Tomlin, William 258,270, 271,274,275,297,310,323
 Tones, Emanuel 3
 Towers, James 77
 Townshend, Truman 263,268 269,278,304,325,328
 Trammell, Gerrard 15,16,44, 45,46
 Trenis, Bertrand 361
 Triplett, Daniel 95
 Triplett, Francis 199
 Triplett, James 94,95,111,146 150,151,185,191
 Triplett, William 191
 Trone, James 351
 Trone, John S. 351
 Trone, Lucinda 351
 Trone, Peter 262,263,311,351
 Trone, Sarah Ann 351
 Truman, Joseph 106
 Tulloss, Rodham 173
 Turley, James 1
 Turley, John 23,33
 Turner, James 59
 Turner, John 65
 Turner, Thomas 292,293,321
 Turo Parish 1
 Tyler, Charles G. 231,332, 333,334,336,337,338,342,352 354,360,363,364,366,370
 Tyler, Edmund 350
 Tyler, Edward 350
 Tyler, Gustavous B. 244,245, 323,348,356,357
 Tyler, Henry B. 323
 Tyler, Jane 241
 Tyler, John 86,211,214,218, 223,227
 Tyler, John M. 231,238,245
 Tyler, John W. 258,259,273

Tyler, Nathaniel 348
 Tyler, Richard B. 244,245,
 247,248,258,330
 Tyler, Robert 124
 Tyler, Sarah 363
 Tyler, William 184,283
 Tyler, William B. 244,247,
 248,273,346,347
 Underwood, George 9
 Underwood, John 3,9
 Underwood, William 43,44
 Veal, Morris 9
 Vilet, Edward 33
 Violet, Thomas 266,267
 Voals, Mauritt 28
 Wade, Zephaniah 49,50
 Wake, John 185
 Walker, John 21
 Wallace, James 283
 Wallis, Burr 19
 Wallis, Jane E. 19,20
 Wallis, Mary 53
 Wallis, Thomas 53,68
 Ward, Anna 296
 Ward, Berkeley 296
 Ward, Daniel 247
 Ward, Dixey 179
 Ward, Enoch 268
 Ward, Rebecca 179
 Ward, Zachariah 230,231,234
 236,237,239,240,242,243,244
 245,246,247,248,249,250,253
 279,280,285,287,288,291,292
 296
 Warder, Jesse 302
 Warder, Philip 317
 Warder, Walter 253,288,289
 Ware, Charity S. 363
 Ware Parish 3
 Warren, Robert 149,210,211,
 213,214,230
 Washington, George 264,342
 343
 Washington, James W. 375
 Washington, John H. 324
 Washington, Lawrence 34
 Washington, Nedham L.
 308,324
 Washington, Temple M. 375
 Washington, Washington J.
 231,235,237,238,240,252,254
 257,258,262,267,269,270,286
 288,289,290,295,296,297,300
 301,303
 Waters, Christian 105
 Waters, John 105
 Watkins, Anne 72,73
 Watkins, Henry 72,73,150
 Watkins, William 72,73,100, 150
 Waugh, Ann 351
 Waugh, John 3,4
 Waugh, Joseph 3
 Waugh, Millan 3
 Wean, Wm. Edw. 223
 Weaver, Jacob 266,314,315
 355,358
 Weaver, John C. 372,373
 Weaver, Samuel 315,316,317
 337,340
 Weedon, Austin 351
 Weedon, Austin B. 296
 Weedon, George 296,320,
 322,323,351,355,356,357,359
 366,367,370,372,373
 Weedon, John C. 338,351,
 366,367,369
 Weems, Jesse E. 270,292,299
 300,318,319,322,323,324,331
 332,340,352,353,354,356,357
 358,363,364,366
 Weems, Mason L. 270,292,
 299,300,301,331,332
 Weir, William J. 370
 Wells, Charles 186,187
 Wells, Mary 118,186,187
 Wells, Samuel 186,187
 Welsh, Thomas 4
 West, Hugh 15,22,163,164
 West, William W. 356
 Westmoreland Co.2,3
 Weston, Gerard 307
 Whaley, James 2
 Wharton, Mary 121
 Wharton, William 121
 Wheat, Richard W. 371
 Wheeler, Ann E. 272,284,301
 Wheeler, William 262,272
 White, Ann 192
 White, James 152,153
 White, John 64
 White, William 192
 Whitehead, Anthony 213
 Whitesides, William 20,100
 Whitford, Thomas 16,17
 Whiting, Ann 205,206
 Whiting, Elizabeth 288
 Whiting, Henry 206
 Whiting, Mathew 205,206
 Whitledge, Edith 127
 Whitledge, Elizabeth 99,101
 Whitledge, John 37,38,99,
 127,128,143
 Whitledge, William 107,143
 Whitson, Samuel 87
 Wickliff, Elias 99,100
 Wickliff, Elijah 177,181
 Wickliff, Elizabeth 177
 Wickliff, Isaac 224
 Wickliff, Nathaniel 224
 Wickliff, Robert 99,100,127
 177,184
 Wigginton, Benjamin 211
 Wigginton, Russell 256,273
 Wilburn, Edward 170,171
 Wilder, Reuben 152
 Wilkerson, Sarah 110
 Wilkerson, William 110,238,
 285,286,290
 Wilkinson, Benjamin 196
 Wilkinson, Elizabeth 195,196
 Willet, Sarah 365
 Wilson, Henry 211
 Wilson, James 110
 Wilson, Jean 87
 Wilson, John 87
 Wilson, Will 116
 Wilson, William 96,97,136
 Williams, Ann 61
 Williams, David 56
 Williams, Evan 131,150,151,
 157,197,198
 Williams, George 279,298,
 310
 Williams, Hannah 46
 Williams, James E. 320,321
 Williams, John 298,310,320
 321,329,330,331,333,334,353
 354,371
 Williams, John W. 257,258,
 260,262,265,270,271,274,298
 306,307,309,310,318,319,321
 323,324,327,328,330,342,344
 345,346,347,351,353,354,356
 357,358
 Williams, Jonas 61
 Williams, Robert 320,321,
 353,354,355,358,359,360,362
 364,370,371
 Williams, Samuel 298
 Williams, Thomas 67,125
 Williams, William 46
 Wilson, Archibald 233,234
 Wilson, William 183
 Windsor, Alfred s.P. 324
 Windsor, Bertram 324
 Windsor, Christopher 324

Windsor, Sampson 324
Windsor, William 324
Wise, David 185
Withers, Thomas T. 280
Wood, Elizah 142,202
Wood, John 36
Woodhouse, James 135
Woodward, Gerard 130
Woodyard, Presley 275
Wright, Anne 51
Wright, Charles 37

Wright, Francis 51
Wright, John 53,56,59,60,62,
63,64,65,66,67,68,69,70,71,
73,73,74,75,81,110,162,163
164,165,166,167,168
Wright, John Lee 144,145,
153,157,158,222
Wright, Joseph 190
Wright, Leanna 110
Wright, Mary Ann 190
Wright, Richard 190

Wright, Richard Jr. 110
Wright, Sarah 271
Wright, William 190
Wroe, William 60,61
Wyatt, William 64,170,190
Young, Edward 36
Young, James 79
Young, John 36,37
Young, Mary 36,37
Young, Thomas 51
Young, William 121