

Grand Jury Presentments March 2, 1843
Virginia - Prince William County to wit.

We the Grand Jurors of & for the body of the County aforesaid being empanelled, sworn & charged this 6th day of March 1843 upon our oaths do present Joseph Farrow and Thomas Carter for breach of the peace by engaging in an affray on the 11 Feb last past at Thomas Davis's Tavern in the county aforesaid on the oath of Richard Weedon, Seymour Lynn, John W. Chapman & William Lynn sworn and sent by the court to give evidence upon the grand jury.

We also present John W. Davis & Strother Lovelace for breach of the peace by engaging in an affray on the 11 Feb last past at Thomas Davis's Tavern in the county aforesaid on the oath of Richard Weedon, & John W. Chapman sworn and sent by the court to give evidence upon the grand jury.

We also present John Tancil & Manassa Russel for breach of the peace by engaging in an affray on the 11 Feb last past at Thomas Davis's Tavern in the county aforesaid on the oath of John W. Chapman sworn and sent by the court to give evidence upon the grand jury.

We also present John J. Beavers for breach of the peace by engaging in an affray on the 11 Feb last past at Thomas Davis's Tavern in the county aforesaid on the oath of John W. Chapman sworn and sent by the court to give evidence upon the grand jury.

We also present Thomas N. Carter for breach of the peace for an assault on Thomas M. Farrow on the 11 Feb last past at Thomas Davis's Tavern in the county aforesaid on the oath of Richard Weedon, Joseph S. Farrow, John Tancil, William Lynn, & John W. Chapman sworn and sent by the court to give evidence upon the grand jury.

We also present William Dickinson for keeping a house of entertainment in the town of Brentsville without license within 12 months last past on the evidence of Seymour Lynn sworn & sent by the court to give evidence before the grand jury.

We also present John Williams & Phillip D. Lipscomb for breach of the peace by engaging in an affray at the Tavern of William Payne in the Town of Brentsville on the day of Feb. 7 last past on the evidence of Alfred Tyler, Joseph Farrow, John Gray & William F. Purcell sworn & sent by the court to the grand jury to give evidence.

Henry A. Barron - foreman